A TIME TO GIVE

Your gift does many jobs...

make it big enough for all!

No individual, no family, no community is immune to trouble. A child is stricken by a crippling illness, a cancer cell plays havoc with a once healthy body. A storm or a flood disrupts an entire city. Old people grow lonely, boys and girls become restless.

The new industry, new highway or housing development that means progress for a community can also mean trouble if dislocations or increased population are not accompanied by adequate health and welfare services . . . and dynamic Greater Columbus is certainly growing.

Making certain that those adequate health and welfare services are available in time of need is everybody's business. The tax dollar and the service fee can only reach so far. It is the voluntary United Appeal agencies, supported and operated by and for the community, that must meet the need.

When you are asked to contribute to your United Appeal campaign, remember that you are giving to 60 causes . . . both at home and abroad. The need is great . . . the responsibility is yours.

Hamilton School Students To Collect Clothing For Needy Children

Beginning Monday, Oct. 8, Hamilton Local School children will bring bundles of clothing to school during World Clothing Week. According to Superintendent of Schools D. L. Strausbaugh, the drive will continue through Friday, Oct. 12, and is part of a nation-wide campaign to secure used clothing, shoes and bedding for orphaned and needy children and adults in the Unite States and overseas. World Clothing Week is conducted by schools in cooperation with the Christian Children's Fund, Inc., a charitable organization which assists orphans and other needy children in the United States and 30 countries of the world.

Barrett's Orientation Keeps Youth Hopping

Barrett Junior High School last Thursday, Sept. 20, was orientation day for seventh-grade assemblies, according to an announcement issued at the first of this week.

During the activity period all the seventh-grade girls went as home room groups to the lunch room, where they met with Mrs. Ruth Caster, vice-principal at Barrett, while the seventh-grade boys went in home room groups to the auditorium to meet John C. Drenning, student counselor.

Instructed

In both assemblies the new pupils were informed and instructed concerning times and places, duties and responsibilities. From that day forward they know where to be, when to be there, what to do, and what not to do. The talks also dealt with activities in the gym, the library, and other places of opportunity.

Today, Thursday, Sept. 27, the assembly program is for all the boys in the Barrett building. It is organized around a film about automobile designing and a contest from which the winner is to have an engineering scholarship.

Drenning is in charge of this assembly.

Sewing Project

On Thursday, Oct. 4, the assembly program is prepared around a sewing project with rather special patterns. Miss Helen Fetzer, home economics teacher in Barrett's Room 102, will be in charge of this program.

stands the space limitation. But she can be made happy if these women find every home ready to contribute, starting Monday. Ladies, please have your donations ready! You will honor the "working" ladies, help the unfortunate who otherwise would have no help, and bring blessings upon yourself. Best wishes, Mrs. Lust, and all your co-workers!

Time Passes

Saw some advertising the other day, and it was about the nearness of Christmas. Remember not so long ago, as we measure time, that Christmas was terribly slow in coming? Now it seems that it comes, goes behind a wall and adds, quickly, to its calendar, and comes flying out to cheer us again. I'm willing that it shall go slow . . . O, much slower, if you please. But I'm not original, so I give credit to the billions who have gone before me and who had the same wishes unfulfilled. So, O well!

South High PTA Attends Annual Study

The following PTA Board members of South High School attended the annual school of instruction of the Columbus Council of Parent-Teacher Associations Sept. 20 at the Ohio Union, Ohio State University:

Mrs. Walter Denny, Mrs. Tom Warren, Mrs. Edward Bray, Mrs. Woodrow D. Lowe, Mrs. William Hoptry, Mrs. Harry Spurgeon, Mrs. August C. Krause, Mrs. Robert Karrer, Mrs. Frank Abbit, Mrs. Dale Edwards, Mrs. Virgie Dean, Mrs. Willard E. Lowe and Mrs. Roy D. Williams.

The program began at 10 a.m. and at 10:45 a.m was adjourned to the five conference rooms, where conferences were held on membership, parliamentary procedure, treasurers and secretaries publicity and magazines and parent education.

After the conferences luncheon was served and a reception held for Dr. Harold H. Eibling, new superintendent of Columbus schools.

Splash-Proof Panel

If you have plaster walls around the bathtub, splashing water will eventually penetrate the paint and cause the plaster to crumble. To keep this area neat looking, bevel a piece of Masonite 3/16" Tempered Presdwood and cut it to fit the area. After attaching it with contact cement, color the strip to match the wall, using a primer and two coats of exterior grade paint or enamel.

Aluminum Foil Over Presdwood Creates A-1 Heat Reflector

Aluminum foil's reflective qualities make it useful as a radiator backer.

For best results, cover a piece of Masonite Presdwood the size of the radiator with the foil. A good way to attach the foil is to fold the edges over the back and use a stapling gun. The foil-covered panel will reflect heat into the room and keep the wall clean.

Since aluminum foil is also an excellent reflector of light it is useful in home photography. Cover a Presdwood panel in a similar manner and use it to reflect soft light on the photo subject.

Here's Hint For Painting Dresser Drawer Pulls

It's a cinch to paint dresser pulls and similar small objects if they are first mounted on a Masonite "Peg-Board panel. Slip the bolts through the perforations and secure them with nuts on the back. In this way, no handling of the object is necessary during the painting or drying period.

CARPORT CONVERTED INTO MODERN BEDROOM

How to add a bedroom to a house on a small lot? This homeowner saw possibilities in his existing carport, which he enclosed with concrete masonry walls atop concrete spread footings. Windows in the new bedroom addition are the same type as in the existing house. Two coats of portland cement paint will blend old and new portions of house together.

Moisture Can Cause Damage If You Don't Watch Out

Can your house "breathe" properly? Perhaps that's a strange way to put it, but—after a fashion—a building needs to be able to "inhale" and "exhale" if it is to remain in a healthy state. It adds up mainly to the need for proper ventilation. Many tightly constructed modern houses without adequate ventilation become traps for excessive moisture vapor. When this happens, the captive moisture forces its way through the pores of the walls causing costly damage as it does so.

Where does the moist vapor come from? From such sources as oil and gas furnaces that are not properly vented to the outside. From the kitchen when you are cooking and from the bathroom when you're bathing and do not have a ventilating fan. Another source is the laundry when you're drying clothes indoors without adequate ventilation. As a matter of fact, moisture is also given off by a human being as he breathes and perspires — at the rate of one-eighth pint per hour. Such moisture vapor is seldom visible to the eye, of course, unless you see steam rising from a tea kettle or collecting on the bathroom mirror when you're taking a shower. Just the same it's there. You've got to eliminate it efficiently or take the costly consequences.

How can you protect your home against it? Ventilating fans can be of great assistance to you. So can louvers and so-called "breather" devices in a house that is built of siding. The louvers are screened openings in such areas as the gables. These will enable you to have adequate air circulation in your attic. The breather devices are small tubes, wedges or gaps which are placed at the bottom of siding material.

In addition to the moisture vapor that threatens the walls of your house from the inside, you also have to guard against the frequent attacks of moisture from outdoors. You need to check gutters and downspouts to make sure that they are free of leaves and other debris. You also need to make sure that run-off water flows away from the foundation. It's important to check the metal flashing over the roof seams to see that it is adequate and in good repair. If your house is built with crawl space instead of a basement beneath it, you're likely to have a serious moisture-invasion problem if the soil is not covered with asphalt paper. Trouble is also likely to result if wood siding and studs are not at least six inches from the ground and shrubbery.

It's not always easy to trace destructive moisture to its source or its point of invasion. You can't very well go around ripping off siding or peering under shingles to find the cause of the trouble that's betrayed by rotting lumber or peeling paint. That's why it's wise to take all possible measures to prevent the initial entrance of moisture from indoors or out—from the roof or from the ground.

HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Q—What causes a carbide-tipped drill bit to stick when I drill holes in masonry?

A—Usually it's a small chunk of aggregate, or gravel, mixed into the masonry. A star drill usually will powder the aggregate and you can continue drilling with the carbide bit.

Q—Approximately how much should it cost a year to air condition an average-size house?

A—This depends on a large number of variable factors, including size and design of the house, but tests made in the Air Conditioned Village, Austin, Tex. give some good indications. Here a house, 1,300 square feet in size, was cooled during a hot Texas summer at an average cost of 70 cents per day. Sixty-eight cents of this went for electricity, while water cost less than two cents a day. The equipment is of a water conserving type.

Q—We just bought a new home with a beautiful fireplace. But we can't build a fire in it because smoke soon fills the entire house. The chimney isn't clogged and extends well above the roof. What's wrong?

A—This is a common complaint from owners of small, tightly built homes. Try opening a window a few inches next time to start a draft.

The Netherlands, Canada, West Germany and Denmark were heavy buyers of American agricultural products last year.

Save Junior's Eyesight With Fixture Light

"The lighting conditions you provide your child for his homework can influence his study and reading habits throughout a lifetime.

This is reported by the American Home Lighting Institute Chicago, based on the latest findings of lighting engineers.

"More than 25 per cent of school-age children have defective eyesight, with eye trouble increasing by educational level," the institute said.

"While poor lighting alone has not been known to cause organic eye damage, it can cause eyestrain, fatigue headaches, and nervousness, thus reducing the child's study efficiency."

"More important, if the child already has eye troubles, poor lighting will make homework even more difficult," according to the Institute.

One of the most common faults for parents is having their child study with only a single desk lamp, such as the familiary goose-neck type, to light their work.

Both specific light over the study desk and general fixture light throughout the room are needed to provide a balance of light which is restful to the eyes.

What-Not Diamond

Make a novel what-not by cutting a diamond-shape from a Masonite "Peg-Board" panel, outlining the back with strips of screen molding and attaching it to a wall. Then use matching metal fixtures for a shelf on which to place a planter, clock or knick-knacks. The shelf may be wood, Panelply, plywood or glass. Prime and paint the what-not in contrasting colors.

Berman's has been supplying residents of central Ohio with anything and everything for 20 some years and only recently had to move to make way for the new throughway. It is now located in the new building at 2270 Fairwood-av.

Everything that you might think of from wheels to plumbing parts may be found here. A huge new building has been provided to house their various lines and four acres are used to store some of the many items that stay outside.

A slogan that the company uses and which seems to fit the picture is "The House of a million parts." Try and think of something that you need and then go to Berman's, where it will be found for you if it is at all possible. Lumber, hardware, paint, nuts, and bolts, knicknacks, bicycles, tricycles, wagons, and a million other items are there for your inspection.

Carbon black is the principal black pigment used in paint. More of it is used than all other black pigments combined.

HERE'S A WORKSHOP—FOR "HIM" AND "HER"—which holds the elements of happy hobbies for the married couple. One area is set aside for the man of the house for his various fix-up and remodeling projects, while another is designed especially for his wife so she can carry on her own pet hobbies. The handsome panel groove wall gives the dual-purpose room a warmth not present in concrete.

How To Develop A Home Workshop

A home needs a workshop as much as a woman needs a vanity case. The best of homes, like the prettiest faces, need occasional repairs and fixing up.

First decide where to set up the shop. Remember, this is a work shop, so it should be in some part of the house or garage—where a piece of unfinished business can be left without causing pain to the tidiest of housekeepers. At the same time, it should not be in a dark corner—you will need light to work by—or too close to mechanical equipment which must be reached often. In other words, not beside a furnace.

You will also need a temporary work bench. A plain table, or trestle will do at first, because one of the first projects you undertake will probably be the construction of a workbench. You can, of course, buy a bench ready made.

Now you are ready to select your tools.

It is always a mistake to buy low-priced inferior tools; cheap tools cannot do the job.

Cutting tools which lose their edge, for instance, are a discouragement and a handicap. Think of the tool as an investment, one which will last for years and pay dividends in the things you make, or the home repairs you undertake. Good craftsmen need good tools; inexperienced craftsmen must have them.

You have two choices when it comes to stocking your tools:

You can buy a tool chest, ranging from a 17-tool box of good tools, to a wooden cabinet with up to 33 tools. Prices for such tool sets range from about $30 to about $135.

Or you can get a pegboard which can be hung on the wall above your bench with spaces for about 33 tools. Bit by bit, you can buy the tools to make a matched set.

Here is a list of the basic tools which should be first in the workshop inventory. Start with the first ten of these, and add to the set as you need them.

A 13-oz. or 16 oz. hammer (claw)
A cut-off (or cross cut) hand saw, 22 to 24 inches long with 10 points to the inch
A jack plane, 11½ to 14 ins.
A six-foot zig zag rule.
A 12 inch combination square.
A screw driver with 4 in. blade
A hand drill with set of drills.
Two chisels, ¼-in and ¾-in widths.
A bit brace with a 10-in sweep.
Auger bits 1-4, 5-16, 3-8, 7-16, 1-2, 3-4 and 1-inch diameters.
A marking gauge
Two nail sets, 2-32 and 4-32-inch points.
A combination oil stone, 8x2x1 inch.
Oiler.
A rip saw 24 to 26 in. long with five points to the inch
A screw driver, with 6 in. thin blade.
A pair of six-inch pliers.
A bit gauge.
A six-inch block plane.
Three screw driver bits: 1-4, 5-16 and 3-8 inch tips.
Woodworking vise
A hack saw, 12-in. blade, 14 points to the inch.
A coping saw.
A knife—preferably in a safety handle with extra blades
A half-round cabinet file, 10 inches long
A brad awl, 1½ inch blade.
A countersink bit.
A spokeshave

Leaks In Roof Slow To Show

Most people don't examine a raincoat for leaks every time they put it on. If the coat leaks, they generally find out about it during a downpour when rain soaks through to their skin.

But your home doesn't have the instant warning system your skin provides. Rain or melting snow and ice can seep through a worn out roof and cause costly damage long before you are aware of it.

Late summer or early fall is a good time to check the roof for leaks so that any faults can be corrected before cold weather sets in. After a rainstorm, go into the attic and look for tell tale dark areas water makes when it soaks into wood. Or feel along the decking and rafters for dampness.

If you find even one spot, and if the roof is old, chances are you'll need complete new roofing. Roofs wear out uniformly, and one leak usually means you will have more.

A new roof of asphalt shingles is economical since the colorful shingles usually can be laid right on top of the old roof, saving the cost of removing it, and retaining the insulating value of the old covering.

The wisest time to re-roof is before leaks start. You can keep a check on the condition of your roof by having it inspected periodically by a reliable roofing contractor.

Closet's Back Wall Storage Place; Use 'Peg-Board'

The back wall of a cabinet or closet isn't being used to fullest efficiency if it isn't used for storage. If either is lined with Masonite "Peg-Board" paneling, the use of this waste area becomes easy.

On any of the scores of evenly-spaced holes, the homemaker can slip in a suitable metal fixture enabling her to store little-used items. At the back, they are out of the way, yet available when needed.

The main thing to remember when making such an installation is to offset the "Peg-Board" panel sufficiently for insertion of the fixtures. This may be done by means of thin furring strips such as wood lath. Prime and paint the panels to suit the decor of your room.

Cotton Wallpaper Will Stay Bright And Clean

Cotton makes wonderful wallpaper!

According to the National Cotton Council, coated cotton makes a tough and durable wall covering that can be kept clean and fresh with ease.

High quality muslin — light, strong and resilient — is scientifically coated with special paints. These are baked on so they will not fade. The result is a surface of fine texture and unusual durability. It is said that the fabric wall covering will last 10 to 15 years.

PICTURE YOURSELF in a job like mine . . . at THRIFT

I meet and serve people. I am a cashier . . . in charge of the cash in the office . . . taking payments . . . paying out loans. I type loan payments and cash reports. I handle telephone calls of all kinds. And I do a variety of other things. It's all interesting and pleasant.

I work in a light, air-conditioned Hilltop office . . . good transportation . . . good restaurants nearby . . . close to stores for noon-hour shopping. I have a good boss . . . good hours . . . pleasant associates . . . good salary and bonus . . . periodic increases . . . paid vacation . . . 6 legal holidays.

My boss needs another girl for a job like mine. If you can type you'll be taught the other things. Come in and see him about it. Ask for Mr. Hessler.

Heyl-av School PTA Starts Ambitious Program

Events are shaping up at Heyl Avenue School, according to a report on "coming events" by Mrs. Bill Jacks, publicity chairman. A meeting of the Heyl PTA executive board Sept. 13 set in motion several phases of the year's work. First is the entertainment of room mothers at the annual get-acquainted tea tomorrow, Friday, at 1:30 p.m.

Then comes PIC-C, which being interpreted by the publicity chairman, means pie, ice cream, cake and coffee. Mrs. Forest Lanfear, chairman of the ways and means committee, said this is to come on Oct. 5, from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m. Home-baked goods will be served, along with orange drink for the children. Records, it was stated, will be played throughout the evening.

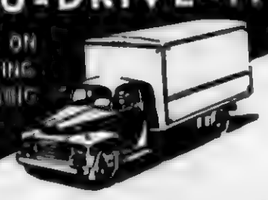
A near capacity crowd attended the first meeting of the Smith Road PTA. The theme was "Your Child's Teacher Wants to Meet You," and many parents accepted the hint and visited with their children's teacher. Projects and meetings for the coming year were discussed at the general business meeting.

The officers for the coming year are Mrs. Joe Ziegler, president; Mrs. Paul F. Wiess, first vice-president; Claude McGuire, second vice-president; Mrs. John Nippert, secretary; Mrs. Jack Schoonover, treasurer. The advisory council is composed of Mrs. Esther Lee, Mrs. Frank Battieger, and Jack Schoonover.

The committee chairmen are Mrs. Richard Maisenbacker, social; Mrs. Joel P. Snyder, ways and means; Mrs. Frank Battieger, hospitality; Mrs. A. H. Imhoff, magazine; Mrs. Paul Shoaf, program; Mrs. Harvey Riffle, good will; Mrs. Joe DeHays, membership; John Nippert, parliamentarian; Charles Gillilan, project; Mrs. Paul F. Wiess, publicity.

The delegates to the Franklin County Suburban Council are Mrs. Ross Orr, Mrs. Charles Gillilan, Mrs. Joe DeHays. The alternate delegates are Mrs. A. D. DeWeese, Mrs. Frank Battieger, and Mrs. Paul F. Wiess.



Ex-AF Chaplain Sunday Speaker

Rev. Lloyd B. Mignerey, former chaplain in the US Air Force, will give a dramatic reading Sunday evening before the combined youth groups at Ohio-av Evangelical United Brethren Church at 1013 South Ohio-av. The reading is entitled "The Lost Word" and has been given before many groups by Rev. Mignerey. The three youth fellowship groups will meet in the sanctuary at 7:30 p.m. for the program. Rev. Mignerey will tell of some of his experiences as a missionary to Africa and while with the Air Force in this country and in Japan.

Annual promotion day for the Sunday school will be observed in the 10:30 a.m. worship service. Rev. Glendon Herbert, pastor, will preach at both the 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. worship services on the topic, "Is Your Soul Growing?" The lesson study period of the Sunday school is at 9:30 a.m.

Bulldogs Buckle To Big Attack By Bobcats

By Bob Goldstein

A tremendous fourth quarter comeback enabled the Grandview Bobcats to edge the South Bulldogs 12 to 6 last Friday at Mahaffey Stadium.

Sparked by the hard running of Dole Baker, Noel Norrison, and Walley McIntyre, the Bobcats rallied to push across two touchdowns in the last eight minutes of play.

The first three quarters were South all the way and Grandview could only squeeze out three first downs the whole time. The Bulldogs drew first blood in the dying seconds of the first half after a 45-yard pass play from quarterback Don Allen to end Jim Hilty carried the ball to the Grandview 7. On fourth down with inches to go Allen sneaked the ball across for the score and the Bulldogs led at half time 6-0.

With 6:45 left in the game McIntyre passed 13 yards to end Bob Foster to tie the score. South fought back hard, only to have one of Allen's passes intercepted by Baker on the Grandview 15 and have it returned back to the South 35.

In seven plays aided by a beautiful reverse run of 23 yards by Baker, Grandview scored on an end sweep by McIntyre.

Tomorrow night the Bulldogs play host to Linden. It will be the first city league game of the year for both teams.

ALPHEUS R. GEIST

Alpheus R. Geist, 85, clerk and business manager of Marion Township schools from 1930 until his retirement in June, 1947, died Sunday, Sept. 23, at his home in St. Petersburg, Fla.

He was a member of Christ Lutheran Church. Surviving are a son, Capital University Professor Robert M. Geist, and a sister, Mrs. Ruth Wones, of Columbus.

Funeral arrangements were completed by the Schoedinger Funeral Home, 229 E. State-st.

MRS. MARY FOX

Requiem High Mass for Mrs. Mary Fox, 76, of 900 S. Ohio-av, who died Friday at her home, were sung at 9a.m. Tuesday in St. John the Evangelist Church. She was buried in St. Joseph Cemetery by the Egan-Ryan Funeral Home.

Hamilton High 'Peppers' Practice To Boost Twp. Team's High Morale

The Pep Department at Hamilton Township High School is shown, at right, going through strenuous paces in preparation for the year's athletic programs. The "peppers" felt pretty good at the time of the taking of the picture, for their gridironmen had won a tight game against Dublin a few days before, putting Hamilton on top in the County League. Hamilton's speedy Keith Johnson had run 32 yards to score a touchdown. The touchdown took place following the opening kickoff in the first period. Dublin's Tom Elliott scored in the first quarter, and Hamilton's Wayne Sharron carried the ball over for the winning touchdown for Hamilton. The touchdown was quick-hitter for three yards. The score was Hamilton 12, Dublin 6. There's said to be "spirit of victory" at Hamilton, which, a whole school full of students hope, will lead to remaining where they now are placed—at the top of the list.

Mike Lombardi, who graduated at Hamilton last spring, has been made a member of the OSU Marching Band. At Hamilton, Mike was considered the best drummer the school had in a number of years. While at Hamilton, Mike placed in a number of state contests.

Football Schedule: Oct. 5, New Albany at New Albany; Oct. 12, Mifflin at Hamilton; Oct. 19, Groveport at Hamilton; Oct. 26, Marion-Franklin at Marion-Franklin; Nov. 2, Gahanna at Hamilton; Nov. 9, Whitehall at Whitehall.

NEEDS HELP

Sunshine is as beautiful, as it is a necessary agency in our life. But let us remember: active acceptance of the sun with its blessings is necessary if we are to reap its full values.

Schiller Center Opens Under Director Crawshaw

from..... QG's NOTES

Oh, What a Difference!

For those of us whose awareness of life began early in the century, an item in the daily press last week stirred nostalgic memories. It was an item telling of the mailing of absentee ballots to five Ohio men at Little America, way "down yonder." I remember when it was one or two weeks after election when we, in our way-out-in-the-country place in South Carolina, learned the results of county, state and national elections. I am glad I know about that, but happier that great good fortune helped me to escape from that way of living. I appreciate present blessings more because I lived then

What Whoppers They'd Be!

If all the fellows who roll big words around and put together sassy phrases and utter them as if they were intelligent could REALLY put out words and phrases as good as they think they are putting out, what a giant of intellect we would have! But it's only a gnat's bomb exploding!

Congratulations Due

Last week we published the pictures of Rev. Ray Huff, pastor, Thurman Avenue Methodist, and Rev. Clarence Mulkin, pastor, South Church of Christ, who had been elected president and secretary-treasurer, respectively of the South Side Ministerial Association. Congratulations to the association and to the newly elected officers. This includes Rev. Willie Davis of Southwood Church of Christ, elected vice-president, but unavoidably absent when Chuck Toth took the picture. All good men in a good organization

Mothersingers

When I first heard the name, it seemed a strange one. But one day I had an opportunity to take a picture of most of the officers and then I learned what the name means. You know, of course, what they are and what they do. But I did not know. Now that I know, I think they are wonderful, those who are dedicated to singing for PTA and other activities. With beautiful voices they perform a glorious and holy function!

We Like It

Received one of the nicest notes! We had a picture and a story of Southwood School PTA in the Leader, and here comes a nice note from Mrs. Paul Mason, publicity chairman for Southwood School PTA ... making us feel just grand ... we confess that we like the happy feeling!

Former Local Boy Goes To Africa

By Amelia Petrasio

When the S.S. African Dawn sailed from Pier 33, Brooklyn, N. Y. Friday, Sept 28, it carried Donald Baughman, former South High student, who is going to Nigeria, Africa, as a Church of Christ missionary.

Baughman studied at the Cincinnati Bible Seminary for four years and added one year of graduate work. Upon his graduation he was the salutatorian of his class.

Don is taking his wife, Marianne, who was also a student of South, and their two children, Ruth and Judy. Don's mother, Mrs. Paul Baughman, and his sister, Edna Anne, who is a South High senior, accompanied them to New York.

Don played tackle on South's football team. He graduated from South in 1947.

Fred Berkhemer, president of Townsend Club No. 32, has announced that the club will have a baked-ham dinner at WOW Hall, 588 S. Third-st. Thursday, Oct. 11, 6:30 to 7:30.

The club president announced that several candidates indorsed by the club will be presented. He also said that reservations for the ham dinner may be made by calling him at CL 8-6548 or sending a card to him at 939 Linwood-av.

Zoar Is Aim Of Hikers Sunday

Sunday, October 7, has been chosen by the Central Ohio Hiking Club of the YMCA for a visit to Zoar Village and its museum, and gardens in Tuscarawas County.

Zoar is a quaint village of low, rambling cottages with picket fences. To this place in 1817 and 1818 came a group of Separatists from southern Germany to enjoy religious freedom. The town was named from the Biblical city to which Lot fled after leaving Sodom. A communal corporation was formed in 1819 and chartered in 1832 as the Separatists Society of Zoar. The experiment prospered for 80 years, but the younger generation grew restive, demanding personal freedom and the individual ownership of property. In 1898 the society was disbanded and the property divided among the members.

All adults are welcome. Hikers are requested to bring a noonday lunch, and a picnic supper will be provided. The group will meet at the YMCA at 9 a.m. for the trip by bus. The hike is under the leadership of Hazel McQueen and Elizabeth Rusnak.

Whittier-st Man Is Honored; Riley

Pvt. Richard N. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest W. Smith, 1472 E. Whittier-st, recently was named "Soldier of the Month" for the 47th Surgical Hospital at Fort Riley, Kan.

A motor pool dispatcher with the hospital, he was selected for his soldierly appearance, knowledge of duties and military courtesy.

He entered the Army in November 1955, received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and was last stationed at Fort Benning, Ga.

The 21-year-old soldier was graduated from Etna High School in 1953.

A recent member of the City League on the gridiron, the Steelton Merchants are represented by a new team operating under the direction of Charles Smith, who led his charges to victory last Sunday in their first game of the season.

Coach Smith is still looking for a few other players, his present team having few replacements in the event of injuries or other playing requirements.

Steelton took the North Side Panthers by a score of 33 to 0, with one player incapacitated by injury.

Manager Smith told the Leader he hopes that other South Side merchants will offer to equip one player, and he said that with several business men sponsoring several more players the team may be able to maintain the speed and achievements of the first game

3 Communion Services

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m., 10:30 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 7. At the 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. service, the pastor's topic will be "An Ancient Prophet Preaches on Sin," and at 7:45 p.m. it will be "I Do Remember My Sins This Day."

Bull Dogs Bite Linden Hard

By Tom Woodyard

South's pepped-up Bulldogs came through again last Friday as they downed the Panthers from Linden 13-0.

It was the Bulldogs first City League win in 16 starts. Their last league victory was a 26-6 win over North in 1954.

South, now considered a threat in league competition, went the whole 48 minutes without a fumble, but they lost 100 yards on penalties.

The first score came with 3:39 left in the first period after the Bulldogs had held the Panthers on their own 35. It was a power play around right end and beautiful running by sophomore Doug Childers carried from the six into pay dirt. The kick by Hill was blocked.

In the second period Hal Ward climaxed a drive of 33 yeards as he went over from six yeards out. Tom Main, who played a great defensive game, set up the score by recovering a fumble on the Linden 33.

In the second half both teams did a good job, but neither could manage to squeeze out a score.

As Coach Bob Duncan said, "We had too many mistakes in the second half, but we improved."

The Bulldogs are host to the Tigers from East tomorrow night and they hope to continue to win city league games by downing their Broad-st rival.

Popular Recreation Spot Begins Fall Season With Full Appealing Program

The fall program at Schiller Recreation Center is now underway, according to the new director, D. Talmadge Crawshaw, with something each day for all ages of boys and girls and men and women. The afternoon activities are planned especially for children, while the evening program is geared for the older youth and adults, the director said. The various activities for the week include such things as sewing, painting, tumbling, tap dance and ballet, woodworking, dramatics, weightlifting, pingpong, basketball and many other interesting things to do, Crawshaw said.

The full staff is on hand and the center is open from 2 to 10 on Monday afternoon and evenings through Friday and from 9 to 12 on Saturdays.

Three new people have joined the Schiller staff this season. Director Crawshaw said. They are Elizabeth Lloyd, arts and crafts instructor, who has had much experience in this field and is an artist in her own right; Louann Gordon, tumbling and tap dance, formerly with the YWCA; James Peth, body building and boys' athletics, from the recreation department of Dayton.

The director said the entire community is invited to visit the center, meet the staff, and participate in the program activities.

Tap Dance and Thmbling

Mondays and Wednesdays, 4 to 5 p.m., will be the days for tumbling instruction and class work. Fridays, from 4 to 5 p.m., the tumbling club will meet. All girls and boys age 6 to 15 are welcome to join the classes.

Tap dancing classes will start this Thursday, Oct. 4. Boys and girls age 5 to 7 inclusive will receive instruction from 3:30 to 4 p.m., while a class for children age 8 years and over will be held between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Girls age 12 and over who are interested in sewing, grooming and clothing may join the Schiller Sewing Club. The purpose of the club will be to supplant the sewing training girls have received at home and in school with discussions and projects on grooming and teen-age fashions. The first meeting was held Tuesday Oct. 2, at 2:30 p.m. in the club room.

The cooking club will meet Monday evenings at 7 in the kitchen. The time will be devoted to party foods, snacks and cookie decorating. The following girls have already signed up: Ronnie Chancey, Phylis Schoenholtz, Polly Schoenholtz, Patty Golden, Patty Poeschel and Sally Poeschel. Boys are welcome if they are seriously interested in cooking.

Arts and crafts will be offered for all ages this year. The youngsters will find many interesting things to draw and paint and there are classes planned especially for adults. Grown-ups are encouraged to attend the classes designed for them in the following: block printing or silk screening (for Christmas cards), painting (oil and water), textile painting and basketry or other media in which adults may be interested. Further information as to this part of the program may be had by calling the Schiller Center and talking with Elizabeth Lloyd.

Slim-nastics

An interesting evening out for the ladies is planned at Schiller for Tuesday, Oct. 9, 8 o'clock. The evening will consist of exercises which will aid in losing those extra pounds or adding a few pounds, whichever the lady may prefer.

It is also planned to have an afternoon slim-nastics class for ladies. A nursery for the preschool children is planned for mothers who want to participate.

Cooks In The 'Broth' Assure Spaghetti For Saturday, Oct. 13, At M-F High School

Pictured above are the ladies who will prepare the spaghetti dinner to be served by Smith Road School PTA at Marion-Franklin High School Saturday evening, Oct. 13. Left to right, the ladies are Mrs. Michael Lower, Mrs. Nelson Miller, Mrs. Ralph White, Mrs. Madaline Louden, and Mrs. Joseph Snyder. In addition to the spaghetti dinner, to be served from 5 to 8 p.m., there will be a free square dance and a "home-grown" talent show. 6

Interview Discloses Wealth Of Sewing Data

(Special)

Would you like to make your fall wardrobe yourself?

According to Librarian Margaret Bausch, the Parsons Branch Library has books on all phases of sewing and dressmaking from choosing the fabric to the final pressing of the garment.

One of the most popular of the sewing manuals is the "Singer Sewing Guide" by Mary Brooks Picken. Included in this comprehensive handbook are such aspects of dressmaking as pattern layout, basting and marking, fitting, tucks and pleats, seams and buttonholes, and tailoring.

Other Guides

Other practical guides for home sewers include "Simplified Home Sewing" by Helen Hall; Mary Picken's "Sewing Magic"; Mabel Erwin's "Practical Dress Design"; "Your Pattern Cutting," by E. Sheila MacEwan.

"Make It For Baby" by Doris Warren will be a very useful book for any expectant mother, grandmother or aunt. Even if you are sewing for the first time, you can easily follow these simple instructions.

"Thrift With a Needle" by Mildred Ryan will teach you to mend so well that it will no longer be a chore but a real soul satisfying task. Your wardrobe will be extended by rejuvenating your old and lazy garments.

Books are also available at the library on home millinery, making of fashion accessories, and sewing for other members of the family.

VETS START MEETS

World War Vets will start regular meetings, first and third Sundays of each month at the new Memorial building.

Evening's Program Set For Southway Unit 144

The Southway Unit No. 144 of the American Legion Auxiliary will hold its junior installation of chairmen at the post home 874 S. High-st, Friday, Oct. 5, at 8 p.m., following a business meeting with Mrs. John Joyce, unit president, presiding.

The newly elected officers to be installed are Dorothy Ann Shirtzinger, junior chairman, Julann Lyons vice-chairman and chaplain, Linda Lou Schmitt, secretary and treasurer; Carol Jean Backus, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. Arthur Palmer, past unit and department president, will be installing officer and the refreshment chairman is Mrs. Walton Barnhart.

Honored guests invited are the American Legion Auxiliary's 12th district president; Mrs. Arthur Balz, 12th district junior activity chairman; Mrs. William Boothe, junior chairman of Camp Chase Unit 98; Patricia Martindale, 12th district junior convention chairman, Carol Jean Fissus, Camp Chase unit 98; Southway post commander, George Kochensparger and officers and the advisor, Joseph Baumbusch, and officers of the Sons of the Legion.

A white elephant sale will conclude the evening with Mrs. John T. McCoy, chairman, auctioneers, Mrs. Charles Kaiser, Mrs. Margaret Bonnell and Mrs. Lloyd Ledesma.

Miss Geraldine Turner Becomes Bride Aug. 26

Miss Geraldine Turner daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner, 425 Hanford-st, became the bride of Henry Smith of 88 W. Fifth-st, in a ceremony in St. Paul's E&R Church, at 3:30 p.m. on Aug. 26. Rev. Paul C. Kaefer, pastor, officiating.

Decorations were of white chrysanthemums, gladi, green ferns, and palms with candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a creation of chapel length chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted lace bodice featuring a round neckline with a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid and shattered carnations on a white Bible with satin streamers.

Mrs. Nancy Loeffler, matron of honor, wore white lace over green silk fitted bodice with full skirt of ballerina length and a picture frame hat and accessories of green to match.

Miss Barbara Highfield, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a similar dress only in pink with pink accessories. They carried pink and white gladiola bouquets.

Kroger Grigian was best man and ushers were Ronnie Rees and Roger Fedderson.

The bride's mother wore a dress of pink silk with gray lace over it and pink accessories. She wore a corsage of pink and white carnations while the bride's grandmother wore a blue dress with white accessories and pink and white carnation corsage.

Hostesses were Mrs. Patti Bassi, Miss Carol Turner, Miss Phyliss Highfield, all cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Smith graduated from South High School and is employed by Public Finance Co. The bridegroom graduated from Central High School and is employed by Westinghouse. He served four years with the Air Force. Following a short Southern trip Mr. and Mrs. Smith are living at 1746 West Mound-st.

Mrs. Dan Cherry Given National Honor At Convention; More Awarded Here

Mrs. Cherry Being Honored at National Meet

Mrs. Dan Cherry, left, above, 2539 N. Fourth-st, received her college of Regents degree Aug. 19 at the international convention of Moose in Chicago; then she received her cap and gown at the regular meeting of Columbus Chapter, 206 Women of the Moose, 36 W. Sycamore-st, Thursday, Sept 13.

To obtain the College of Regents degree, one must serve as senior regent one year, meeting specified requirements of the organization during that term. Mrs. Cherry received her award of achievement because there was not only an increase in membership, but also an increase in financial strength, plus the continued participation of old members. The last and most important requirement is this: her officers and chairmen, 24 in all, must initiate new members.

Columbus Chapter 206 is the second largest chapter in the nation with more than 1780 members.

Back From East

Mrs. Joseph Martin, 230 E. Innis-st, returned last Sunday after visiting son, Ernest E. and daughter-in-law in Rhode Island. The junior Mrs. Martin is the former Miss Sharon Yorde. Ernest is in the United States Navy, stationed at Providence.

Business Woman Helps Promotion Program For Mrs. Magidoff's Lecture

Mrs. Martha Messerschmidt of the Messerschmidt Furniture Company is a member of the publicity committee for the lecture by Nila Magidoff, Russian-born lecturer and author. She will speak at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts under the auspices of the Columbus Quota Club.

Mrs. Messerschmidt, member of the refreshments committee, will pour at the coffee hour following the lecture.

Mrs. Magidoff, wife of an AP and NBC news correspondent, is a naturalized United States citizen. Her early life in Russia was a series of tragic experiences, it was related, but she came through them to become a teacher, a newspaper woman, a lecturer, and an author. Her subject will be "My Discovery of America." The story of her life, "Nila," as told to Willie Snow Ethridge is a current best seller, and the Quota Club has recently been informed that a dramatization of her book will soon be produced on Broadway.

Other South Side residents active in planning arrangements for Mrs. Magidoff's lecture, are Miss Hilda Dierker, 818 Gilbert-st, chairman of the refreshments committee; Mrs. W. W. Hoover, 608 Seymour-av; Mrs. N. J. Engle, 266 South High st, members of the hostesses' committee.

Tickets, it was said, will be on sale at the door of the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts the night of the lecture. Proceeds to go to aid of the hard-of-hearing fund, it was said.

Lions Auxiliary Date Oct. 8

FREE GIFTS and Refreshments —★—★—

One of the most important factors contributing to the welfare of this area is the emphasis its citizens place on things spiritual. What finer tribute could be paid a growing and progressive community? With many churches to serve the various faiths in our community, spiritual needs are amply and efficiently cared for. Look about you for definite and convincing proof of the religious aspect of our community life.

All churches in our city, large or small, have ministers of the finest caliber to lead the various congregations. These men are devoted to their cause and to their faith . . . they are truly interested in the serving of their Lord. It is evident their primary purpose is to serve mankind in the manner in which He would have them serve. The excellent leadership of the ministers serving this city reflects the high spiritual plane so greatly in evidence throughout our community.

THINGS SPIRITUAL

The fine work which every church is doing for the youth of the community merits the continued support of everyone. In no other city of comparable size is there more emphasis placed on youth . . . no other town can point with more pride to the high Christian character of its young people.

The officers of our churches are of the highest standard and the congregations are loyal and willing to share their part of the work and responsibility. Attendance in our churches further manifests the genuine convictions and beliefs of the church people of this city. Without exception, our churches are sound financially as well as spiritually.

It is no wonder our citizens raise their heads high when asked about the spiritual growth of this city . . . we have a right to be proud. Without a sound religious background . . . without good substantial churches . . . without a sincere Christian attitude — no community can long survive. From this viewpoint we will survive forever. We are grateful for these blessings.

To our churches, their ministers and leaders, to the entire spiritual phase of our city, we humbly pay tribute. Proudly we say "This is a God-fearing community. May it always be so."

Attend the Church of Your Choice Sunday.

STEPS of PROGRESS

This is one of a series of messages designed to point out why this community is truly a wonderful place in which to live. Reflecting the steps of progress in our area, these advertisements are sponsored by local business and professional men who are appreciative of the loyalty, cooperation, and patronage of the loyal citizens whom they serve. Each message is a tribute to a group or organization having complete faith and confidence in the future progress of this community.

Betty Newton At Hoermle's

Betty Newton

Betty Newton of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. will demonstrate the Caloric range with the built-in "burner with a brain" from 2 to 6 p. m. Friday, Oct. 5, at Hoermle's Appliances, 1894 Parsons-av.

Hoermle's, which recently celebrated its 31st anniversary, is, according to William Hoermle, "trying to please customers by providing instruction on getting the best results from various merchandise purchased here."

Refreshments and free gifts will be given to those attending the demonstration. The first 10 persons coming in to see the demonstration will receive a free copy of "Home Modernization."

George Horvath, sales manager of Hoermle's, said, "Everyone is welcome to attend one of our demonstrations and see just how this 'burner with a brain' operates."

Hoermle's is open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and will host Betty Newton for four hours so many of the customers and friends may see "Caloric for '56 with the burner with a brain."

Visiting Bishop to Hold Convocation

Bishop Stephen Gill Spottswood of Washington, D.C., of the Seventh Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, will preside over the first home mission convocation at Maxberry Tabernacle tomorrow, Friday, at 11 a.m., with preaching service and Holy Communion. Dinner will be served at 2 p.m., it was announced.

When the Bishop speaks in the evening, visiting choirs and choruses and quartets will provide the music. Service begins at 8 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. E. S. Maxberry said.

Local Deaths

MRS. DORA MAY BENJAMIN

Funeral services for Mrs. Benjamin, 52, 842 S. Third-st, who died Thursday, Sept. 27, in University Hospital, were held at 2 p.m. Monday, Oct. 1, in the Feil Funeral Home.

Surviving are her mother, Mrs. May Raymond; her father, Thomas Benjamin; three brothers, Ruby, Clyde and Leonard Benjamin, and a sister, Mrs. Mildred Fulton, all of Columbus. She was buried in Union Cemetery.

CASPER HAHN

Requiem High Mass for Mr. Hahn, 91, of 649 Siebert-st, who died Thursday, Sept. 27, at his home, was sung at 9 a.m. Saturday in Corpus Christi Church.

A retired stationary fireman, he was a member of the church Holy Name Society. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Edith Luft, at home; two sons, F.C. and C. J. Hahn, both of Columbus, five grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren. He was buried in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Grove City Spaghetti Dinner Is Set For Saturday, Oct. 6

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Grove City, has announced that it is sponsoring a spaghetti dinner (all the spaghetti you can eat), Saturday, Oct. 6, at the Civic Club House, Civic-dr, Grove City. Dinner will be from 5 to 8 p.m. There will be carry-out service according to Mrs. Jack Becker, publicity chairman and president, Mrs. Ronald McKinley.

Chairmen for the dinner: food, Mrs. Donald Gibson and Mrs. Harry Bivens; serving, Mrs. Roy Jewett and Mrs. Ronald McKinley; men's committee, Ed Eberest, Frank Brennan, Frank J. Foerst, and Norbert Baltzer.

The building fun, it is understood, will benefit largely from the proceeds.

Boys Hear Of Car Of 1977

An assembly of Barrett Junior High School boys last Thursday heard an automobile executive from Detroit, Mich., tell of an automobile designed for 20 years from now. The car is on the highway right now, the Detroit automobile executive told the boys, and it is getting a try-out so engineers will kow what changes to make to meet present-day and future driving conditions.

The speaker told the boys that the second edition of the car is on the drawing boards, looking even farther into the future.

Girls will have their day today, it was stated, and will deal with a dress-making project.

Brownies, Girl Scouts

Linda Ellifrit, as president, called the Thurman-av, Methodist Church Brownie Troop 329 to order Friday, Sept. 28.

Their project covering shoe boxes with wallpaper for patients at the State Mental Hospital, was completed.

Two Brownies, Tari King and Judy Salsar, were awarded a paper doll for wearing their uniforms all year.

Birthdays during summer vacation were celebrated by the girls having a birthday giving treats. The greetings were to Nancy Tomsic, Paulette Dupler, Judy Valentine and Judy Salser.

Money for United Appeal was collected by the troop.

BIRTHS

MEYER, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth, 1239 Bruck-st, son, Monday, Oct. 1, University Hospital.

Chapter Reports Polio Activities

Sixty-six polio patients received financial assistance from the Franklin County Polio Chapter during September, it was reported at the monthly meeting of the chapter's executive committee.

This aid ranged from full-time hospitalization in the respirator center at Children's Hospital, in two instances costing more than $800 per patient, to bills for physical therapy treatments, corrective surgery, braces, wheel chairs, and other appliances for patients able to be at home. The month's bills added up to $5,852.20, bringing the total spent thus far in 1956 for polio patient aid to $67,994.73.

Other business conducted by the executive committee included acceptance of three new polio cases for financial assistance, and approval of requests for braces, surgery, and home treatment for seven patients stricken in other years.

Twelve new cases of polio have been reported in the county this year, compared to 19 at the same time last year.

Gerry Hill Made Score

In the story of the season's opening Bulldog game with Arlington, it was stated that Jim Hilty was responsible for the scoring. Jim and others, it was stated, thought that this should be corrected, since Gerry Hill of 572 Moler-st, was responsible for the scoring. The reporter had his enthusiasm up pretty high and maybe things happened too fast to keep close watch.

Seven Girls Named As Game Rulers

Seven girls have been elected by South High School students to rule over the Homecoming game with West Thursday, Oct. 25, according to an announcement this week. Jo Stonerock, an advanced journalism student, told the Leader that the following girls have been honored by students with election to the "ruling" position.

The girls: Jane Armentrout, Pat Gibson, Wanda Kinnaird, Phyllis Lusch, Alma Mace, Connie Miller and Sharon Morris are the lucky seven. Jane and Sharon were chosen from the 12A class, while the remainder of the girls are 12B's. The Queen will be announced at half-time during the ball game. In the event of rain the ceremony will take place in the auditorium after the game, following which there will be a dance. Tickets for the game can be purchased at the ticket office and are $1 each for adults. Student tickets can be purchased at the school during lunch periods. The dance will be 50 cents and tickets will be sold in the school Thursday.

Southern Way Chapter No. 467 OES

Southern Way Chapter No. 467, OES, will meet at the South Gate Masonic Temple, Thursday, Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m. for a stated meeting, with initiatory work, with Worthy Matron Lara Moore and Worthy Patron Emerson Barlow presiding.

Schiller Center Opens

in this program but have youngsters too small to leave at home.

Woodworking

The woodshop at Schiller will be open Tuesday afternoons and Saturday mornings for boys and girls eight years of age and over. On Tuesday evenings a woodworking class for men is being planned.

Many projects in the "do-it-yourself" line are planned for adults who like to work with tools, it was stated. The tools, both power and hand, are available and ready for use, the announcement said.

Dramatics

The Schiller Children's Theater will begin its fall season Monday, Oct. 8, at 4 p.m. Plans for plays to be presented this year will be discussed.

Movies

Each Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock and again in the evening at 7:30, free movies are shown in the auditorium at the center. The weekly program of movies will alternate with cartoons one week and a feature length film the following week.

Lt. Col. G. Miller In Special Study

Lt. Col. Miller is one of 200 senior officers of the Armed Forces selected because of their broad military experience for the ten-month course at the Army's highest educational institution.

Lt. Col. Miller, whose wife, Fontelle, is with him at Carlisle Barracks, was last assigned to the Office of the Provost Marshall General in Washington, D. C. He entered the Army in 1942.

The colonel's decorations include the Legion of Merit and the Bronze Star Medal.

Pfc. Tom Brown Is In Germany

Army Pfc. Thomas T. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Brown, 918 City Park, recently participated in a field training exercise with the 11th Airborne Division in Germany.

Brown, a driver in Company D of the division's 370th Armored Infantry Battalion, arrived in Europe in May, 1956.

The 18-year-old soldier entered the army in November, 1955, and received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Delegates Named; Purchase Planned

Mrs. Elmer Marie, president and Mrs. Charles Dayton, vice-president delegates representing Southwood School PTA, will attend the 51st annual Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers Oct. 8 to 10, in Toledo.

Mrs. D. J. Dreizigacher, finance chairman, expressed the thanks of Southwood School PTA for the recent successful popcorn fritter sale. The profit received from this project will help defray the purchase and installation of two speakers for the school's public address system. One will be for the hallway adjourning the auditorium and one for a classroom not having one previously. A lighted speakers' lectern also will be purchased for use in the auditorium, according to Mrs. Paul Mason, publicity chairman.

Brought to court on a charge of public drunkenness, a citizen of Miami, Florida, told the judge, "I got so awfully bored, staying home doing the dishes and making the beds, while my missus worked."

Quite a few things gleaned from hither, thither, and yon . . . for a pleasant change! A new girl in Washington, D.C., has a proud grandmother in Columbus, at 816 S. 17th-st, to be exact. Lillian Ryan is the grandma, and her new grandaughter is Teri Lee, born Sept. 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryan.

The young people of Southwood Church of Christ will indulge in a little skating Oct. 8 at Westerville.

Tomorrow night, Oct. 5, the alumnae association of Grant hospital will twirl the light fantastic at the Columbus Country Club, 9:30 to 12:30. Jean Pilplow, of Gates-st, is the project chairman for the nurses' group.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Skinner, 688 Frebis-av, are in the midst of a five-week-long vacation in the northern part of Michigan.

A belated birthday greeting is in order for Mrs. Cameron, long time south side resident, who was 92-years-old on Sept. 26. She is now residing at 173 N. Woodland-av.

On our ailing list this week we have Mr. O. Hysell, 1482 Lockbourne-rd; Jim Robison, 1571 S. 6th-st; and Viola Garwood.

A little late to report Trudeau Guild meetings for No. 12 and 25 (they were yesterday) but Guild 10 meets next Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Glen Buller, 326 Frebis-av.

A young south side man who will be exchanging the wedding vows this Saturday is George Bivens, 1457 S. Wall-st. His bride-to-be is Vera Hinton of Laurelville. The marriage will be performed in Hallsville, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Freytag, 303 Stewart-av, recently visited their son, John, and his family, in Oak Harbor, O. We were sorry to learn t hat Mr. Freytag has been incapacitated recently and wish him a speedy return to a normal routine.

I'm sure that all the folks of Leaderland were as proud of Georgia Bowen as could be last week, when she was starred on "This Is Your Life."

Georgia, as you know, is a resident of Linwood-av.

'Tis once again the time of the year when the Gates-Fourth Methodist Church presents its annual "silver tea," held at the church. The date is Oct. 9.

Birthday time calls for special howdys, so we'll send them to: David Coffman, Oct. 2; David Anderson, Oct. 3; an impish bundle of mischief, Judy Lenox, who is seven-years-old today; Oct. 4 is also the birthdate for Jane Wolfe, 38 Reeb-av, and Irene Lemmon, 1049 Jackson-pk; Glenna Edwards, Oct. 5, 66 Reeb-av; Vesta Brown, Oct 7, of 559 Southwood-av; Grace Bittle, 92 E. Moler-st, Oct. 8; and Eileen Gilley, an Oct. 10 celebrant.

Good news for the 5-to-12-year group, for the Hobby Club is in session again at Southwood Church of Christ. (The two youngest of our household think it's the best thing ever, and Monday's find them on their best behavior, lest they have to stay home and miss, this meeting.) The club is is session from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Circles of Oakwood Methodist that meet in the near future are: Esther Circle, Oct. 9, 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. A. S. Justus, 1447 Wilson-av; Ethel Harpst Circle, Oct. 9, 8 p.m., with Grace Anderson, 514 Miller-av, as hostess; Bennett College Circle, Oct. 9 8 p.m. at 899 Carpenter-st, home of Mrs. E. R. DeLong; Mrs. C. E. Hicks, 647 Oakwood-av, will entertain the Jessie Lee Circle on Oct. 10, at 1 p.m. Marcy Circle will convene at 8 p.m., Oct. 10, at the home of Mrs. Donald Hochuli, 977 Siebert-st.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keller, 307 Stewart-av, had a fine visit with their two grandsons, Denny and Tommy, not so long ago. The Keller's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Spragg, of Miami, Fla., and the two little ones flew here to visit the Kellers, then the parents went on to Detroit, Mich., for a dedication ceremony, leaving the youngsters with the Keller's. We just know it was pretty quiet for the Kellers when the Spraggs returned to Florida!

School doings for this week include a meeting at Southwood School tonight at 8 p.m., of the study group. The topic will be "Teachers and Parents Talk It Over." Tomorrow night will be the PIC-C at Heyl-av, from 6:30 to 8:30.

A Stewart-av resident is on our ailing list, so we're hoping a return of health to Lillian Fitzgerald, 279 Stewart-av.

A-once-in-a-lifetime thrill has kept Carol Ann Nolan on cloud 7 this past week and it couldn't happen to a nicer young miss. Carol Ann, 636 S. 22nd-st, was chosen as the junior Maid Marion to escort Robin Hood (Richard Greene) on his Columbus tour.

Two appearances we know about were on TV and at Memorial Hall. Carol Ann was thrilled with her beautiful gown and all that went with it. While the Nolan family is brought to mind by their daughter, we'll send belated greetings to the parents, Ann and Bob, who had a 23rd wedding anniversary Sept. 22.

Expressions of sympathy to Jessie LaRue and her family, at the loss of Rev. Donie LaRue.

Little Paul Klingman, 742 Jaeger-st, recently had the misfortune of breaking his leg.

Circle 12, of Saint Francis School of Nursing will meet Oct. 11, in the home of Mrs. William Simons, 1188 S. High-st, at 8:30 p.m.

Our next item is concerning a former South High grad, who was in a pretty bad auto accident last Sunday. We know many of her friends are still in our south side, and would like to send her a card, or visit with her. The young woman is Joan (Mincer) Cooperider, and she is hospitalized in Lancaster Hospital with a broken foot, arm broken in two places, and broken shoulder bone. Her son, Mark, was badly cut. (Mark will be two-years-old tomorrow.) Joan now resides in Thornville, O. We imagine she will be at her mother's home when she leaves the hospital. The Mincers reside at 1708 E. Kossuth-st.

Belated birthday greetings to "Chrissie" Clark, who had a second birthday last week. (Chrissie's favorite food is "mean beans," or green beans to the unitiated.)

Interested parents in Cub Scouts are invited to attend a meeting at Southwood Church of Christ tonight at 7:30 p.m.

"Last Monday" wishes for a happy birthday to Cleo Canter, 57 E. Morrill-av.

South High grad Stephen Botley will join the married ranks on Oct. 6. Mable Harmer will be his bride.

Seems we're at the end of our items. Per usual, phone is HI. 4-1051. With all the organizations getting into full swing, we do hope the publicity chairmen will let us in on their doings.

Till next week then, tis

LOCAL DEATHS

JACOB FREDERICK SCHAFER

Funeral services for Mr. Schafer, 72, of 505 Southwood-av, who died Tuesday at his home, were held at 1:30 p. m. Friday, Sept. 28, in the Cook and Son Funeral Home. Masonic services were held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the funeral home. A retired carpenter, he was a member of Wilson Evangelical and Reformed Church, South Gate Lodge No. 562, F&AM, and Scottish Rite. Surviving are his wife, Myrtle; a son, Howard F. of Columbus; a daughter, Mrs. Herbert Mahr of New Albany; two sisters, Mrs. Della Hoover, and Mrs. Anna Post, both of West Jefferson; two brothers, John and C. W. Schafer, both of Columbus; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild. He was buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

HARRY NORMAN DAHL

Harry Norman Dahl, 52, of 1521 Parsons-av, died Friday, Sept. 28, in Benjamin Franklin Hospital. Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Patricia Mellor of Tacoma, Wash. Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Oct. 3, in the Cook & Son Funeral Home. He was buried in Green Lawn Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation to friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness, sympathy and beautiful floral offerings at the death of our beloved father, Alfred B. Keg Season At Schiller Is Underway

The Schiller Recreation Center Saturday Morning Bowling League, which meets every week at Parsons Recreation, is in the process of forming for league competition, according to D. T. Crawshaw, Schiller director. The league will start its regular season schedule this Saturday, he said.

In the bowling last week with teams organized and bowling as teams, the following scores were turned in. For the boys, Gary Durschi, rolled the high game of 212 and also took the three-game series for a total of 548. The best score for the boys' team was turned in by the Parsons Recreation team, with individual score of 913 and series score of 2471.

Sandy Pehrson paced the girls with 149 for a single game and 432 for the three-game total. The Hot Shots girls team rolled scores of 697 and 1754 for best honors.

Potter, Jr., president; Mrs. Frank Claffey, first vice-president; Neal Greenfield, third vice-president; Mrs. Homer Dillon, secretary, Mrs. Norman Carpenter, treasurer; Mrs. Samuel Glines, Mrs. Robert Payne, Mrs. George Moffitt, Council representatives.

Alternate representatives to the Council are Miss Dolores Weilbacher, Mrs. Henry Carney, Mrs. Harold Backus.

Parents To Sing At PTA Meeting

When Heyl- Avenue School PTA holds its open house at the school Thursday evening next week, the Parents Chorus will entertain with music. A short business meeting will precede the open house, Mrs. Bill Jacks, publicity chairman, told the Leader.

The teachers will be introduced during the meeting, then go to their rooms to meet parents during classroom visitation.

Room mothers will serve refreshments in each room, the publicity chairman said. Meeting starts at 7:30, it was stated.

St. Mary Wins Over Rosary

St. Mary's football team, which has been unfortunate in most of its games recently, came up with a good victory last weekend, at Jones Field.

Its victim was Rosary, a non-league team. The gang from St. Mary's is a fighting bunch and they may be on the top of the heap before long, according to a number of St. Mary boosters for their gridironers.

Benfield-av Church To Be Dedicated Sunday, Oct. 14

To Be Dedicated Sunday Afternoon

Sunday afternoon there will be a dedication at the Benfield Avenue Church of Christ at 148 Benfield-av, according to an announcement by the pastor, Rev. Dana S. MacDonald.

The dedication will be for a new annex which has been achieved with a lot of effort and sacrifice by members of the congregation, the pastor told the Leader reporter.

The church has been there a long time, Rev. MacDonald said, but the annex, rear right, is new. And this and the new space for carrying on the work of the church will be dedicated Sunday.

Coming to assist in the dedication will be Rev. James S. Osuga, who will sing, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Friedlinghause, who will also present an organ solo. "Why Is the Church?" will be the subject of Dr. Lester F. King, minister, Wilson-av Christian Church

Robert E. Casto, chairman of the annex building committee, will present the keys of the new annex to the proper authorities of the church, the pastor announced. Charles Hayes, Charles Leighly, Donald Antle, and Donald Wolfe are other members of the building committee.

Other improvements on the church structure are reported as a new roof on the 20-year old building, the sanctuary redecorated, new gas heating unit installed, and the entire building painted.

The pastor said that the church will not be over-burdened with debt as a result of the extensive additions and improvements.

Change Is Coming

Agreeing that the approach to the subject is unscientific, we believe there's something of value in our contention that we are on the way to another "ice age." Discussing with some scientifically minded people increase of nearly three inches in water heighth at James Bay, Canada, in recent years, our SMP told US that recent tests around Newfoundland point in the same direction, although with a few fractions difference at Newfoundland. These SMP are of my thought, that the ice age, or an ice age, is on the way, when climates will be reversed and, to a degree, the human race will have to get a new start. But we need not worry. Informed authorities say that is a process of perhaps 10,000 years. We needn't lay in any extra heavy socks, gloves, and suits

The co-chairmen will be assisted by the recently appointed room mothers. The room mothers are, room 4, Mrs. Jack Hannon; room 5, Mrs. Robert Hoderfield; room 6, Mrs. Harold Edwards, morning, and Mrs. Donald Dewey in the afternoon; room 7, Mrs. Leroy Parks; room 8, Mrs. Frank Heinlein; room 9, Mrs. William Johnson; room 10, Mrs. Larry Nance; room 11, Mrs. Evelyn Davis; room 12, Mrs. Glenn Wisecarver; room 13, Mrs. Ralph Mouser; room 14, Mrs. Samuel Hickman; room 15, Mrs. Hugh O'Neill; room 16, Mrs. Donald Decker; room 17, Mrs. Harry Darst; room 18, Mrs. Carl Jividen; room 19, Mrs. Jean Thomas; room 20, Mrs. Ralph Klott.

The room which secures the largest percentage of parents as members will receive an award of $3 from the PTA, it was stated. The room which secures the largest number of dads as members will receive an award of $1, according to Mrs. Paul Mason, PTA publicity chairman.

A new feature this year, according to Mrs. Mason, is a "go-getter" award, which will be awarded to each child enrolling both parents in PTA membership.

Mrs. Elmer Marte, PTA president, and Mrs. Charles Dayton, PTA vice-president, have been delegates from Southwood PTA and attended the annual session of the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers, in session in Toledo, Oct. 8 to 10.

Livingston Education Group Meets Oct. 23

The Parent Education group of Livingston Avenue School will meet Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 1:30 p. m. The discussion will be "Gifts Good For Learning." Mrs. John Dethloff will be the discussion leader, according to Mrs. Willard E. Miller, publicity chairman.

Dinner Is Planned

The escorts committee of Chapter 206, Columbus Women of the Moose, will hold a turkey dinner Wednesday, Oct. 10, 5 to 7 p.m., in the Moose Club. Miss Pauline Pierce, committee chairman, is in charge of the dinner's arrangements.

Siebert PTA Meeting And Campaign Coincide

Siebert PTA's monthly meeting next Wednesday will coincide with the group's membership campaign, which starts Oct. 14 and continues through Oct. 19.

The regular meeting of the PTA will be held at the Siebert School Oct. 17, beginning at 7:30 p.m. "Parents and Teachers Talk It Over" will be topic of the evening, according to Mrs. Ralph Skeen, PTA publicity chairman.

Three parents and three teachers will compose a panel for discussion of the topic, with Paul Lindquist as moderator. The panel: Miss Marilyn Shanting, first grade; Mrs. Joyce Ashbaugh, third grade; Alan Trottman, fifth grade. Parents: Mrs. Harold Droggan, Mrs. John Hardwick, Mrs. Robert Rickard.

An open discussion will follow the panel's completion of its program.

Membership Drive

Some reports may be expected at the meeting from the three days of membership campaign effort, it is believed. The committee responsible for the drive is composed of Mrs. Alvin Pfeiffer, chairman; Mrs. Robert Golden, co-chairman; Mrs. Robert Riffle, Mrs. Lawrence Saunders, Mrs. Harold Deyo, Mrs. Donald Salser.

OPEN HOUSE AT BECK

"Open house" will be held by Beck Street School PTA Wednesday, Oct. 17, at 7:30 p.m. Teachers will be presented by Neal A. Greenfield, principal. After visitation, refreshments will be served, it was stated.

IT'S TIME AGAIN TO PAY YOUR SOUTH SIDE LEADER CARRIER FOR HIS SERVICES FOR THE MONTH. WITHIN THE NEXT FEW DAYS HE WILL BE CALLING ON YOU TO COLLECT FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER. A WORD OF CAUTION: PLEASE PAY ONLY A CARRIER BOY WITH COLLECTION BOOK AND RECEIPTS.

Special Rally Day Program

A new seasonal "beginning" of the Sunday school of Thurman-av Methodist Church will consume the time between 9:15 a.m. and 11:15 this Sunday, according to a release by Mrs. Dale church publicity chairman.

Mrs. Davy told the Leader that Rev. Ray W. Huff, pastor, has planned a rally day program with a sermon, "A New Start," at 10:30, preceded by a program beginning at 9:45 o'clock, giving a continuous session beginning with the usual 9.15 a.m. Sunday school classes.

Center Sets High Plans For South Side Youth

TUMBLING CLUB

The Tumbling Club of Schiller Recreation Center will hold a meeting this Friday afternoon, 4 o'clock, in the tumbling room. Officers for the coming season are to be elected and the activities of hte group are to be discussed, including plans for the new season. All old members are requested to be present.

Social Dance Classes

Classes in social dancing will start at Schiller Recreation Center today, Thursday, Oct. 11. There will be a class for the preteen age group from 6:30 to 7:30, with those who are 13 and over having instruction from 7:30 to 8:30. There will be open dancing for all interested persons from 8:30 to closing time.

Director Chawshaw said that boys and girls wishing to take advantage of these classes should register promptly, because, due to demand, the class will be limited after the first session. At the end of a six-week period proficiency certificates will be awarded to those having completed the course, and a new class of beginners will be started, the director said.

In addition to the basic steps, the beginners will be taugh: the "know-how" of dance courtesies and other social etiquette.

Ballet Classes

Classes in ballet are being organized at Schiller and will meet Tuesday afternoons in the auditorium at the center. The instruction is free to all boys and girls interested in this activity, according to Director Chawshaw. Age groups will be divided as follows, he said: Five to eight years of age will meet from 3:30 to 4 p.m. and those from nine to 15 years of age will meet from 4 to 5 p.m. The instructor will be Miss Dora Rosenfeld, who has had much experience in ballet and has danced in several musical shows at the Hartman Theater, Crawshaw said.

Adventure Club

The Schiller Center Saturday Morning Adventure Club is again in full swing. This is an activity for boys and girls 12 and under.

The young adventurers gather each Saturday morning at the Center at 9:30 to experience an "adventure in recreation" through new crafts, trips, hikes, creative play and special events. The group is still open to anyone who wishes to join, and parents are asked to register children by calling Louann Gordon at the Center.

Teen Club

The Schiller Teen-Club will meet on Wednesday evenings this year in the club room at the Center at 7:30 o'clock. All former members are asked to attend the next week's meeting so that a program may be set up for the coming year and election of officers may be held, the Center's director said.

Center Newspaper

The "Schiller Star," official Center newspaper, had its first meeting Wednesday, Oct. 3, when the following editors were selected: boys' sports, Paul "Rody" Durrington and Phil Sickel; girls' sports, "Liz" Howard; news, Hazel Erb; art, Jim Wishon. Anyone wishing to act as a reporter for the Center newspaper should contact one of the above-named people or any of the center staff members, Director Crawshaw said.

Pizza Party At Church

The Christian Homes Class of Oakwood Methodist Church will sponsor a pizza party at the church Saturday, Oct. 20, it was announced by Mrs. Bill Jacks, secretary of the class, and Robert Grate, party chairman. The pizza may be eaten at the church or taken out, the spokesmen said, the price is $1 covering either way.

Eagles Set Picnic

South Side Eagles have announced that the group's annual Christmas charity picnic will be held this Sunday at Camp Darby, one-half mile east of Shadeville on Route 665, according to James Leonard, South Side Eagles president.

The program, the president said, will consist of eating, refreshments, and dancing to music by Joe Martin and his Combo.

Crossley Promoted To Lieutenant-Colonel

Ross W. Crossley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Crossley, 649 E. Gates-st, recently was promoted to lieutenant colonel in Japan, where he is assigned to the Tokyo Quartermaster Center.

Commander of the center, Colonel Crossley entered the army in 1942.

His wife, Bonnie, is with him in Tokyo.

Roosevelt Jr. Festival Set

Roosevelt Junior High School PTA has plans for its fall festival, according to an announcement by Mr. Andrew Ford, PTA publicity chairman. Mrs. John Michel and Mrs. Granville Hoskins have been named to the post of chairmen.

The following are members of the respective committees, and all are busy making definite plans for the festival, Mrs. Ford stated. The committees are the following:

Membership committee: Mrs. Robert Karrer, Mrs. George Tack, Mrs. Dwight Adams; Hospitality committee: Mrs. Paul Kays, Mrs. Roy Russell, Mrs. Paul Brown, Mrs. Hampshire, social committee: Mrs. Karl Kunzi, Mrs. Carl Trott, Mrs. Elmer Cupp, Mrs. Reese Moore, Mrs. Julius White.

Budget: Mrs. Karl Magnuson; finance committee; Mrs. John Michel, Mrs. Granville Hoskins; historian: Mrs. A. S. Justus; recreation: Mrs. H. Johnson; legislative: Mrs. Hartin McCoy.

Publicity: Mrs Andrew Ford; magazines: Mrs. Ralph Campbell; health and safety: Mrs. John Peer; parent education: Mrs. J. Richardson; program: Mrs. L. D. Thompson.

Council representatives: Mrs. W. K. Hayes, Mrs. James Kraner, Mrs. Thomas Warren; alternate council representatives: Mrs. J. H. Johnson, Mrs. Robert Lightle, Mrs. Veryl Sherburn.

Newlyweds Will Live In Lawton, Oklahoma

Miss Norma Jean Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Helen Louise Wilson, 634 S. 18th-st, became the bride of 2nd Lt. Charles D. Matthews, of Massillon at 9 a.m. Sept. 22 in St. John the Evangelist Church. The ceremony was performed by Msgr. Frederick Burkhart.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Carl Urban, the bride wore a gown of white taffeta fashioned with a moulded bodice, the bateau neckline enhanced by appliques of hand-run Alencon lace.

The skirt, worn over an old fashioned hoop, swept into a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was caught to a plateau of taffeta and Alencon and she carried white chrysanthemums centered with an orchid and ivy leaves.

Miss Helen Duffy was maid of honor and Miss Sharon French, bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of emerald green taffeta, ballerina in length. Long streamers fell from the bateau necklines to give back interest. They carried bouquets of yellow and rust chrysanthemums.

Jack Liberator was best man and Gene Yost, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, seated guests.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's High School and St. Francis School of Nursing. She was formerly employed at Children's Hospital. Lt. Matthews is a graduate of Washington High School Massillon, and St. Francis School of Nursing. He is now stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., with the US Army.

Following a wedding trip to Canada, the couple will live in Lawton, Okla.

Patty Trumps Tells About A High School Fashion Show

by Patty Trumps

South High girls from Mrs. Phipps sewing classes presented a style show recently in an all-girl assembly. Thea Milner from a pattern company, was the commentator of the show, the theme of which was "Fashion Bank For The Modern Miss." The clothes worn by the girls were made from the company patterns.

The girls modeled everything from sportswear to formal evening wear, from softly flaired cottons for school to form-fitting sheath dresses for date time.

Stripes seemed to be the big thing in the show. For the girl who likes to sew but hasn't had much experience, there were softly flaired cotton dresses, easy to make flannel or corduroy jumpers, and skirts and blouses. For the more advanced sewer there were tweed or wool suits and coats and evening wear.

The modern miss with an eye for fashion can not only make her own outfits, but she can make matching accessories. Also there is a wide variety of fabrics to choose from. Featured in the show were red jersey hood and red felt bag and a matching hat and bag in leopard fake fur.

The models in the show were Janet DeVine, Pat Dose, Margaret Foster, Pat Ginther, June Johnson, Nancy Lahey, Pat McKinney, Marilyn Seymour, Judy Chattos, Sara Folkendt, Bernice Goldstein, Magnolia Goodwin, Pat Longnecker, Alma Mace, Betty Osborne, Marylina Pierce, Jill Cooper, Alys McCune, Beverly Karnes, Sharon Crary, Lois Yound, and Twyla McCain. Sanday Greenberg and Silvia Holstein handed out programs.

Barrett Girls In Style Show Given By Educational Stylist

An educational stylist representing a prominent pattern company last Thursday presented a style show for the benefit of girls of Barrett Junior High School. The show was held in the school's auditorium.

Girls from the school modeled coats, suits, jackets, jumpers, blouses, dresses, and separates of the sort that can be made by a school girl from a pattern. Home economics teacher Helen Fetzer prepared the assembly program and selected the following models:

MORE O.G. NOTES
A Hopeless Cause

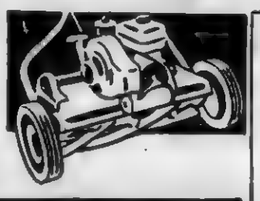
I have the greatest sympathy for those who give of their capacities for the maintenance of world peace. For many years I made what little contribution I could to this worthy and hoped-for achievement. But I have been disillusioned: I do not believe permanent peace is possible. That's because of the great divergences in the habits and thinking of the peoples of the world, and because the ignorant are more numerous than the informed. However, I do believe full support should be given to any movement which might lead to the beginning of a time when the combined resources of the nations of the world are as one in maintaining peace against the usurper, the braggart, the murdering dictator. Let's hope and work fervently for peace, but keep the shootin' irons in order.

Roosevelt Open House

The Roosevelt Junior High School theme, "Your PTA Shares Hospitality," will be observed by an open house at the school this Thursday evening at 7:45. Invocation will be given by L. D. Thomson and greetings by Harold Washburn, principal.

Teachers will greet parents in classrooms.

At PTA Congress



Mrs. Earl Snyder, Siebert PTA president, Mrs. Carl Essenstein, vice-president, Mrs. Sheldon Cox, parent-education chairman, were Siebert delegates to the state convention of the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers at Toledo Oct. 8 to 10.

Leaving the cold Ohio weather at this time are Pat and Walter Leitwein. The young couple is heading for California, where Pat's mother, Daisy Conn, is a resident. Pat will arrive in California just in time to celebrate her birthday, an Oct. 11 event.

Mrs. Earl Snyder, Mrs. Carl Sesselstein, and Mrs. Sheldon Cox, of the Siebert Street PTA, attended the state PTA convention in Toledo earlier this week. Mrs. Cox attended in a dual capacity, as South District vice-president as well as representing Siebert Street School and Columbus Council.

Oakwood Methodist Church Circles that convene within the next week are the Susannah Wesley Circle, Oct. 12, with Mrs. J. R. Beard, 969 Kelton-av, as hostess. Time is 7:45 p.m. Bethlehem Circle has an Oct. 16 meeting date, 12:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. J. A. Warner, 1182 Kelton-av.

Mary M. Ellis of 443 Forest-st has purchased a home at 236 E. Maynard-av and is moving there with her daughter, Paula Kay, around the first of November. They are former Markison Avenue residents. Paul Kay celebrated her sixth birthday Monday, Oct. 8, by appearing on the Aunt Fran television show.

Since we're writing with "goosebumps" a prominent part of our ensemble, this next item causes a small amount of "green eyes" to appear. Roberta Blackburn, 756 Jaeger-st, is currently spending 16 days in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Some members of the Roosevelt PTA are certainly spending a "PTA" week, those attending the Toledo convention, that is. They'll no sooner get back than they'll have to think about the open house which is to be held at the school tonight at 7:45. The theme is "Your PTA Shares Hospitality." Another PTA meeting for the evening is the one to be held at the St. Mary's High School auditorium at 8 p.m. Mary K. Rohr will speak on "Christ in Christmas" and the Msgr. Burkley will show colored movies of the construction of the new school and gym.

Since we're still not operating at "full speed" (due to our hospital visit) we have had to miss many meetings and one of the ones we hated to miss the most was the one that was held yesterday at the Park of Roses pavilion. The occasion was the anniversary meeting of the League of Women Voters, marking the fact that 10 presidential elections ago, November, 1920, the women of the nation cast their first vote for a U.S. president.

Birthdays galore right now, so our very best to Lynn Felice, 212 Jenkins-av; Linda Roberts, 509 E. Morrill-av; Grace McCaffrey, 214 Frebis-av; Lana Itskin, 1713 S. Third-st; Paul Lenox, 1411 S. Sixth-st; "Duke" Eichel, 1341 S. Third-st; Lucille Hussey, 679 Thurman-av.

For those of you who enjoy dancing, this next bit of news should be to your liking AND you'd be helping a worthy cause by attending. The Bittersweet Dance, sponsored by the Twigs of Childrens Hospital, is to be held tomorrow night at the Valley Dale dancing pavilion.

On Oct. 26 and Oct. 27, the women of the Needle and Thread will hold a bake sale in the basement of the Hungarian Evangelical and Reformed Church, Woodrow and Washington-avs.

Belated wedding congratulations to the "newly marrieds," Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Moore. Mrs. Moore is the former Jeanne O'Shaugsnessy of 1041 Oakwood-av, and Edward resided to 390 E. Beck-st. The wedding was Sept. 8, in St. Mary's Church.

South High alumni of 1934 will be interested in learning that one of their classmates is in town this week. Betty Geigele MacDonald, now of Chippewa Falls, Wis., is visiting her family at this time. For those who would like to get in touch with Betty, she is staying with her sister, Ruth Welker, 976 Carpenter-st (She is just here for this week, so don't delay calling her.) Betty's daughter, Donna Lee, accompanied her mother. Betty is having fun revisiting remembered places, in addition to seeing "first time" how the old town has grown. (Donna is an embryonic teacher, and we're sure Betty is quite proud of her young miss.) We shouldn't by-pass Willis and Ruth Welker too hurriedly, for this popular South Side couple had a silver wedding anniversary last Thursday, Oct. 4. Though they had planned no special celebration, friends surprised them with one.

Two South Side residents brought an hour of fun to the children of the Hannah Neil Mission of Main-st recently. Noel Cardwell, 47 E. Jenkins-av, and Pete Kochis, 1541 S. Fourth-st, were the two who spent a Sunday entertaining the children not so long ago. In addition to the men Linda Lou Thompson and Dorothy Calvert used their talents to help with the project. At the conclusion of the show, the children were given candy and peanuts by Mr. Cardwell.

Two more birthdays that take place at this time of the year are those of David Colegrove, Oct. 9 (Davis was ailing last week, sorry to say), and Edith Archer, 1603 S. High-st, Oct. 13.

From far-off Yaba, Nigeria comes word that former Columbusites, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goldsberry, are the parents of a little girl, Anna Ruth.

Yesterday, Oct. 10, was a very special day in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. John Eberts, 31 E. Welch-av, and their family. The elder Eberts' have now been married for 55 years. A quiet celebration with the immediate family only marked last night's commemoration of the event.

Mrs. William Hoermle was the hostess on Tuesday to the South Unit of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra. Assisting her were Mesdames Walter Beane, Edward Heller and Robert Riffle.

Mary and Martha Circles of Gates-Fourth Methodist Church will meet today at 10:30 a.m. at the church. Following luncheon, there will be a business meeting.

Benjamin Franklin Hospital once again is needing "live" entertainment to make the bright spots in the lives of the patients. Entertainment night is each Thursday and performers must be 16 years or older. If any of the readers are part of a group, or know of a group that would entertain, let us know, won't you? Even if not associated with a group, but a solo act, we're still interested, for if we had enough solo acts an evening's entertainment could be molded together. Number to call is HI. 4-1051, our home phone.

The silver wedding anniversary of Russ and Virginia Leonard, 515 Forest-st, draws a little closer this Saturday, Oct. 13. Only three more years to wait, and you'll be there, Leonards!

St. Leo's Church Altar Rosary Sodality and Parish Council will hold a luncheon and games party Oct. 16 at 1 p.m. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Morris Diamond and Mrs. Robert Burkey.

Interested parents of potential Cub Scouts are invited to attend Southwood Church of Christ tonight at 7:30 (Last week's meeting was postponed.)

We're giving this item a little early, but we'll mention it again before it happens, to remind those interested in attending. On Oct. 27, South Methodist Church will be the scene of a family Halloween Night, time 7:30 p.m. There will be a "spook house," movies, games, and refreshments. All this is available to members and their guests, free of charge!

Martin Luther Church was the scene of the Sept. 8 wedding of Ursula Augustine, 730 Reinhard-av, and Hans Thellman, 786 S. 18th-st. The couple now resides at 744 Wedgewood-dr, Westgate.

The limping of Priscilla Dicke these days is easily explained. She stepped on a roofing nail (I think that's what the men of our house called it) that was endwise, and it pierced through her shoe and into her foot quite deeply.

Our best wishes in the Queen Isabella contest to Sharon Riggs of Sheldon-av.

Once again, we've reached the bottom of the "news" stack, so do call us, won't you, at HI 4-1051? Till next edition, then, 'tis

The Columbus Public Library and its 11 branches offer books providing thorough information about major presidential and other candidates and the issues of the present campaign. Following are some of the books which are suggested: Donovan, "Eisenhower: The Inside Story," Kornitzer, "The Great American Heritage," the story of the five Eisenhower brothers; M. A. Smith, "Meet Mr. Eisenhower"; James Keogh, "This is Nixon;" Busch, Noel F., "Adlai Stevenson of Illinois;" Stevenson, Adlai, "Call to Greatness;" Stevenson, Adlai, "What I Think," Larson, Arthur "A Republican Looks at His Party;" Cohn, David, "The Fabulous Democrats;" Buchanan, Lamont, "Ballot for Americans;" Lubell, Samuel, "The Future of American Politics;" Luthen Reinhold, "American Demagogues," Ives, Elizabeth S., "My Brother Adlai."

There is also much interesting information in many of our magazines, such as Time, United States News, Newsweek, Life, Colliers, Saturday Evening Post, etc. You may check these magazines out for one week, or read them here at your leisure.

Noted Evangelist To Be Heard At Livingston Church

Rev. James Gibson

Rev. James Gibson, widely known as the "Irish evangelist," will be the speaker each evening, Oct. 17 to 28, at the Livingston Methodist Church, according to a statement by the pastor, Rev. Levon A. Shaum.

The occasion, Rev. Shaum said, will be a "Deeper Life Mission," the visiting evangelist preaching at each evening service beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The visiting minister, according to Rev. Shaum, was born in Ireland and came to this country as a young man to follow a professional dancing career. He was converted and is known for his ministry over a large area of the country as well as in Canada. There will be no service on Saturday evening, the pastor said. He also said that the church nursery will be available for children.

Morning services will be held in the chapel at 10 o'clock each day, Oct. 22 through 26, according to the announcement. A vigil of prayer, lasting 60 continuous hours, will precede the beginning of the special services, starting midnight Sunday, Oct. 14, continuing until noon of Wednesday, Oct. 17, providing a continual "period of fasting and prayer with several hundred people participating," the pastor said. The vigil will end at 12 o'clock Wednesday, he said, "with a period of fasting and prayer," in the chapel.

Carousal, Flippo Among Stewart Festival Features

Carousal-riding is, according to Mrs. Richard R. Chambers, 121 E. Whittier-st, Stewart Avenue Elementary School PTA publicity chairman, one of the entertainments from the past which holds a great lure for children and grown-ups in this day of modern entertainment.

Mrs. Chambers was getting at this: the carousal will be a top feature at the Stewart Avenue School harvest festival and she thinks it will be one of the highly popular features of the festival, to be held at the school on Thursday, Oct 25, beginning at 5:30 p.m.

Other features listed for parents and children are fish pond, cane-toss, white elephant, cake walk, country store, fish bowl, string pull, bake table, novelty table, candy and popcorn, special Halloween things, hat throw, ball game.

WBNS-TV is sending Flippo the Clown for the children's entertainment. Flippo will be on the program for the children at 7:30 in the evening.

The publicity chairman said there will be a lot of other things to do at the fair, including "having a good time."

Heimandale Elementary PTA Prepares For Festival

Pictured above, top photo, are shown the officers of Heimandale Elementary School, Keebel-rd, with a cross section of other PTA members attending. This meeting was particularly concerned with plans for the annual festival to be held in one of the most attractive school buildings in the area from 5 to 8 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 25. Although plans have not been completed for the festival, sufficient information has escaped via the "grapeline" to assure a "lively and happy" festival period two weeks from today. In fact, Mrs. Budd, president, extended an invitation to other PTA bodies in the city to reserve the 5 to 8 p.m. period on Oct. 25, and visit Heimandale PTA's special program at that time. Heimandale Elementary School is due to enter the city school system soon as the result of a citizen-petition program which resulted in Columbus annexing a large portion of Marion Township. It is understood that details of entering the Marion schools, including Heimandale, in the city system are nearly completed. Officers, left to right, are, president, Mrs. Budd vice-president, Mrs. Painter; secretary, Mrs. Brown; vice-secretary, Mrs. Duvall; treasurer, Mrs. Mason.

Folk Dance Workshop Opens, Schiller Center

There will be a lot of folk dancing around Schiller Recreation Center this winter, according to an announcement from the Center this week. This is expected to be the result of a program by the Columbus Folk Dancers who will sponsor a folk dance workshop at the Center each Friday evening through October. The hours will be 8 to 10 p. m. on Friday evenings only, it was stated.

A statement by Director Crashaw was put into writing, explaining the merits of the work shop:

The Statement

"This is open to anyone who spends time helping others to enjoy themselves. It may be a gym teacher, a social worker, Scout leader, a church youth worker, or any other person working with groups of people.

"The workshop offers an opportunity to learn more than 20 assorted folk dances from all over the world for couples, dances for three, mixers, line and circle dances where no partners are needed. Many of these dances come from such European countries as Austria, Denmark, England, Germany, Greece, and other nationalities along the Mediterranean.

"Background information on many of the dances, their meaning, national origin and customs, as well as tricks and techniques for teaching the dances to others, will be passed on to those attending the sessions. The only requirement: bring or wear a pair of comfortable, lightweight shoes.

Livingston PTA Has Second Meeting, Oct. 18

Livingston Parent-Teachers Association plans to open its second meeting of the year with a short business meeting Thursday, Oct. 18, at 7:30 p.m., with visitations of the children's rooms and teachers immediately following.

Refreshments will be served in the assembly room after the visitations.

NO END

If all the political speeches, to be made in this country this year were laid end to end, there would be no end to political speeches.

Luncheon, Games Party Announced

St. Leo's Church Altar-Rosary Sodality and Parish Council will entertain its members and friends with a luncheon-games party in the Parish School Hall, Frebis and Bruck-sts. Tuesday Oct. 16, serving at one o'clock in the afternoon.

Luncheon, featuring chicken and noodles, will be served at $1 a plate. The games session that follows is of interest to all who attend, for ample prizes have been assured.

Mrs. Morris Diamond and Mrs. Robert Burkey are co-chairmen of the event, assisted by Mrs. James McGinnis, Mrs. Ollie Lauber, Mrs. John Schmitt, Mrs. George Kellner, Mrs. Anthony Koles, Mrs. Ray Phillips, Mrs. William Saul, Mrs. Charles Wildi, Mrs. George Dorn, and Mrs. Leo Herdrich.

Women Helping 'Euchre' Party

A large number of women of St. Mary's Church are giving a helping hand these days, it was reported to the Leader, in preparation for the euchre party to be held at St. Mary's High School hall, 685 Mohawk-st, next Tuesday, Oct. 16.

Proceeds from the euchre party will be applied toward fixing a club room for teenagers of the church. The time is 8 o'clock.

item that come across the other day: A Russian whom we in our degenerate condition (in Russian eyes) would call smart, was arrested, officials explaining the arrest resulted from the conclusion that only one with too much money could buy as many stock certificates as the arrested man had bought. Unfortunately, the man will not benefit from his investments—against human rights for one to have so much, officials explained, adding that he wouldn't need finances where he had gone. It's said that Russia has 2,000,000 Americans listed for slaughter "when Russia captures" us. We'd better be on our toes to prevent that calamity. They ARE going to try it, through deception first, "softening us for the "kill." Then bombs bursting over all the country. We'd better stop being nice-nice, get tough, and fight if that's the way to save our national life.

Low Characters

Argentina has a bad case of a phase of North America's worst "illness": reports tell that a whole lot of people who have access to Salk Serum have teamed up in and out of Argentina to push the cost of a Salk "shot" up to $50 to $180 in that country— a profitable racket. These low characters have no human sweetness left in them, upon whose heads must rest the responsibility for the deaths of thousands of Argentinian children. I fear they will not be able to understand enough about common human decency to understand the depths to which they have sunk! This I know: that ignomy shall consume them, and let's hope that will occur before they do too much damage.

Double-Space it, Please

Reporters, re-writers, editors all have one big "gripe" about a certain kind of copy. The gripe is about single-spaced copy. That's because few, if any, write according to a newspaper's style. Single-spaced copy or closely hand-written copy leaves no room for the copy man to correct style or spelling or other things different from newspaper habit. So, when you write copy, either typewriter, or by hand, OPEN IT UP, please, and leave us room for corrections. Of course . . . if you forget and write it close up we'll just go on with our bad words, and love you for sending the copy.

Moose Women's Christmas-In-October Party To Be Held Tonight, Moose Home

Pictured above are some of the gifts collected by the Women of the Moose during their annual Christmas parties. These Mooseheart youngsters spend hours picking out the doll they will "adopt."

Mrs. Denver Hastings, 426 S. Eureka-av, is in charge of the program and refreshments for the regular bi-monthly meeting of Chapter 206, Columbus Women of the Moose, 8 p.m. this Thursday, Oct 11, at the Moose Home, 36 W. Sycamore-st. Co-workers of Mrs. Hastings are Mrs. Clyde P. Smith, 280 S. Harris-av; Mrs. Lena Egold, 422 S. Warren-av; Mrs. Rose Cruise, 528 N. Hague; Mrs. William Lawson, 44 N. Terrace; Mrs. Walter Roop, 789 S. Front-st; and Lucille Johnson, 461 Buckingham. Mrs. Mary Moore, senior regent, will preside at the meeting. The highlight of the meeting is the Christmas-in-October" gift donation for Child City, Illinois, by the members of the auxiliary. Each member always brings a gift for Mooseheart or for the aged persons at Moosehaven, or a gift for each. These gifts will be placed under a real Christmas tree tonight by a live Santa Claus and later will be sorted for distribution at Christmas time in Mooseheart.

South Takes First Loss

By Tom Main

South was handed its first City League loss last Friday night by the East High Tigers 12-0.

Both teams played a tight defensive game with neither team making any serious threat to score in the entire first half. The second half looked like a repeat of the first half, until Charles Comer broke loose for a nineteen-yard burst to the South one-yard line, where he plunged over to break the scoreless tie.

With just one minute and thirty seconds left in the game, Bill Wilson picked his way around his own left end and tight-roped down the side line for 65 yards for the final score.

Play Selected

"Cheaper By the Dozen" has been chosen as the play to be presented at South High School Nov. 16, Don Phillips, dramatic teacher, recently announced. The tryouts for the cast of six boys and nine girls were held during the senior class periods.

Director Phillips conducts rehersals four days a week from 3:30 until 6 p.m.

—Becky Meyers

Halloween Play

The dramatics club of Schiller Recreation Center is to present a Halloween play about "The Ghost Who Came by Mail," in the auditorium at the Center, Friday, Oct. 26. Two performances are being planned, it was said, one in the afternoon at 4:30 and the second showing that evering at 8 o'clock. The entire cast will be made up of girls.

Hope EUB Church Observes 28th Year Sunday

Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church is modern edifice.

Man Whose Lay Work Kept Church Alive In Earlier Days Is Still Pastor

Rev. W. A. Roberts, pastor, Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church, at Watkins-rd and Bulen-av, has announced that the church will observe its 28th anniversary and homecoming Sunday, Oct. 21, with services at 9:30 a.m., 2 p.m. and at 6:30 p.m. A basket dinner will be served at noon, the pastor said.

A special program of music and song will be presented at 2 p.m., when Rev. Rex C. Smith, pastor of Newark First EUB Church and a former pastor of Hope Church, will be the guest speaker.

Hope Church was organized in 1928 by Rev. A. B. Cox, who at that time was conference superintendent and pastor of the Washington Avenue EUB Church. The task of building the first church, which was a small frame structure, was assigned to Rev. H. A. Fry, a member of the Washington Avenue Church.

Pastors who have served the church are Rev. H. A. Fry, 1928-30; Rev. Evan T. Evans, 1930-33; Rev. Russell Caylor, 1933-35, 1936-37; Rev. W. W. Arnold, 1935-36; Rev. Rex Smith, 1937-38; Rev. John Morgan, 1939-42. Rev. Roberts has been pastor since 1942 and during his pastorate many improvements were made on the first church building and, in 1954, a new brick church with a seating capacity of 300 was built. Plans for a modern educational unit are in the making, and it is hoped that construction can get under way in the very near future.

The Real Story

At this point in the story, it is necessary for the editor to take over, unknown to the pastor. The facts given by Rev. W. A. Roberts in the preceding paragraphs omit many things we have been planning on putting into print.

Some years ago Rev. Roberts, then a lay worker, became interested in a Sunday School in the area, the church having no regular pastor and the children no Sunday school teacher. Notes mittee secretary, Leslie Burns, as months ago are not legible, and we will skip some details we wish could be inserted. But there were struggle and disappointment, and little help at times.

Ordained

Upon the point of abandonment, Rev. (now) Roberts was asked by the district superintendent to take over and keep things going. Through this period, which continued quite a while, the man Roberts (not a Rev. then) kept that Sunday school going and just naturally drifted into preaching — some one had to do it; he did it.

Later on, with the responsibility becoming a blessed burden, Rev. Roberts took up the study of ministry and soul-saving. Then, as time went on, the little first church structure having been greatly outgrown, the new edifice pictured herewith crowned, in a way, the efforts the man and minister Roberts had put into the work.

Ordained

The pastor became a full-fledged "Rev." during the early summer, when he was finally ordained in the Evangelical United Brethren Church. But, many of his parishioners will tell you, "he was OUR 'Rev.' all the time."

One other person must be mentioned, because Rev. Roberts told us during an interview in which we checked on a number of things which we had learned from various sources, he was just one of the organization. The other, he lovingly says, was his wife, whose sacrifices were great. They are both happy now.

from . . . G's NOTES

Human Weakness

Another human weakness is portrayed at Parris Island, S.C. A corporal of marines has been given two months of hard labor, reduced to private, and fined substantially for "hitting a private in the stomach" because the private failed to address the corporal as "Sir." Here, on the one hand, is pointed up the smallness of a lot of us humans in demanding the last iota of our neighbors' devotion to US as important personages, while we fail to pass along whatever virtues there may be in whatever recognitions come to us. We, as a people, as, we, as individuals, like to sit upon our imagined thrones. Then we complain when the "throne" upon which we have hoisted ourselves falls down. Maybe some day people will develop inhibitions against considering themselves "great." And live happier ever afterward.

Schiller Recreation

For those who have known Schiller Recreation Center longer than I have known it, the seeming emptiness engendered by the closing of summer activities still came as a shock, with a "What'll we do now?" atmosphere hanging like a pall. For these and for me the announcement of the season's activities came as a harbinger of happy living through the fall and winter days. Before long I shall investigate the background—way back—of Schiller and, perhaps, in a story tell you (although many of you know) how Schiller and its manifold activities came to be. I believe it will make an interesting story, even though it may be "old stuff" to you who have lived your lives here.

Men In Charge On Laymen's Sunday At Thurman Ave. Methodist

Laymen Sunday will be observed at Thurman-av Methodist Church, Sunday, Oct. 21, at 10:30 a.m., with Emerson Barlow, president of the Men's Brotherhood, presiding. Harold Ellifritt, one of the laymen of the church, will speak. The choir will be composed of the men of the church, according to a statement by Mrs. Dale Davy, publicity chairman.

New Telephone Line Into Election Board

Charles E. Davies, clerk, Franklin County Board of Elections, has announced the installation of an additional telephone for the convenience of the public.

The new phone may be used for general information, the clerk said in his announcement, except for absentee voting information. The new telephone number is given as CA. 4-6116.

Siebert PTA Dance Oct. 27

Mrs. Ralph Skeen, Siebert PTA publicity chairman, has announced a Halloween dance at K. of P. Hall on S. High-st, Oct. 27, from 7:30 until 11 p.m.

Costumes will be optional, Mrs. Skeen said, and there will be masks for kids. Tickets are being sold by all board members and room mothers, it was stated, the price of the tickets being 50 cents.

Dancing will include both round and square, the announcement said, and the party will be attended by the entire faculty.

Mrs. Lust Urges Phone Calls For 'Top' Gifts

The South Area United Appeal has almost made 100% of its $3000 quota, according to Mrs. Wendall Lust, who said in a statement that "The women have worked extremely hard and have done a very outstanding job. However, we are still lacking $250 of our quota. If there are any in the South End who have not made their contributions, please phone Vice-Chairman Mrs. Mary Miller, CL. 8-6490, or Vice-Chairman Mrs. Robert Frost, HI. 3-5392 to arrange a call to be made to pick up your donation."

Tonight, Thursday, is the victory dinner and the official end of the campaign; however we will still pick up any contributions, but would like to have them so we can report our 100 per cent at the victory dinner and really make it a victory for the South Side. The South area has not met its 100 per cent quota for several years, and we feel this is the year we should do it, since our quota is lower than any area in the Women's Division," Mrs. Lust concluded.

Bulldogs Snap Into Victory

By Bob Goldstein

South High gridsters snapped out of their first-half doldrums to hand Eastmoor a 47 to 0 shellacking last Friday on the Mahaffey Stadium turf.

After being held to a surprisingly scoreless first quarter, the Bulldogs broke the scoring ice midway in the second period. A sparkling 65-yard punt return by Tom Bolen gave the Bulldogs a 7 to 0 lead at intermission time.

The bruising of Hal Ward turned the game into a rout by the end of the third stanza. The big junior scored three times in the wild third on sensational runs of 63, 53, and 18 yards. The second of which came when quarterback Ron Allen(after a 10-yard run, alertly lateraled to Ward, who carried the mail the remaining 53 yards.

In the final canto the Bulldog shock troops kept up the relentless attack by adding three more TDs. Sophomore Tom Bolen scored his second touchdown on a 10-yard end sweep to open the scoring in the last quarter. Bill Wentzel added another with a six-yard scamper, and sub halfback Jerry Bordner scored still another with an 11-yard sweep after his 63-yard run set up the evening's final score. The Bulldog's rugged end, Jerry Hill, converted after two of the first three scoring efforts. The formerly defensive-minded Southerners uncovered another place-kicking whiz in George Devlin. "Big Joe" added three points.

Tomorrow night South goes to Central to meet the Pirates of Coach Frank Howe. The riverside boys spoiled South's homecoming last year, 24 to 0, so Coach Duncan's gang will be eager for revenge.

'Fortunes' To Be Feature At Heimandale

"Fortune-Telling" is one of the scheduled hilarity "pieces" to be found at the first Halloween festival at Heimandale Elementary School next Thursday, Oct. 25, according to leaders in the school's PTA.

President Mrs. Budd said that in addition to the "fortune telling" which is not exactly guaranteed, "although the fun is guaranteed," there will be a cake walk, fish pond, handwork table, house plants, and movies for the children, plus hot dogs, pumpkin pie, potato chips, candy, soft drinks, and coffee.

The new structure which houses Heimandale school was occupied after the first of the year, making this the first annual Halloween, and the parents and teachers have expressed a determination to have their festival next week a huge success.

St. Leo PTA Holds Meeting This Evening

St. Leo's PTA will hold its second meeting of the year in the school auditorium today, Thursday, 8 p.m.

Speakers for the evening will be Sgt. Steve McDonald, director of traffic education, and Lucille Burke, juvenile court probation officer.

Seventh-grade room mother, Mrs. Rose Burkey, will be in charge of refreshments.

Ohio-av Church To Have S. High Boys Ensemble

The boys' ensemble of South High School is to sing for both worship services Sunday morning at Ohio Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church as part of the Men's Day observance of the church and the denomination. Miss Mary Frances Winchester is director of this choral group.

Professor J. F. Smith of Otterbein College is to speak at these 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. services on the subject "Men Under Orders." Prof. Smith is a retired teacher of speech and drama and is an active layman in the denomination.

Laymen of Ohio Avenue Church are in charge of the services and will lead the parts of the program. E. L. Wood is president of the men's group of the church and is chairman of the observance. Rev. Glendon Herbert is pastor of the church. The regular choirs of the church will also assist under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Moore. The church school convenes at 9:30 a.m.

St. Paul's Lutheran To Keep Brotherhood Day

In line with about 2000 other congregations of the American Lutheran Church, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 322 Stewart-av, will observe Brotherhood Sunday on Oct. 21, according to the pastor, Rev. John O. Lang.

"This Sunday emphasizes the work of the men in the congregation," the pastor said. He will speak at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on "When Souls Are Knitted Together," the announcement said.

Corpus Christi PTA Sets First Meeting

The first meeting of the year of the Corpus Christi PTA will take place in the social hall of the school Friday, Oct. 19. Meeting starts promptly at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served by the eighth-grade room mothers.

Band To Circleville

South High's Marching Band will play at the annual pumpkin show tonight, Oct. 18, at Circleville. The band will leave for Circleville in three buses at 4 p.m. today.

Halloween Party Plans Next Week

Announcement has been made that the annual Halloween party sponsored by the Council of South Side Organizations is in process of "making ready," and that further details will be ready next week.

The usual custom of reserving Barrett Junior High School as the fun headquarters for teen-agers will be followed again this year, it was said. Others will participate in the looked-for annual event at Schiller Recreation Center.

Costumes will be judged, and prizes, as usual, will be awarded in several categories, it was said.

Hamilton Twp. Hi School Having Decorating Job

Hamilton Township High School is undergoing renovation, according to a report from the journalism class of the school. All rooms and halls are being decorated, the contractors going to work as classes are dismissed for the day, and classes resuming the next morning without interference, they said.

Junior Officers Begin Legion Aux Careers Early

When the editor was asked if he would be interested in the pictures of four young people who were to be inducted as junior officers for the Southway Unit 144 of the American Legion, we thought it a good idea, framing in our minds four young ladies eligible, or nearly so, for induction into the higher offices very soon. We met the group at Post Home Oct. 8—and here we show you the surprise which faced us, when we learned that the Auxiliary starts early to get its future officers. The junior officers pictured here are, left to right, seated, Linda Lou Schmidt, secretary-treasurer; and Julianne Lyons, vice-chairman and chaplain; while, standing are, left to right, Carol Jane Backus, sergeant-at-arms, and Ann Schirtzinger.

Stewart Ave. School Gets Lions Gift

Last Tuesday marked the first presentation of the year by the South East Lions Club to schools, playground and other activities helped each year by this organization. The children pictured above are students of the Stewart Avenue School. The Lion members present are William Wacker, Walter Haines; Lions President Ed Findley, Bill Findley, Fred Brunner; Paul Lindquist, principal; Art Deal, "Doc" Lensenmeyer and George Davis. Principal Lundquist accepted for Stewart Avenue School the projector and movie screen purchased with funds raised by Lions in their annual newspaper sale. The funds derived from this sale are spent here in the South Side for worthwhile projects selected by a project committee. The project committee is headed this year by Chairman Art Deal. The South East Lions Club annual newspaper sale will be held this year on Friday, December 7, for approximately three hours in the evening. The drive for ads for this newspaper is now in progress, with all members soliciting for both ads and stories. —Photo by Chuck Toth

Annexation Halted By Appeal To Court

Eight Marion Township residents filed three injunction suits against the City of Columbus Monday, apparently upsetting smoothly running plans for the annexation of the Marion Local School District, which county commissioners approved last July.

A restraining order issued by Judge Robert M. Draper Monday also stymies early action by the Cit. Council, which was scheduled to annex the area next Monday.

Although known that numbers of persons were opposed to the annexation, there had been a general feeling in the area that since it had to come, the annexation might as well be accepted and have it over with, according to several people interviewed following the handing down of the decision.

Plaintiffs in the suit to prevent annexation of the entire Marion Local School District were listed as Forrest G. Raduege, 3641 Alum Creek-dr; Virgil Ball, 3777 Alum Creek-dr; Walter Hunt, 89 Obetz-rd; Fred M. Straight, 1963 Studer-av; Roland Windmiller, 2997 S. High-st; Charles Scales, 2089 Lockbourne-rd; Guy Straight, 1688 Dewberry-rd, and James M. Straight, 1650 Dewberry-rd.

The court was asked to issue both temporary and permanent injunctions against the annexation, the court taking the motions under consideration. It is understood that some citizens opposed to the annexation are prepared to carry the fight "as far as it can be carried," according to a spokesman.

South East Lions To Hear WLW's Peter Grant

Peter Grant

Tuesday, Oct. 23, Peter Grant of WLW, Cincinnati, will speak to members of the South East Lions Club at the Fiesta Club. The meeting will be the regular noon luncheon and, according to Frank Neubeck, first Vice-president, and program chairman, there will be approximately 150 present to greet the speaker.

The tall, genial gentleman who wears tweeds, rides to the hounds and talks with a smooth, modulated, almost British diction, is Melvin Maginn, formerly of St. Louis, known as Peter Grant, news commentator and man with the stories.

Grant broadcasts the latest news six nights weekly and appears on several newscasts prepared for WLW-TV, Crosley television station.

From "soda jerk" to major in the US Army and then ace newscaster is a full life, and all this will be reported on by Grant at the luncheon. WLW is flying Peter Grant to Columbus and back to Cincinnati for his Three-City Final show that evening.

St. Mary's Halloween Dance In New Gym

Deshler PTA Fun Frolic Committee Gives 'Look-In' At Event Of Oct. 25

"Guiding Hands" at Work

Deshler Elementary School PTA has announced a "fun frolic" for the fall festival, according to Mrs. C. B. Hauck, PTA publicity chairman. The affair will begin at 7 p. m. and continue until 9 p.m., according to the publicity chairman. Management of the affair has been in hands of an appointed committee, pictured above at one of their many meetings, preparing for the gala occasion on Thursday evening, Oct. 25.

Some of the listed items to keep things moving are a cake walk, while elephant, movies — but, said Mrs. Hauck, "let your imagination run riot" and everything will be there.

Revival Draws Wide Interest

Pastor William H. Raper of the South Side Baptist Church, 1621 S. High-st, has reported good attendance and deep interest under the preaching of Rev. Ray E. Roberts, executive secretary, State Convention of Baptists In Ohio.

Services began last Sunday, devoted to all-day worship, as will be the coming Sunday, according to announcements. Otherwise, service begins at 7:30 each week night, continuing until the close of the special services on Oct. 28.

Pastor Raper told the reporter that there are no restrictions on attendance — the services are open to everyone who may want to attend.

Safety To Be Topic

When the Smith Road Elementary School PTA meets Oct. 23, the school's bus drivers will be guests of the PTA, where they, with PTA members, will hear a lecture on safety. The title of the of the lecture, according to Mrs. Paul F. Wiess, PTA publicity chairman, will be "Stop, Look, Listen." Mrs. Joe Ziegler, president, will preside. Mrs. Paul Shoaf is program chairman.

Mrs. Ziegler and Mrs. Wiess represented Smith Road PTA at the Ohio PTA conference at Toledo.

A representative from the Ohio State Highway Patrol will present the safety subject, it was stated.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt Greets Local Women

Queen Aspirants Must Win In Ticket-Selling

Marion-Franklin Booster Club has announced, through Mrs. R. L. Kelley, project chairman, that the group will put on a Fun Frolic at the Marion-Franklin school buildings this Saturday, Oct. 20, beginning at 4 p.m. "There's no use talking about quitting time," but one of the committee said, but yielded enough to say that it would last right up to 11 o'clock going-away time.

The Booster Club is said to be the main source of revenue for indispensables not furnished by school authorities. Like many other schools, all uniforms must be purchased with funds raised by extra-curricular activities.

To help provide these funds, it was said, girls who aspire to be Queen for the Frolic must earn the place, not by votes, but by the number of tickets she can sell.

Marion-Franklin School is located at 1547 Koebel-rd, a short distance east of Lockbourne-rd.

Winner of the queenly position will be announced about 7 p.m., providing a "good reigning time" for the queen, it was said.

Redifer 'Sneaks' Look At New Cars

Les Redifer, of Les Redifer, Inc., local De Soto-Plymouth dealer, has returned home from Cincinnati, where he attended a sneak preview of De Soto's new 1957 cars. Some 1000 dealers, press representatives and dignitaries from four states in the Cincinnati region attended.

Redifer saw the factory's entire new line of 15 automobiles, and discussed with visiting executives the company's plans for selling and merchandising the product, following its public announcement on Oct. 30.

Called by factory officials "the most exciting car in the world today," the new line was presented in a lavish circus setting described as "the most exciting show on earth".

Commenting on the product, Redifer said:

"De Soto has really given us something to sell. I feel we have been given every possible advantage, so we are confident that this coming model year will be the most successful in history for us and for the factory. My staff and I are thrilled with the opportunity and sincerely proud of what we will have to offer the public. The new De Soto line certainly is, in our eyes, 'the most exciting car in the world today.' Our success should be as automatic as the cars are."

Cooking Clubs Open For New Members

There are two cooking clubs at Schiller Center. The intermediate group of boys and girls, age 13 and under, meet Saturday mornings at 9:30 to receive instruction in the basic principles of cooking, and make such foods as cookies, biscuits, cakes, and other dishes which are easily prepared by this age group.

The senior cooking class meets Monday evenings at 7, and is learning how to prepare party foods and other delicacies useful in planning an after-the-game snack for a group of friends.

Elizabeth Lloyd is the instructor and she will welcome new members in either of these two groups.

Homecoming Day at the Southwood Church of Christ will be this Sunday, and former pastor Joe Bronson will be the speaker at the morning and evening services. There will be a covered-dish dinner at 1 p.m.

This seems to be PTA week for this area, for earlier in the week, Reeb, Deshler, and Beckst groups convened. To meet tonight are Heyl, Livingston, and South High. All the meetings are open house, where parents will visit their children's teachers in the classrooms. The two elementary schools have 7:30 starting times and South starts its meeting at 7:45. Lincoln Park PTA is having a jitney luncheon today, with an executive board meeting slated for 1:30 p.m.

Ruth Circle of South Methodist Church will meet next Wednesday, Oct. 24, at the church. New officers are Mrs. D. J. Harris, Mrs. D. Batemad, and Mrs. R. Ward.

Grapevine telegraphy informed us that Helen Bronscome, 1789 Goethe-st, has been ill. We hope this edition finds her feeling "real pert" once more.

We didn't mean to overlook two birthdays earlier in the month, so our belated greetings to Thelma Swisher and Chester Ramey are very much in order.

Cloverleaf Clubs of St. Anthony that will have South Side hostesses in the near future are: Leaf 1, Mrs. Leonard Hanf, at noon today at the Virginia Hotel; Leaf 20, also today, at 12:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Harold Thomas, 829 Hanford-st.

Camp Fire Girls in this area are going at full speed again, and one of the main projects at this time is the sale of the "Oh So Good" candy. The candy is to go on sale tomorrow, Oct. 19. The Akaga Tanda group will be selling its candy this Saturday at Hoermle's Appliance Store.

Mrs. William McCleary's group resumed regular meetings earlier in the month and we hope to hear about their activities in the near future.

The South Unit of the League of Women Voters will meet next Tuesday, Oct. 23, in the home of Mrs. Carl Groezinger, 460 Stanley-av. Discussion leader will be Miss Arline Zander and resource chairman is Mrs. A. W. Foshay.

Don't forget to place your orders for Hungarian pastry with Wilma Barton, HI 4-7581. The Needle and Thread Guild will be making the goodies next Friday and Saturday in the Hungarian E and R Church, Woodrow and Washington Aves.

On our ailing list this week is Tommy Cahill, Bernie Lackowsky who had a finger cut off at work), Gertrude Ramey, and Grace McCaffrey. Mr. Cahill was to undergo surgery, but we didn't have time to get his hospital or room number. He is a resident of 120 Thurman-av.

Chapter 1427, Women of the Moose, will have a rummage sale tomorrow, at 346 S. 4th-st. Chairman of the project is Mrs. Will Truesdell.

An October wedding anniversary in years to come will be an event for Mary Ellen Peters, 444 Jackson-st, and Charles Millar, Reynoldsburg.

Trudeau Guild 19 will meet tonight at 8:00 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Thomas Thun, 1415 Wilson-av.

This Sunday, Oct. 21, Master Carl Snyder, 175 E. Deshler-av, will add a new year to those he already has.

The Navajo Circle of Oakwood Methodist Church meets this evening at 8 p.m. in the home of Dorothy Paul, 1303 Wilson-av.

Here's an item of interest that we gleaned from a Camp Fire Girl bulletin and we'll pass it along. There will be a United Nations Festival at the Veteran's Memorial Exhibition Hall, Oct. 24 and 25. The admission is free, but children under 12 should be accompanied by an adult.

Folk dance groups will present their native dances; tasty food samples will be available, made from the United Nations recipe book. University students of foreign birth will tell of important work that is being done in their homeland. Motion pictures will be shown, including Danny's Kay's "Assignment Children," the United Nation "Workshop for Peace," and Trusteeship film "Birthday for Eritrea," will show how people in Africa gain self-government. Additional information may be had by calling CA 4-9121. Sounds like a made-to-order project for all sorts of youth organizations, doesn't it?

Miss Harriet Dieter is president of the Gamma Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, professional educational society. Miss Dieter was vice-principal of Barrett Jr. High for several years.

Two St. Mary's High School graduates will join the list of newly marrieds on Oct. 20. Charlene McNair, 722 City Park-av, and John Charles Casey, 545 City Park-av, will exchange their vows in St. Mary's Church.

Our sympathy at this time to the family of Mrs. Gavin, who passed away last week after an extended illness.

Trudean Guild 10 has two projects coming up that are newsworthy. One is a bake sale, to be held at Ray's Superette, on Oct. 27. The other is a rummage sale, for which the Guild is asking for donations of rummage. Anyone desiring to contribute to the cause, should contact Marge Hoptry, HI 3-6145.

A June, 1956, graduate of South High School should be acclimated to his new surroundings by now. The young man is Larkin O'Neil, who is attending Harvard University. His address is 22 Thayer Hall, Cambridge, Mass.

The Women's Society of South Methodist Church will hold its anuual chicken dinner Oct. 25, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., and from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Small "additions" are now part of the Roy Castle home and the Ray Ward home. Mr. and Mrs. Castle named their new daughter Pamela Ann and tht Wards chose Clarence as the name of their son. Ah. yes, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hicks had a little girl, a sister for Gary.

Once again it is that time of year to think of our annual Christmas project. The personnel and patients at Benjamin Franklin Hospital were so pleased last year.

As you remember, it was poshave us repeat the endeavor this ear. As you remember, it was possible to give every patient at the Ben Franklin one item that he or she could use as a Christmas present for some member of his or her family. It may seem early, but most Christmas projects are decided in November, and we would like to remind you of this project. This is the fourth year of having a Christmas project and the previous ones have been very sucessful. Sincerely, we pray, that this year will be the best one yet! Gift items may be of your own choosing, not necessarily new, but in useable condition. Anything appropriate for men, women, or children is acceptable. We'll be writing each week about our "Gifts for Giving" project, so be prepared!

Guess that winds up our items for this week; don't forget to call us at HI 4-1051; we'll be listening.

'Till next edition then,

Where Quality Fixtures and Service Have Built a 30 Year Tradition

IN the fast and furious pace of living we frequently take for granted many of the blessings of community life that are so essential to our well-being. We accept, for instance, the protection of our local fire and law enforcement departments, without so much as a word of thanks. True, these men are following a profession of their own choosing, yet they contribute greatly to the welfare of our community. Because of them we sleep well at night . . . secure in the knowledge that they are on guard to protect and shield us from loss and harm.

Our fire losses have been kept at a minimum because of the effectiveness of an efficient fire department. Not only has this department kept losses at a low level through quick response to alarms, but they have done a thorough job of fire prevention through alertness and educational campaigns throughout our community.

Law enforcement in our community also merits a word of commendation. Our law enforcement departments have worked efficiently and courteously to give our people proper protection, day and night. We rest well, knowing these men are on duty guarding our every interest. Trained, alert, these men stand courageously between law-abiding and the unlawful . . . between the right kind of folks and those who would violate the rights of others.

To you who serve on our police and fire department . . . thanks for a job well done. As a result of your diligence and efforts ours is a community in which its citizens enjoy living to the fullest.

STEPS of PROGRESS

This is one of a series of messages designed to point out why this community is truly a wonderful place in which to live. Reflecting the steps of progress in our area, these advertisements are sponsored by local business and professional men who are appreciative of the loyalty, cooperation, and patronage of the loyal citizens whom they serve. Each message is a tribute to a group or organization having complete faith and confidence in the future progress of this community.

Woman's 'Page Editor Tells Budding Journalists Of Her Own Experience

by Patty Trumps

Gay Pauley, United Press woman's page editor, spoke to members and advisors of the Journalism Association of Ohio Schools Friday, Oct. 12, at a banquet at the Ohio Union, Ohio State University.

Miss Pauley told her audience of about 170 people of her own experiences as a journalist, of the steps she climbed in the ladder of success to her present status, and of the advantages and disadvantages of making journalism a profession.

Known for the diversity of her assignments, Miss Pauley has worked as a general assignment reporter, political correspondent, television news reporter, and she even covered the funeral of Man O' War. Then, too, she has interviewed such people as Salvador Dali, Queen Elizabeth, Christian Dior, and Katherine Cornell. When asked what type of story was most difficult to cover, the attractive blonde promptly answered, "Coal mine disasters." "The reason for this," Miss Pauley went on to say, "is that the death toll is so undetermined at first, and it's hard to get accurate information."

A native of West Virginia, Miss Pauley studied at Marshall College, Huntington, where she was a reporter for the college newspaper, and at the University of Colorado.

Janice Goldberg, Patty Trumps, Judy Spurgeon, Bob Goldstein, and John Fritz represented South High at the conference.

Surviving is her husband, Dr. John W. Jackman, veterinarian. She was buried in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Motorist, you've heard the words "drive safely" and "drive carefully" again and again. But have you heard the phrase "drive legally?" It means to drive within the limits of the law. Frequently a driver will be stopped by a traffic officer for violating a law, such as running a stop sign, exceeding the speed limit, or failing to signal on a turn. The motorist may admit he was violating a law, but he will often insist he was driving safely and carefully. The Safety Council of The Columbus Chamber of Commerce says to such drivers: "If it isn't legal, it isn't safe!"

Nephrosis Film To Show Public Facts

The newly organized Central Ohio Chapter of the National Nephrosis Foundation Inc. will sponsor a film on childhood nephrosis this coming Sunday, at 4 p.m. at Broad-st Presbyterian Church in Palmer Hall. The meeting is announced as a public affair.

Although not well known to the public, nephrosis is one of the leading killer diseases of children, it has been said.

Honor Society Inducts Nine From Hamilton Twp.

Nine members of Hamilton Township High School were inducted into the Franklin County Honor Society at Canal-Winchester High School.

The meeting was also the semi-annual meeting of the society.

New members from Hamilton Township High School who were inducted were Shirley Baker, Joann Angel, Marg Shuler, Joyce Roller, Chuck Juliano, Jim Walters, Esther Derby, Phil Ables, and John Snyder.

Hamilton members attending were Beverly Roof, Chris Thompson, Lucille Obert, Janet Lindemuth, Bob Maier, Russ Evans, and Don Lipfert.

Basketball Season Opening Nears

Le Roy Wise, athletic director at Schiller, has been busy getting teams lined up for the coming basketball season, which will begin very shortly. In view of this, Wise has requested that any team planning to enter one of the Schiller leagues get in touch with him within the next few days.

There are still openings for girls in all three of the girls leagues, the director said. The age breakdown for the groups is as follows; 12 years and under are in the junior league; 13 through 15 are in the intermediates, 16, 17, and 18 make up the senior group.

Wise said he would like to have a full league of girls teams in each age group, and asks that all girls who are interested contact him immediately.

A.M. Bowling Gets Underway

The Schiller Recreation Center Saturday A. M. Bowling League began Saturday, Oct. 13, at the Parsons Alleys.

The league started off evenly with some nice games scores rolled and the team games were close in the entire league.

Bob Frost paced the boys with high single game of 185, while Ken Schumacher rolled 463 for the three-game honors. The Lucky Strikes boys' team rolled 858 for high single game, with Parsons Recreation bowling 2531 for the three game total.

Shirley Schumacher took the honors for girls with high game of 163 and three game total of 419. The Hot Shot girls' team rolled 854 single and 2,490 three-game series to sweep the three games from their opponents.

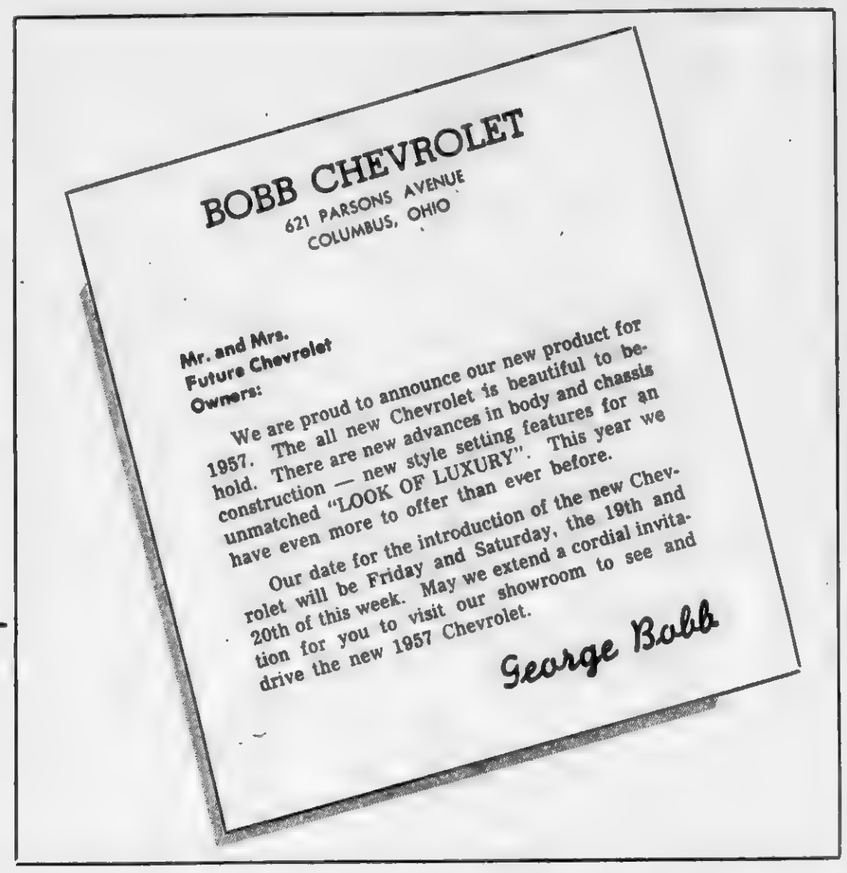
CHEVROLETS

STYLED FOR YOU

Now bowing onto the scene are the dramatically different cars of 1957. See them all . . . see them now . . . come to the Show and eye-witness the dawn of a bright new era in automotive engineering, design and styling!



PERSONAL LETTER

From Mr. George Bobb, Owner Of Bobb Chevrolet To All Future Chevrolet Owners

GEORGE BOBB

BOBB CHEVROLET
621 PARSONS AVENUE
COLUMBUS, OHIO

Mr. and Mrs.
Future Chevrolet
Owners:

We are proud to announce our new product for 1957. The all new Chevrolet is beautiful to behold. There are new advances in body and chassis construction — new style setting features for an unmatched "LOOK OF LUXURY". This year we have even more to offer than ever before.

Our date for the introduction of the new Chevrolet will be Friday and Saturday, the 19th and 20th of this week. May we extend a cordial invitation for you to visit our showroom to see and drive the new 1957 Chevrolet.

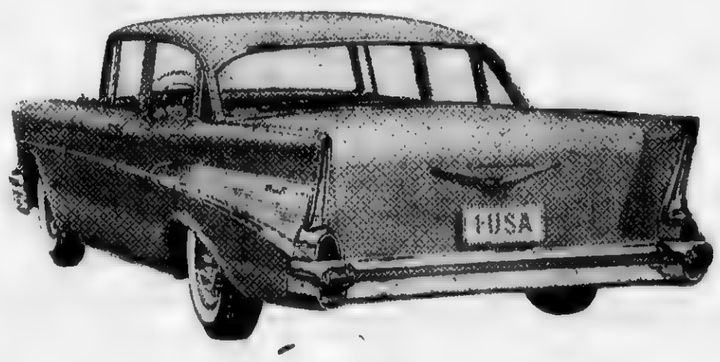
George Babb

HOLD IT - I KNOW YOU'RE GOING TO LIKE THE CHEVROLET PICTURE!

TOMORROW — '57 CHEVROLET! IT'S SWEET, SMOOTH AND SASSY!

Chevy goes 'em all one better—with a daring new departure in design (looks longer and lower, and it is!), exclusive new Turboglide automatic transmission with triple turbines, a new V8 and a bumper crop of new ideas including fuel injection!

New right down to the wheels it rolls on — that's the '57 Chevrolet!



By now you know it's new in style. But treat yourself to another look. Let your eyes linger on that stylish new bonnet, that daring new grille, the deeply hooded headlights, the saucy new slant of those High-Fashion rear fenders. Chevy's new and Chevy shows it all over! It's longer and lower for '57.

And Chevrolet's new in lots of ways that don't show up in our picture. It's new in V8 power options that range up to 245 h.p.* Then, you've a choice of two automatic drives as extra-cost options. There's an even finer Powerglide — and new, nothing-like-it Turbo-glide that brings you Triple-Turbine take-off and a new flowing kind of going — even helps you slow up on downgrades. It's the only one of its kind — the newest, sweetest, smoothest automatic of them all!

NOW—FUEL INJECTION OFFERED FOR THE FIRST TIME!

Greatest engine advance since overhead valves! Chevrolet engines with Ramjet fuel injection, available at extra cost in the Corvette and passenger car models, deliver up to 283 h.p.

Come see the new car that goes 'em all one better — the new 1957 Chevrolet!

S.E. Lions Present $700 To South Side 'Y' For 'Granddaddy' Slide At 'Y' Park

The South Side Branch Y-Park was recipient of a $700 service project allotment from the Southeast Lions toward the erection of a 67 foot slide board for the enjoyment of youngsters using Y-Park.

Eleven years ago, the Southeast Lions started promoting projects for aid to the institutions of learning and social services of the southeast territory.

Money for the projects is raised through the sale of the "Southeast Lions Roar" newspaper, sold exclusively within the South Side community on the first Friday in December. This year's paper sale will be held Friday, Dec. 7, according to an announcement this week.

Halloween 'Beggars' In Good Cause

Many Halloween "beggars" on Oct. 31 will not have purely selfish motives when they call at homes in the South Side. These, according to several church officials, will be UNICEF workers, youngsters on the regular Halloween rounds, but the "treat" will be pennies, or more, placed in a carton, which each of the children will turn in to his or her church for opening and recording. The funds go to help overseas children who are minus the ordinary foods. UNICEF has worked out excellently, according to church authorities, and the police department has approved the solicitation on Halloween as a means of preventing vandalism which often is the result of needing "something to do." Police say UNICEF is a good way for the children to use Halloween.

Mask Or Not At Barrett's Dance, 31st

Jim Wagner and his group will provide the music for the Halloween dance at Barrett Junior High School Wednesday evening of next week, according to an announcement at the school this week.

Mrs. Richard Chambers, publicity chairman, stated that wearing of masks is optional, and that prizes will be given for the prettiest costume and the funniest.

The Council of South Side Organizations announced that it will provide cider and doughnuts for the occasion. Thirty cents covers a single admission to the dance.

Dance time will be from 7 to 10 p.m.

Rodney Kolb Guest Speaker

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of Thurman Avenue Methodist Church will have as guest speaker on Oct. 28, 6 p.m., Rodney Kolb of South High School, who will speak on "The Christian and Politics." The program will be followed by a hamburger fry and recreation.

S. S. Council Provides Youth Halloween Fun

Siebert PTA Halloween Dance At K. Of P. Hall

Mrs. Riffle and Mrs. Salser

Siebert School PTA has made reservations at the K. of P. Hall, 697 S. High-st, for its Halloween masquerade dance to be held this Saturday evening, Oct. 27, according to an announcement made during the week.

Tickets have been sold at the school, but there will be tickets at the door for 50 cents per person, according to Mrs. Robert Riffle and Mrs. Donald Salser, ticket chairmen.

Dancing will be from 7:30 to 11 p.m., it was stated.

Goblins, ghosts, and children will be hand-in-hand Wednesday night at the annual Halloween parties held for South Side youngsters, according to officials of the Council of South Side Organizations.

This annual party is divided into two section: one for teenagers at Barrett Junior High School from 7 to 10 p.m., and the other at Schiller Center starting at 7 p.m. and it is for all boys and girls 12 years of age and under.

The Council of South Side Organizations is sponsoring these two parties in cooperation with the Columbus Recreation Department and Barrett Junior High PTA.

At Barrett

The party for teenager at Barrett was planned by joint committee of the Barrett Student Council and PTA groups and will feature a costume contest, with prizes to the winners, and square dancing with Jim Wagner of the South Side YMCA as caller.

The party at Schiller Recreation Center, which will start promptly at 7 p.m., is open to all boys and girls 12 years of age and under. All youngsters attending this party must be in some sort of costume (it need not be an elaborate one) and parents are encouraged to accompany the younger tots.

The Program

The program will consist of (1) costume judging, where prizes will be awarded to the boys and girls having the prettiest, funniest, wierdest, and most unusual costume; (2) ghost movies; (3)) games; (4)) puppet show; and (5) wierdest of all, "A trip to Mars." Members of the Council of South Side Organizations will be the hosts for the night and will serve free cider, doughnuts and other treats to all youngsters who attend.

A unique feature of the Schiller fun fest is that the children will be separated into three different age groups—6 and under; 7, 8, and 9; and 10, 11, and 12—so that the program can function more smoothly. Schiller staff members will lead the activities in the program, and the entire program is free of charge.

Extra Special

An extra special feature of the evening will take place after the party has ended. Each boy and girl attending the party will be asked to register on a blank which can be secured beforehand. After the children have gone home, a drawing will be made in each age group. If the boys and girls whose names are drawn are at home when a call is made to them, they will receive a prize for their promptness in getting home after the party and it will be delivered to them the same night.

These South Side community Halloween parties have always been well attended and enjoyed by South Side youngsters and have helped greatly in decreasing destructive activities in the community, according to officials.

Determined Bulldogs Fight Hard For Victory Denied By Determined Central

A key-up bunch of South Bulldogs pushed the host Central Pirates all over the field last Friday evening in a game played on the Buccaneer's grounds. However, South's tactics ceased in between the 10-yard lines. This enabled the hosts to save their homecoming with a rugged 0 to 0 stalemate.

The game, one of the best defensive battles of the year, was controlled by the possession-minded tactics of the visitors. The Bulldogs out-first downed Central 14 to 7, outrushed them with a 135-yard net, and outpassed them with a net total of 81 yards. So effective was South's control game, Central had possession for only 19 plays in the second half, gaining 53 yards net, and only two first downs.

South had an early first quarter drive stopped on the Central 25. The march was sparked by the running of Ron Allen, who bootlegged beautifully around for a 19-yard run. The Bucs countered in the second period with their most serious bid of the evening, a 26-yard run by George Parks carried to the Bulldog 19. Four plays later South took over.

Late in the third stanza South drove to the Pirates 16. On the fourth down, quarterback Ron Allen completed a clutch 13-yard pass to halfback Hal Ward on the 3. However, Central's line rose to the occasion as they stopped Allen on a last down sneak to take over.

Field Goal Fails

Unable to move, the Bucs punted to the South 33. A pass from Allen to John Bolen, and the running of Hal Ward carried the ball to the downtowners' 23. On third down Doug Childers skirted left and for 14 and a first down on Central's nine. After three plays failed to cross the double stripe, George Devlin tried a field goal from the 15. The kick was short and wide. With six seconds left, a desperation pass play by Central ended the game.

Even though the Bulldogs held a wide margin in statistics, they were unable to dent the Pirates inside the latter's ten.

This Friday will be South's homecoming, and the Bulldogs will be hosts to the West Cowboys. The Hilltoppers have held a long jinx over South High grid teams. The last win by a South team over West was in 1934.

Turkey Menu South Church On Nov. 1

Mrs. Jessie Kinser, publicity chairman for Southwood Church of Christ, Woodrow and Bruck, has announced a turkey dinner at the church.

The dinner, Mrs. Kinser said, will be served next Thursday, Nov. 1, at 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and again from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Committees have reported that details have been completed for the day in each year when members and many others eat two meals with them.

The Sun Shines

There is a "SUN" shining, and you will find it on page 12 of this issue of the South Side Leader. It's the result of the artistry of Tom Sharp, Leader display advertising manager.

Lovely Ladies

A few weeks ago we had a picture of the executive board members of the Columbus Mothersingers with a story in the Leader. A bit later we commented upon the Mothersingers in this column. The result: a cherished note from Secretary of Columbus Mothersingers, Mrs. L. L. Long, 691 Siebert-st, whose generous words seem to be weighted with the loveliness of this spiritually ascendant group of women. May they long be Mothersingers!

Our South High

Congratulations, South High gridders, on your tie game with Central Friday night. If you can't beat them, tie them, is a mighty good practice. That way they can't get ahead of you. You are doing a good job and the South Side is proud of you

American-Hungarian And Croation Democrats Unite

The executive committee for the American Hungarian and Croatian Democratic Clubs held a joint meeting Oct. 11 to outline plans for a pre-election rally. The organizations consist of approximately 600 members. The officers of the American-Hungarian Democratic Club are:

President, Louis Tokar, vice-president, Frank De Franco, secretary, Ruth Reeves; treasurer, Julius Vargo.

The officers of the American Croatian Democratic Club are, president, Sam Skunza; vice-president, Mrs. John Kusitch; secretary, Joe Zubovich; treasurer, Frank Sarich.

Lou Atkinson, an honorary member of the American-Hungarian Democratic Club, was selected by the executive committee chairman, Lou Miller, to serve as chairman of the advisory committee, and Harold Smith, an honorary member of the American-Hungarian Democratic Club, will serve with him.

Also appointed by Miller was the advertising committee, consisting of Steve Deri, Sam Skunza and Lou Tokar. Atkinson and Smith will also serve as honorary members of this committee.

The executive committee asked several outstanding political personalities, representing the national headquarters, state, city and individual campaigners, to attend this rally. There will be two outstanding Democratic speakers whose names will be published later.

The rally will be held Thursday evening, Nov. 1, at the Crostian Home, 377 Reeb-av, at 8 o'clock, and will be open to the public, it was said. Free refreshments, including Hungarian cabbage rolls, will be served after the meeting, it was stated.

40 Percent Of Barrett Students Earn 'Perfect' Attendance Awards

"Good citizenship is even more important than good scholarship in its effect on future life" said Robert L. Nash, principal of Barrett Junior High, in issuing a list of 421 students having perfect attendance. He continued:

"Promptness and regularity of attendance are basic to good citizenship," he said, "and I am happy to congratulate these pupils on forming such good beginnings for good community membership. They are making valuable contributions to their school as well as to their future lives.

"In accordance with this opinion, the following young citizens of Barrett are being given recognition for being present and on time every day of the first six weeks of school:"

Stewart's Big Festival Set For Tonight

This evening Flippo the Clown will help entertain the large crowd which, according to Mrs. Richard E. Chambers, publicity chairman, is usual at PTA-sponsored affairs in Stewart Avenue School.

There are many other things to keep interest at high speed, Mrs. Chambers said, and it is expected that the evening will, as usual, be full of interesting things to keep everyone busy. Teachers, parents, board members and friends will start off with a "jitney supper" at 5:30, Mrs. Chambers said. Yes, and Mrs. Chambers reminded that in addition to Flippo and many other things, there'll be a merry-go-'round for those of the proper age—"for all under 100," Mrs. Chambers announced.

Rummage Sale Details Finished

Mrs. Doris Shaffer, general chairman of the rummage sale to be conducted by St. Leo's Altar-Rosary Sodality and Parish Council has announced that plans for this annual affair have been completed.

The sale will be held October 25 and 26 at 213 E. Main-st, and the store will be open for business from 8:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m.

Mrs. Shaffer will be assisted by the following committee: Mrs. Frank McGarvey and Mrs. Madigan, co-chairmen, and Mrs. Mary Yaeger, Mrs. Ollie Lauber, Mrs. Anton Koles, Mrs. George Dorn, Mrs. Joseph Guth, Mrs. Spangler, Mrs. John Jakob Mrs. Leo Herderick, Mrs. George Kellner, and Mrs. Andrew Theado.

Early indications show a wide and interesting variety of articles will be available at the sale, according to Mrs. George C. Miller, publicity chairman.

Rev. Lang Notes Reformation In Sunday Sermon

The 439th anniversary of Martin Luther's nailing of the 95 theses to the church door of the castle church at Wittenberg, Germany, and the birthday of the Protestant Reformation will be celebrated at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Sunday, Oct. 28.

Rev. John O. Lang, the pastor, will preach at 8 a.m. and at 10:30 a.m. on the theme, "A Lost Book is Found!" "The guiding principles of the Reformation were scripture alone as authority and salvation alone by grace through faith in Christ," the pastor said.

Thurman WSCS Turkey Supper

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Thurman Avenue Methodist Church will serve its annual turkey supper Thursday, Nov. 1, from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Reservations may be made by calling HI. 4-9067 or HI. 4-9217 before Saturday, Oct. 27.

Trinity Lutheran Church Begins Extensive Drive

Dr. Earl Hessenauer

Trinity Lutheran Church, Third and Fulton-sts, Rev. George S. Shultz, Sr., acting pastor, recently launched its program of "Spiritual Growth in Five Dimensions", a special endeavor designated to promote spiritual growth among members of the congregation.

Dr. Earl Hessenauer is general chairman of the program, assisted by the following committees and chairmen: spiritual growth, Edward Becker; evangelism, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shields; stewardship, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ettel.

The purpose of "Spiritual Growth in Five Dimensions" is to increase emphasis on Bible study, family devotions, prayer, regular attendance at Sunday school and church services, bringing others to church, taking part in organizational activities and responsibilities, and exercising proportional giving of time, talents and earthly gifts.

Thurman Ave. Methodist Brownies Proudly Show New Flags To Camera

The Thurman Avenue Methodist Church, Brownie Troop 329 had its picture taken with the American and Brownie flags displayed. The flags were presented to the troop by the Sunday School.

Every Brownie was present and in uniform. The leader, Mrs. Mildred Pope, and co-leader, Mrs. Katheryn Salser, are shown.

The birthday of Janice Hoover was a special part of the Brownie meeting this week. Janice presented cookies to her Brownie friends.

Arrangemens were made for the Halloween party next Friday in honor of the Girl Scout founder's birthday.

Oct. 26 should be proclaimed as "twins" day, at least on our South Side. Two sets of twins have that date as a natal day, so happy birthdays to Millie and Billy Lowe, 400 Deshler-av, and to Charlene and Charlotte Highland, 33 W. Moler-st. The Lowe twins are South High students, while the Highland girls are in Barrett Junior High School. Larry McCaffery isn't a twin, but he deserves birthday greetings tomorrow, also. Larry resides at 37 Reeb-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ryan, 816 S. 17th-st, journed to Washington, D.C., to get a first-hand view of their newest grandchild.

Circle 12, of St. Francis School of Nursing, meets at 8:30 this evening in the home of Mrs. Arthur Widmaier, 386 E. Moler-st.

The regular business meeting Women of the Moose, will be tonight at 8 p.m., at the Moose Home.

Our congratulations to Marilyn Knore, 920 S. 18th-st, who will reig nas "Miss Firefighter" at the Firefighters Ball to be held this Saturday at the M and M building, State Fairgrounds. Marilyn will receive a trophy sponsored by Audrey Hepburn, Hollywood star, whose latest movie is "War and Peace." Engine House No. 6 entered Marilyn in the contest. Elona Sabo also merits recognition as one of the finalists, too, as she is one of our South Side beauties. She was the representative of Engine House No. 14.

Deshler-av PTA is sponsoring a Fun Frolic to be held this evening at the school. Some of the features to be found there include a cake walk, game room, fish pond, movie and refreshments. Mrs. Donald Neubig is the general chairman of the affair. Lincoln Park PTA is holding an open house this evening from 7 to 7:30 p.m. Peg and her Puppets will entertain after the 7:30 business meeting.

Two young ladies who have been ailing are Beth Edwards and Janice Kaufman. Janice was hospitalized for a while in Children's Hospital.

The Men and Women Foresters of St. Leo are sponsoring a euchre party at the school hall this Saturday at 8:15 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Oct. 17 was the birth date of John Eagon, so belated greetings to the young man.

'Tian't funny, really, but we're getting a chance to do a liittle unexpected razzing these days. A certain character in our family has been in Docter's Hospital recently, all "strung up" in traction, so we visited him and told him we were always afraid he'd wind up that way. The young man is Don LaRue, old "string-along" in person. (No we're not heartless, but just repaying him for his remarks when he visited us in Mt. Carmel!)

One-day-late birthday greeting to Virginia Thompson, 362 Woodrow-av. A family dinner will honor Mrs. Thompson.

Just no need to do any baking this weekend, with two bake sales in progress. The Needle and Thread Guild of Hungarian E and R Church has a two-day sale at the church, selling Hungarian pastries. To order, call Wilma Barton at HI 4-7581. (We imagine it's possible to purchase the goods without a previous order, but the order assures you of getting exactly what you desire.)

This bake sale is to be held tomorrow and Saturday. The other bake sale is Saturday (Oct. 27), and is to be held at Ray's Superette Market, Moler and Fourth Streets. It is a project of Trudeau Guild 10. Virginia Leonard is in charge of the sale.

When October nears the end, a family birthday dinner is always the thing for the Dean-Vance family. Mae Dean has a double birthday celebration right about now, for her mother, Lucille Vance, 611 Stewart-av has an Oct 26 birthday, and her son, Bob, "ages" a year on Oct. 29. (Don't worry, Bob, we're just envious!)

The ailing list includes Mrs. Ralph Burrus, St., who is in Mt. Carmel Hospital, and Jim Robison, 1571 S. Sixth-st, who is recuperating from a broken leg and broken arm, suffered in a fall.

Can't remember whether we chronicled the arrival of Master Michael Edwin Smith, 1360 Linwood-av, but if we did we're sure his mom and dad won't mind a repeat announcement. The young fun is a little over a month-old now.

An SOS is being sent to readers of the column by those in charge of the Drive for Retarded Children, to be held Nov. 13. The project is not part of the U.A. and so the special appeal is necessary. The urgent need right now is for workers to go out on Nov. 13, from 7 to 9 p.m. The two chairmen for this area are Eddy Held, whose number is HI 3-2239, and Mrs. Grundey, whose phone is HI 3-2378. Funds are needed for equipment and repairs for the school that is used by the retarded youngsters.

Have a hankering for turkey and all that goes with it? Welllll, if you call Mrs. Alfred Barrick or Mrs. John Hardwick and make a reservation right away, you can join all the other diners at Thurman-av Methodist Church on Nov. 1. The meal will be served from 5 to 7:30 p.m., and is WSCS sponsored. This Saturday the South Methodist members and friends will indulge in some wholesome Halloween fun at the church, as we've mentioned in previous columns. (You see, we've been getting South Methodist's bulletin, so are able to "plug" their events. Wish some of the other church publicists would keep us in mind too, when mailing the bulletins. It helps us to make a better report on the activities that are taking place in our part of town.) To return to Thurman-av Methodist Church a moment, Guild 22 is meeting at Henderson Hall today at 10 a.m.

Patricia Ann Wolford Weds Logan J. Umbley

MRS. LOGAN J. UMBLELY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wolford, 1220 Bulen-av, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Logan J Umbley, son of Mrs. J. L. Umbley, 1436 Briarwood-rd.

The ceremony took place Saturday, Oct. 20, at a 10 a.m. Mass in Corpus Christi Church. Miss Alice Joyce Wolford served as maid of honor for her sister, and another sister, Dorothy Charlene, was flower-girl.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The couple is presently on a short wedding trip.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Southeast Lions Club are making plans for a gala afternoon of fun on Oct. 21 at the Fiesta Club. A fine luncheon will be served at 12 noon and following the luncheon, an afternoon of cards will be available. There are many prizes to be distributed, both table prizes and door prizes. The cost of the afternoon will be $2.50.

Dorothy Whitacre will take reservations for anyone interested in attending and her number is HI 4-4031. (Dorothy is responsible for the cute little "Dottie" ad that is generally near the Gadabout's wordage.) We hear the prizes are exceptionally nice AND the profits are put to good use right here in the South Side, aiding under-privileged children and unfortunate children. The Lions and their Ladies are always noted for civic-mindedness, so their projects deserve all the backing we can give them.

The Webb sisters of Innis-av move a year up life's ladder very soon now, so best wishes to Carolyn and Naomi.

Say, this coming Saturday will be a busy day! Have you noticed how many activities are to take place on Oct 27? Well, here's another one and "pop" ought to like this one. The Senior High Youth Fellowship group of St. John's E and R Church, 59 Mound-st, are going to wash cars from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

All profit goes for the missionary work of building another church. Our young informant stresses the quick service, so we'll make a special note of it, too

Hope Curtis Bentley, 1311 Parsons-av, is feeling better now, after his stay in Mercy Hospital.

The WSCS of South Methodist Church is a real busy group today, for today they are having

Miss Harley Becomes Bride Of E. R. Cott

The marriage of Elizabeth Helen Harley, daughter of Mrs. W. S. Harley, 66 S. Champion-av, and Emerson R. Cott, 1333 Glenn-av, took place on Oct. 10.

Rev. John L. Dunham performed the ceremony at 6:30 p.m. at the home of the bride, 1738 Westwood-av. Only members of the immediate families attended the wedding which was followed by a dinner at the Jai Lai.

Miss Florence Harley attended her sister as maid of honor, and Lewis William Cott, son of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride is a graduate of Ohio State University and a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority. The bridegroom, formerly with Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, is now associated with the Engineering Maintenance Center, Army Engineers.

Miss Ebright Weds Nov. 3

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ebright, 2047 McCoy-rd, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Betty Jean, to Gilbert Landon Dunn, son of Mrs. Jasper G. Dunn, 1827½ S. Fifth-st, and the late Mr. Dunn. Miss Ebright is a graduate of Hilliards High School and attended Ohio State University. She is associated with the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co. Mr. Dunn is a graduate of Columbus Boychoir School and attended South High School. He is associated with the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co. The open church wedding will be an event of Nov. 3, at 6:30 p. m., Riverside Methodist Church.

Dance Club Sets Dance At St. Mary's

St. Mary's Dance Club will sponsor a round and square Halloween dance at 700 S. Third-st in St. Mary's new school gym, Wednesday, Oct. 31, from 9 to 12 p.m. The Al Baumbusch orchestra will play. Prizes will be given for best costumes.

Chairman is Bill Stickel and co-chairmen are Herb Brooks and George Maurer. Mrs Belle Leddy is in charge of entertainment. Mrs. George Mauser is publicity chairman.

Proceeds from the dance will go toward the building fund, the publicity chairman told the reporter.

We see no more items to write about, so we'll prepare to vamoose off the page. Don't forget our "Gifts for Giving" at Benjamin Franklin Hospital, so that the patients may personally 'give" something to someone in their family at Christmas. It can be "used," but must be presentable. We start writing of it early, so that interested groups can discuss it in their November meetings. Naturally, individuals can take part and we'll welcome their contributions. For those who remember that we've included Orient State Hospital patients in our Christmas project, heretofore, the patients have been recipients of the Marines Toy Drive for the past two years, so do real well at Christmas time now. I'm sure most of the readers feel as ye Gadabout, that it's better to our our Christing "giving" in places that AREN'T provided for so that's why we aren't including Orient this year.

Those clock hands are racing so we must rush to finish this in time to get it to the Leader office. Phone number is still HI 4-1051 so call. 'Till next week.

Hungarian E&R Ladies Begin Working On Their Two-Day Bake Sale To Be Held On Oct. 26 And 27

The committee works for high success.

The Needle and Thread Guild of the Hungarian E&R Church has announced a Hungarian pastry bake sale at the church Oct. 26 and 27. The church is located at 365 Woodrow-av. "On those days, recipes that have been brought over the waters and handed down, mother and daughter, and cherished by each generation, will be used, according to Mrs. John Komives, publicity chairman. There will be, among many different kinds, nut kalacs, nut kiflis, and one very pretty one named Racsos Kapu. Mrs. Komives said. Mrs. Paul Barton said she can be contacted at HI. 4-7581 for more information. Her committee is Mrs. Bert Varga, Mrs. John Finta, Mrs. Ann Rilley and Mrs. Myrtle Becker. A group of ladies are shown as preparations began for the baking days. They are, beginning at left, around the table, Mrs. Paul Barton, Mrs. John Komives, Mrs. Joseph Marsalko, Mrs. Bert Varga and Mrs. Mike Bordy.

Local Grid Unit Sees Victory 28th

Head Coach Charles Smith of the Steelton Merchants football team will lead his warriors onto the field against Mid-City Sunday, Oct. 28, hoping to garner sufficient "votes" to keep the team up higher in the standings.

Coach Smith reports one game in the won column so far and two games lost.

The two remaining games are with Linden Merchants Oct. 28 at Marion-Franklin Field.

Considering the fact that the team got off to a late start, Coach Smith thinks his charges are doing well and laying a foundation for possible winner next year.

St. Mary's Bond Gets Two Tallies

St. Mary's went down to defeat by Olentangy at Delaware last Friday evening, with Rick Bond clicking for St. Mary with two tallies. The win was the sixth straight for Olentangy. St. Mary has won two-thirds of its games, four out of six.

St. Leo Euchre Party Is Set For Oct. 24

A. T. O'Brien is chairman of a euchre party sponsored by the men and women Foresters of St. Leo Parish, Saturday, Oct. 27, at 8:15 p.m. in the school hall, Hanford and Bruck-sts.

Proceeds will be used for the building fund of the new parish school. Assisting Chairman O'Brien on the committee are Leo Hummel, Miss Gertrude Hummel, and Mrs. Rita Plageman.

Miss Merz Is Given Discharge From Hospital

Miss Cora Merz, 168 E. Hanford-st, who suffered a broken leg last April 2, has been discharged from hospital attention, she told the Leader. Out of the hospital some time, it has been necessary to return periodically, until the case was dismissed last week. She was in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Southwood To Have Visiting Speaker, Artist

Rev. Willie E. Davis, minister, has announced that evangelistic services will begin at the Southwood Church of Christ, 120 Southwood-av, at S. Fourth-st, Oct. 28, and continue through Nov. 11. Dr. W. W. Perry, president of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary in Cincinnati, will be the evangelistic speaker. The music will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. William Norris of Painesville. Mrs. George Shreve will be at the organ. Each night there will be a special service with special music, the pastor stid. The regular service, which begins each evening at 7.30, will be preceded by organ and piano music. The nursery and kindergarten classes will be open each night for small children, it was stated.

Halloween Dance For Sr. Citizens

A square dance and Halloween party will be held for the senior citizens group at Memorial Hall on E. Broad-st, Friday, Oct. 26, at 7:30 p.m. The dance and party are a joint effort of the Loyal Order of Moose civic affairs committee and the Pilot Club of Columbus. Music will be furnished through the courtesy of Frank Lane, business manager of the Musicians Union, Local 103. The entertainment portion of the program will be variety numbers by Mrs. Dorothy Huskey, Roxanne Ebner, Ott and Harold Gall and the Crawford Brothers.

Callers for the square dancing will be Pete Harris and Garrett Marshall. The Senior Citizens group meets every day and has a dance every Friday night to the accompaniment of a record player.

A Case Of Conservation

Saundra Rife and Terry Thacker are Barrett's representatives on the committee for "fun without destruction."

Each year, in the Halloween season, the Columbus schools sponsor a coordinated effort to provide enjoyable activities for Columbus young people, activities that do not involve loss or distress for some one else

The committee meets with E. H. Reichelderfer of the administration staff at the board of education, 270 E. State-st, and works under his encouragement and direction.

CARD OF THANKS

We sincerely thank our many relatives, friends, and neighbors for their kindness, sympathy, and beautiful floral offerings, also special thanks to Cook & Son Funeral Home, The Buckeye Steel Casting Co. and Rev. Boyd Rife for his comforting words at the recent death of our beloved husband and father, Roscoe Blake.

Mrs. Grundey Hostess To Group In Retarded Children Aid Drive

Group Plans Ways and Means for campaign.

"Come to the aid of retarded children" was the word going out from the home of Mrs. Otto Grundey, 1356 Wilson-av, last Friday night. Here Mrs. Otto Grundey and Edward J. Held, Jr., 1198 Wilson-av, co-chairmen of the South Side and East Side sections, met with three area captains of the Council for Retarded Children's November campaign, to discuss ways and means of sparking the drive in this section in an effort to get their share of the 10,000 door-to-door workers—both men and women—for the Thanksgiving march,, 7 to 9 p.m., Nov. 13. Willing workers are asked to call and volunteer their services to solicit funds to maintain the Council's new school for retarded children at Mt. Vernon-av and Ohio-av, and other activities.

Laymen's Day This Sunday

Next Sunday will be an unusual one at South Church of Christ, Woodrow and Bruck-st. The morning worship service at 10 o'clock will be conducted by men of the Christian Men's Fellowship as a feature of National Laymen's Sunday. The national theme, "Truth Will Make You Free," will be discussed by three speakers. Emmons Ball, Vernon Smith and George Conaway. Special music will be by men.

Sunday evening at 6:30 the second fellowship supper, pot-luck style, of the fall season will be held. Pictures of the benevolent work of the church will be shown. The chief speaker will be J. W. Montgomery, associate director of the Columbus Area Council of Churches.

Clothing Week Is Big Success

Mr. Strausbaugh, superintendent of the Hamilton Local Schools, has expressed appreciation to the Hamilton school community for their participation in the World Clothing Week, Oct. 8 to 13. The high school students gathered clothing, bedding, and shoes, which were brought to the school for assembling. The school collected 37 bags of clothing, each weighing approximately 20 pounds. The clothing received will go to the Christian Children's Fund in St. Louis, Mo. From there the clothing will reach needy children of America and foreign countries. — By Janet Lindemuth.

It's 'Home' Night At South High

Homecoming for graduates of South High School is set for tonight at 8 o'clock in Mahaffey stadium, with the highlight of the evening being at halftime, when the homecoming queen will be announced by student council secretary, Marilyn Wilson.

Following the game, the queen will reign over a dance in the school gym. Candidates are Alma Mace, Pat Gibbons, Connie Miller, Phyllis Lusch, Sharon Morris, Jane Armentrout and Wanda Kinnard.—By Janice Goldberg.

Hamilton Defeats Mifflin, 30 To 0

On Thursday, Oct. 18, on Mifflin's Field, Hamilton Township's strong reserve team ran over Mifflin, 30 to 0.

Hamilton started off early with David Hoon scoring on an 80-yard touchdown sprint in the first quarter. Hamilton then added two more touchdowns in the same quarter.

Fetherlof scored twice for Hamilton and threw for a third touchdown to John Fairtrace. David Hoon scored the other two for Hamilton on two touchdown scampers.—Wayne Sharron.

Hamilton-twp Hi School Girls Will Enter Big Contest

Every year Hamilton Township High School enters the nationwide Betty Crocker Contest. This contest is offered to senior girls all over the United States. The contest consists of taking a test on family and home problems. A winner is chosen from each school and she is rewarded with a special pin. Then a winner is picked from each state, and the girls from all the states compete and the winner appears on TV.

Mrs. Sherman, the home economics teacher, gives the test, which will be given Dec. 4. Fifteen girls are expected to try out for this. — By Rosie Mills

Lincoln PTA's Open House At 7:30 Tonight

Lincoln Park PTA will have open house with room visitations from 7 to 7:45 p.m. this Thursday.

Room mothers are to be in each room to assist the teacher in greeting the parents. The regular meeting will begin at 7:45 p.m. with the invocation by Mrs. Charles Sachs and the pledge of allegiance by Mrs. William Houghton, with entertainment by Peg and her puppets.

Nov. 2 has been set as the date for the cookie sale. The members are working on their Christmas projects with Mrs. Irvin Rollison, chairman.

Y-Teens Go On Tour

On October 26 and 27 a busload of Y-Teens will visit several colleges on their Ohio campus tour. On Friday they will see Wittenberg College in Springfield, Miami University, and Western College for Women in Oxford. On Saturday morning they will tour Dayton University before their last stop at Antioch College in Yellow Springs.

Julie Warner, 1182 Kelton-av, Sharon Riggs, 668 Sheldon-av, South Y-Teens, will be going on the trip, and will have the opportunity to learn about college life and see what educational opportunities are available in their own state.

YOU MAY WIN A FAMOUS NAME

ELECTRIC DRYER or COLOR TV SET

HERE'S ALL YOU DO!

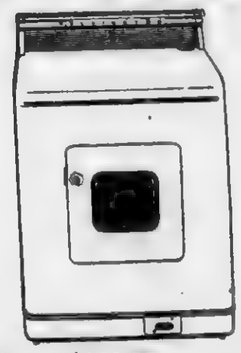
√ Stop in at any cooperating electric appliance dealer and ask for an OPERATION SUNSHINE entry card.

√ On the entry card mark down in the spaces provided THE EXACT NUMBER OF HOURS AND MINUTES OF SUNSHINE YOU THINK THERE WILL BE NEXT WEEK. Sign your name and address and drop the card in the mail box. No postage is required.

√ Each week for five weeks THREE WINNERS will be picked on the basis of the entrants who come closest to the actual hours and minutes of sunshine. Each of these winners will receive a famous name electric clothes dryer. Earliest postmark will determine the winner in case of ties.

√ At the end of the five-week contest, the entry that has come closest to the official report during the entire contest will receive as a grand prize a COLOR TV set.

√ You may enter the contest every week but each entry must be postmarked before midnight of the Saturday preceding the week of your guess.



√ Electric appliance dealers, and distributors, employes of Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company, their advertising agency and families are not eligible to enter.

New Zealand Man St. Mary PTA Speaker

John J. Small, B.A., M.A.

Mrs. Charles T. Knoefel, 865 Beech, St. Mary PTA publicity chairman, has announced that a New Zealand graduate student will be the speaker at the Nov. 8 regular meeting.

The speaker, John J. Small of Christchurch, New Zealand, arrived in the United States with Mrs. Small in September of last year for the opening session of OSU.

The New Zealander, a Fulbright exchange student is pursuing his doctorate here, and has another year here to complete his work. His bachelor degree and his master's degree were received at Canterbury University in Christchurch.

Mrs. Knoefel expressed the thought that the coming of the man from 'Down Under' to speak to the PTA will attract a capacity membership attendance.

One-Side Parking Ban Soon On Two Streets

One east-and-west street and one north-and-south street in the South Side are slated to give up two side parking at an early date, according to Traffic Commissioner Otto Meier.

The commissioner told the Leader that in the immediate future parking will be prohibited on the south side of Frebis-av, beginning at Parsons av and continuing to Lockbourne-rd. There's just not room for parking on both sides of the street and for the bus and for passing in the area described, according to the commissioner, who said the City council has passed the necessary legislation authorizing the elimination of parking on the south side of Frebis. Institution of the change depends upon details which must be taken care of as a prelude to the actual change.

The other street to have parking on one side banned is Bruckst. The parking ban on Bruck will apply on the east side of the street and will start at Hanford and continue to Meier, according to the commissioner, who said this will contribute to expediting traffic, particularly in the area of churches and schools.

It is expected that details will be completed in both instances within a short time and the parking ban instituted.

Wanda Kinnaird So. High Queen

By Patty Trumps

A cloud of excitement hung over the 5,000 spectators gathered at Mahaffey stadium Thursday, Oct. 25, as South High girls met West High for the highlight of the football season—the homecoming game.

During the halftime, the queen candidates, Wanda Kinnaird, Patti Gibson, Connie Miller, Phyllis Lusch, Alma Mace, Sharon Morris, and Jane Armentrout were escorted onto the middle of the football field. Five thousand pairs of eyes were turned toward Marilyn Wilson, treasurer of the 1957 January graduating class, as she opened the envelope on which was written the name of the girl who was to be South High's 1956 homecoming queen.

The crowd was quiet with anticipation as Marilyn announced the 1956 homecoming queen of South High School is Wanda Kinnaird." The six girls who comprised her court, gathered around Wanda to congratulate her as the quiet that had hung over the crowd just a minute before turned into an uproar of handclapping and shouts. Three 1956 Pontiac convertibles then claimed the girls. Wanda led the procession in the first car, while Pattie Gibson, Alma Mace and Jane Armentrout followed in the second and Phyllis Lusch, Connie Miller, and Sharon Morris in the third.

West's Rampaging Cowboys Dampen Homecoming Mood With An 18-13 Defeat

West's rough riding Cowboys got their lassos around the necks of the South Bulldogs and squeezed an upset victory out of them 18-13 last Friday. The win made it 19 straight over the Southerners for the Hilltoppers.

The Bulldogs ready to begin their 18-game losing streak, let West get off to an early start by scoring the first time they had the pigskin. On the first play from center spot fullback Doug Childers raced 45 yards on a beautiful cut back run around the right end and the Bulldogs power house was rolling. A few plays later Hal Ward raced around the other end to make the tally. The Bulldogs' new foe Joe Devlin successfully converted.

Band Fans' 'Like You' Testimonial

South High School will [illegible] band appreciation night tomorrow Friday evening, when the South Bulldogs meet Aquinas at Mahaffey Stadium. At halftime of the ball game the South High Marching Band will present its usual show.

Principal Purpose

Some mouths seem to open principally for food first, then to yakity yak ad nauseum . . . and yes, what comes out of the mouth has little relation to the thing up in the cranium which never gets a workout.

Gold Lost

Somber is the period we call "fall". That is emphasized in the falling of the leaves. While a large stem grown up from the earth has been clothed in golden colored leaves now the stems are bare and the ground is covered. We must admit this plant may have been instigated by the necessity of getting rid of the leaves.

Nature Materializing

Thanks to Walt Disney a "lifetime desire" of many including me has been realized. Many times I have lain prostrate for hours watching the 'birth' of a flower of a little sprig watching for the eruption of the earth as new green life was being merged with the evening's dews and morning's sunlight. Now Disney does this for me while I sit in my comfortable chair. Earth-shaking events are shown on the screen and via TV. Likewise the miracle of the emergence into form of plant life—beautiful and almost horrifying—butterflies, bees, 'animals' of the earth. What magnificent understanding Disney has brought to us!

Changes Come Slowly

Reading the early history of our country, one is impressed with the slowness of new ideas taking hold. Even today there are some habits in our midst which are traceable to the days when European foes were upon our continent in war. However, much of the nice phases of life have grown from cultured habits of the long ago time when French and British contested for what we have got here named the United States of America. So we must not be disturbed if we do not get everything under one saddle in a hurry. We'll just have to endure with patience the time until we have slowly built up a oneness which the founding fathers seemed to have had in mind when writing the Declaration of Independence and later the Constitution of the United States of America.

Miss Alyce Jean Loechler Weds Leonard Salomon

MRS. LEONARD BARTON SALOMON

Arrangements of white astors and gladioli graced the altar, palms, and candelabra in the sanctuary of St. Leo's Church, Saturday, Sept. 15, for the marriage of Miss Alyce Jean Loechler and Leonard Barton Salomon. The nuptial High Mass was celebrated at 10:30 a.m. by Rev. Thomas Lowery.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loechler, 32 E. Deshler-av. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Jules K. Salomon and the late Mr. Salomon of Tucson, Ariz.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal white bridal gown fashioned of chantilly lace and tulle, fitted basque bodice of lace with iridescent paillettes enhancing the scalloped portrait neckline, long sleeves tapering into graceful points over the hands. Extremely bouffant skirt with lace redingote extending in to a graceful chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a half-hat of tulle embroidered with seed pearls and paillettes. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of stephonotis, lilies of the valley, centered with a white orchid. Her jewelry was a cross of seed pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and small pearl earrings.

The attendants were gowned identically in pale blue taffeta with V-necklines, brief sleeves, fitted long torso bodice with Venice lace insets at the hip line. Extremely bouffant skirts worn over billowing crinolines, back bow interest. Matching head pieces and shoes and white kid gloves completed their ensemble. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Tom Durfey, as matron-of-honor. Mrs. Charles Loechler, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Miesse as bridesmaids. The matron-of-honor carried a cascade of Talisman roses centered with blue delphiniums. The bridesmaids carried cascades of Talisman roses, all had streamers to match.

Jules K. Salomon, Jr., of Ellsworth Air Force Base, Rapid City, S.D., was best man for his brother. Ushers were Floyd Earl and Richard Cruze of Lockbourne Air Force Base.

Mrs. Loechler chose for her daughter's wedding a toast-colored embroidered taffeta dress with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. Mrs. Salomon chose a deep purple dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

A breakfast for the immediate families and wedding party was served at the Desert Inn. Hostess for the reception, which was held at Mrs. Root's Party Home were Mrs. George Bukey, Mrs. Don Hettler, Miss Ruth Koenig and Miss Carol Reeves.

For going away, the bride changed to a brown and aqua tweed suit with which she wore aqua accessories, and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

But, according to the coach, they have responsibilities which keep them on the move in their spare time—or time out of classes.

The coach says the boys "check the attendance and the showers; they keep order on the floor and in the locker room, and assist by demonstration during instruction. They are diligent and highly responsible boys," the coach concluded.

Breakfast Hike

The Central Ohio Hiking Club of the YMCA will hold its 19th annual breakfast hike Sunday, Nov. 4. The bus will leave the YMCA at 6:30 a.m. for Old Man's Cave, where breakfast will be served. The group will hike through the gorge to Cedar Falls and Ash Cave. All adults are welcome for this trip, which is under the leadership of Dorothy Husser and John Kaplowitz, it was stated.

Tea, Reception At Corpus Christi

The Rosary-Altar Society and Parish Council of Corpus Christi Church will hold its annual tea and reception for new members Sunday, Nov. 4, at 2 p.m. Installation will take place in church. Rev. Edward Healey will be the guest speaker. The reception will follow in the social hall. Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Charles O'Connor and Mrs. Joseph Slattery.

On the following Tuesday, Nov. 6, the society will hold it's regular monthly meeting at 8 pm. The program will feature a demonstration of floral arrangements to be given by Vi Stember, a local florist.

Mrs. Bernard Held, 1151 Miller-av, is publicity chairman.

Youth Service Is Set At St. Paul Lutheran

The accent will be on youth at the 10.30 a.m. service Sunday, Nov. 4, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 322 Stewart-av. A youth choir will sing and several youths will act as deacons. Donald Reese, a senior in the seminary at Capital University, will conduct the service and preach the sermon. At the 8 a.m. service, Rev. John O. Lang, the pastor, will speak on "Mizpah—Is It a Benediction?"

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Lenox
HI. 4-1051

A teeny little supply of news, hardly enough to fill half a column, but we'll write up the few things we do have.

Belated wedding anniversary greetings to one of the finest couples we know . . . Lana and Lorraine Itskin, 1713 S. 3rd-st. The date was Oct. 20. Mr. Itskin's folks were down the weekend before, and the get-together helped to celebrate the anniversaries of both couples. The visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Becher, of Celina, O.

This Saturday, wedding congratulations will be in order for the new Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Dunn, for they will exchange their 6:30 p.m. vows in Riverside Methodist Church. The young bride-to-be is Betty Jean Ebright, of McCoy-rd. The bridegroom-to-be has resided at 1827½ S. 5th-st.

Don't forget to vote next Tuesday, Nov. 6.

Once again we had the pleasure of playing for the long-time employes of the Buckeye Steel Casting Co. This event took place last Wednesday at the Seneca Hotel. (We hadn't touched our bull fiddle since "you know when," and did it seem wonderful to be part of a musical aggregation again!)

The Apogee Club meets this evening at 7:45 p.m. at the Main branch of the Columbus Public Library. The members will take a tour of the library, then view a colored film. Reports will be given by Mrs. Charles Kreachbaum and Mrs. Wesley Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Carl, of Twin Lakes, Kent, O., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Knepper the past weekend. The Knepperrs reside at 1783 Champion-av.

Wishes for life-long happiness to the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clark, Jr., whose nuptials took place Sept. 21 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Mrs. Clark, nee Annette Brodt, had Shirley Santo as her attendant. (We remember Shirley as a very young girl, pre-school age, and here she's bridesmaiding! Hand me down my rocking chair, but first give me my cane!) The young Clarks spent their honeymoon in the Cumberland Mountains. They are now residents of 371 Mayfair-blvd

Two young South Side lads are numbered among the recent "tonsillectomies" of the city. Larry Snyder and David Colegrove are the boys. Larry resides at 175 Deshler-av, and David is a resident of 1453 Champion-av.

St. Leo's PTA will have its second dance of the season from 8:30 to 11:30, this Saturday, Nov. 3, in the school auditorium. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

A South High senior will be exchanging her wedding vows this Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., in the Lockbourne-rd Baptist Church. The young lady is Francis Nadine Haynes, of Hanford-st, and her young husband-to-be is Fred W. Tilley, of Metgel-dr.

Gosh, the South Side won't seem the same without Russ and Cleo Canter. The Morrill-av couple joined the scores of Columbusites who have moved to Grove City. Cleo will barely be settled in her new home until she has to entertain Trudeau Guild 10.

That does our job for this time. HI 4-1051 didn't ring much last week; maybe it will be busier this week, we hope! And per usual, don't forget our "Gifts for Giving", so that the Ben Franklin patients may give something personally to a loved one in their family. 'Till next week then, this is . . .

THE GADABOUT.

Canal Days At Lockbourne

By Gilbert F. Dodds

Before completion of the Ohio-Erie Canal through Franklin County, the village of Lockbourne was laid out by Col. James Kilbourne, as the agent of Joel Buttles, Demas Adams and others. It was at this point that the Columbus feeder canal, an 11 mile waterway, joined the main canal.

The lots sold rapidly, having the advantage in the way of water power, and soon a grist mill and a saw mill was erected. A post office was established in 1837 with Nathan G. Smith as postmaster. Previous to this a substantial brick tavern was erected which is still standing today.

Within 25 years, the village contained some 70 families with two strong church organizations. One of the churches was the United Brethren in Christ which erected a substantial frame building in 1843; the other Methodist Episcopal, erected a neat brick church in 1850. There were also three grocery stores, two dry goods stores, and three practicing physicians. Two of the physicians were Dr. A. N. Boales, and Dr. R. J. Marshal.

Lockbourne became the center of a large shipping industry. The area surrounding the village is one of the best farming sections in the state and from these fine farms there was shipped corn, pork, lard bacon, cattle, wheat and potatoes. Shipped from the numerous mills within a radius of five miles were supplies of flour, corn meal, and ground feed. Immigrants coming into Franklin County would leave the boat at Lockbourne and journey by stage coach into Columbus.

Woodworking Beckons

Starting today, the Schiller wood shop will be open Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and Saturday mornings. All boys and girls eight years or over are invited to join this group which is starting to make various objects which will be used for Christmas presents.

RATED NO. 1 NORGE
First Choice In Convenience, Performance, Quality!
New '57 NORGE Automatic Washer with Dispenser Wheel

Model W-5
Automatically conditions rinse water to give it greater rinsing power than soft water, rain water, or even distilled water! Just pre-load with water conditioner when you load washer. Restores brightness to clothes, fabrics regain "newness" and fluffiness, stay clean longer, last longer. Plus five separate purifying actions of Super-Rinse: two automatic cycles, one regular, one short; hot-warm wash selection; warm-cold rinse selection; 5-year warranty.

GAS Model 083
Norge Has Dispenser Wheel
(Exclusive)

New 1957 Norge automatic washers are equipped with a Dispenser Wheel, which dispenses water conditioner automatically into the rinse water. Operating on the principle of centrifugal force, the wheel drops water conditioner at precisely the right moment during the rinsing cycle. Another feature of the washer is selective thermostatically controlled warm, or cold water rinse.

SPARROWS

In every town there is a spot where, at the end of day, sparrows gather gay and bold, chirruping away.

I wonder if they do to all what they do to me.
no town seems strange,
no town seems cold
in their warm company.
Elizabeth Antonova,
in The Lyric.

It won't be long now. No matter which party wins, this country will be a paradise from now on for they have both promised that. Or has somebody said that before?

My reader writes "Will you please print the poem that starts 'Bear not they sorrow into tomorrow?'" The only poem I know that contains that line is the following:

Bear not thy yesterday into tomorrow,
Nor load this week with last week's sorrow.
Lift all thy burdens as they come, nor try
To weigh the present with the by-and-by.
One step and then another, take thy way—
Live day by day.

Sorry I do not know the title or the author's name. Thank you, Mrs. Stone of South High-st, for your kind letter.

Mail—From a returned vacationer: Our trip was heavenly. We picked cotton and oranges; beach-combed, and I have a beautiful collection of shells from Sanibel Island. We had a deep appreciation of civilization after getting lost on an unimproved road in a Florida swamp. We saw museums and flower shows and native jungles with orchids growing on trees and alligators sunning on the bank. We got sunburned and mosquito-bitten and rash from too much orange juice but we loved every minute of it. I'm sold on Florida. It's wonderful. The only trouble now is trying to settle down to a dull routine. The spiders took over while we were gone and our house looks like a Charles Adams drawing . . . From my one reader: You mentioned the Salem, Mass., streets. Try to imagine my trying to drive through them one dark and stormy night during the reign of Dianne! (You know—the hurricane.) We had been warned to get headed for Ohio but foolishly ignored the warning. When we did get out we hadn't any skin on our teeth. Quite an experience.

Turkey At 1, Again At 7

Mrs. Jessie Kinser, publicity chairman for South Church of Christ turkey dinner this afternoon and evening, predicted that the two-in-a-day turkey serving will attract a record crowd. The church is located at Woodrow-av and Bruce-st. Servings start at 11 a.m. and continue until a recess is called at 1 o'clock, to resume at 5 p.m., continuing until the end of the servings at 7 p.m.

Participating in some way in the program are the following—all devoted workers, Mrs. Kinser said of them: Willing Workers Class president, Merle Carter; vice-president, Virginia Leonard; secretary, Louise Roy; treasurer, Kathryn Lefever.

Women's class, president, Emilie Steele; vice-president, Bessie Dodson; secretary, Jessie Kinser; treasurer, Lefa Kundts.

Young Adult Class, president, Howard Bailey; vice-president, Helen Daniels; secretary, Rebecca Bailey; treasurer, Vivian Fitzgerald. Names of church officers supplied by Mrs. Kinser are not available at the moment, but will be added next week.

All are working diligently to increase the financial coffers, Mrs. Kinser said, looking for a large attendance this afternoon and evening.

A Good Guesser Of Sunshine Hours

Sunshine expert, Mrs. Marilyn Albrecht, 1148 Wilson-av, is pictured here receiving her certificate for a new Philco all-electric automatic clothes dryer won for the best guess as to the actual hours of sunshine during a week's period. As winner of the first week's sunshine guessing contest for the period of Oct. 14 to 20, Mrs. Albrecht is now eligible for the grand prize of a color television set, which will be awarded after five weekly contests to the winner coming closest to the actual sunshine hours in any one week period. Awards for the clothes dryers were presented by Don Riggs on the TV Weatherman Show. Operation Sunshine is a cooperative effort by more than 250 electric appliance dealers and Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company planned to tell housewives how to "bring their sunshine indoors" by drying laundry the modern all-electric way.

Club Offers Dog Obedience Course

Members of the German Shepherd Dog Club of Central Ohio, Inc., recently voted to invite other breeds to join with them in their obedience training classes.

A new ten-weeks' course in basic obedience will start Monday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m. in the Junior Arena of the Ohio State Fair grounds. Cost of the full course is $7.50 per dog. For further information contact the club secretary, Mrs. John Schallaci, HI. 4-2556 or the present training director, Oscar Holobaugh, BR. 6-2435.

Local Executive Tells About Boyertown Casket's Chief

W. S. Krangley of Boyertown Casket Co., 1678 S. High-st, has announced that the long-time president of Boyertown Casket Co., E. Lawrence Mory, relinquished his position at the recent annual meeting of the company at the plant in Boyerstown.

The retiring president had served in that capacity for 31 years, the local man said, and announced that the successor is Leroy E. Derr, who started with the company in Boyertown in 1912, serving in important capacities through the years, and in 1935 was made a director, becoming vice-president and general manager in 1946.

Harry R. Anthony is manager of the Columbus plant and his assistant is Frank R. Daugherty.

The retiring president will continue as a director, to which position he was first elected in 1913, and will also serve as chairman of the board and vice-president.

The local concern employs approximately 70 men and women with six salesmen. The only other company office in Ohio is located in Cleveland, it was stated.

Reader Tells Solution To Pollution

The editorial in your paper today (S.S.L. Sept. 20) concerning the sewage plant awakens memories about the many years of nuisance this plant has given the South Side portion of Columbus.

Columbus receives products from all the world markets and the waste thereof is dumped into the Scioto River, one of the nation's beautiful waterways, destroying property values in the vicinity. The system should be changed from a taxpayer's burden to a public utility, thereby saving the unnecessary waste this present system involves.

Fats, nitrogen products, other vital constituents could be salvaged through a utility operation.

We dump into the river about 67 to 70 million gallons sewage daily at this time. A utility would salvage about $2,000 to $2,500 daily in nitrogen products, also all fat. It requires 81 pounds of fats to make 100 pounds of soap. Other salvage would be sodium, iron, aluminum, iodine, and many other chemicals. Also the fish

M-F Joyless As Hamilton Makes Sweep

There was no joy at Marion-Franklin High School Friday, Oct. 26, for their big homecoming dance, for the Hamilton Rangers spoiled it with an easy 26-0 victory over the home team.

Chuck Juliano opened up the scoring with a 14-yard scamper around Marion's left end set up by Keith Johnston's 35-yard sweep. The extra point was missed. Hamilton was held scoreless while Marion threatened late in the first half, but were held on the 15-yard line. Hamilton kicked off to Marion to start the last half, but quickly regained possession of the ball and Chuck Juliano again circled Marion's left end and sprinted 50 yards into end zone for his second score. Essig converted to make the score 13-0. Later, in the fourth quarter, Wayne Sharron plowed up the middle for 37 yards and Hamilton's third score. Essig converted to make it 20-0. Edward Tucker concluded the scoring with a one-yard plunge set up by his own 15-yard punt return. The extra point was missed, leaving the score at 26-0. Marion again threatened in the fourth quarter, but Hamilton held on their own 12-yard line as the game came to its end.—Keith Johnston.

O'Neill Committee In Get-Out-Vote Drive In County

The Franklin County O'Neill For Governor Committee announced today that about 750 O'Neill supporters in Franklin County will conduct an intensive "get-out-the-vote" campaign during the final week of the campaign.

Arthur I. Vorys, 32 E. Gay-st, chairman of the local committee emphasized the importance of each citizen of the area expressing his opinion by voting in the general election on Tuesday, Nov. 6.

Vorys stated: "Bill O'Neill has urged that each voter should know the issues, look at the records of the parties and the candidates decide who the best candidates are, mark up a sample ballot in advance, and then go to the polls.

Continuing, Vorys added: "Voters have been given on many occasions an opportunity to learn of the issues and to meet their candidate for governor. Our telephone committee of some 750 people will now devote the final week of the campaign to calling some 44,000 Franklin County homes to remind people to go to the polls and vote on Nov. 6". Chairman of the telephone committee is Mrs. Keith McNamara, 247 N. Remmington-rd, who will be assisted by O'Neill boosters in each section of the county.

In addition to the get-out-the-vote telephone drive, the Franklin County O'Neill commitee will also conduct an extensive direct mail campaign to urge residents to vote. Over 25,000 pieces of mail will be in the hands of the voters by Nov. 6.

Thatcher Seeks Third Term As County Treas.

County Treasurer Newton A. Thatcher is seeking re-election as county treasurer.

He is now completing his second term as county treasurer. He was first elected to this office in 1948 and was re-elected in 1952. Prior to becoming county treasurer, Thatcher served as county auditor from 1936 to 1943. During his years in these county offices Thatcher has designed and installed much of the accounting system now used in tax accounting in those offices as well as in other similar offices over the state.

Thatcher is professionally trained for his work as county treasurer. He is a graduate of Ohio State University with a degree in business administration. He is a member of the Hilltop Lutheran Church, University Club, Sertoma Club International, Executives Club of Columbus, English Speaking Union and other civic and social organizations.

He is married and lives with his wife, Violet, at 2966 Crescent-dr.

Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of Defense: "From the best information I have, they (the Russians) are currenly building (planes) at a higher rate than we are."

Two Candidates Propose Seven Point Program

A seven-point legislative program, including a new state office building for Columbus' Civic Center and improved traffic safety laws, is proposed by State Senator Robert R. Shaw (Republican, Columbus) and his running mate for the Ohio Senate, David E. Morgan, Columbus attorney.

Shaw is a candidate for re-election and Morgan, the other Republican nominee for the two seats from Franklin and Pickaway Counties (10th district) in the state senate.

Their legislative platform also proposes state purchase of Cedar Point Park on Lake Erie, a film licensing law and a law making parents liable for acts of vandalism by their children.

Three proposals are advanced to improve Ohio's traffic safety laws. They are an automobile inspection law similar to that in Pennsylvania, long sought by urban areas with congested traffic; a point-system law aimed at revoking drivers' licenses of chronic violators, and a minimum speed law for certain arterial highways and expressways. All three have been considered by previous legislatures. An auto inspection act was passed several years ago and vetoed. It failed to pass a later general assembly by one vote.

Smith Says He Can Cut Office Costs

A proposal to reduce the cost of county government was presented here today by Robert H. Smith, democratic candidate for the office of prosecuting attorney of Franklin County. Smith, who is 39, lost a leg in military service in World War II, was admitted to the bar in 1940, and practices law on E. Main-st.

Smith pointed out that during 1952 the prosecutor's office was officially operated with a staff of 12 and an annual budget of $75,415.44. He said that during three years and nine months of the present administration, 2693 prosecutions have been docketed in the office of the clerk of courts, while during the same period of the administration of Judge Ralph Bartlett, ending in 1952, 3035 prosecutions were handled by the prosecuting attorney. "With an actual decrease in the case load of 342 prosecutions, the present administration has increased the staff to 17, with a 1956 cost of $131,500," he stated.

U. S. farmers, who now lose about 150 million dollars worth of property by fire each year, are taking out more fire insurance than ever before, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Senator Shaw Cites Record

While many politicians delight in pointing with pride at their record of which the average person has little or no knowledge, Senator Robert R. Shaw is particularly proud of the legislation which he authored in the last session.

The underground gargae bill which was passed over the governor's veto will be one of the most progressive developments that has occurred in Columbus in many years.

Shaw is particularly pleased with his bill to require the teaching of American history in the public schools. He also had a bill requiring promoters of charitable solicitations to register and reveal the income and expenditures of the solicitation. His bill to increase the speed limits to 60 miles per hour in the daytime has received much favorable comment. He also authored legislation for police and firemen as well as a bill concerning the taxing of out of state deposits.

GOP Presents Legislature Slate

The Republican candidates for the general assembly comprise a balanced team of candidates with diversified backgrounds.

The group includes John J. Chester, Jr., seeking re-election, who played a leading role in mental health and insurance legislation; Golda May Edmonston, also seeking re-election, noted for her work in the welfare field and on the commerce and transportation committee; Richard B. Metcalf, a practicing attorney and special counsel for the attorney general; Archer E. Reilly, Jr., a practicing lawyer and former administrative assistant to the treasurer of state; Kline L. Roberts, the present majority floor leader of the house of representatives; and Lytle G. Zuber, seeking re-election, who served as chairman of the small courts sub-committee of the house judiciary committee.

Lauderbaugh Has Been Co. Planner

"Chuck" Lauderbaugh, who seeks re-election as a county commissioner, is an active civic worker and was the instigator and chairman of the Franklin County Planning Commission during its entire existence. He is now vice-chairman of the Franklin County Regional Planning Commission. Through this activity, Franklin County has received such improvement as the new children's home; additions to the county home and tuberculosis hospitals; the courthouse annex; the expressway system and the new Veterans' Memorial, etc. He also instigated such improvements as microfilming of all county records.

He was endorsed for the nomination of county commissioner by the Franklin County Republican Committee.

He is married and resides at 1226 Parkway-dr, Grandview Heights, where he has lived for the past 35 years. The Lauderbaughs have one son, who is in the newspaper business at Omaha, Neb.

Justin Sillman Seeks Judgeship

Justin L. Sillman, 856 Broadleigh-rd, was the unanimous choice of the Franklin County Republican Lawyers' Judicial Committee for the judgeship which he seeks at the Nov. 6 election.

Sillman was born in Columbus, attended Highland Avenue Elementary School, West High School and graduated from Ohio State University Law School in 1925 where he received his degree with election to the Order of Coif, honorary legal scholarship society. He has practiced law in Columbus for the past 31 years and is a member of the Columbus, Ohio State and American Bar Associations.

Campbell Urges Expediting Of Justice In Ohio

Willard D. Campbell, Republican nominee for Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court, announced today a seven point program to improve the administration of justice in Ohio. He emphasized the fact that the Chief Justice is the administrative head of all the courts within the state which at present are inefficient, slow, cumbersome and costly.

An Ohio State Bar Association report of last year made this observation:

"Persistent neglect in the judiciary of the State of Ohio has given rise to a critical situation. Administration of justice must be constantly improved and expedited if the judicial system is to be preserved."

Campbell, who has served as a common pleas judge, prosecutor, state senator and state director of the revision of law stated that it is time to analyze the problems and now is the time to effect a solution and change after 24 years of the same judicial administration.

Judge Reynolds On Bench 29 Years

Judge Dana F. Reynolds is a candidate for re-election as common pleas judge of Franklin County.

Judge Reynolds has served more than 29 years on the bench and seeks re-election to the term beginning Jan. 2, 1957.

He is a long-time resident of Columbus, has been active in numerous civic organizations and movements for the betterment of central Ohio communities.

His campaign committee is made up of W. B. Bartels, chairman, Ollie F. Oelgoetz, vice-chairman, Arthur L. Rowe, secretary, and Andrew J. White, Jr., treasurer.

Petree Runs For Court Of Appeals

Presiding Municipal Judge Charles R. Petree is a candidate for the court of appeals of Franklin County. Before becoming municipal judge in January of 1945 Petree practiced law for 18 years.

Active in Kiwanis and a former president of the General Orton Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association, Petree is a member of the American Bar Association as well as the Ohio State and Columbus Bar Associations. He also is a member of the Aladdin Temple Shrine, Scottish Rite, Executives Club and the Buckeye Republican Club.

Judge Petree served two and one-half years as city prosecutor and as a high school principal before being elected. A resident of 4153 Edgehill-dr, Judge Petree has a son who is a second lieutenant in the air force.

Golda May Edmonston Seeks Relection

Mrs. Golda May Edmonston seeks re-election for representative.

Mrs. Edmonston is a life-long resident of Ohio and has lived most of her life in Franklin County. During these years she has been actively engaged in the work of many patriotic, fraternal, political, civic and social groups and is a member of the Indianola Presbyterian Church.

She is married and is the mother of a son and a daughter, and lives at 59 W. Dominion-blvd.

They Come In Half-Tens For Tonsilectomies, One Day, One Room At South Side's Mercy Hospital; Contingent Soon Out, Happy

Mass operations in the military are no longer surprising; even mass operation in industry has become accepted as in line with our new-day happenings. Mass sports, political "mass actibn"—all of these we have become accustomed to. But when information came about a "mass" tonsillectomy operation program—well, we just wanted to go there, to Mercy Hospital, that is—and see what it all meant. Operations on the five children of Mr. and Mrs. Lumon L. Reynolds of 2063 17th av we wanted to look in on. Arrangements were made through Superintendent Beard with the parents, and we arrived at the hospital about 5 o'clock, five or six hours after the first operation was performed. If some of the faces do not show, the photographer wants it understood that the hidden faces were not of his making. Who could blame little tots with sore throats if they were not happy about being invaded by a "shutterburg"? Anyway, Lumon, Jr., age 2, Deborah, age 3, Victoria, age 4, Linda, age 6, Carol, age 7, were under the blankets hiding if a face is not easily seen peeking out. They were soon ready for home, and by now probably have forgotten the unpleasant experience they had in the "mass operation." The father is associated with North American Aviation.

Promises Bryant Would Be Well Informed Judge

Secretary-treasurer of the Bryant for Judge committee, Arthur W. Wiles announced that "Bryant will be a courageous, dignified and well-informed judge," in a press conference here today.

"Seldom," said Wiles, "do the voters of this or any other county have an opportunity to cast votes as meaningful as the ones which will be cast for William Cullen Bryant, candidate on the non-partisan ballot for Judge of the Court of Appeals."

Bryant is now serving his second term as Director of Liquor Control for the State of Ohio, by appointment of Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

Referring to Bryant's background, Wiles said, "Not only has Bryant been a practicing attorney in all the courts of the state for twenty-five years, but he spent ten years as First Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, two years as Chief Counsel to the Attorney General, and approximately two years on the Common Pleas bench when Gov. Lausche appointed Bryant, not once, but twice, to fill two seperate vacancies. This is invaluable experience for a Court of Appeals Judge.

First Indoor Racing Set For Saturday, Nov. 3

Everything will be in readiness for the first "indoor" racing ever run in the Columbus area this Saturday night, when the "T-Q" Midgets move into the Ohio State Coliseum for a seven-event program.

While the events are sanctioned by the "Midwest ¾ Racing Association," of Muncie, Indiana the races are open to any "T-Q" Midget owner and driver, whose racer can meet the association's specifications.

Midget racers are expected from all parts of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia and Michigan.

Time trials will be at 7 p. m. and the first races will get under way at 8 o'clock.

Drake Says OSU Should Televise Football Games

Russell D. Drake, candidate for state representative, believes Ohio State University should permit the televising of all its home football games, particularly those which have been sold out for weeks in advance.

"The ban on televising football games was placed by the National Collegiate Athletic Association," said Drake. "Ohio State is a member of this organization, which is dominated by a large group of small colleges. The Big Ten would like to televise but are forbidden by the rules of the NCAA.

"Let the state legislature of Ohio, by resolution, throw the games open to television. Before next game time arrives in September the Big Ten and the Pacific Coast League would do likewise," said candidate Drake.

Drake lives at 105 N. Chase-av with his wife and two children. He is a printer at the Columbus Citizen.

Shoemaker Seeks Garnishee Law

Fred J. Shoemaker, candidate for State Representative is an attorney and senior partner in the law firm of Shoemaker, George, Hill & Passmore with offices at 2765 Cleveland-av.

Shoemaker charges that the incumbent legislators have failed to recognize the crucial problems facing our increasing population and cries out for leadership.

"We must revise our current garnishment laws which today encourages high pressured salesmanship and sharp practices by questionable operators. We must protect the legitimate businessmen and wage earner from the embarassment and harassment caused by garnishments by said sharp operators," he said.

Legislation must be drafted that will keep the voting booths open at least two more hours, lower residence requirements, and re-examine the registration problem.

"Juvenile delinquency continues to sky rocket and yet our legislators have done nothing to make the parents responsible for the conduct of their children. I pledge I shall strive to improve said laws," he continued.

Schiller Teen Club

The Schiller Teen Club had its first meeting of this season on Oct. 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the club room. As a result of discussion, one of the first big events of the club will be a star-gazing trip to the MacMillan Observatory on OSU campus, Saturday, Nov. 17.

Yoder Promises Stepped Up Law Enforcement If Elected

Promising the appointment of a woman as a full deputy to be in charge of matters having to do with females, as well as two especially trained deputies charged with the duty of handling all juvenile matters coming into the office are features of the program of James J. Yoder, candidate for the office of sheriff of Franklin County.

Yoder, a businessman with former experience as an officer with the Grandview Heights Police Department, from which he resigned with honor, points to a plan for a modern up-to-date record system which he says is long over due. He has also used businessman's know-how in his study of systems used by other leading law enforcement agencies.

Speaking of staff generally, Yoder said, "Fully trained men are a must in this highly populated county. All deputies will receive approved law enforcement training in investigation, interrogation, first-aid, self-defense, laws of arrest, civil defense as well as courtesy"

"Effective, stepped-up police protection in the county can best be achieved by close, harmonious, co-operation with local police and safety departments," said Yoder.

John Vorys In Congress For Past 18 Years

Congressman John M. Vorys, in his 18 years as congressman from the 12th district, has taken an increasingly important part as a lawmaker. His record consists of thousands of votes and hundreds of speeches contained in more than 280 volumes of the Congressional Record issued since he has been in Congress.

His voting record has frequently been the subject of attack. For instance, COPE, the Washington AFL-CIO "Committee on Public Education," has issued a "voting record," picking out 19 roll-call votes from 913 in the last nine years, and rated Mr. Vorys "right" on three and "wrong" on 16. However, analysis shows that COPE made six mistakes in describing the bills, gave slanted descriptions of others and only five were issues in the last Congress.

Some of the editorial endorsements of the Vorys record follow:

The Columbus Dispatch says, "He ranks high in the public esteem for his ability—a man of known capabilities and attainments."

President Eisenhower wrote of his "great dedication," his "leadership and service," and then said "John Vorys is my kind of congressman."

O.G.'s Notes

School Activities

School activities — and what an abundance of these— give us a preview of manhood and womanhood toward which our youth are moving. And they carry with them many of the virtues indispensable to successful lives, including the virtue of living happily. One of the big virtues is good sportsmanship; or, say it this way: fairness in thinking and fairness in action. There is a politeness engendered in school activities and in school associations, even though too many ignore these virtues after entering upon the real stage of life, where living is not acting, but doing "according to Hoyle," to employ an old whizz. Children learn to live and "get-along," including a few of the social graces and, including cleanliness, good speech, good eating habits — generally all-ground good behavior. I confess to an unending urge to salute those who fill our classrooms and their mentors — the teachers. Lord bless 'em; and often they need the blessing, taking care of our "angel darlings."

Social Habits

Social habits being based upon social thinking, and, often, the individual having come up in the midst of carelessness in social habits, although with souls as beautiful in the sight of the Lord as the soul of the most accomplished socialite—untidiness in social life which begins at our own table, in our own home conduct, form one of the greatest barriers to "stepping" up in our familiarity and equal capacity with those frequently referred to as "above us." Millions ask for "equality" in living without first checking to see if he or she has acquired the social graces admired in others. If our school system, the great melting pot that it is, can make those who feel lower in the social strata than they wish become conscious of their deficiencies, and help them to take that "step up," the school system will become an even greater leveler. So far the school system of the United States has been successful far beyond the hope of multitudes who through the years have wished it well and gave support to it. Through education and through the mixing and appraising of youth a leveling process has been at work and has done mightily. My treatment of this thought at this time is suggested by several communications I have had on this subject. The same leveling can be applied to the desegregation program if those who have not had available contact with a sufficient number of "higher level" associations to extract from them a code of social habits, will use their associations in the schools and elsewhere to recognize differences (in some instances) between those of the "higher level" and themselves.

Acknowledgement — happy acknowledgement—is made of a very nice note from Pastor W. A. Roberts of Hope EUB Church, who was kind enough to say "Thanks for the splendid article about our church. It certainly helped in making our 28th anniversary one we long will remember." Thank you, Pastor Roberts. The pastor did not know we were running a sort of history of his career, and he sent in a brief story and program of the anniversary. We had previously accumulated the rest of the story. If we surprised him, we are glad.

Fornof Elementary School has a record of production through the years, even though its physical plant is not as new as some in the county. But it's been "doing business" successfully, sending its graduates on to Marion-Franklin High School. Fornof School faculty, left to right, front row: Virginia Ross, Beulah Wamsley, Helen Greene, Martha Oestreich, Magdalene Bostic, Martha Morris, Evalyn Buechner. Left to right, back row, Irene Fitzgerald, Ruth Colburn, Gladys Hotchkiss, Alice Almay, Rosemary Kirk, Merrill Rarick, Principal Clark Durbin.

Southeast Lions Present Check To Blind Assn.

One of the problems faced by many blind people is that of going to and from places. In the instance before us, it is in getting from homes to Monett House, operated by the Columbus Association of the Blind. Like many other open-hearted groups in Columbus, the Southeast Lions Club has a habit of helping along with this situation. Recently the club made a sizable gift of money for the taxi fund—to pay for the taxis which are necessary to transport the blind to the center, where they find activities suited to their condition. From left to right, above, are shown Dan Conroy of the Lions; N. T. Engle, president of Columbus Association of the Blind; Ed J. Finley, president, Southeast Lions Club; and three others not named. N. J. Engle is shown receiving the check from Finley of the Lions.

Fall Fishing Throughout Ohio Reported 'Superb'

With the coming of October, the Ohio sportsman usually puts his fishing tackle away for the year and gets out the shot gun. The fellow who has followed this pattern this year, however, has missed out on some of the finest fishing imaginable.

Not only has the pond, lake and stream fishing been superb, but the perch fishing in Lake Erie, according to local residents as well as fisheries personnel, has been the best in many years.

The area around Catawba, Mouse Island, the Bass Islands have all been outstanding. Small minnows seem to be the preferred bait, used either whole or cut in half. A spreader using two baited hooks often produces doubles. With favorable weather the perch fishing should continue for several weeks.

Someone has observed that it takes a student 20 minutes longer to say what he thinks than to tell what he knows.

Will Open Nine Ponds In Delaware Area In '57

Ohio Division of Wildlife plans to open nine small ponds on the Delaware Wildlife Area in 1957. Only four were open in 1956.

Although primarily migratory waterfowl propagation ponds, close cooperation of the fish and game personnel has brought about a significant and valuable fisheries program.

Based on the presence of a potential harvestable population of good quality fish, the following ponds: Nos. 9, 11, 15, 20, 23, 37, 40 and 41 should provide good fishing in 1957. They will probably be opened for fishing on April 1 and closed on Sept. 30.

Barring unforseen problems, fishermen should expect good fishing in the small impoundments on the Delaware Wildlife Area for some time to come.

Seeing Is Believing

WATCH THE BIRDIE —Assuming an air of nonchalance, Julius, a chimpanzee from the Detroit zoo, gets mugged by Tarzan, a brother chimp. With the help of a Detroit News' photographer, Thel Burget, the chimps have become quite adept with the camera act.

SCOOP! BEAR TREES MAN—Tourists driving near Cliffdell, Wash., take a quick second-look when they see this scene. It looks like the real thing, but actually it's the skin of a long-dead bear, nipping at a straw-filled trousers and shirt. —(Wide World Photos)

MIDGET MALES DOUBLE-UP FOR BIG MAIL—Since the "Big-Top" of Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey circus recently folded, these two midgets are probably looking for work. Could be that Prince Paul and Lauro Morales are making sure their employment applications get in the mail box.

SEA OF MUD—An unusual sight near Agua Dulce, Tex., is this International TD-16A crawler tractor, spreading a "sea of mud," which results from salt water pits. After the tractor, equipped with the special mud-spreader, has done its leveling job, the mud dries and the earth is returned to its original condition.

Take Your Time

At last he had screwed up his courage to kiss her, and they both liked it. So he did it again—and again.

After about an hour of it he whispered fondly:

"Every time I kiss you I feel a better man, darling."

"Oh, well," she said coyly, "you don't have to reach perfection in one night."

Portable electric fences are being improved to give better service in controlled grazing of pastures and in other farm uses, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Southeast Lions Club is a most active organization in the "give-away" field—where the gift will serve human welfare. The total of the gifts by the local Lions as an organization is large, yet there is little fuss made, with no effort to attract special attention. "What we do," one Lion said, "is for the good we can do, not for publicity." Of course what they do is news, and the newspaper records the news. Therefore it is necessary that the gift of a moving picture projector to St. Mary's School, recently, was a matter of important news. The picture shows a scene at an assembly, when the gift of the pictured items was made. The presentation was made by Frank Neubeck and accepted by Monsignor Burkley for the school. In addition to Lion Neubeck, other Lions present were Tom Sharp, Ed Finley, Wacker, Milausnich, Deal, Egger, Lensenmayer, Phillips, Miller, Walters, Bill Heermle, Sr., Duffee, Wagner.

Dear Son

By Joseph Martell

Chittlin' Switch
Monday morning.

Dear Jason:

you in this letter! Grandmaw you in this letter! Grandmaw Sludge went to the sulkey races the other day at Polecat Junction. Just as the horses were lining up at the barrier she felt her bloomers slipping. While she was fishing around in her handbag for a safety pin, somebody shouted: "They're off!" She'll be buried Wednesday.

Your brother, Snide, brought his girl home for the first time the other night for supper. I had your favorite dish of hedgehog stew and grits. She's a real nice girl but I can't say much for her looks. She's so buck-toothed she can eat corn on the cob through a picket fence. However, I'll say this about her. You don't even notice her double chins. Her lower lips covers them.

The old maid librarian, Maude Sprangler, had a close call the other night when a man tried to get in her bedroom window. She lives on the second floor. She called the fire department but they told her it was a police case. "Police case nothing," said Maude, "the poor guy can't make it. Send the hook and ladder!"

The boy you used to hang around with, Vernon Stench, was taking that correspondence course of Charles Atlas on how to get developed. I don't think he got much out of it. Vernon took his final lesson last week and he wrote the school that he had completed the course and asked them to please send him the muscles.

I was getting pretty embarrased about your sister, Prunella. She's now fourteen and still unmarried. She expected too much in a man I kept telling her. She wanter a guy who could held her close like Brando; a man who could kiss like Mature; and a man who could make her blood boil like Sinatra. She's engaged now. She met a fellow who can bite like Lassie.

Write soon.
Your loving.
Mom

P.S. All the middle-aged women here at the Switch are crazy over that officer at your base who sings on those Ed Sullivan shows. Do you suppose he'd consider the idea of coming here to Chittlin' Switch next month when we have our annual Hawg Calling Contest? Around here we call him the poor man's Elvis Presley.

The United States agricultural plant now is geared to purchase four to six per cent more agricultural products that the current market will take at generally acceptable prices.

Lions Hear Cincinnati Newscaster

So this is HOUSEKEEPING

By SHIRLEY SYMMS

Persuading Jeff to go shopping with me is a project requiring the wiles of a Mata Hari and the persistence of a bull dog. So I felt pretty smug the other day when I manuevered him into a downtown department store. But when I pointed out the yellow couch I wanted, Jeff balked.

"Now look," he objected, "I'm willing to admit that you're the fashion authority in this family. But that light-colored upholstery is out of the question." He frowned. "Think of the cleaning bills!"

This was the remark I'd been waiting for. I steered Jeff to the appliance department, and stopped in front of a new RCA Whirlpool air conditioner.

"Here's what makes a yellow decor practical," I told him. "This air conditioner contains an electronic filter that traps dirt particles as tiny as 1 25,000th of an inch. Even the pollen count goes down. So air is really clean, as well as cool, when it enters the room."

Jeff rose to the bait.

"Say, that air conditioner would make your housework easier this summer."

"This winter, too," I cooed. "An electric heater goes to work warming cold outside air so we can have year-round ventilation without drafts."

Talking fast, I emphasized some of the major advantages of the new air conditioner. I told Jeff it was a product of Whirlpool-Seeger Corp., same as our freezer. I assured him our rugs and draperies and other furnishings would last longer and need less care. I mentioned the economy of fewer household cleaning bills. Then I brought up the yellow couch again.

"I suppose the couch and the air conditioner would both be good investments," Jeff admitted. "But no more shopping trips," he added firmly. "For the rest of the summer, we'll stay home and enjoy today's purchases."

I nodded. At least we'd be cool, I thought contentedly.

300 Children Need Homes

By Thane Griffith, Director
Council of Social Agencies

Many children are doomed to grow up in institutions. The only reason that some of them will never know the love and warmth of family life is that they are Negroes.

Foster home placement in Columbus and Franklin County has hit a snag—there are not enough applicants to adopt or board more than 300 homeless Negro children. And, at the same time, many potential parents never apply because they have heard false rumors that to be eligible takes a lot of money, a fancy home, and even a college degree.

Actually, the most important single requirement is that the prospective parents love and want children, and that they are willing to share with them the happiness of wholesome family living.

It doesn't really take a lot of money. While a steady income is important, average care for the child is all that is necessary. Substitute parents do not have to own their own home to be eligible. All that is needed is an average home with adequate space for the child. Educational requirement are flexible since the child and family will be matched closely with the emphasis on native intelligence instead of formal schooling.

Negro families wanting children must consider two choices, adoption and boarding. The main difference is one of time. Adoption is permanent. Adoptive parents become legal parents with all the responsibilities and rewards of parenthood.

On the other hand, boarding is temporary. The length of time a child stays with a boarding family is determined by agreement between the family and the child care agency responsible for the child. The cost of caring for the child is paid by the agency.

Many families have found boarding children a convenient way to increase the size of their families. Others have turned to boarding after their own children have grown up. Some persons who could not ordinarily adopt children, such as widows and older couples, board children instead.

Negro coopies who want children in their homes, or who just want more information, should call the information center of the Council of Social Agencies, CA. 8-4797.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS from The Bible

He that hateth his brother is in darkness and walketh in darkness and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.—(John 1,11.)

Judge Draper Seeks Return To Office

Judge Robert Draper, Mrs. Draper and daughters, Deborah and Nancy.

One of the more prominent civic leaders of Columbus seeks to be retained as Franklin County Common Pleas Judge in the election Nov. 6.

Judge Robert M. Draper, 104 S. Westmoor-av, has a record of many years of participation in civic activities throughout central Ohio. He was a member of the Columbus Board of Education for 12 years and served as president of that group in 1941 and again in 1947.

Judge Draper attended Highland Elementary School, West High School and received his law degree from Ohio State University and until he was appointed to the Common Pleas Court by Governor Lausche in 1955 was engaged in the private practice of law.

He has served as chairman of the Southwest district of Boy Scouts, on the Camp Fire Girls Board, and is a member of the Council of Social Agencies. He is a past grand patron of the Order of Eastern Star, member of Humboldt Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite, Aladdin Temple Shrine, Robert Morris Chapter of Eastern Star. He is a member of St. John Lutheran Church where he has taught a Sunday School Class for the past 20 years. In 1944 he was selected as man of the year by the Hilltop Business Association.

Mrs. Draper is active in numerous civic organizations in the city and daughters, Deborah and Nancy, are both students at West High School.

Berkhemer Seeks Post Of Treasurer

Fred C. Berkhemer, 155 W. Rivergien-dr, candidate for county treasurer, is serving his fifth term as mayor of Riverlea. He is married and has one daughter and a granddaughter.

He has been director of sales, Hart Manufacturing Co., for the past 16 years.

He is a past master and director of Masonic bodies of Columbus, also a member of Elks, Charity Newsies, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, Maennerchor. Press Club, Old Timers Football and many other civic organizations.

Berkhemer is favorably known throughout the county for the manner in which the village of Riverlea has been operated while serving as its mayor.

Roy King Got Big Write-in Vote

Roy King, present county clerk of courts, seeking re-election, was a court reporter from 1939 to 1944 and city treasurer from 1944 to 1949. He was the write-in candidate for this office and received an unprecedented 53 per cent of the total vote cast.

Roy King is married and the father of four children. He resides at 609 S. James-rd.

He is a member of the Ohio Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, Masonic orders, Sertoma Club and other civic organizations.

Henry Holden Jr. Enters Rep. Race

A new face with a well-known name was projected into the November election with the entrance of Henry L. Holden, Jr., 28, 201 W. Weber-rd, into the race for state representative.

An insurance man and former land appraiser for the state highway department, Holden was prominent in high school activities as a swimmer, basketball and football player.

Holden, a member of the Charity Newsies and a former Boy Scout, is married and has four children.

Stop Give-A-Ways Says Shapter

The American people are tired of "give-aways" of their hard earned money by foreign relations "experts" in congress, a Franklin County representative for congress declared this week.

Walter J. Shapter, Jr., democratic nominee for the 12th district seat, said, "It is time the giving of huge sums of taxpayers' money in the futile effort to buy friends was halted." He voiced opposition to a policy of bribing foreign nations away from Moscow, and said that instead of getting in a race to give away the people's money, there ought to be a sound reason for aid to the nations on the basis of proven, true friendship with the free world.

"We ought to have reasonable assurance that economic aid is not building up a potential ally for our enemy in case of war," Shapter said.

Shapter states he will seek an increase to $800 in the income tax exemption if elected.

RABBIT CLUB TO MEET

The Columbus Rabbit Club will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Pestel Milk Company's club rooms located on Sunbury-rd just north of Fifth Avenue on Friday, Nov. 2, 8 p. m.

It was the raw recruit's first turn of sentry duty. So his voice was rather shaky as he exclaimed:

"Halt! Who goes there?"

Out of the darkness came the startling reply:

"Foe!"

"Have a heart chum," the Sentry protested. "I haven't had time to learn the answer to that one yet!"

Johnston Says Court Speed-Up Is Badly Needed

Kenneth B. Johnston, prominent Columbus attorney and a lifelong resident of Columbus, is a candidate for judge of the court of appeals (two year term).

Johnston is a graduate of North High School and Ohio State University Law School and has been a practicing attorney for more than 30 years. He is a former assistant attorney general of Ohio and served as attorney for the public utilities commission of Ohio under Attorney General C. William O'Neill.

Johnston's campaign platform is "progress in our courts" He states that while our courts are doing a very good job, they tend to live in the past simply because they follow precedent and precedent was made in the past.

Johnston said it would be his aim if he is elected to the new court of appeals to make every effort to organize and operate that court so that all cases will be decided within 90 days after they are first brought into the court.

Bryant Seeks Appeals Post

William C. Bryant, former common pleas judge, has practiced law for 25 years, including court appearances many hundreds of times in all state courts and including a vast number of civil and criminal jury trials. Former Judge Bryant is a candidate for judge of the court of appeals. He is now director of liquor control where he has developed many sweeping changes, including a broad educational program, vigorous enforcement policy and improvements in the state stores program.

Bryant is a member of Tenth Avenue Baptist Church, Shriner, York and Scottish Rite Masons, member of American Legion, Lions Club, Torch Club, Eagles, Moose, Agonis Club, Northern Shrine Club, Columbus Bar and Ohio Bar Associations. He has twice served as general chairman of Crippled Children's Day at the state fair and is active in civic, fraternal and veterans' activities.

When all the shouting is over and the last campaign speech has been made, isn't this what all the struggle is really about?

You and your neighbors are going to march to the polls November 6 and settle things the American way.

Not by fists or by force, not with a penalty if you don't vote, or the secret police checking up to see if you did.

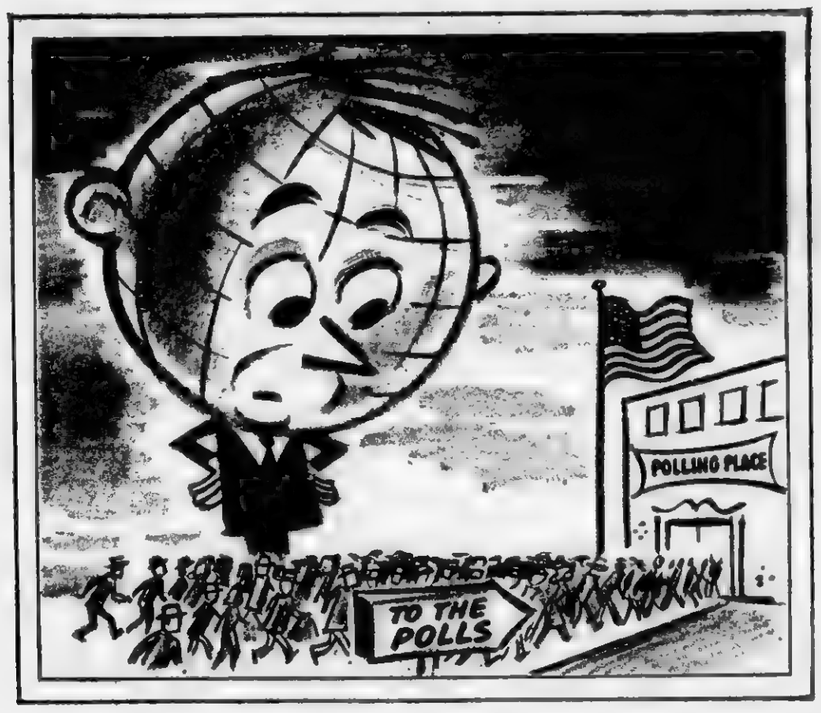
You're going to vote because it's the thing to do.

Vote as you please, of course.

Vote for the party and the candidates you honestly believe will represent you best.

But also vote because you believe in this democracy of ours and you want to keep it the way it is—a country where you can have your say and nobody else can say it for you.

Everybody you know will be there.



We'll see you at the polls!

Operation Sunshine

The dealers on this page all have official entry blanks. Stop in and pick some up today. Then take a look at their Operation Sunshine Dryer Models.

—:—

YOU MAY WIN A FAMOUS NAME ELECTRIC DRYER or COLOR TV SET

HERE'S ALL YOU DO!

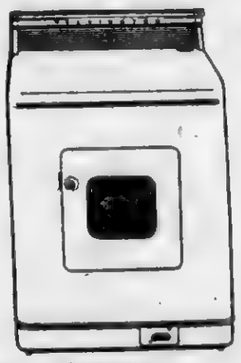
√ Stop in at any cooperating electric appliance dealer and ask for an OPERATION SUNSHINE entry card.

√ On the entry card mark down in the spaces provided THE EXACT NUMBER OF HOURS AND MINUTES OF SUNSHINE YOU THINK THERE WILL BE NEXT WEEK. Sign your name and address and drop the card in the mail box. No postage is required.

√ Each week for five weeks THREE WINNERS will be picked on the basis of the entrants who come closest to the actual hours and minutes of sunshine. Each of these winners will receive a famous name electric clothes dryer. Earliest postmark will determine the winner in case of ties.

√ At the end of the five-week contest, the entry that has come closest to the official report during the entire contest will receive as a grand prize a COLOR TV set.

√ You may enter the contest every week but each entry must be postmarked before midnight of the Saturday preceding the week of your guess.



√ Electric appliance dealers, and distributors, employes of Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company, their advertising agency and families are not eligible to enter.

2500 Youth, Parents Jam Schiller On Halloween

Approval Of Custom Said Widespread

The Halloween party at Schiller Recreation Center, Oct. 31, drew a near capacity number of participants, with 1,700 people entering into the evening's fun, according to a report by Schiller's director, D. T. Crawshaw.

Costume judging and the "Trip to Mars" proved to be the most popular activities of the evening, the director said. The space travelers were taken on a trip through one of the Martian Canals past such points of interest as the Hellespont, Desert of Death, Bay of Venus, Sea of Pearls, and Utopia. Ghost movies, a puppet show, and refreshments of cider and doughnuts completed the evening's festivities.

Approximately 600 parents were on hand to see the following boys and girls win prizes in the costume judging event:

Funniest: six and under, Jimmie Yuhas and Karla Smith; seven, eight and nine, Jerry Dick and Rosilee Hoffman; 10, 11, and 12, Robert Taylor and Nancy Rieger.

Wierdest: six and under, Roger Milligan and Sherry Wymer; seven, eight, and nine, Stanley Harrison and Ellen Sells; 10, 11, and 12, Roger Jones and Diana Harlor.

Prettiest, six and under, Mike Skinner and Rita Beardsly; seven, eight, and nine, Tom Riffle and Cynthia Riffle; 10, 11, and 12, John Williams and Bonita Brunello.

Most original, six and under, John Stoessel and Denise Skeen; seven, eight, and nine, Mike Marcus and Diana Harmon; 10, 11, and 12, Ted Salvage and Mary Dempsey.

The winners of silver dollars for promptness in getting home after the party are Nancy Jane Clements, Van Thomason, Denise Skeen, Leonora Champlin, Robert Williams, and Bobby Adkins.

Church Sunday Drive For Funds For New Program

Rev. Flendon Herbert, pastor, Ohio Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, 1013 S. Ohio-av, has announced a program which will utilize 75 lay members of the church in a member-to-member canvass Sunday afternoon.

The purpose of the program, the pastor announced, is to secure in a single drive the 1957 budget of $45,757, to be used to defray the cost of operating the church through the next year, and other purposes. Don Phillips, 669 Belivdere, is chairman of the visitation teams.

The pastor said he will preach at both the 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. services on the topic "When they were asked to stop giving" in preparation for the work by the members later in the day.

The sum asked this year is greater than in the past, and will cover the cost of maintaining of a missionary abroad plus the remodeling of the sanctuary and basement of the church, the pastor said. A congregational meeting recently requested church trustees to get the project started at once.

Harold Harmon, 1524 E. Whittier, is general chairman of the stewardship campaign at Ohio Avenue Church. Others on the general committee are Don Phillips, Mrs. C. G. Staley, Homer Valentine, Richard Smith, and Wayne Robinson.

Mrs. Bjorn PTA Speaker

Mrs. Ruth Bjorn, executive director of Friendship House, will be the speaker at the Nov. 15 meeting of Heyl Avenue Elementary School PTA, according to Mrs. Bill Jacks, PTA publicity chairman.

The speaker has announced that she will speak on the topic "Harmony In School and Home Discipline." It was stated that Mrs. Bjorn's topic is in line with current thinking, and the subject will be continued in some measure in future meetings, it was indicated.

Later a panel will discuss the same subject with Mrs. Bjorn, the panel consisting of a resource teacher, Mrs. Ruth Neff, and a parent, Mrs. Ralph Ross.

The program is said to be an example of the type of meetings planned by the parent-teacher group.

A social hour will follow the completion of the program, the publicity chairman said.

Open House At Stewart

Stewart Avenue School will have open house Tuesday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. Parents, children, and friends will meet in the auditorium first for a business meeting, Mrs. Richard R. Chambers, publicity chairman said.

The meeting will open with Rev. Paul C. Kaefer of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church giving the invocation. Miss Helene Heller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heller, 21 Stimmel-st, will give the Pledge of Allegiance.

A music selection from two talented people, Donald McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Francis McDowell, 1015 S. High-st, will play the violin and Miss Patty Poeschel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Poeschel, 37 E. Stewart-av, will accompany him on the piano. They will play "Angel Serenade."

Visitation to the class rooms will be from 8 to 9 p.m., where the parents can meet the teachers and see what their children have been doing. A social period with refreshments will close the evening.

Folk Dancers Set Harvest Festival Dance For Nov. 18

The Columbus Folk Dancers will hold their annual Harvest Festival Dance Sunday, Nov. 18, at Schiller Park Recreation Center. Dancing will begin at 2 p.m. and the catering committee, headed by Pat Newman, is planning a Serbian dinner for 3 p.m. The evening dance will start at 7 p.m. This festival is one of the highlights of the fall program of the Columbus Folk Dancers. During the dancing members of the Dayton, Mansfield and Cleveland groups will introduce some of their dances, and other Columbus clubs will also be represented.

Tickets for the entire Festival, including dinner, cost $1.50, and can be obtained from Pat Newman, 49 S. Huron, BR. 4-4616. Reservations for the dinner must be made by Nov. 15.

At Schiller

In addition to this dance, regular meetings of the Columbus Folk Dancers are held each Wednesday at Schiller Park. Other recent activities of the group have included a four-week workshop featuring "folk dancing for recreation leaders" held iin cooperation with the City Recreation Department during October. Exhibitions of folk dancing have also been given at the United Nations Day celebration in the Veterans' Memorial Hall at the Ohio Folk Festival on the O.S.U. campus.

N. Zealand Man Lures Keen Interest

Wide interest has been reported in the appearance of John J. Small, of Christchurch, New Zealand, as the speaker at St. Mary's PTA this evening at 8 o'clock. The speaker told the editor that he would have no set subject, since he will talk about his impressions since coming to the United States and Ohio State University last fall and comparisons he has drawn between things there and here. A Fulbright student, the New Zealander is working for his doctorate here. His wife, a bride just before leaving their homeland for the United States and OSU, is with him.

Mrs. Charles T. Knoefel, publicity chairman for St. Mary's PTA, expressed the thought that the speaker will have a large and interested audience.

Police Announce Turkey, Ham Shoot Saturday

A "Shotgun Turkey and Ham Shoot" will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Columbus Police Pistol Range, 2609 McKinley-av.

Cross targets will be used and turkeys and hams will be awarded to the winners. Proceeds will be used for the upkeep of the pistol range, according to Sgt. John W. Grimm, range instructor. The shoot will be open to the public. Charge is $1 per round.

'Cheaper By The Dozen' To Be Given By South High Dramatists On Nov. 16

To Highlight Theatrical at South High

Tickets are said to be available from South High dramatic students and at the door on the evening of Nov. 16. And, students emphasized, the cost is "low"—only 50 cents.

Deshler PTA To See Play

Deshler Avenue PTA will meet Wednesday evening, Nov. 14, at 7:30 at the school according to an announcement by Mrs. C. B. Hauck, publicity chairman.

The theme for the year, "Effectiveness of Working Together with the Entire Family" will be carried through with the presentation of a play, "Point of Beginning," by the speech department of Ohio State University. A discussion lead by Mrs. Norbert Wacker will follow the play.

Refreshments will be served, Mrs. Hauck said, adding that a pleasant social period is assured.

Heimandale School Called Big Success

Heimandale's Haalloween Festival, the first in the school's short history, developed into a huge success, according to all reports.

Carolyn Reese, a fourth-grader, was crowned queen and Charles Gore, a sixth-grader, was crowned king.

Fast Advance For Sgt. Allen

Sgt. O. Roger Allen, son of Mrs. Frederick Thum, 413 Zimpfer-at has been promoted from Pfc. to sergeant in the nine months of service as chief radio operator for the 74th Engr. Bn. in Korea. Before entering the Army in March, 1955, Sgt. Allen was employed in the office of Ohio Fuel Gas Co. A graduate of Hamilton High School, Sgt. Allen celebrated his 21st birthday in Tokyo, Japan, hopes to be home for the holidays. His wife, Peggy and two-year-old daughter Sheri Lynn live in Obetz.

Bulldogs Smash Way Over Aquinas, 13-12

By Tom Woodyard

South's much-improved Bulldogs came from behind to win this year's annual dog fight with the Aquinas Terriers by a one-point margin, 13-12, last Friday night. South, now 2-2-1 in league competition, is tied with Central for third place in the tough City League.

Coach Bob Duncan, using a sort of Paul Brown-type of football, kept running in plays with guards Rudy Wiegerig and Tom Woodyard throughout the game.

Aquinas Trampling

Aquinas got off to a good start in the first quarter and proceeded to march 79 yards for a TD. In one play Charlie Mentel threw a perfect pass into the out-stretched arms of Tom Rhodes that carried for 37 of the 79 yards made in the march. On the next play Rhodes broke through the Bulldog defenses and scampered 46 yards to pay dirt.

Smashed Back

South then came right back and tied the score up at 6-6 after Jack Silcott intercepted a Terrier pass on the Irish's 35-yard line. The Bulldogs continued to move, and Ron Allen climaxed the drive by sneaking over from the one-inch line.

After the Bulldog tally, Aquinas Irishmen got up their noted tempers and came right back to march 68 yards for the score that put them ahead at the half time 12-6. Tom Rhodes again accounted for the Terrier score.

Temper Boiled

The Bulldogs took the field in the second half and showed the Aquinas eleven they had a fighting temper themselves, and they proceeded to half the Irish scoreless the whole second half.

In the fourth quarter, after Bob Duncan sent in one of his guards with a divide cut-pass play Bulldog end Jerry Hill made a beautiful one-handed catch and stepped across the goal for the tying six points. End "Joe" Devlin, usually using his toe to score extra points, this time used his arm and Coach Duncan's idea and passed to Jerry Hill, who was standing all alone in the end yard for the winning one point.

They'll Try for Top

Tomorrow, the Bulldogs travel to North as underdogs, but where will you find a stronger underdog than a Bulldog? They promise to give the Polar Bears a real battle before letting them wear the City League crown, if not to take it away from them completely.

Pfc. Hartman Given Honor

Pfc. Richard C. Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Hartman, 830 Livingston-av, recently was named Soldier of the Month for the 504th Signal Company at Sacramento, Calif., Signal Depot. Hartman, a radar repairman in the company, was selected in competition on a basis of neatness, knowledge of military subjects, and efficient performance of assigned duties. The 22-year-old soldier, a 1955 graduate of Ohio State University, was employed by the Columbus Citizen before entering the Army in April of that year. He received basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

Beck Street PTA

With the monthly theme being "Better Understanding of Our Community," Beck Street PTA will present Mrs. Gloria Strong, associate of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Glenn Ryan Is Home For Visit

Glenn Ryan

Missile School at Dam Neck, Va. After spending a 15-day furlough with his father and an aunt, Mrs. Edith Brown, 1110 S. Fourth-st, he will be stationed at Crane, Ind.

Council To Meet

The November meeting of the Council of South Side Organizations will be held Thursday, Nov. 8, 8 p.m., at the South Side YMCA.

Dr. Cotterman Is Speaker; Siebert PTA

Siebert PTA's publicity chairman has announced the coming of Dr. H. R. Cotterman, professor in education, Capital University, to speak at the PTA meeting in the school building at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 14. Mrs. Ralph Skeen is publicity chairman for the PTA.

Dr. Cotterman, whose home is at 675 Sheridan, has announced that he will speak on the topic "Teach, that they may have life more abundantly."

Mrs. Skeen said there will be open house, with classroom visitation available. Refreshments will be served, it was stated.

Back To School At MF Dinner

The Marion-Franklin High School PTA is sponsoring a dinner and open house on Nov. 12 in conjunction with National Education Week. Dinner will be served in the cafeteria from 6 to 7 p.m. After dinner, visitors will be given schedules and will have an opportunity to meet with respective teachers by taking part in mock class sessions, during which time younger children will be entertained by a movie. Mrs. Joe Drake says everyone having school interest should attend and get acquainted with the principal and his staff.

Smith Road PTA Officers Are Elected

Smith Road Elementary School PTA recently named its new 1956-57 officers, according to Mrs. Joe Ziegler, president of the organization. Those were photographed with Principal Claude McGuire, who is also an officer. Left to right, the new officers are Mrs. John Nippert, secretary; Mrs. Jack Schoonover, treasurer; Claude McGuire, principal, and PTA second vice-president; Mrs. Paul F. Wiess, vice-president; Mrs. Joe Ziegler, president.

St. Leo's Holiday Fair To Have Large Assortment Of Prizes

John Schmitt, general chairman of Holiday Fair, to be held at St. Leo's Church, Hanford and Bruckets, Sunday, Nov. 18, has announced completion of plans for the fair, together with the names of ladies and men assisting as chairmen of stands. They are Mrs. Joseph Zubovich, Mrs. Francis Kempf, Mrs. Robert Ellifritz, Mrs. Morris Diamond, Mrs. John Jakob and James Sergi, Andrew Kaeppner, Francis Kempf, and Mrs. Arnold Plageman.

A special feature, the committee said, will be a chicken and noodle dinner. The fair will begin at 12 o'clock noon and end at 8 p.m., the committee announced.

The Gadabout

Since Paul Klingman, 742 Jaeger-st, is a little young to be numbered among the readers of this column, we assume it's safe to tell of a surprise birthday party that will take place later on today in his honor. In addition to his neighborhood friends, the members of Den 5, Pack 84, will join in celebrating his birthday. These young lads are Teddy Cox, Billy Gillenwater, Ernie Heller, Richard Wymer and Timmy Gall.

A dance this Saturday at the K. of C. will be the magnet for many of our South Side Cloverleaf Club members and their friends. All the Cloverleaf Clubs are participating, but Leaf 29 is in charge of all the arrangements. The dance, held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., will have music furnished by the Nick Pace orchestra. There will be round and square dancing.

Trudeau Guild 26 will hold its monthly meeting Nov. 13, at 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. William Henkle, 640 Lilley-av.

Last Saturday morning, eight South High School orchestra members left in the early hours to take the short trip to Chillicothe, to practice in the South Central regional orchestra.

In the evening a short concert was presented by the budding musicians. Randall Near was part of the group making the trip. The South High group included violinists, Don Dicke, Marcia Lipson, Don Valentine, John Boynton and Nancy Hastilow; violas, Priscilla Dicke and Ilga Tillers; trombonist, David Long was the lone South High "blowing" instrumentalist in the miniature symphony. Several South students were chosen to go on to the all-Ohio group, which is a high honor indeed, as there were 75 young musicians to choose from in the South Central district alone. (There are four other regions in Ohio, musically speaking.) So again, Mr. Near deserves a pat of commendation for bringing distinction to South in this way. (One of the violinists won't get to take advantage of his honor though, I'm afraid, for he's likely to be in another part of the state that day.) Mr. and Mrs. Long made the trip to Ohio's first capital to hear the youngsters perform, as did the Lenox tribe.

Trudeau Guilds 12 and 25 held meetings yesterday. Guild 12 was hostessed by Mrs. Stephanie Huebner, 1156 Fairwood-av, at a 9:30 a.m. brunch; Guild 25 met in the home of Mrs. Lawrence Rumsey, 222 Frebis-av; Guild 10 meets next Wednesday in the new home of Cleo Canter, who deserted the South Side for Grove City.

Although neither the bride nor bridegroom is a South Side resident, the bridegroom spent his younger days in our part of town, and still has many South High School friends and acquaintances living here, so we'll mention the recent wedding of Nancy Cleary and Monroe Courtright, which took place Sept. 26. Monroe is owner and publisher of the Public Opinion, Westerville's weekly newspaper. The couple honeymooned in New York City and is now at home at 2800 Walnut-rd, Westerville.

Didn't mean to ignore two October birthdays — just forgot them! The two who added a year without any help from us are "Butch" Zielke of S. Sixth-st, and Harry Ruden, 901 Heyl-av.

Southern Way Chapter 467, OES, meets this evening at South Gate Masonic Temple at 7:30. The election of officers will be the main item on the business agenda.

The rectory of Corpus Christi Church will be the scene of the Nov. 10 exchange of marriage vows for Joan Ellen Klingler, 1143 Wilson-av, and Lt. Lisle Moorhead, Indiana, Pa.

WSCS Circles of the Thurman Avenue Methodist Church that meet in the coming week are as follows: Mary Circle today at noon, for a dessert luncheon. Hostesses will be Miss Jennie Harmon, Mrs. Bessie Keckley and Mrs. Marie Womeldorff. Two Circles have Nov. 14 meeting dates, the Elizabeth Circle and the Ruth Circle. Elizabeth Circle, has a 12:30 dessert luncheon scheduled. A Thanksgiving program will be presented by Viola Throckmorton, Lucy Courtney and Della Bay. Ruth Circle will meet at 8 p.m. in the home of Martha Ann McGraw, with Mary Jean Lamprecht as co-hostess.

There was much joyous excitement at 225 Reeb-av last Sunday, when an overseas sailor lad called home and talked to his family. Bob Fletcher, who had attended South Side schools and worked at the Julian Kokenge Shoe Co. before enlisting in the navy, was the young man who made the overseas call from Hawaii, where he has been stationed for two years. He talked to his mother, Faye Fletcher, and to his wife, Nancy, who resides at 500 S. Seymour-av. He expects to be home between now and Christmas. (He's quite anxious to see what Bob Jr. is doing these days, naturally.)

Early November birthdays include those of Lou Whitacre and Bobby Rothwell.

Judy and Jimmy Osborn, 702 Hanford-st, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Osborn, were two of the "small fry" who celebrated Halloween with a party. The occasion took place on Friday, Oct. 28.

Three residents of Marysville, Kan., toured this part of the country recently, visiting their "eastern" relatives. The Columbus "easterner" was Ida Lachowsky, 766 Gilbert-st. Her visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Emil Diverikopte and son, Gary. Emil is Ida's brother. We had much fun over Ida's exchanging one jaw-breaker type name for another, when she told us of her brother's visit.)

Hamilton Homecoming Queen And Court

Hamilton Township High School crowned its queen and installed the court before the evening's football game, which was lost by the Hamilton team. But the queen and her court were happy interludes sufficient to keep away gloom. The Gadabout

Church, meets today at 10 a.m. in Henderson Hall.

Cloverleaf Club 20 will meet Nov. 14 for a 12:30 luncheon. Hostesses will be Mrs. Clara Distelzweig, 1685 S. High-st.

Our ailing list includes Maggie Burr, who is in University Hospital; Sharon Hill, who had a tonsillectomy; Mrs. Harlow Bowshier, who was in White Cross Hospital; and Catherine Gillespie, who was in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Mary and Martha Circles of Gates-Fourth Methodist are meeting this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the church. The WSCS will meet at 1 p.m., with Mrs. W. O. Wortman in charge.

Since the Children's Hospital Twigs are among the best known hospital groups, news of their annual Christmas bazaar, Nov. 19, is well-known to many South Side women in Leaderland, for many of them belong to one of the Twigs. Mrs. Donald Dibling of Woodrow-av is bazaar chairman for Twig 96, and her group has a unique project that it has been working on. Knowing how the younger set enjoy TV's "Flippo, the Clown," the women have been making "Flippo" puppets as their share of the bazaar. The bazaar will be held at the Neil House.

Oakwood Methodist Circles that will meet in the next day or two are the Jessie Lee Circle and the Susannah Wesley Circle. The Jessie Lee Circle meets today at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. H. B. Watts, 344 Wilson-av. The Susannah Circle meets tomorrow in the home of Mrs. L. Cooper at 8 p.m.

Guess that does it for today . . . a gentle reminder of our "Gifts for Giving" at the Benjamin Franklin Hospital. Remember, things needn't be new, or purchased "especially." What we're making a plea for is the "white elephant" items that are in your home, or good, used things. None of us are wealthy and it's give, give, give, constantly, we know. But all of us have items in our homes that are "too good to throw away," yet we have no use for them ourselves. That's the sort of thing we're asking for. Or perhaps an organization you belong to has a Christmas exchange. Maybe they would consider donating their exchange presents to the San. It wouldn't take many such groups to do the job. (Perhaps some of the things you've received yourself in such exchanges would be very suitable, you know?) Since the patients ask for items for husband, wife, or children, practically ANYTHING at all is suitable. Whether it's one item or several, we'll gladly pick it up, don't forget. Once again, our good friends, the Speakmons have said they'd help too, so either call us at HI. 4-1051, or Speakmons, at HI. 4-0832. Remember, t.b. is a "long" time curing and the patients have much time to lie there, thinking of their loved ones and the fact that they themselves can not go out and enter into the Christmas "hustle." This fact makes Christmas pretty sad for them, as it would for any of us, knowing we would be unable to personally give even a "token" gift to our family. And another point, which we think is worth mentioning: we KNOW the items go where they're intended, for we go out and put them right in the patient's hands! Enough for today, we'll be at it till Christmas! Don't forget, either for news or "Gifts for Giving," the number is HI. 4-1051. Till next week's column, this has been . . .

PTA Magazine Celebrating Golden Anniversary This Week

Special By PTA

Governor Lausche has proclaimed the week of Nov. 11 as "National Parent Teacher Magazine Week," honoring the golden anniversary of this magazine.

In Nov., 1906, when the first issue was published, it was called "National Congress of Mothers Magazine." Mrs. Frederic Schoff, president of the Congress in 1906, wrote: "Only educated parenthood can safeguard the youth of the nation and by intelligent, purposeful, systematic effort in every village, city, and state make America a land where the welfare of the child receives the highest consideration."

Through the years, the National Parent-Teacher Magazine has never relaxed the quality of its helpful and inspiring articles. The magazine continues to grow in popularity with thinking parents everywhere.

When your magazine chairman approaches you regarding a subscription, she is not only selling subscriptions, but also selling knowledge, exchanging ideas, and improving relations within the home, school, and community.

Euchre Party To Aid Fund For Scholarship

Attitude toward school work, participation in school activities, and academic work are considered in determining the winner of the scholarship awarded to one of the girl graduates of St. Leo's School each year by the St. Leo Altar-Rosary Sodality and Parish Council of Catholic Women.

The scholarship provides for one year's tuition to the parochial high school which the winner chooses to attend. Ann Scanlan, 277 Frebis-av, winner of last year's award, is presently attending St. Joseph's Academy.

Funds to provide the scholarship will be provided through a euchre party to be held in St. Leo's school hall, Frebis and Brucks-st, Saturday, Nov. 10, at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Henry Webb is chairman of the affair. Serving on the committee are Mrs. Andrew Theado, Mrs. Augie Fontaine, Mrs. Leo Herderick, Theresa Sternecker, and Mrs. Oddie Lauber.

Tickets will be available at the door, according to Mrs. George C. Miller, 668 Siebert-st, publicity chairman.

Install New Officials

Newly elected officers of Columbus Chapter 1, American Gold Star Mothers, Inc., will be installed Nov. 9, at 7:45 p.m., in the Veterans Memorial Building. They are, president, Mrs. George A. Neibler; first vice-president, Mrs. Anna Hatton; second vice-president, Mrs. Albert Heitz; recording secretary, Mrs. Gladys Johnson; treasurer, Mrs. E. A. Gerber; chaplain, Mrs. Porter Smith; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Emma Wolf; color bearers, Mrs. Charles Werner, and Mrs. Martha Nairn.

Appointed officers, color guards, Mrs. Russell Forgrave and Mrs. Otto Fischer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank Distelzweig; hospital chairman, Mrs. H. A. Stoughton; sunshine, Mrs. Joseph Trott; membership, Mrs. Albert Heitz; telephone, Mrs. Clarence Kuhn; sewing, Mrs. O. J. Sprouse and Mrs. E. H. Bartlett; all-occasion cards, Mrs. Jesse Midkiff and Mrs. Zula Galloway; sales tax stamps, Mrs. Anna Seely; hospitality, Mrs. James Semons; custodian of records, Mrs. E. H. Bartlett.

Registrar, Mrs. Lewis Leedy, social chairman, Mrs. Anna Hatton; historian, Mrs. Charles Shoemaker; roster, Mrs. Frank Distelzweig; auditing, Mrs. Bertha Robins; parliamentarian, Mrs. E. A. Gerber; musician and publicity, Mrs. James May. Mrs. Charles Shoemaker, retiring president, will preside at the opening of the installation.

If my side failed to win Tuesday, there'll be no crepe hanging on this column. The winners for the big jobs are honest men and loyal citizens. Having lived through numerous defeats for my candidates, and suffering tortures when I was quite young and "my man" was defeated, I learned to "take it" and give support to the winner. In most instances he deserved the support.

David Rockefeller urges the South to seek outside capital.

South Side Leader

25c Per Month By Carrier

Delivered To Homes of the South Side Each Thursday Morning

Vol. V, No. 35 | Columbus, Ohio, Thursday, November 15, 1956 | Total No. 243

IT'S EASY TO REMEMBER — The telephone number of 1542 Parsons-av, we mean, it's HI. 4-9262. It's the number hundreds call right along to "advertise it" — whatever it may be — in the South Side Leader classified columns. It's a right smart thing to do, advertise in the Leader. There's such a big circulation, it's bound to do its job quickly and satisfactorily.

from OG's NOTES

Grateful: Yes, we are downright grateful about a letter from Mrs. Walter Denney, president South High PTA. The Leader has been giving a good deal of space to PTA activities. But why not? There's nothing any more important anywhere. But Mrs. Denney says the PTA has given us a "Golden Jubilee" subscription for the "National Parent-Teacher" and another subscription to the "Ohio Parent-Teacher" in appreciation for our cooperation. We are meek . . . and equally appreciative.

Little Bites: There are little bites in the air these days which presage cold winds and snow and ice, all seasonable, of course, but for me never welcome. And I believe there are many who proclaim the "wonderful" days of cold and snow who really toot their tune to keep up courage. Of course, there are others so vigorous that they need a little taming, and if that is so maybe the biting bits of winter do some good.

Blest Be the Tie: There's a hymn sung in many Christian churches having that title, and the frostiness of the morning as this is being written directs my mind to the fact that every South Side church will within six weeks be singing this and similar hymns in acknowledgement of THE EVENT in the ox stall in Bethlehem long, long ago. Then my mind goes quickly to Hungary and to other countries heeled into the mire by a mighty nation whose philosophy is contained within the word "hatefulness." And I wonder how we could get a bit of Christian kindness into the hearts and souls of the "Big Shots" of Russia who strew death, misery through hatred, suffering into the lives of so many! We can only be sad because others are so mad!

Shop early: Quickly, now, this advice will be spread over the pages of newspapers, by radio, and in other ways—a warning it will be well to heed. We'd like to urge this: here in the South Side there are stores where just about every human need can be supplied. Use your Leader to track down the Christmas items you want, then visit your South Side dealers until you have completed your list. The earlier you shop, the better is the selection, whether it be a LITTLE store or a GIANT merchandising institution. Your local stores buy the same grades of goods as you will find anywhere else. More, most of them in the South Side will sell on the lay-away plan, a mighty easy way to buy; many have deferred payment plans. Buy early, buy South Side! You'll experience a lot less wear and tear and get the same quality at the same price. Your local merchant will welcome you gladly —and expertly.

War: Prayers of untold millions are pouring out into the heavens above and around that war will not come. But, since devils incarnate in a heartless and ruthless society of wolves from hell care nothing for prayers and human rights and love, the tortures of the damned may soon, at any moment be turned loose upon a world whose ultimate hope depends upon the maintenance of peace. The murderers of men's hearts and minds and bodies are disloyal to those who would be their friends in human decency, would cut the throats of those who would pass them bread, and would corrupt a field of lilies in full and splendid glory!

Thank you, Mrs. Ray E. Seipel: Mrs. Seipel writes (and how we appreciate it!) thanking the Leader for the cooperation given in St. Mary's (Groveport) Smorgasbord recently. Many in this area are interested in the affairs at Groveport.

William Penn Fish Fry Set

Andy Guyer, president, William Penn Athletic Association, has announced the holding of the annual fish fry tomorrow, Friday, from 5 p.m. to 11 o'clock.

President Guyer said that, as usual, the fish, pickerel, are caught in Lake Erie and brought directly here for the fish fry. The fish fry will be held at the William Penn Home at 1502 Parsons.

Hamilton Beats Whitehall To Be County Co-Champs

Hamilton Rangers' victory over the Whitehall Rams last Friday, Nov. 9, on the Rams' field, brought the Rangers the top spot in the county as county co-champions with Mifflin for the 1956 season. Hamilton scored the first time they got their hands on the ball.

Chuck Juliano burst off right tackle and sprinted 70 yards for Hamilton's score. Hamilton could not get their offense to clicking again in the first half. Whitehall's biggest threat was late in the second quarter, when Whitehall recovered a Hamilton fumble on the 5-yard line. But Hamilton's strong defense tightened and held Whitehall as the half ended.

Whitehall kicked off to Hamilton to start the second half and on the first play from scrimmage Wayne Sharron dashed his way to 75 yards and Hamilton's second score. Hamilton had everything under control the rest of the game, and again Sharron went 35 yards for his second and Hamilton's third and final score.

Hamilton is co-champs along with Mifflin, both teams having an 8-1 record. Hamilton's only loss was to Mifflin, while Mifflin lost to Marion-Franklin.

—Keith Johnston.

Library's Radio Hour Changes

The quarter-hour Library Book Parade show heard for the past 18 months on WCOL Radio on Tuesday afternoons will shift to 1:45 p.m. Wednesdays, effective this week.

Elements of the program are a listing of the most popular reading fare of the past week in the Columbus Public Library system, a short book review of a title selected by an outstanding American literary figure, and news about library services.

Cube Steak Special

The PTA of St. Leo's Church will sponsor a cube steak luncheon Nov. 20, at 1 o'clock, in the school dining room. A games party will follow. Serving as chairman will be Mrs. Rose Burkey, assisted by Mrs. Morris Diamond. The affair is open to the public, it was stated.

Do-It-Yourself Vacancies Now

There are still a few vacancies in the free instruction being offered to South Siders at the Schiller Recreation Center, according to Director Crawshaw. Both men and women have registered for classes in "do it yourself" projects such as woodworking, Christmas card making, weaving, basketry and slim-nastics.

It is not too late for interested persons to enter, the director said. Anyone wishing to participate may call Schiller Center, HI. 4-7262, Crawshaw said.

Nursery Open Now At 6 A.M.

The South Side Day Nursery Board announces that as of November 1, the hours of the nursery shall be from 6 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. The board feels the new opening hour will make it easier for working mothers who must go a long distance to their work.

The South Side Day Nursery is a Community Chest Agency and is here to serve the residents of the South Side, an official said. The nursery, located at 255 Reeb-av, cares for children from three years through 10 years of age. Mrs. Margery Carey is the director of the nursery and will be happy to answer all questions relating to admittance and fees.

Settlement House To Benefit From 'Can-Can' Drive

The South Side Settlement House will be the beneficiary of a special canned foods drive Nov. 19, when approximately 200 members of Bexley HighY-Teen and Hi-Y organizations conduct their annual "can-can" party. The group will leave Bexley High School at 7 p.m. to cover the entire Bexley area in behalf of the South Side's famous Settlement House, along with $35 in cash donations.

Mrs. Belcher At Oberlin Meet

On Saturday, Nov. 3, Mrs. Belcher of Hamilton Township High School went as the high school's representative to Oberlin College at Oberlin, O., for a meeting of the Ohio Dean of Women's Association. This association includes high school deans of girls.

The main speeches were on group behavior and group dynamics. A tour of the campus, a movie, a reception at the president's home, and a banquet completed the program for 165 deans and their guests.

Barrett Open House

Barrett Junior High School will have open house this Thursday evening, Nov. 15, at 7:30. A business meeting will be held in the auditorium from 7:30 to 8 p.m. and the senior girls' glee club will sing five selections, according to Mrs. Richard R. Chambers, publicity chairman. Room visitation will be from 8 to 9 p.m. Parents will be eligible to win a $5 prize at the end of the semester by registering with the child's home room. The home room having the most parents register there will receive this gift.

After visitation there will be a social hour from 9 to 9:30 p.m.

South Senior Wins First Prize In Interview Writing

Julie Warner, Charlotte Jenkins

Julie Warner, left, above, South High senior, won first prize in an interview writing contest at the fall conference of the High School Press Club of Central Ohio at Ohio State University. Julie received a Theta Sigma Phi trophy for the school and a Sheaffer pen from the F. J. Herr Printing Co. for herself. Charlotte Jenkins (right), also a senior at South High, won second place in the contest.

June Sears, a June graduate, received a trophy for a news story which appeared in a January issue of the school paper, the "Optic." Bob Dean and Robin Nye, also June graduates, placed third in the feature writing and sports writing categories, respectively.

South's Band Is Honored Halfway To Bulldog's Win

by Patty Trumpa

In recognition of Band Appreciation Day, South High School's marching band presented a special show during the half-time at the South vs. Aquinas game at Mahaffey Stadium Friday, Nov. 2. Members of the instrumental department sold band booster tickets during school Friday and at the game that night.

As the band marched onto the field during half-time, they played "Stars and Stripes Forever." Forming the letter "A", the band played "Football Hero" and Aquinas' "Alma Mater" in honor of Aquinas. South's Band Director Near was pleasantly surprised when the band burst out with "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" while forming the number 10 in honor of Mr. Near's ten years with South High's band.

Grad Members Honored

To honor the graduating band members, the band marched into the formation of an hourglass and played "Auld Lang Syne." As each graduating band member walked through the hourglass, his name was announced by Bruce Gischel, student sports commentator. Those graduating are Larry Boehm, Sonny Boesch, Lee Burba, Jackie Castle, Sharrie Colburn, Mary Jo Dunlap, Steve Dworkin, Dick Evans, Jackie French, Johnny Harick, Charles Highland, Ray Klingbiel, Bill Kochler, Roger Krebs, Anne Lippert, Beverly Ludwig, Patsy Martin, Sondra Meinert, Bob Merriman, Marilyn Metzger, Linda Mithoff, Sue Mock, Rita Moore, Sharon Morris, Norma Rosenauer, Augusta Sherard, Diane Ullman, Bruce Warner, Suy Whaley, Donna Wood, Sandee Yates, and Garry Vance.

The spectators swelled with school patriotism as the band, forming the letter "S" presented South's "Fight Song," followed by the concluding number of the program, South's "Alma Mater." The Bulldogs went on to fight to victory.

Volunteers Ask Discards For Needy Persons

Although America's surge of prosperity seems to be spread among us, The Volunteers of America still finds a need for salvageable furniture among families in the area of its headquarters building.

Last week, according to Major Harriet McDonald, director of the Columbus Post, a family came to the organization for help in obtaining furniture. They had been burned out, and were trying to start anew in the Columbus area.

Furniture is handled in the Volunteers of America shop by refinishers, upholsterers, and other workers, temporarily employed by the local organization while they get back on their feet.

Not only is the discarded furniture salvaged in this way, but disorganized lives are being salvaged ,too, at the same time.

The housewife's discard in Columbus is put to work in many ways by the Volunteers of America. A telephone call to CA. 6-5665 or CA. 4-8650 will bring a truck to your door. Clean out that storage attic and put your discard to work, Volunteers asks.

Alumni Dance Date Nov. 22

A semi-formal dance extravaganza has been announced by the St. Mary Alumni, according to Mrs. James Messmer, to be held Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 22.

The popular event will be held at Valley Dale, the announcement said, and will start at 9 p.m. and continue until midnight. Tickets may be had at 657 Mohawk-st, it was stated.

Host Pastor To Preside, Rev. Herbert Glendon To Preach; Special Music

Following the custom of many years, three South Side organizations are sponsoring the annual South Side Community Thanksgiving Day service. These organizations are the South Side Ministerial Association, the South Side YMCA Young Peoples Inter-Church Council, and the South Side Branch YMCA, according to a release issued at the first of the week.

Miss Streaty

Washington Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, Markison and S. Washington-av, of which Rev. Boyd Rife is pastor, will be the host church this year, the announcement stated.

Open To All

Spokesmen said that the services are open to all people, regardless of denomination, as is usual with this annual service.

Pastor Rife will preside at the service, which will be held at 7:45 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 21. Members of the South Side YMCA Young People's Inter-Church Council will assist with the services.

Rev. Glendon Herbert

Rev. Glendon Herbert, pastor at Ohio Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, will deliver the Thanksgiving message. He announced that his topic will be "The Grace of Gratitude."

Rev. Herbert came to Columbus this year, succeeding Rev. Howard Buckley.

The musical program will feature the Washington Avenue EUB choir, under the direction of Harold Imhoff, assisted by Mrs. Imhoff at the piano, and Miss Ann Elizabeth Streaty, Claire Chapel Methodist Church, will be the featured soloist, according to the program committee. Miss Clareece Gedeist will accompany.

A special anthem will be presented by the choir, which will also lead the congregational singing.

The Offering

The free will offering from the service will go to the Protestant Chaplain's Fund at the Benjamin Franklin Hospital for providing spiritual ministry to inmates and patients of county institutions where they are not cared for by any other clergy.

Southwood PTA Date

Southwood School PTA monthly meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 20, 1:30 p.m., in the school auditorium. "Thankful For Our Responsibilities" will be the theme, in keeping with Thanksgiving Day.

There will be a business meeting and Mrs. Elmer Marte, president, will give a short report from the 51st Ohio Congress of Parent and Teachers, which she and Mrs. Charles Dayton, vice-president, attended as our delegates last month in Toledo.

PTA membership awards will be presented by Mrs. Paul Clark, membership chairman. Our Southwood school patrol will be given special recognition.

A program following the business meeting will be presented by the third-grade classes under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Rita Balcom, Mrs. Eleanor Meuschke, and Mrs. Opal Dwyer. Refreshments will be part of a social period, it was announced.

Hamilton's Jr. Class Play Is Set: Tomorrow

Tomorrow evening, Friday, is the date for Hamilton Township Junior Class play, according to Bev Roof, class scribe.

The group has been rehearsing with great devotion, a school authority said, and it is expected that the play will attract a crowded house.

The play will be a three-act comedy, "The Beauty and the Beef." The performance will be given in the school auditorium. A spokesman said the parents have been treated well, the price for those under 12 years of age being only 35 cents, as against the "very small price," to quote one of the Juniors, of 75 cents for all others.

Corpus Christi PTA Dance Up This Friday

A round and square dance is coming up at Corpus Christi under the sponsorship of the Corpus Christi PTA, according to a statement by the publicity department.

The dance is coming up tomorrow (this Friday) evening, Nov. 16, and it will begin at 9 o'clock and keep a-rolling, a spokesman said, until the hour of 12 arrives. The spokesman also said that the music by Linden Ramblers will keep feet flying for some of the prizes to be awarded during the evening.

Committee members are Mrs. George Rohn, Mrs. Ollie Norwacki, George Rohn, Mrs. Bernard Muetzel, Bernard Muetzel, Wilbur Muellner.

Leader Given Praise For Aid In Orderly Halloween

In an assembly at Barrett Junior High School, a Leader scribe told us, Principal Nash paid tribute to the Leader along with several other factors in making Halloween a period of non-destructive celebration.

The principal included the South Side YMCA with Jim Wagner, Schiller Recreation, South Side Leader and the city newspapers, the Parent-Teacher Association, the schools and the auxiliary police

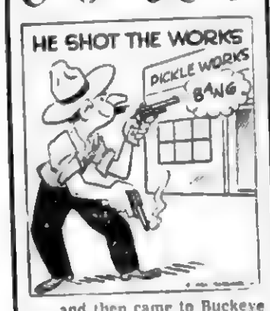
Otto Meiers Find Mexico Exciting

A post card received at the Leader office from Mr. and Mrs. Otto Meier tell of exciting days amid the ancient scenes of Mexico.

During their first few days they took in the important points in the city of Mexico and then in the surrounding area. Then away to see Mexico where it's a mixture of rough and pretty— but all exciting, the tourists told us on the post card.

At the mailing of the card they were on the way to Acapulco after visiting the city of Guerrero, and by the time of the next report it seems certain they will have touched many historic parts.

Second Thursday Date



Announcement has been made by St. Mary PTA that meeting dates of the group for the balance of the school year, will be the second Thursday of each month.

Reeb PTA Date

The Reeb Avenue PTA will meet Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 7:30 p.m. Russell Slater of the department of education will talk about reading

Oh, oh, lots to write about and not much time to do it in! Well, items that don't get in today, we'll save for next edition.

The second quarterly meeting of St. Anthony's Cloverleaf Club will be held next Monday, Nov. 19, at 8 p.m. at the hospital. Mrs Phillip Palumbo, 945 Heyl-av, will preside. Cloverleaf 20 is making final plans for its dance to be held Nov. 16 at the Maennerchor, 966 S. High-st. Al Baumbusch's Orchestra will furnish the music for round and square dancing, 9 to 12.

Tonight the Grant Hospital Alumnae will sponsor their annual ham dinner and bazaar, at Baldwin Hall, 391 E. Town-st, from 5:30 to 8:30. Jean Pieplow, a Gates-st resident, is general chairman of the event.

Birthday greetings to some very nice people . . . Mrs .Edward Cobourn, Mrs. Charles Tvack, and Geneva Thompson.

An ailing member of the community is Mrs. Rarick, who has spent time in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

On the agenda for the younger folks at Southwood Church of Christ is a Thanksgiving party for Junior Church members and a hayride for the Christian Endeavorers. This latter is a county-wide function.

Parlea Club which has many South Side members, is meeting today at the YMCA's Dorst Hall. Dr. Floyd Faust will be the speaker.

Myrtle Branch, 1568 Wilson-av, spent part of last week attending a convention in Nashville, Tenn..

Though not a South Sider, Mary Kennedy is well-known to Trudeau Guild members as an indefatigable worker, so we'll tell them of her recent loss. Her brother passed away recently, so we hope her co-workers will take this opportunity to express their sympathy. Mary is on the ailing list herself, so we're sure she'd doubly appreciate thoughtfullness at this time

Next Sunday, Nov. 18, a Holiday Fair is on the agenda for St. Leo's Church. The general chairman is John Schmitt.

Had occasion to send information to Rev. Norman Schreiber recently and received a nice note in return. This young man should be well-known to long-time Gates Fourth Methodist members, we're sure. Norman now has four little Schreibers, two boys and two girls. The latest addition is Anna Liesa, she is about six weeks old now. For those wishing to send a "hello" to Norman, his address is 365 Terrace-av, Cincinnati, O. (We would like to make things like this an occasional feature . . . giving news of a former South Sider and letting friends and neighbors have a chance to renew friendships. How about helping us to do it?)

Little John Wardlow shares his birthday with "Tom" Turkey this year, Nov 22. John is a resident of 1309 Lockbourn-rd.

St. Ann's Guilds that meet soon are Guild 15, 42, and 7. Guild 15 meets at 8:30 tonight in the home of Ann Nolan, 636 S. 22nd-st. Guild 42 will have Mrs. Charles McCord, 720 Miller-av, as a hostess and Guild 7 meets tomorrow night at 7:30. Mrs. Walter Campbell, 1019 Linwood-av, is hostess.

Two Nov. 13 birthdays merit recognition, so "hellos" to Bobby Rice, 175 E. Jenkins-av, and to Grace Welker, 976 Carpenter-st. Grace is now a "sweet 16".

Congratulations to the husband of a 1934 South Side graduate are in order. David Morgan was elected to Ohio's Senate last week. Mr. Morgan's wife is the former Ellen Vick, whose family were S. High-st residents.

Susannah Circle, of Thurman Ave. Methodist Church, will meet Nov. 20 in the home of Mrs Whitney, 1318 Lockbourne-rd. Her co-hostess will be Mrs. Mullenix.

Two more Cloverleaf Club meetings with South Side hostesses are Leaf 9 and Leaf 11. Leaf 9 will meet in the home of Mrs. William Hetterscheidt, 748 Seymour-av, Nov. 15 at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. Bertha Mandabach, 854 Gilbert-st, will entertain Leaf 11 at a noon luncheon today.

Schools holding PTA meetings today are Barrett Jr. High, Heyl Avenue, and Livingston Avenue. An open house will be the forum of the Barrett meeting. A brief business meeting gets underway at 7:30 p.m., with room visitation following, a social hour will end the evening's program. Heyl Avenue holds its meeting at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Ruth Bjjorn of Friendship House will speak on "Harmony In School and Home Discipline." Panel discussion will follow. Livingston Avenue School members will view a movie, shown by Mrs. Gump, whose topic is "A trip Thru Canada Via Movies." The meeting is a 7:30 one

The "welcome home" mat is out for Mr. and Mrs. George Garrity and their children, who now reside at 972 Carpenter-st. Technically, the term applies more aptly to Mr. and Mrs. Garrity, as their children are just now getting acquainted with our Buckeye State. Mrs. Garrity is the former Lola McGhee, so we hope her South High School friends will get in touch with her. The Garritys have lived in many parts of the USA, most recently in Blissfield, Mich. The four children are Phillip, in South High School, David and Donald, enrolled in Heyl Avenue School, and little Miss Anita, a perky four-year-old.

Navajo Circle, of Oakwood Methodist Church meets today at 8 p.m. in the home of Miss Eleanor Harper, 954 E. Whittier-st.

Don't forget the Christmas bazaar of the Children's Hospital Twigs, to be held Nov. 19 at the Neil House. They have beautiful things on sale, as well as unusual items

Birthdays, past and future . . . Ray Speakmon (he and Marge celebrated an anniversary not too long ago, so greetings for that occasion also); Allen Speakmon, youngest member of the Speakmon family, Edris Price, Margaret Grady, Bob Ross, Mary Eichel, Lawrence Rumsey, and Fritzie Wechers.

Guild 33 members of White Cross Hospital (South Methodist Church women) are meeting today at Henderson Hall.

Southwood School will be the scene of a PTA meeting next Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. The third year classes will present the program. Topic of the meeting is "Thankful For Our Responsibilities".

S/Sgt. Charles Robinson, a young serviceman, was to undergo minor surgery about Nov. 12. His address is 500608, Navy 3835, Box 6, S.P.O., San Francisco, Calif.

Sgt. and Mrs. Norman Evans are the proud parents of a baby girl, Joyce Susanne, born Sept. 18. Their address is 440 Howard-av, ZAA, Staten Island, N.Y.

The Wesley-Wed Class of South Methodist Church is sending Christmas boxes to their church members who are in the service. Helen Denney is missionary chairman and Gladys McFadden is treasurer of the class.

St. Francis Circles scheduled for meetings are Circles 13 and 8. Circle 13 meets today in the home of Mrs. C. F. Dover and Circle 3 will meet Nov. 19. Hostess will be Mrs. A. J. Schneider, 790 Ebner-st, who will entertain with a luncheon and canasta in the Lazarus Chintz Room at 12:30 p.m.

Guess that does it for today . . . pardon any errors, for we tried to do in two hours what would ordinarily be done in four or five hours! Again, a reminder of our "Gifts for Giving" for the patients at Ben Franklin Hospital. Our first contributors were Donna, Patti, and Jeri Hampton, of Jenkins-av, and many thanks to them. Mrs. Bier called and told us that she has 50 dolls all dressed, ready for their new owners. We want to get the names of the ladies who helped her in any way. (For those new readers, we are endeavoring to gather items that the patients may share in the Christmas giving, as finances usually take a "beating" when the mother or father is hospitalized. Our hope is that the patients may give at least one loved one a little something for Christmas, through the warm-heartedness of our readers). Anything is welcome, and we'll pick it up, be the item one thing or many. The "white elephants" found in most homes would be fine and really appreciated. Used clothing, if in good condition, would also be acceptable.

Enough for now, must get this to the Leader office. For news, or "Gifts for Giving," the phone number is HI 4-1051. Till next week, then, 'tis—

Washington Woman To Speak At Scioto School

The Association of Childhood Education will have Miss Frances Hamilton, of Washington, D.C., as speaker Nov. 20, at Scioto Trail School. Miss Hamilton, executive secretary of the organization, will explain the services given by the national group.

The meeting, it was said, is open to all persons interested in children, and will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Baldini's Wedding Set: Next Month

Mr. and Mrs. Emidio G. Baldini, 2674 Dayton-av, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Shirley June, to Donald Lee Wharton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wharton, 700 Reinhard-av.

The bride-elect is a graduate of North High School and is associated with the Buckeye Union Casualty Co., and the prospective bridegroom is a graduate of South High School and is with the U. S. Army at Ft. Chaffee, Ark.

The wedding will take place in late December.

Whartons Back From Visit To Sons

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wharton, 700 Reinhard-av, and Mrs. Edward Lantz, 325 Derrer-rd, have returned from Ft. Chaffee, Ark., after a visit with their sons, Donald Lee Wharton and Charles Lantz, who are stationed there with the U. S. Army. Miss Shirley Baldini, 2674 Dayton-av, fiancee of Donald L. Wharton, also accompanied them.

Donald is a graduate of South High School, while Charles is a graduate of West High.

The Whartons also visited Larry Myers, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Myers, 443 Stewart-av, and is also a graduate of South High School.

Hungarian Bazaar

The Hungarian Evangelical and Reformed Church will hold its annual bazaar Nov. 16, 17, 18, according to an announcement. Needle-work and Hungarian pastries will be the main attractions and each day supper will be served featuring fried fish on Friday, chicken on Saturday, and stuffed cabbage on Sunday.

Rummage At Groveport

Ladies of St. Mary (Groveport) parish have a lot of things they want to sell, and for that purpose they have sent out a notice of a rummage sale in the parish hall Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Nov 29, 30 and Dec. 1, from noon until 9 p.m. each of the three days.

The parish hall is at Blacklick and Front-sts.

Euchre Parties

St. Mary's parish is sponsoring the second in a series of monthly euchre parties, Tuesday, Nov. 13, at 8 p.m., in the high school hall, Mohawk-st. Mrs. Fred Michael is chairman, assisted by Mrs. M. Geissinger, Mrs. J. Quickert, Mrs. R. Conner and Mrs. C. J. McGrath. The parties are open to the public.

Treasurers' In Talk

"Developing Treasures Through Leadership" will be the theme for the Livingston Avenue PTA meeting Thursday, Nov. 15, at 7:30. The meeting will be opened by Principal Neal Greenfield of the school. There will be a business meeting and "a trip through Canada via movies" by Mrs. Julia Gump. Refreshments will be served by the social committee immediately following, the announcement indicated.

Altar Rosary Plans

The Altar Rosary Society will hold its meeting November 15. Rosary will be said in the church at 7 p. m. and the meeting will begin at 7:15 p. m. in the school. A guest speaker is expected and refreshments will be served, it was stated.

Hostesses Are Named For WCTU Meeting

Mrs. E. J. Freeland, Mrs. Alfred Barrick and Mrs. D. E. Watson are the three officers who will entertain the Linwood Women's Christian Temperance Union at the Wilson Avenue Church of Christ, Fulton-st and Wilson-av, Nov. 20, 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lee Gamble will conduct the devotions and Miss Jennie Harmon will review Upton Sinclair's "The Cup of Fury."

Miss Leno Russell will gave a summary on temperance articles taken from the Union Signal, the official paper edited and issued by the National WCTU at Evanston, Ill., according to Mrs. D. E. Watson, publicity chairman. Mrs. Cora Guthrie will preside.

Southern Baptist Women At S. S. Baptist Church

The Woman's Missionary Union of White Hall, Tri-Village, and South Side Baptist churches will meet at South Side Baptist Church at 1621 S. High-st, Friday, Nov. 16, 6 p.m.

Mrs. Jean Baugh of Tri-Village and Mrs. George Fletcher of White Hall will give a book review on "Japan Advances."

Arriving guests will be served tea by Mrs. Velma Oswald and Mrs. Betty Bellomy. They will be dressed in authentic Japanese costumes, it was said. A Japanese dinner will be prepared by the South Side WMU and served by the Young Woman's Association of South Side Church.

OES Meeting

Columbus Chapter No. 457 OES will hold its regular meeting Thursday, Nov. 15, at 7:30 p.m., at the K. of P. Temple, 697 S. High-st. Worthy Matron Oleta Seidell and Worthy Patron Frazier Reese will preside.

There will be election of officers and Associate Matron Matron Marie Howard will give her grand chapter report.

Southway Unit 144 To Meet Nov. 16

Southway Unit No. 144, American Legion Auxiliary will hold its business and social meeting at the Post Home, 874 S. High-st, Friday, Nov. 16, at 8 p.m. Mrs. John Joyce will be the presiding officer.

A special rehabilitation program is being planned by our rehabilitation chairman, Mrs. Walton Barnhart, to conclude the evening.

Refreshment chairman is Dorothy Schirtzinger and co-chairman is Mary Ruth Souter.

Church Bazaar And Dinner Set

The Thanksgiving festival, bazaar, and turkey dinner of Oakwood Methodist Church will be held at the church Nov. 14, with dinner being served between 5 and 7 p.m.

Mrs. William Schneider is dinner chairman. Mrs. W. S. Rush is chairman of dining room, Mrs. Mary Thompson is in charge of tickets, Mrs. Ellis Woodrow and Miss Maude Barlow are bazaar chairmen. Music during the dinner hours will be by Mrs. Robert Maize.

Party Speeds Gary

A farewell party and gift were given by the Youth Fellowship for Gary Foulk, who is going into the Navy soon. Special guests were Gary's brothers and sisters and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Foulk, and Rev. Huff.

Present Dance Class

William Palmer will present members of his dance class at St. Leo's PTA Thursday evening, Nov. 15, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Aaron Schirtzinger, sixth grade room mother, will have charge of refreshments, according to Mrs. Leroy Shaffer, publicity chairman.

Twig's Annual Christmas Bazaar To Benefit Children's Hospital

More than 2500 women, all members of the 122 Twigs of Children's Hospital, will cooperate to stage the biggest benefit bazaar of them all on Nov. 19. The annual Christmas event will be held in the Neil House, 10 a. m. to 8 p.m., with all proceeds going to Children's Hospital.

Thousands of hand made items suitable for Christmas gift-giving, Christmas decorations, antiques, home baked goods and candies have been prepared by the women in anticipation of the affair.

The bazaar, biggest money-making project of the year, is the one event in which all Twigs participate. In addition, individual Twigs sponsor benefit projects of their own throughout the year.

Proceeds from all affairs are given to the hospital. The women do not specify the manner in which the money is to be used, but request the hospital to administer the funds in the way which will most benefit the children.

Church Families To Be Guests

The Woman's Baptist Missionary Society of the Lockborne Road Baptist Church will entertain the families of its church members and friends at its regular missionary meeting Tuesday evening, Nov. 20. Included in the program will be a film, "Ordeal in Burma," depicting the beginning of mission work in that country. The time is 7:30 and is planned in connection with the emphasis on "Religion in American Life for this month."

PTA This Evening

The St. Ladislaus parish Parent-Teacher Association will hold its meeting this Thursday evening. The meeting starts promptly at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served by the first grade mothers. Father Sabrey will be guest speaker, speaking on "Advent Customs."

All winners who can identify themselves within 15 minutes after their name appears in lights will be presented with fifty dollars in cash.

Nurse From Philippines Speaks Here

Esther I. Salzman, director of the oldest training school for nurses in the Philippines, will give a missionary address at the Lockbourne Road Baptist Church, Nov. 30 at 7:30 p.m., according to Rev. Gordon R. Prout, pastor. Her address will be preceded by a "potluck" church supper at 6:30 p.m.

Miss Salzman is a missionary of the Women's American Baptist Foreign Mission Society. Her first appointment was to China, where she arrived in 1940 during the Sino-Japanese War. Front-line casualties soon came under her care. Because of the war she had to evacuate the hospital, losing most of her possessions. Communist activity later made it impossible for her to remain in China, and she was transferred to the mission hospital at Iloilo, the Philippines.

The College of Nursing of the Central Philippine University was founded under the leadership of Miss Salzman. She brought together two mission hospitals to found the nursing school that will confer the B.Sc. degree for the first time in 1957. One of the two hospitals that united to form the school for nurses, the Iloilo Mission Hospital, was the first training school for nurses in the country, founded 50 years ago.

Ladies Get Spotlight At St. Paul's

At both the 8 a.m. and the 10:30 a.m. service Sunday, Nov. 11, the ladies of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 322 Stewart-av, will be featured. At this time they will return their 1956 Thank offering boxes, the funds of which will be sent to the Women's missionary headquarters of the American Lutheran Church for missionary work in New Guinea, for Mexican missionary work, and for other missionary enterprises. The pastor, Rev. John O. Lang, will speak on "When the Bells Ring Out Today," contrasting the ringing of the bells on Monday, Nov. 11, 1918, with the call to worship on Nov. 11, 1956.

Ruth Circle Meets 13th

Ruth Circle of Gates-Fourth Methodist Church met at the church at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 13, according to an announcement.

This was the regular monthly meeting it was said, with devotions by Mrs. Sarah Stormont. Mrs. S. R. Martin presented a book review. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Pauline Teets, Mrs. Maude Armack. Mrs. William Farmer is the Circle leader.

Halloween Fun

The Council of South Side Organizations was the sponsor of two community Halloween parties in South Columbus that provided much "fun without destruction" for a host of South Side youngsters.

At Barrett Junior High School, co-sponsored with the Barrett PTA, 450 teen-agers enjoyed a night of round and square dancing, grand marches, costume judging, and refreshments of cider and doughnuts.

The party for "small fry" was held at Schiller Recreation Center with the Recreation Department as co-sponsors.

Leaguers Are Asked To Aid Ill, Shutins

Mrs. Emma R. Wilkerson, president of the South Side Community League, has issued a request that all members and well-wishers of the League make a small contribution towards the purchase of fruit for the sick and shut-ins during the Thanksgiving season. On or before Monday, Nov. 19, the following persons will be happy to accept contribution: Mesdames Eva Burton, Patricia Byrd, Mary Jenkins and Miss Lucille Mapp, or call HI. 4-[illegible].

Four Gave Help

Four local men, all members of Columbus Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants, contributed 35 hours of service during the annual audit of United Appeal receipts. Those participating in this NACA community service were Robert Gibson, J. D. Iaconis, Glenn McComas, and Wallace Vaughn.

THE 50TH ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE to fight TB opens on Thursday, Nov. 15. Karen Kline, 16, North High School student, pictured here in her bed at Benjamin Franklin (TB) Hospital, has been chosen official Christmas Seal Girl for the Franklin County campaign. Karen recently discovered her illness through a free chest check on the Christmas Seal X-ray Cruiser. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. Kline, 170 Oakland-pk. Mr. Kline is assistant research director of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce. Christmas Seal money was in action on the Hilltop when the TB Society's X-ray cruiser made six stops plus a visit to Great Western Shopping Center and West High School.

Future Teacher Shortage To Be Cut By Barrett Group

Fifty young people of Barrett Junior High School are doing something real about future shortages of teachers, according to a Barrett announcement. They are the Barrett group of Future Teachers of America. This group is one of the clubs in Barrett's program of activities. Their twice-a-month meetings deal with things of interest to young students preparing to become teachers.

Mrs. Dorothy Conard and Miss Joyce Brown sponsor the club, and the members are: Joann Fuleky, Sharon Burns, Linda Huiss, Carolyn Gilchrest, Loretta Abahazie, Carol Hoderfield, Dorothy Bluhm, Phyllis Swickard, Kay Chambers, Phyllis Stevens

Claudia Hoyt, Marilyn Leslein, Martha Holser, Ethel Kirby, Ken Yunker, Sharon Weir, Barbara Baker.

Priscilla Bradley, Jane Dodd, Shelia Reals, Bonnie Mitchell, Linda Barton, Mary Andrews, Dick Pieplow, Jerry Hart, son leader and librarian; Saundra Rife, secretary treasurer; Janet Nicholson, president

Sharon Weaver, Larry Kay Robinson, Marty Wilson, Helen Stevoff, Catherine Golden, Linda Leslein, Delores Mitchell, Terry Inscho, Maureen McCoy,.

Paula Gregory, Linda Leitwein, Beverly Green, Ellen Penington, Pat Trigg, Jo Ann Crabtree, vice-president; Bill Bugh, Ray Woodward, Pamela Brooks.

Rev. Lang Tells Thanksgiving Sermon Topic

Rev. John O. Lang has issued the following call to Thanksgiving service:

"In keeping with Lutheran tradition and in line with the proclamation of the President and the Governor to repair to one's own house of worship on Thursday, Nov. 22, to give thanks to almighty God, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 322 Stewart-av, is having its own Thanksgiving service on Thursday at 9:30 a.m.

The pastor, Rev. John O. Lang, will speak on "Enter Into His Gates With Thanksgiving."

Youth Sunday

Sunday, Nov. 18, will be Youth Sunday at Thurman Avenue Church, with a special sermon by Rev. Ray W. Huff. Kay Hussey, president of Youth Fellowship, will preside. The scripture will be read by Michael Hoover and the morning prayer by Ted Haust, responsive reading by Emmy Lou Walters, special music by Judi Capehart, Beverly Boyer, Margaret Russell, Barbara Crist. Ushers: Gary Foulk, Richard Shumacher and Gary Durtschi. On display at the church will be the booth which the Youth Fellowship has prepared for the booth festival at Oakwood Church on the following day, Monday, Nov. 19.

V. Justice Ends First Army Phase

Army Pvt. Virgil J. Justice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollie R. Justice, 1010 E. Livingston-av, recently completed the first phase of six months of active duty under the Reserve Forces Act at Fort Knox, Ky.

Justice received eight weeks of basic combat training at the fort, to be followed by advanced individual and unit training.

Men volunteering for the six-month tour of active duty are permitted to finish their military training in local Army Reserve or National Guard units.

Red Devils Edge Rangers

The Marion-Franklin Red Devils edged Hamilton Township Rangers 14-13 in a reserve game Nov. 1, on the loser's field.

Despite the hard running of the Rangers' fullback, Dave Hoon, who scored both of the Rangers' touchdowns, on runs of 56 and 48 respectively, the Rangers could not hold their 13-0 lead at halftime. The Red Devils came back to score two touchdowns in the second half, with one on a 35-yard pass from quarterback to the left end. The second score was an eight-yard end sweep. Both of the Red Devils' big extra points were scored on end runs.

Hamilton's extra point was scored on a pass to left-end Dave Young. Joe Schwind was outstanding defensive star for the Rangers.

Women's clubs' members are urged to get on school boards.

"Christmas Town" Gets Mayor's Help

Mayor Sensenbrenner signs proclamation heralding November as Aid of Epilepsy Month. Aurora Epilepsy Association members backing him up are, left to right, Mrs. Betty Randolph, 2583 Atwood tr; Mrs. Edythe Morgan, 452 Kimball-pl, and Mrs. Kathryn Brumfield, 469 Elsmere st.

There's a little house going around the town now, shown at the right of Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner, above, and the Aurora Epilepsy Association is strong in hope that there will be many of these "Christmas Towns" around and about here during the months of November and December.

The association, which has its headquarters at 469 Elsmere-st, depends upon "Christmas Town" each year for funds which are devoted to the service of epilepsy victims. The "town" is most intriguing, and its sponsors tell about it this way:

"Beginning December 1, a tiny door or window is opened as numbered on the intriguing Advent calendar. Each day thereafter, until Dec. 24, joyful scenes are revealed for the preparation of the hallowed day. Set upon a mantel, a table, or a television, it tells an eloquent story to be enjoyed and revered by all ages and all faiths. If placed before a window or a light, the full charm of the scene is highlighted. For, like Christmas, the fight against epilepsy should be a symbol of hope and faith for all children everywhere.

Every penny from the sale of "Little Christmas Town" goes to aid one of the most humanitarian and most neglected causes of all time," it was stated.

This "Christmas Town," or "Little German Village," as it is is the one and only source of revenue to keep it going in its work of aiding the great number of epilepsy victims.

To obtain a "Little Christmas Town" all that is necessary is to send one dollar plus ten cents to Aurora Epilepsy Association, 469 Elsmere-st, Columbus 6, and Association officers say they will get that little "Christmas Town" sent out to you right away, so you can open the doors and windows through the months of November and December and peek into the "celebrations" in the village before and during Christmas season, Mrs. Clarice Strayer, president, 1089 Seymour-av, said. Secretary is Mrs. Kathryn Brumfield, of 469 Elsmere-st.

County League Has Tight Race

The Franklin County League's 1956 football championship will go to Hamilton Township and/or Mifflin. That became official Friday night after the Rangers and Cowpunchers boosted their co-leading records to 7-1, thus eliminating all other members from contention

The season ends this week with Hamilton at Whitehall, Mifflin at Groveport.

Hamilton stayed on top by ousting Gahanna Lincoln's defending champs, 26-6, while Mifflin retained its status by blanking Dublin, 12-0.

Les Essig gave Hamilton a quick send-off, taking Gahanna's game-opening kickoff on his 30 and racing back all the way.

Eddie Tucker scored twice, once on a 63-yard pass play from Wayne Sharron, with the run covering 43 yards. His other was from the one, after the Rangers drove 68 yards.

Chuck Juliano's 55-yard run set up another Hamilton TD, with Keith Johnston making the final eight yards.

Hamilton fumbled a punt on its own 11 in the third quarter, with Gahanna's Roger Osborne recovering. Roy Clark later went over for the Lions' only score.

The winners gained 310 total yards to Lincoln's 159.

Defensive stars for Hamilton were Tom Ellis, Bill Gehring and Russ Evans, while Tim Steiner and Osborne shone for Gahanna.

It was only the second time in 13 years Hamilton has beaten Gahanna.

Rummage Sale Begins At 7 A.M.

The Wilson Carlile Cancer Ray is having a rummage sale Saturday, Nov. 17, at St. Stephens Community House, 379 E. Barthman-av beginning at 7 a.m.

The committee making arrangements for the sale consists of Mrs. Glessner Burke, Mrs. Paul Dennis, Mrs. William Sargent, and Mrs. L. H. Helmbright.

Cooked left-over vegetables are often good in salad combinations either with meats, poultry or fish or with raw vegetables.

More O.G.'s Notes

Advice: One of the best pieces of political advice I ever received came from the late William Jennings Bryan. It was in 1908, when the Great Commoner was defeated for the presidency by William Howard Taft. Down there in my South Carolina town the bottom was out and the cups of woe were strewn through the hearts of most of us. And I wrote a letter to Mr. Bryan telling him that had it not been for those dirty Yankees he would have been elected and the country "saved." He acknowledged the letter, pointed out that the winner was an honorable man and an able man, and that thinking such as I revealed in my letter did not help me "to be a good American." That was a crusher and hard for me to comprehend, then. Later I was to meet him and remind him of the letter, which I had preserved and had with me. We laughed together as he pointed out that the country seemed to be getting along well without him as President. Where there is honor in a public official the values of a citizenship are safe. Now, and for many years, I wish hard, hope hard, work hard hand out a little of the "hard cash" stuff, then go to bed on election night knowing that the world is not going to hell regardless of whether my man or men should win. I am happier as a result of that.

LEADER ROUTES OPEN

Not every boy who became a newspaper carrier became a millionaire. Many have achieved great success, have become leaders in their communities, churches, in the healthy social life of their communities. Being a Leader carrier is an excellent jumping off place for the boy who hopes to be respected by his community and to earn a competence through life. The increase in circulation in the Leader requires that additional carriers be put on. Boys who can listen and learn and do according to the rules—boys who are honest and ambitious and who want routes, call BR. 9-9444, ask for Jack Sleup, circulation manager for the Leader.

EARNINGS
South Side Leader routes are available in your area. Boys or girls interested call BR. 9-9444, circulation department. Chance to make extra MONEY and PRIZES for delivering one morning a week!

Bunnies, Birds Find Selves On 'Wanted List' Thursday

HOW TO BECOME THE FARMER'S NO. 1 ENEMY. Eager beaver hunters like this one have done much to alienate farmer friendships. Instead of locating a gate for faithful Rusty to pass through our friend uses wire cutters to make his own way. This means an hour or so of patching is ahead for the farmer and his fence will never be as secure as before. Posing here are Walter Davis and a proud Golden Retriever who noses around the woodlots at 1370 Wilson-rd when he isn't in the doghouse.

At this season of the year the sportsman who does not have a place to hunt has probably brought about his own difficulties. The fellow who has had foresight enough to make friends with a number of landowners during the off-season and secured permission to hunt over their lands is the only one who can assure himself of good hunting opportunities.

To assure himself a good place to hunt, a cooperative sportsman can make himself welcome in any farming community by following these few simple rules:

1. Always drive in to the farmer's yard and ask permission to hunt.

2. Hunt only in the areas he designates. Never go on the ground he wishes to keep inviolate. Stay away from his stock

3. Respect his fences. If necessary a post. Use gates if possible, closing them behind you. Always replace lowered bars.

4 Never shoot near houses barns or livestock

5. Leave his fruit and other crops alone. If you want some, buy it from him.

6. Go around fields where people are working, or pastures where livestock is grazing. Do not walk on seeded ground. Don't walk through standing grain.

7. Shoot crows and predators that do damage to his crops and livestock

8. Share your game with him

9. On your next trip, bring his wife or children some little gift or token of friendship.

10. After you've become well acquainted, suggest a planting program to better game habitat, offering to finance it or help him with it, thereby showing genuine interest in his affairs.

If adhered to, these courtesies will most certainly find the farmer most hospitable and will bring about a friendly relationship to be enjoyed by all concerned.

TB's Project Nears Finish

Two students from South High School were chosen to explain the Tuberculosis Society Press Project on WBNS radio's "Listen" program, Nov. 7. Tom Woodyard, 750 S. Champion, senior in Miss Doris Singer's journalism class, was interviewed by Dean Lewis, and on Tuesday, Nov. 13, Julie Warner, 1182 Kelton-av, a junior, was one of four students on a press project panel

The project, sponsored nationally by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the National Tuberculosis Association, requires either a literary entry or an editorial cartoon on tuberculosis. Entries must be published in November or December in school newspapers, commercial papers, or mimeographed special editions. The general subject this year is "Your Tuberculosis Society: Its Past and Future in TB Control.'

Scouts Aid Handicapped

Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts of Columbus and Franklin County are launching another project of community service. They are preparing to help the handicapped workers at Goodwill Industries, a Community Chest agency of United Appeal. Each Scout is taking a Goodwill bag home to his mother or neighbor to be filled with used or outgrown clothing and discarded household articles. They will be giving work to people who need a chance to earn a living on their own, in spite of their physical handicap.

The drive will run Nov. 15 to Jan. 15, when the troops returning the highest percentage of bags given out will receive public recognition and a certificate of merit

The Goodwill regular pick-up service will be used for returning the filled bags to the Goodwill plant at 1331 Edgehill-rd. Telephone, AX. 4-4454.

Eyeing Championship

After defeating Marion Franklin 28-0, Friday, Oct. 27, Hamilton Township's chances are even better. Hamilton now owns a six-win one-lost record after defeating New Albany Thursday, Oct. 25, at Mifflin, is tied with Hamilton for the lead in the County League. Mifflin had two games left to play. They played Dublin Nov. 2 at Mifflin and will finish their season at Groveport Nov. 9. Hamilton also has two games remaining and plays Gahanna Nov. 2, at Hamilton, then finishes its season Nov. 9 at Whitehall Mifflin and Hamilton could win both of their remaining games and tie for the title.—Wayne Ath, Sharon Library Calls!

Boys and girls who were in the Parsons Branch Summer Reading Club—attention! How many of you have not received your maps yet? You have until Dec. 1 to finish your 24 books and complete your maps. About two hundred of you have already finished. We hope that everyone who started will get busy and finish by Dec. 1.

Sports Pictures

The Men's Brotherhood of Thurman Avenue Methodist Church will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock. Paul Hansen is in charge of the program, which will be two entertaining movies about sports. The program will be followed by refreshments, according to publicity chairman, Marilyn Davy.

A college education seldom hurts a man if he's willing to learn a little something after he graduates

St. Leo's Fair

Committees have reported that details are completed for St. Leo's Holiday Fair, set for Sunday, Nov. 18, from noon until 6 p.m. On the committee are Mrs. Clifford Lewis and Mrs. Joseph Zubovich; John Schmitt, general chairman; Mrs. Francis Kempf, Mrs. Robert Ellifritz, Mrs. Morris Diamond, Mrs. John Jakob, James Gerst, Andrew Kaeppner, Mrs. Arnold Plageman and Francis Kempf.

Let's Try Soup For Breakfast

"Soup for breakfast!" Here's one answer (practical and fun) to the need for better morning meals.

Mrs. Bertha B. Everhart, Franklin County Home Economics extension agent, reports that 700 home economics agents had a chance to try this kind of breakfast at their recent national convention in Chicago. They attended a "Souper Breakfast" sponsored by one of the soup companies on Oct. 31 at the Sherman Hotel.

The menu served showed how well balanced and pleasant breakfast can be with soup. Guests had a choice of five soups; chicken with rice, green pea, Scotch broth, tomato, and vegetable beef. These hearty soups each give a good amount of protein to the diet. And any one of the soups may be prepared with milk — an extra plus for nutritive value.

Along with soup the home economics agents enjoyed a choice of fruit (orange sections, grapefruit sections, fresh bananas and grapes, apricot-prune fruit cup) and hot breads (sausage on buns, toasted cheese-topped English muffins, Danish pastry and assorted rolls).

Menus such as this can be adapted to home use for enjoyable, balanced breakfasts. "Soup for Breakfast" ties in with the wide need for better breakfasts. Soup makes a nourishing hot dish, ideal for the morning meal. It can be as hearty as vegetable beef or on the tangy side like tomato soup.

A quiet look around the world shows soup for breakfast popular in many areas—with farm and city families. And it's been so for hundreds of years. France, Finland, parts of Austria, Germany, Denmark—all are countries in which breakfast soup is served. Even in our country it's often on morning menus, on Sunday as well as week days.

Most people like the same kinds of soup for breakfast as those they enjoy at other meals. Served from the kettle or the fanciest tureen—ladled or poured into bowls or mugs—"Soup for Breakfast' is fun, nourishing, quick and easy.

In Passing

NOVEMBER

November is not dark and drear,
A time to dread; a time to fear.
It is a quiet time for nature and man
To dream and plan.

My favorite shutin, to whom I have written accounts of several weekend jaunts we have taken, suggested that I write about them in this alleged column. She thinks there might be somebody who does not realize that so much travel and so many interesting things to see can be packed into two days and one night. We didn't either, till we experimented a bit. If the trips were expensive, the Weakleys couldn't have taken them. I'll dispose of dry statistics first—routes, etc. We left Columbus at 6, Saturday morning, and were home and unpacked by 4:30, Sunday afternoon, on our last trek. We took Route 104 to Chillicothe; Route 35 to Gallipolis; Route 17 to Charleston, W. Va.; the West Virginia Turnpike to Princeton, W. Va.; Route 19 to Bluefield, W. Va.; and Virginia (as you know, Bluefield is scattered over the W. Va.-Va. border); Route 52 to Wytheville, Va.; Route 11 to Radford, Va., where we spent the night. Sunday morning we left Radford at 6 took Route 11 to Dublin; Route 100 to Pearisburg, Va.; Route 219 to the Turnpike. We ate Sunday dinner at 12, in Pomeroy, Ohio, and came back to Columbus via Route 33. We were not hurried; we stopped many times to eat and look at the magnificent scenery, and just to stretch. The one drawback to the trip was the smog we encountered near Charleston, but it didn't last long. It did obscure the view though. No words of mine can describe the West Virginia and Virginia mountains. I overheard a little girl tell her mother that the hills looked so big and kind of scary. They are a little awesome, but so very beautiful even in their wildness. The much-discussed West Virginia Turnpike is only a two-lane highway most of the way (88 miles) but it is the best way to travel across that part of West Virginia. You will love the pretty little Virginia towns, especially Pearisburg. The scenery in the Jefferson National Forest between Bluefield and Pulaski is something you won't

Why use open pans which waste a big part of every roast? Sometimes the meat is raw on the bottom and scorced on top; sometimes dried up. At the best there is a big loss in nutrition and weight, because the natural juices are wasted through evaporation. The Lisk Roaster gives you all the roast — substance and savor. The cover is fitted with a damper with which it is possible to regulate evaporation. In the hands of the housewife who will keep these things in mind, the Roaster will earn its cost several time a year on what is saved.

Right Angles Dedicate New Cabin At Y-Park

A visible symbol of how a group of young men have been working together in their spare time for a number of years was dedicated Nov. 11 at Y-Park. Veterans Day was the date chosen by the Right Angle Club of the South Side YMCA to dedicate a winterized cabin bearing their name in Y-Park. Pictured above is Chal Dyer, executive secretary of the Columbus Metropolitan YMCA, receiving the keys from President Herman Kuehn of the Right Angle Club. Pictured from left to right are C. L. Dumaree, member of the South Side Branch board of management program committee, who delivered the dedicatorial address; R. W. "Cliff" Olson, dedication program committee chairman; Chal Dyer, Herman Kuehn and David Wilson, Jr., Right Angle Club historian. Not shown in the picture is Rev. Paul Kaefer, who gave the benediction.

Following the dedication program, open house and inspection of the cabin was held. The cabin consists of an all-purpose room with a fireplace, actually constructed about 10 years ago. Since then a dormitory wing, a mess hall, and a kitchen have been added. The cabin is the only completely winterized cabin at the Y-park, completed with a furnace and insulation. The dedication coincided with the tenth anniversary of the New Y-Park.

Hungarians Form Group To Aid Escaped Victims Of Reds

Stephen Pirik President Of Body To Secure Funds To Send Escapees In Austria

To help meet the critical needs of the Hungarian freedom fighters and refugees for food, clothing, and drugs, the American Hungarian Grand Committee of Columbus held a special meeting Monday, Nov. 12 to organize a group of 18 representatives of the Hungarian civic and fraternal groups and of the Catholic and Protestant Churches.

The officers are Joseph Fodor, honorary president; Louis Peterfy, president; Stephen Pirik, vice-president; Joseph Meszaros, secretary; John Hunyadi, treasurer. These officers were elected to also serve as the officers of the newly formed Hungarian Relief Committee. The announced purpose of this committee is to study ways and means of raising money to aid the Hungarian people.

INFORMATIVE POINT

A public information committee was also established to be ready at all times to give information and answer questions regarding the work of the relief committee. The members are Rev. Joseph Marsalko, pastor of the local Evangelical and Reformed Church, 365 Woodrow-av, HI-4-1319; Joseph Fodor, local attorney, 50 West Broad-st, CA. 1-8882 or 1532 Doone-rd, HU. 8-7570; Louis Peterfy, 505 Woodrow-av, HI. 3-7060; Alex Santo, lay president of the Hungarian Evangelical and Reformed church 1731 Oakwood-av, HI. 3-2984; and John J. Weber who may be reached from the house 6 to 9 p.m. at 211 E. Jenkins-av, HI. 3-2426.

To date the relief committee has made a cash donation from its own treasury through Care for immediate help to the refugees who fled to Austria.

WILL FINANCE

The Evangelical and Reformed Church will finance the sending of a representative of the Magyar (Hungarian) Synod, of which the local Hungarian church is a member, to Europe to minister to the needs of the refugees. In addition to this aid the Evangelical and Reformed Church offered to double any amount of money collected and sent through its Church World Service Organization.

Those who wish to contribute to the Hungarian Relief Fund may do so by sending their contributions to the Hungarian Relief Fund, P.O. Box 582, Station G, Columbus 7, Ohio. In order that all funds contributed by well-wishers of the Hungarian cause will go to those in need, the grand committee will take care of all incidental expenses in connection with collecting and sending funds to Europe," a spokesman emphasized.

Thanksgiving Spirit Invoked In Aid Appeal

by Rev. Joseph Marsalko
Written by Request

Reminiscing is good. It keeps the average soul rich by memories stored in the secret corridors of mind. However, reminiscing becomes a dangerous adventure to an immigrant soul replanted in a foreign soil. While enjoying the showers of blessing and the sunshine of carefree life, we, immigrants, cannot, especially on Thanksgiving Day, help but reach back to our Fatherland recalling memories, some of them good, some of them painful, but all of them burnt in our hearts, because they constituted the wholeness of life until we came here. Ours is a life with two hearts, one of them extremely grateful to America for the spiritual and material possessions extend to us, the other so painful because of the suffering of our Fatherland, Hungary, which is again bleeding because she dared to reclaim her God-given privilege, freedom.

Reminiscing, I walk the street. I meet children. Their happy smile radiates the reality of a dream — childhood in which the fairy-tales, Sunday school lessons, and the heroic stories of the West keep the child's soul crystal clean and stimulate his character to grow up to be a generous angel in a strong and healthy body. Suddenly there appears to me another child, the Hungarian child of today who has to grow up with a torturing nightmare because of having seen his playmate shot down by the Devil in a tank. No wonder that it took not years but moments for him to grow up. He grabbed a gun to fight and made history in the ruin-filled streets of Budapest. If he survived for the rest of his life he shall carry wounds that won't heal. If he died, as many children have, his death is one more proof that we live in a world in which even the children can no longer enjoy life.

It breaks our hearts that they lost; however, it fills our hearts with gratitude that the lamp of freedom here still burns brightly that the conscience and nerve center of the American people have not lost the power to register shock with which this nation has reacted to the cruel subjugation of Hungary. I know the American people will extend a helping hand toward the suffering people of Hungary.

Heyl P-E To Meet

The Parent-Education group of Heyl Avenue School will hold its first meeting of this year on Thursday, Nov. 29, 1:30 p.m., according to Mrs. Bill Jacks, publicity chairman. The topic of the day will be "What Shall We Read to Our Children?"

Discussion of this subject will be led by Parent-Education chairman, Mrs. Richard Yantis. Refreshments will be served during the meeting.

The Parent Education group welcomes all parents and will meet the fourth Thursday of the month January through April, Mrs. Jacks said.

Otterbein College Man To Have Busy Week-End Here

The Rev. Robert Lederman, chaplain at Otterbein College, will be guest speaker at services this weekend at Ohio Avenue Evangelical United Brethern Church. Chaplain Lederman, who just recently assumed his duties at Otterbein, will speak Saturday and Sunday evenings at 7:30 p.m. and at the two worship services on Sunday morning at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. These special services are sponsored by the three youth fellowship groups of the church, with Miss Rita Harmon, 1524 E. Whittier-st. chairman of the planning committee.

Guest Singers

The Youth Choir of South High EUB Church will be guest singers for the Saturday night service when Rev. Lederman will speak on the topic "The Way of the Righteous." There will be a social hour with refreshments following the Saturday night meeting. The Youth Choir of Burgess Avenue EUB Church will present special music for the Sunday night service, when Rev. Lederman will speak on the topic "The White Stone." A pot-luck supper will precede the Sunday evening meeting at 5.30 p.m.

Young People To Help

Chaplain Lederman will preach on Sunday morning on the topic, "The Wonderful Will of God." Young people from the local church will participate in the various services as well as a Saturday afternoon visitation program. Youth from the other EUB churches in the city have been invited to attend the two evening meetings, which are also open to adults.

Rev. Glendon Herbert is pastor of the church, which is located at 1013 S. Ohio-av.

Heart Help Is Got By Yule Card Sales

Mrs. H. J. Schadler, 2885 S. High-st, told the Leader that the Alpha Phi Alumnae of Franklin County is raising funds for the work of the Central Ohio Heart Association by selling Christmas cards. The price of a card, Mrs. Schadler said, is a donation to the Association for heart research.

Mrs. Schadler's telephone is HI 3-1532.

First Week Of Contest Goes To The Hat

The winner of the first weekly misspelled word contest sponsored by South Side businessmen is Salvatore Macioci, 753 E. Gates-st. Of the bushels of entries there were two that were almost correct. These two had all the words and were so close that the judges had to resort to the old hat trick and draw the lucky winner out of the hat.

It's tough on the near-miss winner, but there are five more contests coming up and the one that was so close stands a good chance to win again. There is still a grand total of 100 Confederate dollars in the pot and it is so simple to win.

All you have to do is read the contest page in this issue and then follow the instructions. Check for this page and then get your entries in early. You, too, may win $25 in Confederate money which you may spend with the enterprising merchants supporting this contest. Hurry! The money is just waiting for you, and you don't have to buy a thing to enter!

Teen Club Open Dress-Up Dance 8 P.M. Friday

The Teen Club of Schiller Recreation Center will dress up for its "harvest moon" dance this Friday evening from 8 to 11 p.m. in the auditorium of the center. Music will be furnished by Henry Cinclone's band, through the courtesy of the Columbus Federation of Musicians, Local 103, in cooperation with the Music Performance Trust Fund.

The dance will have Thanksgiving, or harvest time, carried out in the decorations. The stage will be bathed in the light of a big harvest moon shining down on corn shocks, turkeys, and pumpkins, and glittering stars will twinkle down on the dancers, the announcement said.

At intermission time a floor show will be presented by the "Harvest Hands," a vocal trio composed of Phyllis Schoenholtz, Paulette Schoenholtz, and Hazel Erb. Refreshments will be available during intermission.

There will be no charge for admission, it was stated, and all teenagers are welcome to attend the affair. D. Talmadge Crawshaw, Schiller director, emphasized

Various committees are as follows:

Decorations, Phyllis Schoenholtz, Hazel Erb, Linda Golden, Patty Golden, Paulette Schoenholtz

Refreshments, Frank McCann, Grace Howard, Liz Howard.

Publicity, Liz Howard and Sandy Troutman.

Clean up, Patty Skinner, Hazel Erb.

Pfc. Hartman Wins Honors

Pfc. Hartman

Pfc. Richard C. Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Hartman, 830 Livingston-av, recently was named Soldier of the Month for the 504th Signal Company at Sacramento, Calif., Signal Depot Hartman, a radar repairman in the company, was selected in competition on a basis of neatness, knowledge of military subjects, and efficient performance of assigned duties. The 23-year-old soldier, a 1955 graduate of Ohio State University, was employed by the Columbus Citizen before entering the Army in April of that year. He received basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

GET A RECEIPT

South Side Leader readers are asked to pay carriers ONLY if the carrier has a receipt to give. The receipts are stamped for the month for which payment is being made. Please insist upon having your receipt and also insist that the carrier write down your name and address and indicate that you have paid him, before he leaves. If there's any question call HI. 4-9262.

Time For That Bird Again

The Beginning

It's a long time since the first Thanksgiving Day. Maybe that's one of the reasons why it is not so easy to definitely ascertain the reason or reasons for many of the things which are peculiar to Thanksgiving. It is a fair assumption, however, that the turkey got his permanent high place at the festive board on Thanksgiving Day simply because their kind in the wild 'way-back-then were more than plentiful. Very likely they continued to be the Thanksgiving Day main piece until the idea took permanent hold and wild turkeys became scarce. Such is the way of habits.

Old man turkey is about to get it in the neck . . . in time for the big Thanksgiving feast. Trying to entice the old boy over to the chopping block is Gary, young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Milligan who operate one of the largest turkey farms in Central Ohio out at 3940 Hoover-rd. Milligan has a flock of 10,000 birds that have been fast grown and flavor fed. He kills daily in a very modern dressing plant. This is the eighth year for Milligan in the turkey business. A number of local restaurants in this area serve his turkeys.

Contrasts

There are great contrasts now with the philosophies existent at the beginning of the custom of having a special day to say "Thanks" to the Creator for blessings received. Now we have so much more than the Pilgrims had that we do not find it necessary to give much more than lip service to the day—for many it's just another holiday. But however lax we may be, the number honestly giving thanks for a year's blessing are great enough to soften the receptiveness of a holy idea and restrain a tendency to be indifferent to Divine involvement on this occasion.

Sunday To Be Memorial Day

Following its annual custom, Nov. 25, the last Sunday of the old church year, will be observed as Memorial Sunday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 322 Stewart-av. The pastor, Rev. John O. Lang, will speak at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on "The Valley of the Shadow of Death." The names of the members who died during the past year will be read.

Miss Nellilou Schmidt To Become December Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmidt, 168 E. Mithoff-st, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Nellilou, to Mr. Walter Wells Minnich, son of Mrs. Joseph Minnich and the late Joseph Minnich of Frazeysburg, O. Miss Schmidt is a graduate of South High School and is employed by the Ohio Union on the campus of OSU. The bridegroom-to-be is a graduate of Frazeysburg High School and is now attending the College of Fine Arts and Sciences at Ohio State. He is also employed by the university on the campus. The wedding is set for Saturday, Dec. 22, at Indianola Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Roy Horcher, 826 Stewart-av, was hostess to Group B of Ohio State Mothers' Club this past Tuesday at a 1 p.m. dessert-luncheon. Assisting her were Mrs. Donald Ryan, Mrs. August Krause and Mrs. W. K. Gerhard. (All these women have been ardent South High PTA board members Mrs. Horcher and Mrs. Ryan serving as presidents of the PTA. The program naturally had a Thanksgiving theme and was presented by Mrs. Floyd Foster and Mrs. Marshall Houghn.

On Nov. 27, Circle 21 of St. Francis School of Nursing will meet in the home of Mrs. Richard Barrett, 254 Thurman-av, for a session of canasta and dessert. Meeting time is 8 p.m.

Sharon Dodson, 292 Innis-av, will have to think of herself as a year older, beginning Friday Nov. 23. Sharon is a first-year student at South High School.

Wedding bells rang last Saturday for Jeanne Albrecht and Richard Albanese. The ceremony was performed by Fr. Kessler in Corpus Christi Church. Jeanne was a resident of 1424 S. Champion-av, while Richard's home was at 1195 S. Ohio-av. After a trip through the South, the couple will return to their residence at 1426 Millerdale-rd.

Mrs. Fred Rogers and Mrs. Ernest F. Ocker are among the exhibitors who are showing their needlework at the 33rd annual Women's International Exposition in New York City this month. Mrs. Ocker resides at 546 E. Whittier-st, while Mrs. Rogers is a resident of 393 E. Gates-st.

The Thanksgiving holiday will be spent in pleasant fashion by Mrs. Cecil Marshall, 512 Southwood, for she will be in New York City visiting a former Columbusite. The 10 days will be spent in recalling Columbus incidents as well as getting in some sightseeing, we're sure. Hostess to Mrs. Marshall will be Marian Marshall Webster. Mrs. Webster's father was the late Carey Marshall, who was a well-known South Side resident. For those who might like to renew acquaintances, Marians' address is 150 Fifth-av, New York 11, N. Y. She is now the executive secretary for the women's division, board of missions of the Methodist Church.

We were pleased to receive news of Mrs. Webster, for, as we told you, we would like to make that a feature of our column, relaying information of former South Siders who now reside elsewhere.

We had to go to church to hear about the illness of a neighbor who lives across the street! The neighbor is Mrs. Cora Biggs, 1414 S. Sixth-st, and we're happy to note that we've seen her up and about recently. We hope that Reba Alton is also on the near-mended list by now.

Cloverleaf 2 of St. Anthony's Hospital will meet Nov. 27 in the home of Mrs. Walter A. Holden, 1295 Studer-av, in an 8 p.m. meeting.

Two South High graduates will say the words that unite them as "Mr. and Mrs." this Sunday, Nov. 25. The young couple is Adah Ruth Fritz, 693 S. Ohio-av, and Marvin Paxton, 1009 Oakwood-av.

Friends and neighbors who have had recent hospital experiences are Gladys Nistlebeck, Ted Day and E. V. Carter. (We visited Ted Day and can personally vouch for the fact that he came through his hospitalization with flying colors. Looks better than he has for months.)

The South unit of the League of Women Voters will meet next Tuesday, Nov. 27, in the home of Mrs. Donald Wilkerson, 291 E. Barthman-av. Discussion leader will be Mrs. William Barnes Durham. Mrs. Cye Landy will furnish the resource material. Meeting time is 8:15 p.m.

After having five sons, you can imagine the pleasant surprise when a little girl put in an appearance at Doctor's Hospital, for Barney and Doris Medley. Missie Medley made her debut on Nov. 13, a luck day for Mom and Dad. (The little girl has twin brothers, born a little over a year ago. Diaper Service, you're in for some "rush orders" from the Medley household!)

Quite some time ago we wrote of a young GI who was collecting things for war orphans overseas, and now we have another item about him though in a different vein. This time we want to send him congratulations and good wishes on his impending marriage. The young man, Sgt. Charles Brown, whose family resides at 859 Southwood-av, will exchange his wedding vows on Dec. 1 in Baltimore, Md. His bride-to-be is Betty Swagger of Baltimore. He will be in Columbus shortly after the marriage, as he has a 30-day furlough coming up.

Still getting settled in their 1131 Bruck-st home are Roy and Analine Ward, formerly of Fulton-st.

One of the incidents that occurred last year when we distributed the donations made by the kind-hearted readers of this column, to the patients at Ben Franklin TB Hospital, that remains in our memory: We happened to glance at one of the men as we were busy distributing the "to-be-given" gifts and he was tightly clasping the doll we'd given him for his daughter, unshed tears were glistening in his eyes! Knowing how appreciative the patients are and how it brightens their Christmas to be able to give something to someone in their family is why we earnestly hope to equal, if not better, our last year's endeavor. The articles given needn't be new if they are in good condition. Anything suitable for men, women or children is fine. Some patients want to give to their husbands, others to their wives, some have a child they'd like to remember. The "white elephants" to be found in most homes could bring much happiness and really be used. If used in this manner. Anything that's to be picked up, be it one thing or many, we'll gladly do just that. Two who have responded to our plea this week are Sharon Dunkle of 93 Frebis-av and Mrs. F. T. Belcher of 476 Southwood-av. Others have said they plan to help in this cause too, so we'll be mentioning them soon.

With this week being the Thanksgiving time of year, we certainly have much to be thankful for, as have all of us who are Americans. One of our gifted young readers, Gayle Smith, put her thoughts in verse, so we'll end today's column with her offering.

Truly Thankful

We truly should be thankful
On this Thanksgiving Day
For all the bounties of God
And our American Way."

"Fear not, for I am with thee,
Be thou not dismayed, for I am thy God"
Truly must have been engraved on Plymouth Rock.

The freedoms we've enjoyed here
Hath not been slothfully bought.
But with tears of joy and sorrow,
For our freedom we have fought.

And this allegiance I give today
To our Fathers, who have trod before.
And their faith in God,
Forevermore.

If a 14-year-old can feel so deeply, how about us, her elders.

Till next time, then and don't forget HI. 4-1051) 'tis

Miss Ratcliffe Is To Wed Dec. 1

June Arietta Ratcliff

Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Ratcliff, 737 Thurman-av, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, June Arietta, to Bernard Charles Barnes, son of Mrs. P. S. Andersen of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

The bride-elect is a graduate of South High School and attended the Columbus Art School. She is employed by North American Aviation, Inc.

Mr. Barnes is a graduate of Port Clinton High School and attended Ohio State University's College of Engineering. He also is employed by North American Aviation.

The wedding will take place on Dec. 1 in Thurman Avenue Methodist Church.

Brownies Celebrate

Brownie Troop 229 of the Thurman Avenue Methodist Church held its regular meeting to celebrate the troop's birthday. Place mats were made by the Brownies using trefoils of brown and yellow.

Refreshments were furnished by two troop committee members, Mrs. John King and Mrs. Earl Mullen.

A new member was invited in our troop. She is Emily Pope. Ten stars were given to Brownies who had been in the troop a year. Puppet heads made of papier-mache will be our next project.—Mrs. Donald Salser.

Courage Inc. Bazaar Dated

Courage Incorporated, which includes a number of South Side people on the board of directors, will have the annual bazaar at the Neil House, Mezzanine Lounge, from 12 noon to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 28.

Handmade articles made by the handicapped members will be featured, the profit on each item sold going to the member who made the article. All these articles are made by the handicapped it was stated.

Southwood's PTA List Up

Mrs. Paul Clark, membership chairman, reports that Southwood School PTA has a total of 846 members, built up during the recent membership drive. There were 540 one-cent "go-getter" awards given to children who persuaded both parents to join.

A prize of $4 was given to four 100 percent rooms, members of which have purchased gifts of their own choice for their rooms. They are Room 10, first grade, Miss Ella Brown, teacher; Room 12, first grade, Miss Virginia Finsterwald, teacher; Room 13, third grade, Mrs Rita Balcom, teacher; and Room 16, fourth grade, Miss Alice Becker, teacher.

Mrs. Paul Mason is publicity chairman of Southwood PTA.

3-Act Play At Groveport

Groveport Community Players will present a three-act comedy, "Big-Hearted Herbert" Friday and Saturday, Nov. 23 and 24, at Groveport Elementary School auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Proceeds are to go for much-needed props, it was stated. Tickets will be sold at the door Mrs. Jack Woodworth, publicity chairman, told the Leader.

A lot of nice fat turkey Gobblers would strut less if they could see into the future.

Pvt. H. L. Davis At Texas Post

Army Pvt. Hubert L. Davis, son of Mrs. Arlie Knipp, 708 Scotwood-rd, recently began the second phase of six months of military training at Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

Davis is receiving individual medical training at the fort's Brooke Army Medical Center. He recently completed eight weeks of basic combat training at Fort Knox, Ky.

Men volunteering for the six-month tour of active duty are permitted to complete their military service in local Army Reserve or National Guard units.

The 18-year-old soldier attended Marion Franklin High School.

Steak Dinner

Announcement has been made that Moosehaven committee of Chapter 206 Women of the Moose will serve a steak dinner at the Moose Club Wednesday evening, Nov. 28. Mrs. Clara Osborne is chairman. All Moose dinners are open to the public, it was stated.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, Nov. 23, in the Zion Lutheran Church, Obetz. She will be buried in Obetz Cemetery.

Barrett Lists Assemblies

Barrett Junior High School held its Thanksgiving assembly yesterday morning, Wednesday, Nov. 21. Musical Director Herbert Germain conducted the Barrett orchestra in the overture, the recessional, and a programmed number, "In Apollo's Temple." Sharon Mitchell, representing the Y-Teens, read the invocation, and James Wilson, student chaplain of Barrett's Hi-Y, read the benediction.

Chet Long, of WBNS-TV, a good personal friend of the school, was the welcome guest speaker.

Barrett's ninth grade assembly was held Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 20. At that time Principal Robert L. Nash counselled with ninth-grade students, concerning their special problems as ninth graders. — By Barrett reporter

South Side Youngsters Respond With Enthusiasm When TB Society's Christmas Mailing Jammed

Girl Scouts of Troop 416, Oakwood Methodist Church, flew to the rescue last week when the Tuberculosis Society needed extra hands to fold Christmas Seals for additional prospects on its mailing list. The Scouts are big boosters of the Christmas Seal sale because they are aware of the free X-ray services provided their big brothers and sisters at South High School and their parents when the cruiser operated recently in several South Side locations. Pictured as they picked up boxes of the seals—only financial support of the Tuberculosis Society—are, left to right, Diana Heigel, 947 S. Ohio-av; Carolyn Wood, 872 Linwood-av; Karen Sue Pisone, 705 S. Ohio-av; and Nita Alexander, 934 Lockbourne-av.

Needy Children Clothing Goal Of Charity Newsies

Sixteen South Side men will be among those participating in the golden anniversary drive of the Charity Newsies, the "100 per cent for charity" organization, according to its sponsors.

They will join scores of other Columbus and Franklin County men in selling the annual special "Open-Your-Heart" edition of the Charity Newsies' newspaper on Saturday, Dec. 15.

Last year's sales resulted in 6,464 children being clothed by the Newsies. In addition, other emergency calls from families in need due to sickness, death, fire or other calamities were answered.

Every call received by the 50-year-old charity organization is answered. This is made possible because every cent donated goes to charity. Administrative costs are met by social and sporting events sponsored by the Newsies earlier in the year.

Newsies presently are taking clothing applications from needy families. Some 1000 already have applied at organization headquarters, 709 W. Mound-st. All applicants are investigated by Newsie members to be certain a need exists and that efforts by other charities are not being duplicated. All clothing presented by the Newsies is new.

South Side Men

Newscaster Walter Furnis of 410 E. Wyandotte-av is Newsie president. William H. Haire of 2613 Sherwin-rd is second vice-president and drive chairman.

South Side men who will participate in the sale Dec. 15 are John A. Allen, 388 Reinhard-av; Robert Benjamin, 1467 Parsons-av; Heinie G. Butler, 1196 Geer-av; Joseph O. Buttler, 735 E. Beck-st; John E. Cloud, 540 Cline-st; Pearl Cloud, 545 Cline-st; Louis W. Draudt, 318 E. Whittier-st; Clement Mazza, 1343 S. Ohio-av; Warren C. Orendorff, 1205 S. 22nd-st; Robert F. Powers, 787 E. Fund Drive For Retarded Goes Through Month

Early returns from the Council for Retarded Children's Thanksgiving March Tuesday evening, Nov. 13, with very incomplete returns show more than $40,000 collected in the door-to-door canvass, according to J. Brewster Holding, president. The campaign will continue through the month with Firefly workers going back over uncovered territory throughout Columbus and Franklin County.

Funds will be used to support the Council's new school for retarded children at Mt. Vernon and Ohio-avs and many other activities. All retarded children will be aided, including children of the State School and Orient. Friends of the Council who have not been visited for a contribution are urged to mail their checks to post office box 3, Columbus.

Leo Sophomore Alumni To Dance

A dance is coming up right soon, according to the publicity chairman of the Sophomore Alumni of St. Leo School. According to the announcement the date is Sunday, Nov. 25, at the school. The members want to put a bit of spending money into the treasury, it was said, and the dance was the vehicle selected to spruce up the treasury. The money end is this: 25 cents each person is the admission plan.

News Director Reviews Weekly Publications On WLW-C

John A. Deegan

Neighborhhod news on the "grass-roots level" has a featured spot right along with news of national and international importance on the "This Is Columbus" show seen on WLW-C each evening, 5 to 5:30 p.m. John A. Deegan, news director of the station, is responsible for the innovation.

Columbus community weeklies, featured each evening, include all Hartley publications, The Hilltop Record, Rural-Urban News, Southside Leader and West Side News.

Another unique feature of the show is the extensive use of aerial photographs of daily happenings in Columbus.

"Because I believe community weeklies serve an important purpose; localized news of neighborhood happenings mean a lot to people," is Deegan's explanation of time he devotes each evening to reviewing weeklies. A resident of the Hilltop, he continued, "I think our own paper, The Hilltop Record, is tops and I know folks in other parts of town feel the very same way about their own paper."

Deegan also conducts a news show of his own, "Deegan On News," at 7 p.m. over WLW-C, and the Broad and High show at 11:15 p.m. each evening.

He lives with his wife and three daughters, at 52 N. Huron-av.

Thankful People

Thanksgiving is the harvest time of the year for most people, planning on family festivals, lots of food and visiting.

For the Volunteers of America, Thanksgiving this year is a true day of giving thanks, according to Major Harriet McDonald, director of the Columbus Post. The local organization is thankful for the responsive support of the city of Columbus for its valuable and ever increasing support. Many of our old friends of years gone by have stood by us through the past year, and many new friends are stepping forward to share our responsibilities.

"The Volunteers of America is growing right along with our city," says Major McDonald, "and we celebrate our annual Thanksgiving turkey dinner this year with the thought in mind of what we owe our city and its wonderful, big-hearted people."

Bragging may not bring happiness, but no man having caught a large fish goes home through an alley.

M-F Juniors' Play

The Junior Class of Marion-Franklin High School presented the play, "Men Are Like Streetcars," Friday evening, Nov. 16, at 8 o'clock. Pictured above are four members from the cast of fifteen. Women Voters To Meet Tuesday

Mrs. Donald Wilkerson, 291 Barthman-av, will be hostess to the League of Women Voters South Unit, Tuesday, Nov. 27, at 8:15 p.m. Topic will be "What does the United States hope to achieve through its economic aid?" Discussion leader will be Mrs. William Barbee Durham; resource, Mrs. Cye Landy, president of the Columbus League of Women Voters.

In a recent test at Iowa State College it was found that the girls with the trimmest figures had drunk the most milk.

from . . . QG's NOTES

Happy Start: Yes, this column starts out with a happy comment ringing in its ears — more precisely, in our mind. It's a note from Mrs. Richard R. Chambers, publicity chairman, Stewart Avenue School, and it makes us feel that we may be a tiny bit useful at times. Here it is, in part: "Through your (Leader) kindness Stewart Avenue School was very successful in the Harvest Festival. It brought many parents out to enjoy a night of fun with their children." That's so beautiful for beginning the week. South Side people are generous and they are kind. May blessings abound within their souls!

Gone . . . But Back: Tried to get Bill Hoermle, Sr., on the phone Monday morning. But, no Bill. He was gone—to Louisville, Ky. Guess what he was doing there? No? Well, he was looking at General Electric Co. equipment changes and hearing of programs to help GE outlets be a greater benefit to their customers.Bill came back Tuesday. With Christmas in the near offing, it is likely you'll hear results from this and other trips by numerous merchants when they open up their Christmas programs for readers of the South Side Leader.

They're Kind: Here's Mrs. Jessie Kinser, publicity chairman, South Church of Christ, who writes that "I wish to thank the Leader for the cooperation given in the large attendance at the turkey dinner." Gosh! people are SO kind! And we may act without blush, but we love every reference to the Leader's coverage . . . and acceptance. Thank you, Mrs. Kinser . . . THANK YOU!

Angel of Mercy: That is a fitting description of the Christmas Seal program. With its X-ray cruiser it goes around peeking in at people's lungs and finding out whether there is incipient or developed tuberculosis. The 13 visits to the South Side resulted in 5,825 X-rays — free. Several have been placed in hospitals as a result of the discovery via the X-ray that these had developed tuberculosis. Since this is so, since Christmas Seal is a giant contribution to the welfare, even the safety, of the community, let's buy and buy their Christmas Seals — so they may keep on going . . . and doing good! During the year 725 new TB cases have been reported.

Busy Pastor: After reading St. Paul's Lutheran Messenger I am inclined to believe that Rev. John O. Lang is one of the very busy ministers among my acquaintances. Just getting out the November issue was quite a task, I would say. But an impression has grown that he loves his work, and WORKS at it. Much literature sent to me is being gradually read . . . and enjoyed. May he continue to thrive!

Thought for the Week: "Blessed is the man who walketh not among sinners nor listens to their counselling, but delights in the law of the Lord."—From the first Psalm.

Ends Missile Training Stint

Pvt. William E. Foreman, 23, whose wife, Lois, lives at 980 Lawrence-dr, recently completed the seven-week surface-to-surface missile mechanical maintenance course at the Army's Antiaircraft Artillery and Guided Missile School, Fort Bliss, Tex. Wilson Avenue Nazarene Church Dedication Dec. 2

G. B. Williamson, D. D.

The Wilson Ave. Church of the Nazarene will hold dedication services in the new church building at 1650 Wilson-av on Sunday, Dec. 2, at 2.30 p.m. G. B. Williamson, D.D., of Kansas City, Mo., one of the five general superintendents of the Church of the Nazarene, will deliver the dedicatory address. Harvey S. Galloway of Columbus, superintendent of the Central Ohio District Church of the Nazarene, will also participate in the ceremonies.

The new building, which is of brick construction, consists of two units. The first unit serves as the sanctuary, with a seating capacity of 300, and an overflow room for an additional 50 persons. The second unit provides rooms for the Sunday School and an assembly and practice room for the choir.

The building is contemporary in architecture. Laminated wood arches support the Oregon cedar decking. The partitions which separate the Sanctuary from the class room are of redwood. The masonry walls are painted in pastel colors. The arches, doors and pews are of a natural finish and the cedar decking is finished in drittwood.

A spacious nursery with a plate-glass window is situated at the rear of the sanctuary and provides a place for future members of the congregation.

The future plans of the church include the building of a third unit with a seating capacity of 650.

Other services planned for dedication Sunday will include sunday school at 9.30, morning worship service at 10.30, with Dr. G. B. Williamson as speaker, and an evening service at 7.30 Rev. W. E. Zimmerman, of Coshocton, O., the first pastor of the church, will be the guest speaker.

The church was formerly known as the Parsons Avenue Church of the Nazarene.

Camping Expert To Speak Friday

Reynold Carlson

Edward J. Rydman, president of the Central Ohio Section, American Camping Association, has announced that Reynold Carlson, nationally known authority on camping and outdoor education, will address a luncheon meeting for ministers and religious educators Friday, Nov. 23 at the YWCA. In his talk "Spiritual Values in Camping" Carlson will explain how camping programs can be improved by making spiritual values a regular part of camp life.

Lion President Starts Cake Sale As He Gets First Cake In Auxiliary's Program

Pictured above are four of the Women of the Lions of the South Side serving as a committee for the promotion of a fruit cake sale for the benefit of children's activities in the area of the Southeast Lions Club. The Auxiliary is a busy group of women and it is said of them that they are always looking for a place where their efforts will bring help to some one. Meeting here with President Ed Finley of the Southeast Lions are, left to right, Mrs. Fern Shoaf, Mrs. Lew Whitacre, Mrs. John Hancock and Mrs. Stuart K. Jones, 263 Thurman-av, who can be called at HI. 4-7639. Mrs. Jones will see that fruit cakes are ready for prompt delivery following the telephone call, she said.

S. High Opens Cage Play At Middletown Nov. 30

By Bob Goldstein

John Colmery, entering his third year as South's head basketball coach, expressed cautious optimism concerning the upcoming 1956 cage season.

The youthful mentor stated that South basketball followers can expect another good ball club, but warned, "you can't expect a district title every year."

Last year the Bulldogs copped a share of the Central District crown by whipping St. Charles 68 to 64 in the deciding game.

Just as in other recent years, height will be a major factor in South's success. Not one player one the 10-man squad goes under the 6-foot limit. Included in that forest of tall timber is Captain George Devlin, who at six feet, 5 and a half inches, is the Southerners' main scoring threat and top rebounder. Currently on the starting front line are seniors Don Dicke and Tom Main. Dicke, who was voted the most valuable sub on last year's team, is the Bulldog's tallest man at 6 feet five-and-a-half inches. Main, the football co-captain, stands at six feet one inch. One sour note on South's chances is the fact that both Dicke and Main graduate at mid-year. Trying to fill the shoes of the departed Bill Green are a pair of six foot guards, Darrel Hengle and Ron Allen. The latter seems given the best chance, since he saw a lot of action as Green's understudy last year and will be expected to take his place as playmaker. Henkle, who'll fill Roger Hackett's vacated guard spot, rounds out the current starting five.

The subs include forwards Hal Ward and Ray Johnson. Ward, a beefy 215-pounder, is still hampered by a football injury and probably won't reach full effectiveness till mid-year. Johnson is a defensive stalwart and possesses the best speed on the team.

Three newcomers crashed the all-veteran Bulldog squad this year. Junior Dave Long, who stands six feet three inches, will back up the redoubtable Devlin at the pivot post.

Seniors Fred Dunham and Dan Cassell round out the tall, but slow-afoot, Bulldog squad. Dunham at six feet four inches is currently vieing for a guard position, while the third newcomer, Cassell, is listed as a reserve forward spot.

A close look at South's schedule will see a "murderer's row" of out-of-town games. Foremost of these is the 1956 state champion, Middletown Middies. The Bulldog's carrot-topped mentor explained the major-league schedule this way, "We'd rather sacrifice a win against a small school to gain valuable experience playing some of the state's top teams."

South's cagers will open their 1956 basketball season Friday, Nov. 30. They travel to Middletown then to oppose the fabulous Middies. The hosts play a fast-break-type game spearheaded by Jerry Lucas, one of the state's great players in recent high school annals. South's opening game looks like a long evening for Coach Colmery's boys.

A Leader carrier boy is a good citizen, earning his way through Good pay for limited working hours is possible for earnest, honest carrier boys on South Side Leader routes. Call BR. 9-9444 and ask for Leader circulation manager, Increasing circulation compels taking on more carriers.

Kinder Key Caroling Set

Caroling groups are being organized to sing Christmas songs in the residential areas of Columbus on Dec. 11, between 6 and 9 p.m.

Caroling program is sponsored by Kinder Key. Carolers will receive donations which help support the Kinder Key Heart Laboratory at Childrens Hospital, only diagnostic laboratory for children in Central Ohio.

Members of Scout Troops, Brownies and Cub Packs may sing by contacting their respective leaders.

Any other groups or individuals interested in participating are urged to contact Mrs. W. W. Seifert at HU 8-8627.

Worldwide Bible Reading

Thirteenth annual worldwide Bible reading will be held again this year, from Thanksgiving through Christmas.

People in countries throughout the world will unite in reading the nativity story in passages suggested by American Bible Society of New York.

Daily Bible reading for the week, Nov. 22 through 29:

Nov. 22—Thanksgiving — Deuteronomy 5:1-21; 23, Psalms 19:1-14; 24, Psalms 27:1-14; 25, Sunday, Psalms 46:1-11; 26, Psalms 103:1-22; 27, Psalms 121:1-8; 28, Psalms 145:1-21; 29, Proverbs 3:1-20.

LOOK, FELLOW

Look, fellow! If you are a school boy and want to make extra money, why don't you call Jack Sleup at BR. 9-9444 and ask him about a route for delivering South Side Leader. Honest boys who can follow instructions have an opportunity here for a big step into the future.

Joy Bell Ringer To Be At Livingston Methodist

Rev. Leven A. Shaum, minister, Livingston Methodist Church, has announced the coming, Sunday of Wilbur Fish with his unusual instruments, which he will play at the 7:30 service Sunday evening. Widely known as the Joy Bell Ringer, the visitors will include in the musical service piccolo-cow bells, Swiss hand bells, and the musical saw. Also to be used in the service is a set of 47 musical glasses, which are tuned with ordinary water and played by rubbing finger tips around the top. "London cricket bells" also will be used in the service, it was said.

Mrs. Jacks said the evening w... be a combination open house a... bazaar, with class room visitati... from 7:30 until 8:30. Baza... booths wil be open from 7 un... 9 o'clock, it was stated.

Mrs. Frank Claffey is genera... chairman, with the following a... sub-chairmen: Mrs. Orville Wel... man and Mrs. Osmer Hahn, pop... Mrs. Bernice Marshal, candy... Mrs. Mary Friend, snack bar... Mrs. William Wegner, novelties... Mrs. Sam Glines, fish pond; Mrs. Bengamin Reeves, needlework.

Will Mark Red Cross Anniversaries

The traditional annual Christmas and Award parties of the Volunteer Service Groups of the Franklin County Red Cross Chapter will be held at the Gallery of Fine Arts, Dec. 5, 8 p.m.

Forty-eight volunteers will receive award pins for five, 10 and 15 years of service with the chapter.

A short skit, "Red Cross Backwards and Forwards", will show the work and uniforms of Red Cross volunteers from World War I through the year 2000. The presentation points up the 75th anniversary of the American Red Cross and the 40th o... the Franklin County Chapter.

One-sixth more turkeys are being marketed this November than in November, 1955.

From the turkey on the table to the people around it, our lives hold many blessings to count on Thanksgiving Day, Give thanks . . . for good food and good health, for the happiness of home, family and friends.

THANKSGIVING

Let the Pilgrims of America's infancy be shining examples to all of us here today. Their courage, their humility, their gratitude for the blessings of freedom and bountiful land are engraved upon the history of our country. And the day they set aside for sincere Thanksgiving... may this day retain its true significance for all of us, always. May we all give thanks.

Santa Is On The Move! First Yule Prize Is Won!

South Side Leader

25c Per Month By Carrier

Vol. V. No. 37 | Columbus, Ohio, Thursday, November 29, 1956 | Total No. 245

Local Man Wins $25 In 'Confederate Money' As Good As Cash In Yuletide Contest

Santa unleashed all restraints last week as the South Side Leader opened the campaign to give Old Santa a good time and keep him happy enough that he won't want to go back to the North Pole headquarters until tired eyes close in sleep on the night of Dec. 25.

Stores are donning their best Christmas look with the gifts which will most adequately fit your gift needs, as giver or as recipient. To help this along, the South Side Leader went all out in its program to help the season along, in conjunction with merchants throughout the entire South Side area.

A Nice Prize

As announced last week in one of Santa's announcements printed in the Leader, a contest whereby you may be able to win as much as $25.00, spendable at any of the stores participating in the contest, combined with the appearance of Santa Claus himself assures a lively December, with thousand looking expectantly for the Dear Old Man from the North Pole.

The contest is a guessing skill game which can afford much pleasure and wit-sharpening to everyone participating. It's not difficult, either. In fact, it looks like merchants and their co-worker Tom Sharp, display advertising manager of the South Side Leader, went out of their ways to make winning easy.

The Contest

To make this clear, let's take one of the words which appeared in last week's Leader in one of the advertisements. The word looked like this when it was printed: Urryh.

Now you wouldn't say that was a difficult word to straighten up and put into position to spell the word HURRY! Now, you wouldn't would you?

Scattered through a number of advertisements in one of the pages of The South Side Leader are several "misspelled" words. The contest arises in the need for each one searching through this contest ad to find all the words which are jumbled. Each advertisement of firms in the contest will have only one or two at the most in jumbled form.

The Winner

The person or persons who come closest to finding and deciphering the jumbled words will be the winner. This is not difficult, since simple words have been used in just about every instance. These are words like you use every day, and you will, in most instances, see at a glance what the answer is.

When you have found the answer, have written down all the answers deposit it at the store of any participating merchant and you will be notified immediately after a decision has been made in you are the winner.

The winner will receive $25.00 in "Confederate" money, but it is money which will be accepted as cash in any participating store.

Just spend a little time imagining what you could do with a windfall of $25.00 — a sum of money like that seemingly right out of the clouds. It isn't out of the clouds, however, but right out of the minds and business places participating, to make your Christmas more exciting than ever! Of course, if you just can't imagine what you could do with that much "manna-money" — well, just pass it along to your nearest neighbor and rejoice that he could spend it advantageously.

Out Of The Hat

When there is a tie, the names go into the hat, from which the winner's name is drawn by a disinterested person. Last week this was the case, and the hat was brought out the tied contestants names were put in, and an outsider was called in to reach in blindly and pull out a name. That was the winner. The rules are favorable to everyone, and they may not be changed during the life of this contest.

Look Now!

Look, right now, for the contest advertisements in this issue of the South Side Leader, while you have it in your hands. Look for the contest words, find them, straighten the mixed-up words, send or bring them to the South Side Leader, and you may be the enviable winner of a mighty useful wad of money spendable in any of the participating stores.

Lions 'ROAR' To Roam Over S. Side Friday Evening, Dec. 7

The cry in the area for Friday evening, Dec. 7, has been slated "Turn on the porch light! The Lions will be roaring! There is nothing new about it, of course, but, like the Christmas season, where so much good is done and joy created, there is a looking-toward-it atmosphere in the area by thousands of people who await the "The Lions Roar." And roar they do, with neighbors giving them the funds with which they will go 'on their goow way another year.

That the Southeast Lions really do things, look at the total which this unselfish organization has spent for so many worth-while causes in the area served by the Southeast Lions Club: the total is $75,000, plus, as a well-wishing non-Lion said the other day, "plus ten thousand hours of devoted public service."

Shown in the picture above are only a few of the many men who have given many hours of time to present a paper that will not only factually report the progress of the club, but will be a paper that you will be anxious to read. They are from left to right, Jack Karns, Ed Findley, club president; Tom Sharp and Larry Egger, and, standing in the rear, is newspaper co-chairman Lew Whitacre.

These men along with other members of the organization, have sought to present the ways in which the money that the people of the South Side have contributed has been spent. Stories range from presentation of movie equipment to St. Mary's to how a 75-foot sliding board was presented to SSY park; bassoons to Marion-Franklin and a flag to Mercy Hospital. The date is Friday, Dec. 7, and when you contribute you give to a cause that helps everyone in the South Side in one way or another.

from... OG's NOTES

Stay-Alive Idea: For many, the Christmas season days will be dying days. With too much drink, a careless eye, an uncertain hand, deaths will multiply in a season when achievement of "Merry Christmas" should be the rule for everyone. Let's make it a period of sanity and safety.

Happy Idea: Soon the Southeast Lions Club will go out upon its laborious task of increasing its funds to permit continuation of its benefactions in the area. It's a task they do every December—selling the Lions Roar newspaper house to house throughout the area. Here's an idea: save up all the dollars you can, all the silver (the spending kind, of course) you can, and surprise those "newsboys" roaring out their wares, which will be "Lions Roar."

Cheer! Yes, let's cheer! There's great promise in the Salk vaccine, according to Ohio medical authorities. Although medicine men of the state are cautious in holding out hope, it is admitted that there has been more than 50 per cent decline in cases and in deaths. To the layman, this is something to cheer about even though medical doctors are conservative in their statements. They do urge vaccination for those who are over 20. It's a happy day. Let's salute the scientist Salk! And get ourselves vaccinated.

Destitution: There's much destitution, frequently even where there's adequate family income. Many homes have substantial incomes but no comfort, earnings going to liquid supplies and wasted in other equally useless ways. And children suffer the lack of comforts and the so-necessary friendships.

Sold Quickly: Mrs. Jess Loper of 806 Southwood-av, came in the other day and told us something that started a train of thought. It was about the Leader classified section. . . . She was enthusiastic because, having a gas heater no longer needed, she advertised it in the Leader and quickly had 15 calls by phone. The first person to call at the home just a bit after the Leader was delivered and after talking by phone—that person bought the gas heater. The buyer's finances were not in good shape and Mrs. Loper inadvertently let it slip out that she reduced the price $5 below the advertised price. When asked for facts Mrs. Loper thought it was not worth noting—the buyer certainly could use the $5 which she knocked off. The classified is the "public's own" way of advertising, profitably, with happy results. Be sure to look for your

Carrier Supervisor

The circulation manager of the South Side Leader will receive applications during the next five days for a young man of good reputation to become Leader carrier boys supervisor. He must be of high character and a willing, earnest worker. If he has had experience as a carrier boy, so much the better. The job will pay the right person, a willing and persistent worker, between $40 and $50 a week to start. The total earnings will depend upon himself. Older men able to hustle will be considered.

Send your name and address to Circulation Manager, South Side Leader, with essential details, at once. You will be given a prompt interview.

Games, Michael Yandrich, Sam Skunza, Tony Vuckovich, Joe Zubovich; refreshment stand, James Contosta, Orlando Iacoboni, tickets, Mrs. Paul Kelley; treasurer, Robert Duemmel; publicity, Mrs. Joseph Ardner, Mrs. Charles Erdoes.

Sr. Gleichs Miss Death Narrowly

Two former South Side residents nearly lost their lives in their home at Buckeye Lake last Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Gleich, Sr., whose former home was at 3344 Parsons-av, were found in an unconscious and serious condition by a neighbor.

Millersport's emergency squad responded, but unable to bring the two to consciousness, the squad brought the Gleichs to Mt. Carmel Hospital. They are still confined to the hospital.

Two sons and a daughter are residents of Columbus: Elmer W. Jr., 550 Sheldon-av; Charles R., 1724 Wilson-av; and Mrs. Marilyn Hollern, 233 Jenkins.

Heyl PTA Meets Today

Heyl PTA this afternoon will have as its discussion point "What Shall we read to our children?" Mrs. Richard Yantis will lead the discussion.

Beef Dinner By Moose Women Is December 5 Lure

The Civic Affairs Committee of Chapter 206 Women of the Moose and Lodge 11, will sponsor a beef dinner, Wednesday, Dec. 5, from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Moose Club, 36 W. Sycamore-st. Michael Pierce, 140 Reinhard-av, chairman, is assisted by Mrs. Earl Yockey of 1685 S. High-st. The affair is open to the public, it was stated.

Woman Is Hurt As Car Upsets

Mrs. Billie Locke of 23 Barthman-av, suffered a broken nose and head cuts Sunday afternoon, when the car in which she was riding overturned near Lockbourne, according to sheriff's deputies' report.

The car, driven by Mrs. Locke's husband, Richard, was traveling south on Canal-rd when it hit a stretch of ice and snow. Locke applied his brakes and the car went into a skid before overturning, deputies reported.

Mrs. Locke was taken to Mercy Hospital by the Marion Township emergency squad.

Brotherhood Meets

Rev. Boyd C. Rife, pastor, Washington Ave. Evangelical United Brethern Church, has announced that the Brotherhood will meet at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Dec. 6.

Nears Ninth Decade Of Life; Happy Day

Forty relatives from several different places descended upon the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Miller, 90 E. Gates-st, Thanksgiving Day.

The visitors came to have Thanksgiving dinner with the family, but particularly with Mrs. Mary Holowell, of Pomeroy, O., mother of Mrs. Miller. Mrs. Holowell is a former resident of Columbus. Visitors came from Cleveland, Granville, Hilliards, Grove City, and Columbus in Ohio and from Madison, W. Va.

Mrs. Holowell was the center of the "invasion" in the Miller home, the reason being that in February she will celebrate her 90th birthday.

Mrs. Holowell's children present numbered eight, grandchildren numbered 13, and great-grandchildrein numbered 20. These with other relatives and friends of the family numbered 63, with dinner being served all through the afternoon, after an earlier dinner for the immediate family.

Mrs. Holowell lives alone in her four-room apartment in Pomeroy and does all of her own work. She received many gifts, it was said. A bouquet of white and yellow mums gave her much joy.

Mrs. Miller entertained with her accordion, and her son-in-law, Arthur Van Houten of Hilliards, accompanied on the guitar.

S. High Cagers To Meet Middies

Basketball coach John Colmery, despite his recent warning to South High rooters that "a district title can't be expected every year," leads his gang into Middletown tomorrow to open the 1956-57 season with some cautiously expressed enthusiasm for what would be nice IF . . ."

The team is conscious of the task faced in their first game of the season against the fighting Middies, but hope rides high that the foraging of the local contingent may bring good results.

Annual Bazaar Dinner

Mrs. H. E. Short, publicity chairman, South Congregational Church Ladies' Aid Society, has announced the plans for the annual dinner and bazaar, Dec. 5, in the church parlors. According to the publicity chairman, General Chairman Mrs. C. W. Mummert has appointed the following committee members and the chairmen of the groups:

Mrs. H. W. Glockenbach and Mrs. H. E. Short, lunch and dinner; Mrs. Charles Loudermilk, dining room; Mrs. Q. G. Vermont Lady Living Here As 91st Natal Date Comes Pictured above is Mrs. Caroline Cady, who lives with her daughter, Louise, at 301 E. Sycamore-st. Mrs. Cady celebrates her 91st birthday Monday, Dec. 21. She was born in Corinth, Vt., and came to Columbus in 1924 because of a brother living here, deceased in 1933. Her husband died in 1914. Mrs. Cady is spry and continues activities about the house.

Santa To Come To South Side 2 Days, Dec. 20, 21

Be sure to keep these two days in mind. The youngsters will be anxious to greet the Olde Gentleman from the North Pole and give him a proper welcome in our midst. Of course, you will have done most of your Christmas shopping by the time Santa arrives on Dec. 20, 21, but there may be some of the last-minute needs, and what better time to take the little tykes out to see Friend Santa while taking care of those last-minute pick-ups? And remember, Santa will be greatly disappointed if the children are not there to greet him. Take the kids to see him; they'll have a good time!

First Wilson-av Nazarene Pastor To Be Speaker

Rev. D. E. Clay, pastor of Wilson Avenue Nazarene Church, 1650 Wilson-av, has announced that the first pastor to serve the church will be guest speaker at the 7:30 evening service Sunday, Dec. 2. He is Rev. Rev. W. E. Zimmerman, of Coshocton, pictured above.

Retirement Fund Tea Set; Dec. 9

Mrs. Robert H Streaty, wife of Rev. Robert H. Streaty, pastor Clair Chapel Methodist Church, has announced that a tea will be given at Asbury Methodist Church, Parkwood and Clifton-av, by the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund committee to raise funds for retiring ministers' fund.

The tea will be an affair lasting three hours, from 4 to 7 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 9, Mrs. Streaty said.

Eastern Stars To Install Officers

Columbus Chapter No. 457 Order of the Eastern Star will install new officers at a special meeting Thursday, Nov. 29th at 7:30 p.m. in the K. of P. Hall, 697 S. High-st.

Mrs. Betty Johnson, associate grand matron, will install Mrs. Marie Howard as worthy matron and Francis Howard as worthy patron.

The 1956 officers will be hostesses for the reception following the installation, Mrs. Helen Yockey, publicity chairman, told the South Side Leader.

Thanksgiving Service Has Large Attendance

The Union Thanksgiving service at Washington Avenue Evangelical United Brethern Church had an overflow attendance. All areas for seating were filled to hear the sermon preached by Rev. Glendon Herbert on the subject "The Grace of Gratitude."

Several other ministers contributed to the service, as did Miss Ann Streaty with her solo.

First Week's Winner

Pictured above are Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Macioci and their daughter when they appeared at Rosey's Dept. Store, 1809 Parsons, as Rosey passes over the contest winner's $25 in "Confederate money" which at once became as useful as good old U.S.A. cash. It's fun to try and its fun to "cash in". Tom Sharp, Leader display advertising manager, is the other person in the photograph.

Charlie Scales of 2089 Lockboudrne-rd, has been one of the nimrods taking advantage of the deer hunting season this year. He and a group of friends spent last week in Virginia, pursuing the fleet-footed quadrupeds. While he was in the southern state, he and wife, Ruth, added another year of wedded life, on Nov. 22 Thanksgiving.

Willie Fuch's family is a fast-growing one, though the latest member is one he hasn't seen as yet. His son, Paul, married a French-Spanish girl overseas. Paul, in the navy, is stationed in Bordeaux, France. Any of Paul's friends wishing to hear further news is cordially invited to call Mr. Fuchs at HI. 3-2386 and he'll give them all the desired information. Another son will soon be exchanging "I do's," so congratulations to Frank-Fuchs and to Barbara Parker, 791 Thurman-av. Their marriage will take place in January. Frank also is a member of Uncle Sam's navy

A party this Saturday by fellow band members will mark Bob Huskey's 21st birthday, an event of Dec. 4. Bob resides at 727 Ann-st.

BOPS (short for Band and Orchestra Parents of South) held an election of officers on Nov 13. The following members are the newly elected officers: Mrs. Clifford Berger, 615 S. Sixth-st, president; Richard A. Evans, 810 Kimball-pl, vice-president; Randall Near, second vice-president; Mrs. Ralph Long, 973 S. Ohio-av, secretary; Donald Fischer, 799 Deshler-av, treasurer; H. Delbert Swain, counsellor. The group was formed to assist the instrumental department of South High in all undertakings. Parents of South students in the band or orchestra are cordially invited to join the organization. The next meeting is scheduled for Dec. 11 and we shall remind you of it in the next column

Janice Eisnaugle, daughter of Mrs. Harold Zimmer, 920 Lawrence-dr, was elected social chairman of her sorority, Sigma Kappa, at Miami U. in Oxford, O.

The Moose Entertainers will help to dedicate the closed-circuit TV at Ben Franklin Hospital this evening.

Area PTA meetings for this week past and present, include Smith Road's last Tuesday meeting and South High's meeting which will take place this evening at 7:45 This evening's meeting should be of great interest to all students and parents of students who are thinking of teaching as a career. Toward this end all junior and senior high FTA members are invited to attend tonight's symposium. Except for Harold Bowers and Joseph Davis, all participating members of the program are former South High students. This list includes Mary Bird Lynch, Robert Garrison, Helen Smith, Phyllis Schottenstein, Joyce Ryan, Ann Haas, and Stacey Skufis. The aforementioned Mr Bowers is director of certification in the State Department of Education and Mr Davis is the assistant director, Department of Administrative Research, Board of Education. Also taking part will be Miss Sara Crist, student counsellor of the school.

Our congratulations to Mrs. Joseph Spiker, 67 Southwood-av, newly elected chairman of the Executive Council of the Guilds of Mercy Hospital. Another South Sider, Mrs. Howard J. Widden, 1641 Wilson-av, is secretary of the group

Master Bobby Castle, 85 E. Moler-st, will "up" a year on Dec 2, so birthday greetings go his way.

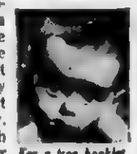
Our sympathy to the families of Gordon Gress, Sr., and Mrs. Robert Burris, Sr., who died last week.

This Saturday, Dec. 1, the various organizations of St. Ladislaus will combine and the result will be a fun-packed Winter Festival, to be held from 6 p.m. to midnight in the school hall. Glancing over the list, these things "take our eye:" homemade cookies and cakes, fancy stand, fish pond, snack bar, pizza, grocery basket, novelties, ham stand, Elsie and doll stand, games and refreshments. Don't think there's a thing missing, from the sounds of it!

Trudeau Guild 28 will hold its combination birthday-Christmas party at Kimball Glass club house next Wednesday, Dec. 5. Ethel Messer will be the hostess at the planned potluck meeting

Mae Dean, 33 E. Jenkins-av, takes another step forward on life's highway Dec. 4. Happy birthday, old pal!

Heyl Avenue School Parent-Education group meets today at 1:30. Discussion is "What shall we read to our children?" led by Mrs. Richard Yantis.



Had a wonderful chat with Glee Oleta McNutt of 380 E. Whittier-st. The chat was originally about the rummage sale of the Friendly Page Hobby Club, to be held this Saturday at 379 Barthman-av (St. Stephens Community House), but being the nosy type we were interested in the formation and purpose of the club, so we'll pass along our findings to others who perhaps haven't heard of the group. It's origin was a group of peh-pals, who decided to make a worthwhile thing of their correspondence, and to help those less fortunate than themselves. Towards this end they work the year round, gathering and making things to send shut-ins, handicapped orphans, veterans, etc.The Christmas boxes, about 200 of them, are ready to be sent as soon as postage can be bought, and that's where the rummage sale comes in. All the profit will be used to get the boxes of cheer to their destinations, so we hope the Friendly Pagers have fine success with their project. One of the group of children that Mrs. McNutt told us about that received dolls from the Friendly Pagers touched our heart, as the little ones were making "pretend" dolls with pop bottles. If you're around St. Stephens this Saturday, make it a point to stop in, won't you? Mrs. McNutt and her husband issue a newsletter every two months, and should you care to subscribe, she will gladly take care of that too. Other South Side officers of the group are Grace Brown, secretary, and Irene Lemmon, vice-president. In addition to the Friendly Page chapters in the U. S. A., there are several to be found in overseas countries.

Tomorrow from 2 until 4:30 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m. Mohawk School will be the scene of a Christmas bazaar, with a sale of cake, pie, candy and needlework. There will also be a sox hop in the gymnasium. The evening session will include an open house with class visitation from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m.

More names to add to our "Gifts for Giving" at the Benjamin Franklin TB Hospital are those of Lillian Ryon, Mary Westrich, Freda Yates, Mrs. Lisle, and Mrs. Charles Wilson. Another incident that stays in our memory from last year's distribution at the sanatarium we'd like to pass along: A sweet-faced elderly man, when asked whom he'd like a present for, asked for something for his mother, saying she was all he had in the world. He couldn't stop thanking us enough as he said he'd had nothing to give her and it had been worrying him. We only wished we could have given him five or six more things, but of course we couldn't! Remember, we aren't asking for money, just the sort of things that are to be found in all our homes, that are "white elephants" to us. Things for men, women and children all, as we get calls for gifts for husbands, wives and family. Toys, clothing, "gadgets," jewelry, perfume, ANYTHING nice enough to wrap as a gift for the patients to give. They have long hours in which to lie and think about the loved ones who perhaps will have little or no Christmas because of their hospitalization. One thing or many, we'll pick it up. Number to call, either for news or "gifts for Giving," is HI. 41051. Hope to hear from you! Till next week, then, 'tis

Scranton, Pa., Girl Becomes Bride Of Ohio Avenue Man

Miss Bernardine Petroski became the bride of Mr. Thomas J. Fox on Saturday, at 10:30 a.m. in St. Christopher Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Arnold Favret before an altar of white chrysanthemums and Huckleberry foliage.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Alexander Petroski, Sr., Scranton, Pa., and the late Mr. Petroski. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Fox, Sr., 596 S. Ohio-av.

Alexander Petroski, Jr., gave his sister in marriage. The bridal gown was designed with a fitted bodice and long sleeves of chantilly lace. Iridescent sequins dotted the bateau neckline. The bouffant skirt of Nylon tulle over taffeta which swept into a cotillion train, was attached to a scalloped tunic of lace. Her double tiered veil of French illusion draped from a lace bonnet trimmed with sequins and pearls. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of white roses and stephonatis intermingled with waxed ivy.

Mrs. Richard J. Coady, matron of honor, wore a princess dress of peacock blue taffeta with brief sleeves. A band of pinpoint pleating formed a yoke at the bateau neckline and a similar band encircled the waltz length skirt above the hemline. Her headpiece was a matching half-hat of leaves with a circular jeweled veil. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of pink carnations and waxed ivy.

Mr. Robert Rieser served as best man and the wedding guests were seated by Mr. Carl Petroski, brother of the bride, and Mr. John McGrath.

The wedding reception took place immediately following he ceremony at the Grandview Inn Miss Diane Fox, niece of the bridegroom, and Miss Viola Ricci served as hostesses.

The bride is a graduate of St. John's High School, Scranton, and is employed by Oil Well Supply Division, United States Steel Corp. The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Charles Preparatory School and is a senior in the college of commerce, Ohio State University. He is associated with Albers Stores, Inc

Irene Toth's Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Toth, Sr., of 1940 Oakwood-av, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Irene Helen, to Mr. Paul Martin Godorhazy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Godorhazy, 602 Markison-av.

Miss Toth is a graduate of South High School and is an employe of the Ohio National Bank Mr. Godorhazy is a graduate of South High School, attended Ohio State University, and is employed by the State Department of Highways.

The wedding will occur in early spring.

Leaf Cleaning Schedule Told

With the drop in the average temperature to a point below freezing, gutter debris is frozen solid. Leaf cleaning will be continued whenever possible. But it will be too spotty and irregular to set up a definite schedule.

The area in the south end of Columbus from High-st east to Parsons and from Reinhart south to Hanford will be completed first. If and when this is completed the crew will be moved into the area from Main-st south to Livingston-av, and from Ohio-av east to Bulen-av.

Cup Is Won

The Youth Fellowship of Thurman Avenue Methodist Church won first prize at the booth festival held at Oakwood Methodist Church Monday, Nov. 19. The prize, a loving cup, had not been won by Thurman Avenue Church since 1942.

Fifteen children attended from Thurman Avenue.

Second Meet Set For 6th

Mrs. Ray E. Conkle, Parent Education chairman, announces the Southwood School PTA Parent Study Group will hold the second of four meetings scheduled for the 1956-57 school year Thursday, Dec. 6, 8 p.m., in the school auditorium.

"Gifts Good For Learning" will be followed as the topic. Miss Helen Schoedinger, guest speaker, will relate the story, "Good Will Is Okey." Following that there will be a discussion period led by Mrs. Walton Barnhart.

During the meeting the children will be entertained by movies, then refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Ray E. Conkle will be assisted in conducting the meeting by her co-chairmen, Mrs. Paul Dearth and Mrs. Chester E. Metzler, according to Mrs. Paul Mason, publicity chairman.

Group With Unselfish Motives

(Special)

The "Five Entertainers" comprise an entertaining group. And that's as it should be, because it is what the five who compose the group want it to be.

This group is made up of five performers who do not seek pay in return for their entertainment. Their motive is simple and single, it was determined after an interview with Noel Cardwell, 47 E. Jenkins-av.

The purpose of the five-persons organization is to take happiness to those who have little to be happy about. This fact was illustrated for the Leader reporter, who read a letter from Mrs. C. H. Frank, corresponding secretary, Pauline Home for the Aged, 1303 E. Main-st, expressing appreciation for the group's entertainment at the home.

The group has as its members two small girls, Becky McDonaldvich and Linda Lou Thompson, acrobats; Mrs. Dorothy Calvert, dancing; Noel Cardwell, violin; and Pete Coachman at the piano.

The group is a non-profit organization, their only remuneration being the joy they take to those who are without most of the pleasant things of life.

Women's Society In Program

The Women's Society of World Service of Ohio Avenue EUB Church will meet in the junior room Tuesday, Dec. 4, 8 p.m. Mrs. Harold Roseboom, Mrs. Edna Ellis and Mrs. Paul Eisnaugle are hostesses.

Mrs. Richard Smith, chairman, will give a synopsis of a book about Southeast Asia. Devotions will be given by Mrs. Ralph Long in the form of a play entitled "Christmas Windows," and Mrs. Clarence Grant will lead in the dedication of the Christmas project.

Mrs. E. E. Nietz will meet in the sanctuary with those who wish to have special prayers at 7:30 p.m.

Advent Log At St. Paul's

Rev. John O. Lang, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, has announced that as a prelude to the sacred Advent season, a season of repentance and preparation for the Christmas festival, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 322 Stewart-av, will celebrate Holy Communion at both the 8 a.m. and the 10:30 a.m. service on Sunday, Dec. 2. The pastor will speak on "The Stranger at the Door." This year there will be in the chancel a special Advent log with four candles, one for each of the four Sundays in Advent. The first Sunday only one will burn, the second Sunday, two, and so on. The symbolism is that the light of prophecy grows brighter and brighter until it gives way to Jesus Christ, who is the Light of the world.

Rams Win Opener Over Chillicothe

Columbus St. Mary, opening its 1956-57 basketball season, edged out Chillicothe Central Catholic on their own court 54-49.

St. Mary got the first bucket and chalked up three more before Chillicothe scored. At the end of the first quarter the score was 9-4. In the second quarter Chillicothe came back to tie the score 12-12. The half ended 24-23 in favor of St. Mary. Tom Caines led the Rams with 18 points.

Newark Wins Mission Carnival

Newark St. Francis won the Mission Carnival for the second straight year at Watterson High School's new gymnasium.

In the first set St. Francis won 16-3 over Watterson. St. Mary beat Rosary 12-4, St. Charles and Holy Family tied at 10-10.

In the second set the two winners met and St. Francis won over St. Mary 12-4. The two losers played, Rosary winning over Watterson 13-6. St. Charles and Holy Family played again and they tied once more at 6-6, by a last second basket by John Reinhard.

In the rules, teams are allowed to play only two quarters in a preview or it will be counted as a complete game. Therefore St. Charles and Holy Family had to stay a tie.

Bill Allen of St. Mary was the high scorer of the night, with 10 points.

Local Legion Post Member's Win Brings Cash Award Of $250 From Segram Posts

At a recent regular meeting of American Legion Post No. 144, at 874 S. High-st, Ed Kirchner and Connie Capretta presented to the post a check for $250 in behalf of the Segram American Legion Posts of the United States. A member of the post was winner of a new car in a national contest sponsored by Segram posts. The check is presented to the post in which the lucky winner is a member. In accepting the check Commander George Kochensparger stated that the money will be spent in some worthwhile cause in furtherance of services provided by the American Legion to its members and to members of the armed services. The men shown, from left to right, are, back row, Charles Nuber, Henry Butler, Jerry Entingh, E. C. Rueckel, finance officer; Leroy Gill, chaplain; Joseph Baumbusch, Walton Barnhart. Middle row, Joseph Albert, Donald Walp, Robert Mack, John McLoughlin. Front row, William Kropfhauser, George Kochensparger, Ed Kischner, Connie Capretta.

Barrett Notes

Barrett Junior High School's 9A class members who are going to South High School next term, have a date next Tuesday, Dec. 4 to make out their new 10B schedules.

Grade cards will go home with Barrett students Monday, Dec. 3. They are to be signed by parents and returned as promptly as possible.

Pictures of the Barrett students, which were taken a few weeks ago, were distributed in separate lots yesterday, Nov. 28, to be taken home on approval. Pictures or money will be due in the building Monday, Dec. 3, or as soon as possible after that day.

'Hearing' Ball To Aid Kids

The Olympus Charity League will hold its 13th annual holiday ball at the Deshler-Hilton Hotel Saturday, Dec. 8, from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m., with Francis Carle furnishing the music.

"Help a child to hear" has been the purpose of this organization for a number of years, according to Mrs. C. A. Hansen, 37 Binns-blvd. She said that money received by the Olympus Charity League is used to maintain a hearing aid fund at the Columbus Day School for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Children. The first concern is to see that all children who have qualified are fitted with the proper hearing aid and to provide funds to maintain these aids. They also furnish equipment for the use of the teachers at the school. The most recent contribution was a movie projector to be used in aiding the children in visual education.

Persons wishing to make a contribution to this project may do so by mailing their checks to the Olympus Charity League, P.O. Box 5832. Tickets to the dance may be obtained by contacting Mrs. C. Hansen, BR. 9-6758. Mrs. Hansen said.

Dairy Service Unit Holds Open House

An open house at the farm of the Central Ohio Breeding Association is planned by the Franklin County Dairy Service Unit for Dec. 1 at 7:30 p.m.

The tour of the bull farm will begin at 7:30 and last until 9 p.m. with a square dance following immediately. All Franklin County members and their friends interested in the diary business are invited to attend.

Ohio To Re-Open Partridge Hunt

The Wildlife Council has given unanimous approval to re-initiating a Hungarian Partridge program in Ohio after a lapse of almost 15 years.

Between 1909 and 1940, over 17,000 "Hunkies" were planted in Ohio with most of them stocked in northwestern and central western counties. These birds prospered, showing approximately 125 birds to the square mile in some northwestern counties when suddenly, in 1934, they decreased to about 25 birds per square mile.

According to studies conducted by Frank E. Hart, who until his death a few years ago, was considered the top Hungarian Partridge authority in Ohio, 70% of the "Hunkies" in the southern sections of their range, nested in roadside ditches, fence rows and small depression areas. Roadside mowing prior to July 10 was exceedingly damaging to the "hunkie" population, he found. It was further concluded that permanent bluegrass pastures are a mainstay in the habitat requirements of the bird but that hunting was not a factor in the decrease in population.

While sportsmen should not expect a statewide huntable population of Hungarian Partridges, because of limiting factors, game management men feel there is a good chance they may be re-established in some parts of the state. First step, of course, is securing brood stock from which young may be acquired for future releases.

In Passing

By Esther Weakley

HOPE SPRINGS ETERNAL

The spirit casts a shadow
Greater than the body's;
A bird's wing goes farther
Than the tallest tree does.
So the tears a man sheds
Cannot swell the ocean,
Though the face's beachheads
Erode into distortion.
Though the heart be twisted
To a rope of ashes.
Still the bended head can feel
A crown of hope and wishes.
And he who reaches to the throat
That the taut rope angers
May find that it has turned to pearls
Beneath his very fingers.

Edsel Ford,

AUTUMN'S CATHEDRAL OF OAKS

Beneath the oak-leafed Gothic arch
The faithful pass in silent march,
While Druid oaks in scarlet dress
Speak litanies that heal and bless;
The acorns fall like beads of prayer,
The sun drops in to worship there;
Soft breezes whisper prayers for all
And sing the autumn's madrigal,
While a priestess, holding up
The acorn's empty chaliced cup,
Receives the autumn's claret wine
For blest communion with mankind.

Shucks!

"You look all broken up. What's the matter?"

"I wrote home for money for a study lamp," replied the college student.

"So what?"

"They sent the lamp."

That's Right

The teacher played the Star Spangled Banner and asked her first-grade class to identify it.

"That's easy," shouted a pupil from a back seat. "It's what they play right before every boxing bout."

Useful: Now and then is found a new gadget in the production of imaginings of man—something useful instead of destructive, as so many of our productions are. One of these has just popped and for many, many thousands of deaf people will be hailed with joy. It is a device that will enable deaf parents to know if their baby cries. A light flashes when baby cries. Blessed will be the production of this device.

Dying' Egypt? Is Egypt dying? At a moment when it seems in losing its national life through the machinations of its ruler. Jingle Bells! Yes, it's jingle bell time—the time when the sweet in life bubbles over into most of our lives and brings us to contemplate our beloved ones and friends with loving kindness and gifts. Investment per worker in agriculture has tripled during the last 15 years, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

So this is HOMEMAKING

My husband isn't exactly a loafer, but he never has qualified as the world's most helpful spouse, either. That is, not until our new electronic range arrived.

Now you would think that Bill had always been the head chef at our house. Particularly when we have company, I can't pry him out of the kitchen. And he usually has our guests out there, too, giving them a running commentary on how their dinner is progressing in the RCA Whirlpool electronic range.

"You won't believe this," Bill will say as he opens the range door, "but you can put your hand right on this shelf. See? It isn't even hot, but the food is!"

And everybody has to touch the shelf, while I concentrate hard on the salad so they won't see me laughing. Sometimes it isn't so funny, though, like the other night when we were having a roast. Bill opened the door so often, it took much more than the usual 30 minutes to cook. That was because the marvelous tranamission of microwave energy automatically stops when the door is opened.

Bill never tires of telling people how "we can bake a cake in three minutes" or about the steak "we cook and serve in 4½ minutes right on our best china platter."

Well, I can't blame him for his enthusiasm. Now that I'm doing 90% of my cooking electronically, I only spend 20 or 30 minutes a day in the kitchen. According to the home economists at the Whirlpool-Seeger appliance center, that's par for the course!

SECURITY NEWS

DEATH ON THE HIGHWAY

Struck Down While Seeking Aid

Walking along the highway to secure help for a friend whose car had stalled, a 34-year-old café manager and owner was hit by a speeding car. He died a few days later, leaving a widow to carry on the business. She was faced with many problems including unanticipated expenses and business indebtedness. The situation was grave, but her husband, with love and foresight, had thoughtfully provided for just such emergencies.

ASSURANCE ONLY 1 WEEK OLD

Seven days before her husband met with his accident, the local representative of the Sun Life of Canada had sold him Endowment Assurance Policies of $1,000 and $2,000 respectively. The actual first premiums for these policies were paid only about two hours before the tragedy occurred, but there was no thought of the swift impending catastrophe in the minds of any concerned with the transaction. A very short time after the assured had died, the full proceeds of the two policies were paid to the widow by the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada.

A SUN LIFE POLICY FOR YOU

Sun Life policy plans are carefully designed to provide maximum protection and security. Most contracts contain generous cash and loan privileges and offer a wide range of settlement options when the sum assured becomes payable.

ORDINARY LIFE: Permanent protection for dependents at lowest cost. Makes available immediate cash at death for payment of debts, outstanding mortgages, succession duties, or provides a lifetime income to the beneficiary.

LIMITED PAYMENT LIFE: Protection throughout life but with premiums limited to the higher earning period.

ENDOWMENT: Protection for dependents for a predetermined number of years. Ensures future cash for buying a home, children's education, travel, etc., or a lifetime income for retirement.

SALARY SAVINGS: Convenient payment of premiums by monthly deduction from salary or wages under arrangement with employers.

GROUP ASSURANCE AND ANNUITIES: Life assurance and retirement plans for employees at low group rates.

OTHER SUN LIFE PLANS: Family Income; Retirement Pension; Mortgage Protection; Salary Continuance; Children's Special Assurance; Educational Policies.

Let your friendly and experienced Sun Life Representative advise you on the choice of a policy most fitted to your needs.

Lag In Seal Sale Threatens TB Society's 1957 Program

In a supreme effort to jack up a lagging Christmas seal sale, the Tuberculosis Society said Monday it would send reminder notes this weekend to hundreds of residents who have not yet contributed.

"As this report goes to press," Dr. Harold L. Yochum, president of Capital University and general chairman, said, "The Christmas seal sale is running more than $7 000 behind last year for the same time. Approximately 1500 fewer persons have been heard from. We must stop this downward trend if we are to receive enough operating funds for next year.

"I am puzzled," Dr Yochum said, continuing, "The Christmas seal sale asks so little. And, as the Tuberculosis Society's only financial support, it provides so much. Free chest X-rays, health education, TB research, rehabilitation for former TB patients—the TB Society could provide none of these things without the Christmas seal sale.

"I implore those who have let their Christmas seal sale letters go unanswered to answer them now—for the benefit of the community's welfare," the general chairman said.

Those who have not received Christmas seals may do so by phoning the Tuberculosis Society at CA.8-6704.

LET'S GO SHOPPING FOR: Citrus and dried fruits, apples, nuts, salad greens, pork.

Do you find the period between Thanksgiving and Christmas a difficult time in which to cook for your family? With one big feast over, and the anticipation of another one, with all its goodies in the making, appetites are often dulled. It sometimes takes smart planning and something of the unusual to entice some members of the family.

Usually you can rely on fruits, vegetables and milk to pep up lazy appetites. Generous use of apples and dried fruits may help you do the trick. Chances are the meat on your menu is turkey or chicken for both holidays so why not serve fresh pork or ham for a welcome change during these intervening weeks.

Salad Greens

The cold crispness of salad greens helps offset heavy holiday foods. Check the fresh vegetable counter carefully for something different to intrigue your family. As a change from head lettuce substitute leaf or Bibb lettuce, or some of the less common greens such as Chinese cabbage, escarole, endive, and cabbage. Even the same vegetables look and taste different if the salad dressing is varied and interesting. For instance, you can vary tossed salad by adding Roquefort or blue cheese to your usual French dressing or mayonnaise.

If you haven't tried Bibb lettuce do ask for and try it. Bibb lettuce is a small cluster of tender dark green leaves—or a loose head about the size of an apple. This head has a white stem surrounded by deep green juicy leaves of a very special delicate flavor. It is so tender it need not be cut up when used. Dip in water to wash. Remove the core and the leaves fall apart on the salad plate—and all that is needed for a super salad is your favorite dressing. Here is a lettuce that is more expensive but well worth trying.

Fruits

CITRUS FRUITS are of excellent quality and their prices are reasonable. For appetite appeal serve oranges and grapefruit not only for breakfast but as dessert for lunch and dinner. Sliced oranges, alone or in combination with other fruits, make an interesting salad. Try broiling grapefruit halves to serve with the meal or as dessert.

DRIED FRUITS, shiny apples grapes and nuts add zest to your shopping list and help perk up the family's interest in food during the pre-Christmas period.

Fruits more commonly dried are prunes, apricots, figs, dates, raisins and currants. Peaches, pears, nectarines and apples are also available. For the best in quality select clean, plump fruit, attractive in appearance and of a rich color typical of the kind of fruit. Softness is usually an indication of freshness.

Dried fruits are tree-ripened fruits with 75% of the moisture removed by either a dehydration process or by sun drying. Dried fruits are easily digested and their fruit sugars are absorbed into the blood stream to be used as an immediate source of energy. This fact makes dried fruits an excellent snack for children. They love to chew these fruits as they come from the package. This is the perfect answer to frequent demands for candy. The fruits are more healthful and spare the appetite for meal time.

Some of the vitamin C is lost in the drying process but dried fruits are a good source of vitamin A, phosphorus, iron and energy.

To save food value and obtain the best texture and flavor if you cook dried fruits, cover them with water and soak a few hours before cooking. Then bring the fruit to boil slowly and allow to simmer until tender but firm. If sweetened, use sugar sparingly. Try using strained honey instead of sugar for a perfect blending of flavors.

APPLES at their best now are Jonathan, Grimes Golden, Cortland and Red Delicious. Each of these varieties make good eating raw, and all but Red Delicious are excellent cooking apples. Keep a bowl of polished apples ready for between-meal snacks and lunch boxes. Make apple or Waldorf salad frequently. Bake a pan of apples while you're baking a main dish. Use apples for pie, for apple crisp and other desserts to relieve the concentration of holiday sweets.

Dear Son

By Joseph Martell

Chittlin Switch
Monday afternoon

Dear Jason:

Would have written sooner but was busy all week canning for the winter. I put up 50 jars of polecat stew, 100 jars of beaver meat and I put up about 80 jars of wild hawg preserves but I think I put up with your old man long enough.

He got loaded again the other night and Sheriff Gooch had to bring him home. Paw says he only drinks to steady his nerves. Whenever he goes out with those old cronies from Polecat Junction he gets so steady he can't move.

Well, here's really some sad news I have to tell you. The retired old maid librarian went to a drive-in movie for the first time in her life last week at the age of 86 and while there she got hit by a car and was killed. It's believed she was the first woman to be run over on the way to the bathroom.

That stuck-up girl who left the Switch here and got a job in one of those New York night clubs taking off her clothes paid a week-end visit here with her Maw and Paw. I nearly fainted when she got off the train. She wore a dress that was cut so low it looked like a belt.

Your sister, Morphine, celebrated her 5th wedding anniversary on Nov 10 and her husband gave her a gold watch. She told him he was very kind and she appreciated it, but that the fifth anniversary was tin. He told her to wait until she wore the watch for three weeks.

I was surprised to read in the Chittlin' Switch Daily Bugle that they believe they dug up Christopher Columbus' bones. Right then and there I lost a lot of respect for him. I never knew he was a gambling man.

Guess I'll close now but before I do I have to tell you that your nephew, little Cheddar, has been naughty again. Last Sunday he was playing William Tell with his sister in the back yard. He'd make her stand against a tree, then he'd march 40 paces and turn around and shoot at the apple with his father's old rusty rifle. She would have been eight years old tomorrow.

Write soon

Your loving MOM

P.S. Read in the "Seabag" where they had a big fashion show at your place. I think Elmira Tench would have been a hit in it if she appeared in her black dress with the white dots as big as saucers on it. She's got a new pair of parstrooper boots, too. Also, that officer who appears on those TV programs could sing something appropriate like "Feudin', Fussin' and A-fightin'.

Porch Light For Carolers Will Assure Renewed Hope For Young Hearts

CHRISTMAS CAROLING — Appealing for young heart disease victims are carolers, left to right, Mrs. Claire Wiseman, leader; Audrey Hesler, 386 Hinman-av, and Ann Pritt, 405 Welch-av. Proceeds from the drive will go toward maintenance of the Kinder Key Laboratory, located in Children's Hospital.

Christmas carolers will serenade homes whose porch lights are on Dec. 11 6-9 p.m., in a fund-raising drive to help children stricken with heart disease. Hundreds will participate in the city-wide effort.

Carolers will be teenage and young adult groups from churches, Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, YMCA, YWCA, Schools, choirs and civic organizations. Proceeds from drive will go toward maintenance of the Kinder Key laboratory in Children's Hospital, only diagnostic center devoted to children's heart disease in this area.

Those who wish to donate to the laboratory may turn on their porch light or place a lighted candle in their window on the evening of Dec. 11. Carolers will sing at that house, and then come to the door to receive donations.

Anyone who is not at home on that evening, or is missed by carolers, may send his donation to Kinder Key, P.O. Box 303, Columbus.

Heart disease causes more deaths in the five to 19 year age group than the combined total caused by tuberculosis, polio, pneumonia and contagious diseases, according to Kinder Key Laboratory.

Pheasant Kill Good But Rabbit Crop Is Down Hunters Report

The pheasant kill on opening day of upland game season was better than expected throughout all the normal pheasant range. This information was obtained by game protectors of the Ohio Division of Wildlife and analyzed by William R. Edwards, game management biologist.

As was previously expected, the rabbit population was down from 20 to 25 per cent over most of the state with a few scattered areas reporting fair to good rabbit shooting.

Edwards said at least one factor was instrumental in providing better pheasant shooting. Most of the corn had been picked and likewise the soybeans over much of the pheasant range had been harvested thus making it more difficult for game to hide. This forced the birds into the open, making them available to hunters.

The Wildlife Division's cooperative 50-50 pheasant program which was initiated this year with sportsmen's clubs participating, apparently had some effect on the pheasant harvest in a number of counties. Some of the counties which enjoyed considerable sport from these birds were Jefferson, Sciotó, Knox, Mahoning, Defiance, Putnam and others.

Ohio's many public hunting areas continue to be as popular as indicated by the thousands who checked in during the first several days. On the highly popular Delaware Reservoir Public Hunting Area, some 2700 hunters checked in during the first day and they were rewarded with 1336 pheasants and 954 rabbits.

Approximately 1 000 gunners bagged more than 800 pheasants on the Killdeer Plains Public Hunting Area and 700 sportsmen harvested 250 birds on the Maumee Forest. These areas also produced considerable numbers of rabbits.

An in-season pheasant stocking program will be carried out by the Division of Wildlife on the heavily-utilized public hunting areas. These releases will be made during the next several weeks on the Delaware, Spring Valley, Killdeer, Maumee, Berlin and a number of smaller areas.

When asked for an opinion as to what hunters might expect for the balance of the season, Edwards said good pheasant hunting should continue but that rabbit hunting would be very spotty, fair in some areas but rather poor over much of the state.

Champ Givers, Lions ROAR For Funds To Keep On Giving! Open The Door! Give To Them! They'll Give Much More!

When the Southeast Lions Club members come to your door tomorrow, Friday, evening, greet them with gladness. They're the friends of this community . . . as they're YOUR friends. They need and will value your help.

Often, very often, you read that the Southeast Lions have made a contribution of money or equipment to a group or an institution—they spread knowledge and understanding. Buy a ROAR tomorrow, Friday evening when they call.

Old folks, young folks, middle-age folks — well, just every segment of our home community is aware of the benefactions coming from the Lions to schools and hospitals. Listen for the ROAR the Lions members will be selling it!

When the shades of evening are falling tomorrow, Friday, Dec. 7, the Southeast Lions will be calling . . . on you, then or later in the evening. Loosen up a bit, no, a great deal. They are benefactors in the community

Keep the porch light on tomorrow, Friday, evening, so the Lions with the ROAR can hurry along with their mission of restoring expended funds and get more funds to do more good. Buy a ROAR — pay as much as you can.

[illegible] may be late at night tomorrow night, when the Lions ROAR gets to you. But be good to the newspaper boys (in the price in a year, you have the price of a ROAR ready [illegible] and this [illegible] on its way in securing the com-

That happy dream may come back to you in your sleep if you have been generous in buying your copy of the ROAR tomorrow night. Just try it . . . and help this [illegible] organization

This is the end of the story for this year — the Southeast Lions will spend labor selling the ROAR. Let us, all of us, give them a hand when they come tomorrow evening . . . and let's be a generous prize in hand!

A worry gone: News report tells that the sun is as hot as ever—hasn't lost a bit of its heat. Whew! I'm glad of that. I thought that somewhere along the way scientists told of decreasing heat from the sun. It's not the lost heat that worried me, it was the cold we'd have to put up with if the sun went away. Now, apparently for the next few thousand years, we won't have to worry. How nice!

I've always wanted to see it: Out in Oklahoma City there was a strike. A striking picket on duty was joined, or followed, by a picket from a rival group. The picket didn't like to be picketed by a picket and the union went to court to get the picket freed from annoyance in his picketing through being followed by a picket. The judge picketed (or did he pickle him?) a few minutes and ordered the picketing rear picket from picketing the picket on the picket line in front. The rear picket was told to be home.

Hail Robert Martin: He drives a a city bus. The other day he had an age-feebled passenger. He got to her getting-off place. The woman hobbled on her crutches toward the door. The frail woman was picked up by Martin, who carried her across 20th-st to her home. She was colored, but, to Martin, a feeble woman in distress. His comment: "Oh, it was nothing special; she needed help." He comes within the "blesseds" mentioned at the top of the column. For all of us, this columnist says, Thank you, excellent-minded Robert Martin!

Hartley Is Named To Head Group To Study Water, Sewer Problems

Preston Davis, chairman of the Development Committee for Greater Columbus, last week, announced the appointment of C. Carlton Hartley, president of the Hartley Printing and Publish. Co., which includes the South Side Leader, as chairman of a technical committee for consideration of water and sewage problems of the area.

C. C. Hartley

"The Development Committee," Davis said, "is vitally interested in the development of adequate water and sewer facilities for the entire greater Columbus area. This Water and Sewage Committee will study and make recommendations for implementing the construction of sewer and sewage treatment facilities outlined in the 1954 Master Plan for sewers. This is a long range plan geared to 1980 population and needs. Also, this committee will assist in developing and executing a similar long range plan for waters."

This action followed the submission of a status report on the sewage problem by Executive Director Robert F. Mott. In this report, it was pointed out that there is general concurrence that there should be only one integrated system for the collection and treatment of sewage. However, the status report indicated a wide difference of opinion existing as to the financing and administration of the system.

It is in these areas that the technical committee shall be primarily concerned.

Also named on the committee were Arvin J. Alexander, Attorney at Law; Roy Brenholts, Brenholts Realty Co.; Edmund A. Donnan, Federal Glass Co.; Henry A. Flaharty, Columbus Coated Fabrics Co.; Parker Garwick, Garwick and Ross, Inc.; Paul L. Jones, Ternstedt Division, General Motors Corp.; Robert K. Levy, The Union Co.; Harry E. Mayfield, C.I.O.; Don E. Weaver, The Columbus Citizen and Allen W. Lundstrum, The Ohio Fuel Gas Co.

Word Contest Winner Named For 2nd Week

The judges have announced that Mrs. Anna Neely of 47 Hosack-st was the second winner in the weekly misspelled word contest. More and more entries are being turned in each week, and if you want to win $25.00 all you have to do is turn to the contest ad in this issue and follow the simple directions. This could be an easy way to receive some of your shopping shortages.

Several enterprising merchants of the South Side area have banded together and will bring you this contest each week until Christmas, proving that you can have your cake and eat it, too. Or, in other words, by shopping here in the South Side you cannot only win money, but spend it sensibly, too. Low prices and shopping conveniences are offered by the merchants of the South Side, and it is closer to home, too. Read the pages of this issue and then buy close to home.

Enter the contest today and shop through the pages of the South Side Leader and save on all your needs right here at home.

National and State Leaders Dedicate Nazarene Church

A program was printed and distributed as a guide to the dedication service last Sunday afternoon at the Wilson Avenue Church of the Nazarene, of which Rev. D. E. Clay is pastor.

The program, however, was unable to explain the spirit which prevailed in the church in anticipation of an event hoped for since the first services in the new structure last January. This Sunday there was expectancy, and this was fulfilled by church leaders including former pastors of the church when it was on Parsons-av, and others who had come to help.

Special Music

Special music had been arranged by the minister of music, Curtis K. Brady, who conducted the congregational singing with great success. He was also a member of a quartette which opened the afternoon's services following the musical meditations on the organ. The quartet was composed of Milton Burford, Paul Hayman, Robert Clendenen, Curtis Brady.

Culmination of the afternoon came following the sermon, preached by Dr. G. B. Williamson, general superintendent, Church of the Nazarene.

"Key" Presented

Following the sermon a group consisting of the general contractor, Paul Eller, the pastor and Dr. Williamson with Dr. Harvey S. Gallow, district superintendent, Central Ohio District, formed at the front of the platform, where the contractor made presentation of the "key" to the building, marking the end of the contractor's work on the new building.

When the group moved from Parsons near Whittier early in the year, it was predicted that the new edifice would be outgrown within five years and that an enlarging congregation would bring about further building expansion. This thought was dwelt upon by the general superintendent, who predicted that this will take place within five and 10 years—a double expansion, it was said.

Three Services

Services were held three times during the day Sunday, beginning with the usual morning services and ending with the evening services, although the dedicatory program in the afternoon was the compelling phase of the day, it was said.

The new edifice, located at 1650 Wilson-av, consists of the sanctuary, seating approximately 350, a nursery, and a Bible school department. The sanctuary was filled at the afternoon service.

KEY CEREMONY . . . In this phase of the dedication service the key was presented to the church by Paul Eller, general contractor, and received by Forrest Stoll, chairman, board of trustees; Rev. D. E. Clay, pastor; Dr. Harvey S. Galloway district superintendent, Central Ohio District; Dr. G. B. Williamson, general superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene.

Middletown Flexes Muscles Blasting Bulldogs 78 To 39

A crowd of 3,600 fans, including many Bulldog followers, watched the game at the Wade E. Miller gymnasium.

Led by the fabulous Jerry Lucas, the hosts never left a doubt of the outcome as they raced to a 25-9 first-quarter lead. Lucas, at 6'9", dominated both backboards, while his amazing finger control added many eye-popping tap-ins. Captain Jay Byrd's floor play and 18-point production added to the Middies' onslaught. Byrd also did a fine job in holding South guard Ron Allen to a meager two points. So complete was the Middie margin that South's closest penetration was 2—2 at the game's outset.

Believe it or not, South did have a few bright spots. Sophomore guard Ken Fowler led all Bulldog scorers with 12 points, while contributing some aggressive floor play.

Forward Ray Johnson added 10 markers, but Captain George Devlin had an exceptionally cold night, netting only eight tallies.

Coach Paul Walker's champs did all this despite a below par shooting performance. 34 connections in 84 attempts. The guests made 14 of 59—and to add insult to injury the Middies played without their best outside shooter, Tom Sizer.

However, the Bulldogs' disastrous but not surprising loss may have given South a very good lesson in experience. Not once in the season's remaining 17 games will Coach Colmery's boys meet players or teams the caliber of Jerry Lucas, Jay Byrd and the magic Middies. Lucas's total of 34 points doesn't overshadow the fact that this 6'9" 16-year-old lad has remarkable coordination and speed.

Tomorrow night the Bulldogs make their first City League start of the young season. They travel to Central to meet the small and inexperienced men of Chuck Koterba. Clancy Readout will probably be the only Pirate needing careful surveillance by the Bulldogs. South will be eager to make up for the Middletown debacle, by threshing the undermanned Buccaneers but no City League team can be taken lightly, so the taller Southerners can expect some stubborn opposition.

Board's Gifts For Needy Children

Three retired teachers are to be honored by the Stewart Avenue School Board, according to Mrs. Richard M. Chambers, PTA publicity chairman.

The three will be guests of the board at a luncheon to be held at the school at 12 o'clock Dec. 11. They are Mrs. Beatrice Robinson, Mrs. Dorothy Seaburn, and Mrs. Clara Scholl.

A departure from the past custom of exchanging Christmas gifts within the board membership will find each member taking a toy to the meeting, the toy unwrapped, so each toy may reach a boy or girl, according to fitness, it was said. Wrapping will be done at the meeting following the luncheon, with wrappings supplied by the members. The toys will go to needy children, Mrs. Chambers' told the editor of the Leader, who is to be a guest at the luncheon.

Rams Rout Mifflin, 54-38

Columbus St. Mary off to a 11-6 edge at the end of the first quarter, stayed out in front to take a 54-38 victory over Mifflin at Mifflin Friday night.

Bill Allen of St. Mary was the game's top individual scorer as he counted 18 points.

Mifflin took the reserve game 44-21.

What About This Proposed Pay Raise For Police?

A Local Man In Uniform Gives You His Arguments For It

Charles Poenish

A public hearing on the matter of an increase in pay for members of the Columbus Police Department is scheduled for Dec. 10 at 7 p.m. in council chambers at City Hall.

What are the points in favor of an increase?

The South Side Leader this week asked that the story be told by a local policeman. Charles Poenish, who lives at 338 Stewart-av. He has volunteered the following statement.

"The present schedule of pay makes it impossible for a policeman to provide properly for his family without taking some outside employment yet the police book of rules says he shall be employed in no other business. He is always considered to be on duty.

"A new man coming into the department gets weekly take home pay of $62.68 if he has one dependent. This makes it almost impossible to recruit good men for the department and thereby keep the force up to the number it should be. Patrolmen with five years service do little better.

"The per-capita cost for patrolmen in Columbus is $6.61 as against $11.74 in Cleveland, and today Columbus surpasses in area such cities as Cincinnati and Cleveland. Thirty seven cities in Ohio pay their policemen higher salaries than received by Columbus police.

"Columbus needs additional police but the pay should be high enough to attract a higher type man to fill the ranks of patrolmen.

"But why is it necessary to go outside the city to recruit these needed men?

"More burglaries and holdups are likely to occur unless more manpower is attracted to the police department. The present pay scale makes it impossible for the city to compete with industry in getting quality manpower.

"Where is the money for this increase coming from?

"The doubled income tax should provide the money. In addition the city should derive about $500,000 more fines this next year than in the last one. This is a result of the rapid growth of Columbus.

"Columbus deserves the best in police protection. A better pay scale will attract and hold the men necessary to provide this protection."

Hamilton Tp. High Honors Grid Chiefs

Hamilton Township High School honored its 1956 football team members who received letters and gold footballs at a banquet in the school building last Saturday. There were 19 in this classification. Of these, 15 were seniors.

This is the third football championship team for Hamilton, the first in 1951, when the Rangers won a co-championship. The second was in 1953, when the Rangers ended the season at the top of the list, with full victory.

This year, the third championship was shared with Mifflin, each team ending the season with eight victories and one defeat.

Rangers Open Cage Season With Loss

By Keith Johnston

Hilliards opened Hamilton's season by handing the Hamilton Rangers a 79-63 defeat. Hilliards opened the first quarter with a big surge and at one time led the Rangers by 18 points. The Rangers were slow getting started in that quarter, scoring only 14 points, but in the second and the third quarter, Hamilton came within three points of the Wildcats. Every time Hamilton would come close to them the Wildcats pulled away.

Hilliards' big gun for the night was Gary Daugherty, who made 16 baskets from the floor and seven free throws, for a grand total of 39 points. Hamilton's big scorer was Wayne Sharron, who had a total of 23 points for the night.

The Wildcats had a lot more height than Hamilton, but the Rangers' Eddie Tucker did a fine job under the boards, grabbing 10 rebounds and also contributing 15 points to Hamilton's credit.

Christmas Dance

Barrett Junior High School will hold the annual Christmas dance Dec. 7, 7:30 to 10 p.m., according to Mrs. Richard R. Chambers, publicity chairman.

Miss Arline Boso Is Bride Of R. Ries; Wed In September

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ries

Miss Arline J. Boso, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Boso, 148 E. Hinman-av, became the bride of Robert Ries, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fite, 146 Jersey-st, Johnstown, O., Sept. 30, in South Methodist Church. The Rev. Walter C. Peters solemnized the 1:30 p.m. rites.

The bride wore an original gown of light ivory satin. Her veil of English illusion was held by a Danish pearl crown. She carried a crescent of cascading white roses.

Mrs. Charles Boso was her matron-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bettie Kalb, Mrs. Diane Babbert, and Mrs. Alice Boso. Rosan Boso and Loretta Boso were flower girls.

The attendants' ballerina-length gowns were fashioned of irridescent taffeta, along princess lines, with a scoop neckline, short cap sleeves, and featured a flying streamer that cascaded over the full skirt from the neckline to the hem in back. They wore matching velvet latticed crowns studded with pearls. The matron-of-honor wore coral and the bridesmaids and flower girls neptune green.

Best man was Mr. Charles Boso Sr. Seating the guests were Gerald O'Neal, Lawrence DeFourney, and Rudolph Dulin. Charles Boso Jr., nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

A reception was held at Saxon Hall for the families and friends.

The new Mrs. Ries is a graduate of South High School and is a secretary with Armour and Company. The bridegroom is a graduate of West High School and is associated with the Columbus Fire Department.

After a trip to Florida they are at home at 344 E. Woodrow-av.

Court Of Awards Set For Dec. 11

Senior Girl Scout Troop No. 208 will hold its annual Court of Awards ceremony at Livingston Methodist Church, Dec. 11, at 7:30 p.m. Girls will receive pins and badges earned during the past year. In addition to parents to attend, guests include Miss Ruth Shollengarger, and Mrs. Naomi Ernst. Refreshments will be served following the ceremonies.

Miss Grgich, Mr. Bailey Are Married

Miss Dorothy Grgich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rade M. Grgich, 1091 Miller-av, was married to Mr. Howard L. Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bailey, 349 Innis-av, on Nov. 3 at 11:30 a.m. in St. Ladislaus Church. The Rev. Fr. Frank T. Riehl performed the rites before an altar decorated with white gladioli, pompons, palms and candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown of Dupioni silk, Chantilly lace and tulle. The bodice featured a portrait neckline scrolled with iridescents and tiny seed pearls. The bouffant skirt was panniered at the hipline in festoon fashion, from which cascaded rows of lace and tulle at the back. Her veil was caught to a halo of silk trimmed in seed pearls and iridescents. She carried a prayerbook topped with an orchid and pale yellow rosebuds.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mildred Grgich, maid of honor; Miss Sophia Grgich, bridesmaid, and Mrs. John C. Lucijanic, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmatron. They wore ballerina length gowns of blue lagoon velvet fashioned along princess lines with empire bodices, scoop necklines and skirts that featured back interest. They wore velvet headbands with tiny veils. The maid of honor carried yellow Fuji mums and the others carried white mums.

Mr. James T. Bailey served as best man for his brother. Mr. Peter Grgich and Mr. John C. Lucijanic ushered.

Mrs. Kenneth Steinmetz, Mrs. Mary Jane Beech, Miss Violet Grgich and Miss Mary Lucijanic were hostesses at the reception held at the Fiesta Club.

The bride is a graduate of Linden McKinley High School and is employed by the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. The bridegroom is a graduate of South High School, served in the navy and is employed by the C&O Railroad. They will reside at 351 Innis-av

Beck Street PTA

The Beck Street PTA Christmas program will be held Wednesday, Dec. 12, at 7:30 p.m. The children from Miss Gloria Collett's and Mrs. Donald Dill's rooms will be in the program. Refreshments will be served.

Club Collects Yule Gifts For Aged Patients

Soroptimist International of Columbus will visit Alum Crest Hospital Dec. 7, 6:30 p.m. to decorate for the holidays. Soroptimists are also collecting gifts for the patients of Alum Crest and Franklin County Home.

All gifts should be wrapped and marked male or female, and suggested items are pocketbooks, wash cloths, combs, brushes, slips, cotton hose, ball point pens, powders, colognes, fancy soaps, and smokes.

Call Mrs. Williams, HU. 8-1101 for pick-up. Gifts will be accepted through Dec. 22.

Yule Luncheon Dec. 11

The annual Christmas luncheon of the Sigma Pi Wives and Mothers Club will be held at the Ohio Union, Tuesday, Dec. 11, at one o'clock. Mrs. Earl Reed is in charge of the arrangements.

Officers for the year, are Mrs. Robert Weiland, president; Mrs. Fred Deckman, vice-president; Mrs. Earl Reed, secretary; Mrs. Walter Cheney, treasurer. The following members were appointed to the telephone committee: Mrs. E. L. Culler, Mrs. J. C. Coady, Mrs. J. A. Sweetman, and Mrs. Dave Evans. Publicity will be handled by Mrs. Ruth Long.

Apples should always be kept in the refrigerator, ice box, or some other cool, moist place; but not freezing.

O.G.'s Notes

yes! Just double the number you THINK (in an off-hand way) that you can afford. You'll have that much more satisfaction. Merry Christmas!

Recommended to Russian chiefs: The ninth verse of the New Testament's St. Matthew: "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God." The same result will be secured by learning to behave themselves in world affairs. The quoted verse, put into effect by the Soviets, would fill the earth with joy and good fellowship and comradeship! And, SAFETY!

For Us: It would be nice, too, and highly effective, if every one of us could forget "what I want" in favor of "how can I create happiness with and for others." You understand, of course, that the "we" implication here covers YOU and not, of course not, ME! But, yes, I agree with YOU . . . let's make it applicable to every last one of us, and see how quickly even cantankerous neighbors (if you have any; I haven't) will become enwrapped in the joy of creating happiness.

Closer: I think this note from Mrs. J. Lorenz, 981 S. Ohio-av, is a fitting end to this week's column, since it so accurately describes the Leader's "pulling power" for advertisers. Here's the note: "We received several calls the day before the Leader was delivered, and PLENTY MORE on Thursday and Friay. The rug advertised for sale was sold Thursday A.M. Speaks well as an advertising medium. Mrs J. Lorenz."

Yes, it speaks MIGHTY well for the Hartley newspaper group's "pulling power."

Student To Give Sermon Sunday

Donald Reese a senior in the theological seminary at Capital University and the pastor's assistant for the 1956-1957 school term will conduct the 10:30 a.m. service at St. Paul's Lutheran Church 322 Stewart-av, Dec. 9. The pastor, Rev. John O. Lang, will speak at the 8 a.m. service on "Coming Amid the Clouds of Heaven," after which he will go to St. Paul's Lutheran Church, New Rome, to preach at the dedication of an educational unit to that church. Rev. Lang was pastor of the New Rome congregation from 1931 to 1937.

'Mite' Theatricals Set At Schiller, Dec. 14

The Children's Theater of Schiller Recreation Center will present two Christmas plays on the evening of Dec. 14. Both plays, each one-act long, will be given in the Schiller Auditorium.

"Bobby and Betty in the Toyshop," the title of one of the plays, will have a cast of 25. It is a story about the adventures of a little boy and girl who find themselves locked in a toyshop after the shop has closed for the night. The other play, "The Christmas Tree We Finally Got," was written by Judy Mason, a Barrett Junior High School student.

'Y' Council's Dance Is 'Lions Roar' Pay-off

Tomorrow, Friday, Roosevelt Junior High gymnasium will be the scene of a teen-age round and square dance, the first of four scheduled for the present school term. The dance is sponsored by the South Side YMCA Teen-age Council and in cooperation with the Roosevelt PTA. Any proceeds from this Friday's dance will be donated to the Southeast Lions "Roar" project fund, according to Jim Wagner.

The round and square dance will be held from 7:30 to 10:30 with, of course, Jim Wagner from the South Branch Y staff in charge. Music will be by the popular South Y Park Trio.

Round dancing, schottisches, polkas grand march, etc., will be intermingled with the square dancing.

The Roosevelt square dances are sponsored for the junior high students of the Roosevelt school area. Barrett Junior High and South High School also have representatives on the South Side YMCA Teen-Age Council and may participate by contacting their representatives, Jim Wagner stated.

In recognition of the worthwhileness of the great service the Southeast Lions extend to the schools and agencies of the South Side, Wagner said the YMCA Teen-Age Council annually sponsors this dance as a service and encouragement for the young people to show their appreciation for a job so well done by our local Lions Club.

Carol Sing Replaces Tree Program: Schiller Park, Sunday Evening Dec. 9

In the absence of a South Side Community Christmas tree lighting program this year, the South Side YMCA Young People's Inter-Church Council will sponsor a program observing the "Birth of Christ in Song and Scene." The program is to be held in Schiller Park Sunday, Dec. 9, beginning at 6 p.m. and will last approximately 45 minutes. All interested individuals or groups are invited to join in the carol sing and if they care to be assigned one of the meeting places, call the South Side YMCA, HI. 4-2151, or just join in any of the groups gathering in five locations.

Groups to participate in the ushering in of the Christmas season will gather as follows:

At Stewart and City Park: Gates-Fourth Methodist, Moose, Ladies Chorus, Hungarian E&R Church.

Third and Reinhard: South "Y" Junior Optimist Boys Glee Club, St. John's E&R Church, Y-Teens.

Mohawk and Reinhard—Oakwood Methodist, South Methodist, Hi Y.

Jaeger and Reinhard—Ohio Avenue EUB Schiller Grandmother's Club, Thurman Avenue Methodist.

Steward and Jaeger—St. Paul E&R Church, Clair Chapel Methodist Church, South Church of Christ.

Robert Sophn of 1237 S. Ohio-ay, will be the narrator for the following a particular career field. Lutz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Lutz, 378 Deshler-av.

program. Paul Ward of Central High School will direct the singing and will be accompanied on the accordion by Herbert Germain of Barrett Jr High.

Portrayal roles in the scenes will be as follows: Mary, Diane Denney; Joseph, James Warren; angels, Bonnie Brown, Patty Komives, Donna Brown.

Shepherds, Alex Komives, Charles Hagenberger, William Warren, John Fritz, Joe Streaty, Wallace Rueckel.

Third Polio Booster Shots Offered

Third or booster shot of polio vaccine will be offered by the Madison County Health Department soon after the first of the year to those who are eligible and who are unable to obtain this service from their family physician.

The exact dates and places of administration will be announced at a later date through the newspapers and through the schools. Dr. Robert A. Vogel, health commissioner this week issued the following statement:

"As health commissioner of Madison County I urge that all those who are able should obtain this service from their family physician. The physicians of this county are now able to obtain all the vaccine they need for their patients.

"Those eligible to receive the third or booster shot from the health department are any one between the ages of 6 months to 20 years inclusive who have had the second shot at least seven months ago and who are unable to receive this service from their family physician.

"Those who have not had the first two shots and are between the ages 6 months to 35 years of age should contact their family physician for this protection against paralytic poliomyelitis. It takes eight months to give complete protection against paralytic polio by use of the polio vaccine.

"It is my hope that no person between the ages 6 months to 20 years of age faces the next polio season without this protection. All the results to date show that not a single case of paralytic polio during this past polio season occured among children who have had their three shots of polio vaccine. From such results it now appears that the three shots are 100 percent effective in preventing paralysis due to poliomyelitis.

"At the present time we know that the three shots properly given, namely, the second shot 2-6 weeks after the first and the third shot not sooner than 7 months after the second, are effective for at least three years and possibly for life."

Farm Bureau Begins Work On Membership Drive

Membership notices urging Franklin County Farm Bureau members to mail their 1957 dues to the county office have been sent out. Members are urged to mail their dues promptly to permit membership workers to concentrate on bringing new members into the organization.

The membership committee, which will conduct the drive includes the following: northwest section, George M. Purdum and Kermit Grener; and southwest section, William Bettinger and Allen Grossman.

Local Deaths

CLEMENT VAN GUNDY

Clement Van Gundy, 60, of Groveport, died Sunday, Dec. 2, at his home. Surviving are his wife, Cohelethe; four sons, Richard, Lester, Gerald and Marvin; and two sisters, Mrs. Frank Norris of Lancaster, and Mrs. W. O. Flowers of Groveport. Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 5, in the Farfus Funeral Home, Groveport. He was buried in Groveport Cemetery.

MRS. ANISE E. KECK

Mrs. Anise E. Keck, 79, of 2600 Alum Creek-dr, formerly of Logan, was dead on arrival Sunday at Grant Hospital. She was a member of New Zion Methodist Church, Blackjack. O. Surviving are three sons, Roy of Columbus, Pearl of Newark, and Earl of Logan; two daughters, Mrs. Mae Hickman, with whom she made her home, and Mrs. Ethel Kline of Lancaster; a brother, H. S. Floyd of London; three sisters, Mrs. Margaret Rose Miller of Asheville, Mrs. Leafy Springer of Lancaster, and Ada Floyd of Cleveland; 15 grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. on Tuesday, Dec. 4, in the Logan Methodist Church. She was buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Logan.

MRS. OPAL IRENE MATHIAS

Funeral services for Mrs. Opal Irene Mathias, 55, of 259 E. Stewart-av, who was dead on arrival Saturday, Dec. 1, at Grant Hospital, were held by the Schoedinger Funeral Home. Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Ogden E. Schukraft and Mrs. Loma Larger, both of Columbus, and a brother, Donald H. Jones, of Bakersfield, Calif. She was buried in Union Cemetery.

REMEMBERED BY POSTERITY

"With a single stroke of the brush," said the schoolteacher, taking his class through the National Gallery, "Joshua Reynolds could change a smiling face into a frowning one.

"So can my mother," said a small boy.

No Santa Claus? Oh, Yes, There Is! They're In The Art Class At Berry Junior High School

Who says there is no Santa Claus? There are hundreds of them in the making right now in the art classes at George C. Beery Junior High. In cooperation with the Junior Red Cross Club of Marion Franklin, seventh and eighth graders of Berry Junior High are making 1,000 paper cut-outs representing Kris Kringle. Many of the Santa Claus cut-outs will serve to add cheer to youngsters at Children's Hospital during the Christmas season; others will be sold to provide money for Red Cross work.

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Lanex
HI. 4-1051

A young lad, nearly eight pounds, is the latest addition in the family of Jack and Bea Karch. The baby made a Nov. 30 appearance and we're sure Grandma Ruth and Grandpa Carl Karch will be trekking to Mississippi as soon as possible to see their little grandson. Jack and Bea are well-known South Siders, and we're sure many of their friends would like to send cards to them. The address is OMS Box 185, Greenville Air Force Base, Greenville, Miss. (We're not sure of Jack's rating; that's why we didn't designate it. Perhaps a call to the Southwood-av relatives would help a little.)

Trudeau Guild 10 will hold its Dec. 12 meeting in the home of Marge Hoptry, 280 Southwood. (The original schedule called for it to be held in the home of Virginia Leonard, so note well, Guild 10 members.)

A South Sider for years is quite ill in Florida. We know he would appreciate cards, especially since he'll have a birthday on Dec. 15. The man? G. E. LaRue, Trailer Haven, Melbourne, Fla.

A very sweet young miss will exchange vows this Saturday with an Ellsworth-av lad, so congratulations and best wishes to Nancy Sides and Gerald Babbert. The marriage will be performed in the Southwood Church of Christ.

New officers for the Women's Guild of St. Paul's E and R Church are as follows: Mrs. Robert Nitsche, president; Mrs. Joseph Clark, vice-president; Mrs. Grace Vorwerk, financial secretary; Mrs. Gordon Scholz, secretary; Miss Miriam Theado, treasurer; Rev. and Mrs. Paul Kaefer, advisors.

Misfortune in great quantities has been the lot of the Gruber family these late autumn days. Eight-year-old Craig Gruber, 801 Kelton-av, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Gruber, is in Children's Hospital, recovering from an auto accident that nearly cost him his life. The young boy was crushed between two cars and suffered internal injuries. Craig's grandfather is in Grant Hospital (Room 260) mending from a fall on the ice that injured his back. Ralph Gruber is a resident of 1516 Ellsworth-av. A speedy return to health is certainly wished for both hospitalized Grubers.

The annual Christmas market sponsored by the Rosary-Altar Society of Corpus Christi Church is an event for today's calendar. The affair is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Items suitable for Christmas giving will be on sale. Mrs. Richard Deibel, 1177 Oakwood-av, is the general chairman. Committee chairmen are: financial, Mrs. R. D. Brown, Jr., and Mrs. Wilbur Wuellner; religious articles, Mrs. W. J. Butler and Mrs. Charles Eckel; toys, Mrs. Clarence Miller and Mrs. W. Krigbaum; candy, Mrs. Frank Schneider and Mrs. Irene Egger; baked goods, Mrs. Clovis Scholl and Mrs. Chris Kohnle; gift wrapping, Mrs. C. M. Bender; snack bar, Mrs. Robert Turner and Mrs. John E. Welch.

The study group of Southwood School will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the school's auditorium. The topic is "Gifts Good for Learning." Miss Helen Schoedinger will relate the story, "Good Will Is Okay." There will also be a discussion period led by Mrs. Walton Barnhart.

A mother-son "birthday time" occurs late in November for Mrs. Smith of Woodrow-av and her son, Charles, of Obetz.

Mrs. Smith has a Nov. 27 birth date and her son celebrates his natal day on the 28th.

Oakwood WSCS groups that are having their December meetings this week and early next week are Esther Circle, Dec. 11, at 1 p. m., in the home of Mrs. Verne Smith, 1355 Oakwood-av; Bennett College Circle, also Dec. 11, but with an 8 p.m. meeting time, in the home of Mary Thompson, 1116 Oakwood-av, Bethlehem Circle, Dec. 12, at 12 30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. E. K. Ross, 572 Binns-blvd; Ethel Harpst Circle, an 8 p.m. meeting, Dec. 11, in the home of Mrs. R. S. Moore, 738 Bulen-av; Jessie Lee Circle, Dec. 12, at 1 p.m., in the home of Mrs. D. F. Davis, 671 Carpenter-st; the Marcy Circle, Dec. 12, at 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Robert Grate, 3315 Columbus-ct.

The PVA group of Orient State Institute (the parents' group, by way of explanation) is still collecting the various stamps and is currently asking for the yellow ends of Parkway margarine wrappers. With them they are able to get nylons for some of the patients. Any interested folks may send the Parkway ends to PVA, Box J, Orient, O.

Cub Pack 31 of South Methodist Church will hold a family Christmas party next Tuesday evening at 7:30. Santa Claus will be present, so we're sure the Pack 31 boys will be wearing halos that night! Mrs. Sturgill's group will be the host den on that occasion.

Pat Stewart, 242 Jenkins-av, is again on our ailing list, sorry to say.

Two names on our Christmas card list we'll pass along, hoping others will remember them at the Yule season too. One is Miss Flora Albright, of the Normandie Hotel, a long-time teacher at Barrett Junior High. The other name is that of Don Baughman, recently arrived in Africa, who will be starting his missionary work soon. Don's address is in care of Roy C. Goldsberry, Box 252, Yaba, Nigeria, British West Africa.

Next Wednesday, Dec. 12, Mrs. Elmer Marie and co-hostess, Mrs Charles Dayton will entertain the executive board of Southwood PTA in Mrs. Marie's home, 332 Sheldon.

Some of the coming events we glean from our calendar and one we see is slated for this Sunday at South Methodist Church. The Camp Fire Girls of this area will have a council fire, time 2:15 p m. (Is everyone's calendar as "bushy" with events as ours? Four youngsters and mama's affairs really make it a well-marked piece of paper! But we have to take time off to attend some of South High's basketball games! There's one at Central tomorrow night and one next Tuesday at South, as a reminder.)

The BOPS (Band and Orchestra Parents of South) will hold a meeting next Tuesday at the school, set for 7:30 p.m. The reading of the by-laws is part of the agenda, and various fund-raising projects will be discussed. President of the group is Mrs. Clifford Berger. (If the publicity chairman of the group has her "antenna" waving toward the auditorium at South, hope the fellow members of BOPS will be real polite and pretend not to notice it. Basketball game, you know.)

Our "Gifts for Givins" for the patients at Ben Franklin is beginning to pick up steam, and [illegible] are coming in nicely.

This week's donors include Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. C. J. Wagner, Mrs. L. Kelly, Mrs. E. Manion, Mrs. E. H. Lisle, the Friendly Page Hobby Club (Miss McNutt, president); David Cogrove, Sally Paulus, Mrs. William Fennel and Josephine Farnworth. Quite a few others have told us they are gathering things to be given to the patients for use as gifts, so we hope to reach our goal. We plan to distribute them Dec. 18, so the next two weeks is all we have to work on it. We will accept the things right up to the deadline, so let us hear from you soon, if you would like to take part in the project, won't you? We seem to be little short in children's and men's gifts, but EVERYTHING is most welcome. As we figure it, we're a little over half-way towards our goal. We were able to give one thing to each patient last year, and we'd like to do the same this year. Let's let our "white elephants" carry a Merry Christmas into some deserving home, shall we? Guess that's all for now, no more news on time, so-o-o, till next edition (oh yes, don't forget our phone is HI 4-1051)—'tis the GADABOUT.

...doesn't have to be Christmas ...show the Christmas spirit, ...th Road School District resi...ts have been showing. Par...s of the community recently ...ed cookies and staged a cook...ale to raise money which they ...e to the teachers to furnish ... new lounge. The fund, which ...aled more than $67, came as a ...prise to the teachers, who were given the money in a special assembly on the recent National Teachers Day. The Smith Road PTA then voted to add $50 to this fund as a loan to help decorate the lounge.

Children of the school got an early start on giving, too. Pennies they collected during the Halloween "beggars night" were sent at Children's Hospital, for patients there.

Robert M. Porter, administrator, thanked the children for the $5.01 they sent, with the comment "It is indeed inspiring to know that children like yourselves will work to help others less fortunate."

Capital U. Choir In Free Concerts

Dr. Ellis Snyder, conductor of the Capital University Chapel Choir, announced today the program for the Christmas concerts at the Veterans Memorial Hall. The program will include.

"Glory be to God," Rachmaninoff; "Hosanna to the Son of David," Gibbons; "Song of Mary," Fischer; "Benedicamus Domino," Warlock; "Lo! to us is Born an Infant," Liebhold; "Wie du Einst Empangen Wurdest," Schreck; "See in the Manger," Engelke; "Carillon Heigh-ho," Perry; "Carol," Warman; "Lullaby," Mozart; "Negro Bell Carol," James; "The Shepherd's Story," Smith.

The concert is to be held in the Veterans Memorial Auditorium on Sunday, Dec. 9, at 3 and 8:30 p.m. It was emphasized that there will be no admission charge. The concert is free and open to the public. There will be a free will offering, the announcement said, adding that there will also be free parking. Seats, however, are reserved. Reservations may be made by calling BE. 5-8611, ext. 18.

Corpus Christi's Annual Square And Round Dance Is Planned For Friday, Dec. 7

Shown above is a committee of five appointed to make plans for the annual Corpus Christi round and square dance. Announcement has been made that Dec. 7 has been selected as the date for the dance. Music will be by Al Baumbusch, the committee announced, and it was stressed that there will be door prizes and refreshments. Tickets will be available at the door, it was stated. Left to right, seated, are shown Mrs. John Groves, John Groves, Larry Young, while standing are Mrs. John Hammel and Al Brehl. The dance will be from 9 to 12 o'clock, it was said.

'Honors Race' At Schiller

The Senior Girls Basketball League at Schiller Recreation Center has an interesting race for honors, it is reported.

In games last week, the Aragonettes defeated the Gold Ramblers 18 to 10, with Eager scoring 10 points for the winners. In the second game Corpus Christi defeated Thurman Avenue Methodist by the score of 37-16. Corrine Hall, with 15 points, paced the winners. In the last game of the evening the Blue Ramblers defeated the Pups 28-13, with Eileen Wurdack of the Blue Ramblers scoring 11 points.

Team Standings

Aragonettes	3	0
Corpus Christi	3	1
Blue Ramblers	2	1
Gold Ramblers	1	2
Pups	1	3
Thurman Ave. Methodist	0	3

Leading scorers are L. Howard, 55; Hall, 46; Conner, 38; Wurdack, 31 points respectively.

Thurman Youth Ends Training

Carl Phillip Pharr, SA, USN, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pharr, 548 Thurman-av, has completed nine weeks of recruit training at the United States Naval Training Center, Bainbridge, Maryland.

Pharr successfully completed the transition from civilian to military life, which included instruction in seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, firefighting, military bearing, military drill, shipboard drill, and citizenship.

The Columbus bluejacket enlisted here for four years and was sworn in at the Navy Recruiting Station here.

12 CHANCES

There are just 12 more days in which to perform a mission of love, a mission of mercy by making an alone person, a needy person, happy for Christmas. Just 12 more days, 12 more chances.

from OG's NOTES

Good Citizen: Mrs. Anna H. Coffin, 86-year-old women of Carlsbad, N.M., is a good citizen. This was emphasized when President Eisenhower sent her a letter of appreciation because she left her hospital bed and went to the polls via ambulance to vote. She was taken into the polls on a stretcher. That was good citizenship, the President wrote. How many of us pass up the sacred principal of voting and controlling our own government! Then we are not being GOOD citizens.

Disintegration: The Administration is said to be considering mass shelter building as a civil defense project, according to reports from the National Capital. Such protection would be only partially (if at all) helpful against thermonuclear explosions. Sad is the day, when science has made possible so many desirable aspects of living, that we must resort to "caves" to protect ourselves from death with its agonies in a time when the future could be rosy with glorious living! Such is the brutality of some in the world. Thus is civilization's disintegration beginning.

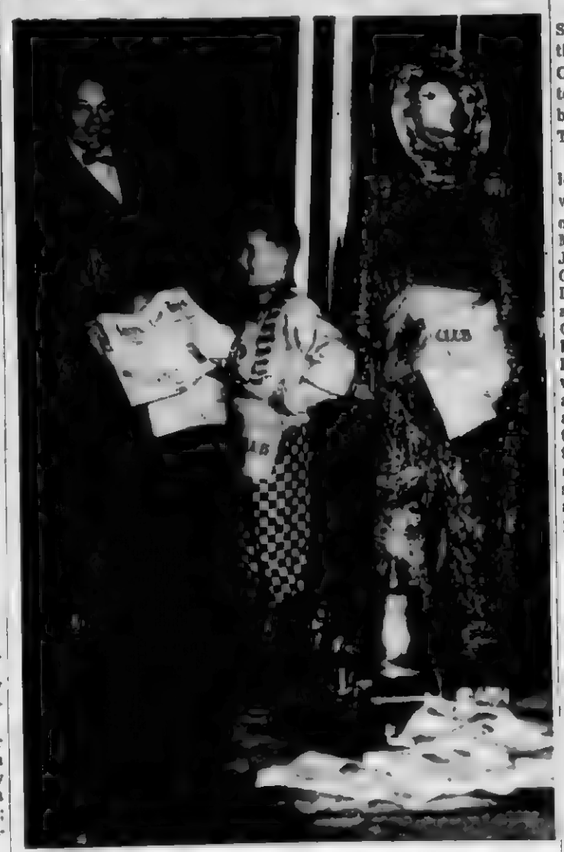
Only here: Nowhere in the world is Christmas the giant business that it is in the United States. Nowhere is there such a gift-giving volume, nowhere such a gift-spending total. Nowhere are there so many free from financial poverty and, properly as a companion fact, nowhere are so many so generous in helping the helpless, the needy. For this, while regretting our deficiencies, hoping to be even more protective of the needy, we give humble thanks for the blessings blanketing our lives.

Steelton Merchants Ass'n Names Tom Sharp President

Thomas W. Sharp



The new officers of the Steelton Merchants Association were announced last week with Leader ad manager Thomas W. Sharp being elected as president for the coming year. The officers will be installed at a formal banquet at the Fiesta Club on Jan 8, 1957, it was announced.

Tom Sharp has been associated with Hartley Publishing Co. for the past three years in the position of advertising manager of the South Side Leader. The following businessmen of the South Side have been elected for the coming year to serve as leaders of the Steelton Merchants: First vice-president, Michael Mileusnich; second vice-president, Jess Beard; Secretary, Sam Skunza; treasurer, William Highouse.

The Steelton Merchants Association was formed in September, 1941, and since that time they have sought means for not only the merchants of the South Side, but, also for all of the residents by such activities as staging the annual carnival, providing trash receptacles on street corners, sending boys to camp, and many other civic improvements.

The coming year brings with it many problems and the newly elected have stated, "We will do our best to work as a unit and work for and with South Siders one and all."

Lions Set New Record In Sale

A group of tired, wet Lions returned to their homes late last Friday night after the annual drive in the South Side for funds with which the club will continue its contributions to worth-while causes in the South Side.

This was the evening of the "Lions Roar," when the "ROAR," the organization's annual newspaper, was sold to homes through the South Side.

Reports coming to the South Side Leader office told of the 1956 drive excelling any previous year, although the effort seemed to be in line with the activities of other years. When asked for an explantion of the "way-over-the-top" record set, one Lion Club member attributed the unusual success to the fact that "maybe more people know about what we do now than knew a year ago," which seemed to the reporter like a pretty good reason.

The rain held no terrors for the Lions as they went about their business selling the "ROAR," and maybe this created a good impression and caused the increased generosity this year.

It was emphasized that many of the gifts made by the Lions Club throughout the year are for items and services not otherwise provided for. Playground needs, some special school equipment, like a recorder, and perhaps a movie equipment for another place, and many other items are covered by the Lions from the proceeds of the sale of the paper once a year, it was stated.

Lions Officers

President, Edward M. Findley; first vice-president, Frank M. Neubeck; second vice-president, Jack R. Alton; third vice-president, Louis Whitacre; recording secretary, Frank L. Zimpfer; financial secretary, W. E. Cook; treasurer, W. E. Cook, Jr.; Lion tamer, Thomas W. Sharp; tail twister, John A. Hancock.

Theme Sparks Roosevelt Jr. PTA Program

The Roosevelt Junior High School PTA will carry out its theme "Your PTA Shares—True Christmas Spirit" with a program to be presented by the student body in the school auditorium Thursday, Dec. 20. 2 p.m.

The play, "The Road to Bethlehem," by Ann Claire Gilbert, will be given. In the cast are Carol Driggs as the narrator; Danny Marvin, Asher; Steve Schachter, Jabez; Sally Dollenmayer, the Old Beggar Woman; Barbara Long, Mary; Shirley Sager, first angel; Gary Ogle, Caesar; Mike Greenberg, the tax administrator; Ralph Campbell, Herald; Henry Porter, Joseph; Rosalind Kirkel, wife of Jabez; Ronnie Chapman, another shepherd; Judy Reynolds, another angel. The play is under the direction of Mrs. Audrey Batterson. Miss Shirley Groom will direct the school choir, which will sing traditional Christmas music and background music for the play.

Anniversary Observance

A banquet, speakers and music will all be a part of the 50th anniversary observance of the Hungarian Reformed Aid Society Sunday, May 30, at Saxon Hall, according to information released this week.

Charity Newsies At It Saturday, Dec. 15

Seven Charity Newsie members will be selling the annual "Open-Your Heart" edition of the organization's newspaper Saturday, Dec. 15, in the South Side.

Last year's sale resulted in 6,464 needy children being clothed by the Newsies, the "100 per cent for charity" group, which this year is observing its 50th anniversary in Columbus.

Newsies and their South Side posts are: John A. Allen, Louis W. Draudt and Donald Lund, all at the Big Bear Store on Whittier-st; Robert Benjamin, Parsons-Steelton area; Walter Grelle, Parsons Whittier area; and Ben A. Dempsey and Herbert P. Wolff, both at Livingston-Kelton.

Barrett Teacher Is Honored

W. R. Gongwer, mathematics teacher at Barrett Junior High School, and a past president of the Ohio Education Association, was honored recently at a meeting of the state body in Cincinnati. He was presented with a life membership in the Ohio Education Association at the state convention.

Corpus Christi Group Meets 14th

The regular December meeting of the Corpus Christi Home and School Association PTA will be held Friday evening, Dec. 14, at 8 o'clock in the school hall. Entertainment will be put on by the children of the lower grades. Refreshments will be served after the meeting by the seventh grade room mothers, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Alberta Baer.

South's Orchestra Plays Music For Choral Festival

By Patty Trumps

South High School's orchestra and senior choir participated in the Christmas Chorus Festival at Central High School last Sunday afternoon at 2:30. While vocal groups from North, East, West, Central, Eastmoor and Linden also took part, South's was the only orchestra represented at the festival.

Under the direction of Director Randal W. Near, the orchestra played "Messiah Selection" by Handel-Delameter; "Variations on a Polish Carol," by Davenport; and Riebold's "Spirit of Christmas."

The South High senior choir, under the direction of Miss Mary Francis Winchester, sang "The Shepherd's Story" by Dickenson and Straight's "Gloria For Christmas." At the end of the program all of the choirs joined together to sing the "Hallelujah Chorus" from the "Messiah."

Soloists in South's 80-voice choir were Bob Fornof, Tim Hepner, Larry Reichle, Sara Jester and Joan Haley.

Chief Warns Of Yule Tree Fire Danger

The Christmas tree is highly combustible, filled with pitch and resin, and it will ignite easily and burn furiously. To minimize the danger of a Christmas tree fire, Fire Chief Walter G. Strickfaden has a few suggestions.

Obtain a tree which has been stored outdoors and keep outdoors until actually needed. Cut off the end of the trunk diagonally at least one-inch above the original cut end. Stand the tree, at once, in a container of water, keep in a cool location and sprinkle the branches frequently until brought into the house for trimming. Tree stands are available with a reservoir in which the trunk may be set. Be sure the tree is well supported and so located as to be away from fireplaces, radiators, heating stoves, radio and television sets, or other sources of heat.

Trio Named As Top Collectors In November

Tom Reith, Dan O'Neil, Jerry Sopher were the Leader carrier boys to hit high in collections for the month of November, according to an announcement by Circulation Manager Jack Schluep. Each month the three carriers making the best collections receive an award. For November the award was a football.

Readers can give a boost to their Leader carrier boys by paying promptly and giving the "young business men" a chance to keep on going—toward one of the wanted prizes.

Yule Play At Lincoln Park Dec. 13

"Spotlighting the Yulelide Spirit" will be the theme of the Christmas play at Lincoln Park School this Thursday, Dec. 13, at 7:30 p.m.

"Ammiel Finds the Child of Bethlehem" is the title of the play, according to Mrs. Perl Reall, publicity chairman. She also stated that there will be a table of hand-made gifts for sale by PTA members.

Cantata

The cantata "The Christmas Song of Songs" will be presented by the chancel choir of the Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church, 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 23.

Pfc. Miller Is In Korea Now

Pfc. Thomas L. R. Miller, whose wife, Beverly, lives at 870 E. Markison-av, is a member of the 7th Infantry Division in Korea.

Miller entered the Army in August 1955 and is a driver in Heavy Mortar Company of the division's 17th Regiment. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Miller, live at 1275 Innis-av.

Cantata

On Sunday, Dec. 16, at the 10:30 a.m. worship service, the choir of South Methodist Church, under the direction of Robert Kessler, will present the Christmas cantata "King of Kings."

Soloists will be Mrs. Ray Castle and Mrs. B. G. Koehl, soprano; Mrs. Paul Miller, alto; Richard McClure, tenor; and Dolph Price, a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, guest bass soloist.

Two Christmas Plays Prepared At Schiller

The Children's Theater of Schiller Center announces the casts for the two Christmas plays which are to be presented in the auditorium of the Center Friday, Dec. 14, at 7:30 p.m., "Bobby and Betty in the Toy Shop", a story about two children who find themselves locked in a toy shop after the shop has closed for the night. When the clock strikes 12 the toys come to life and entertain the children in a dream. The climax of the play comes after the toys have held a miniature wedding ceremony.

The cast includes: Hans, the toy maker, Carol Crabtree; Marta, his wife, Erika Reinke; Bobby, Sharon Foley; Betty, Carolyn Shaffer; Soldier Captain, Sara Woodward, Tiny Tears, Dancing Doll, Jean Yetter; Sweet Sue, Bride Doll, Helma Reinke; Rag Dolls, Linda Zielke, Terry Griener, Karen Duckworth; Jumping Jacks, Sharon Yetter, Mary Cahill, Judy Cahill and Ann Whalen; Clowns, Frances Hanf, Eva Ward, Karen Purdy and Merrilee Serrin; Jack Tar, Sailor Doll, Sue Woodward; Johnny Soldier, Mary Andrews; Teddy Bears, Barbara Bobo, Sue Bobo, Christine Hanf, and Mary Kae Purdy; stage manager, Roy Andrews.

The other play, "The Christmas Tree We Finally Got," is a story about a little girl who always wanted her own way. Finally after a dream she has while taking a nap, she discovers that there is more to life than always wanting something for herself.

Cast: Mother, Judy Mason; Aunt Betty, Marilyn Brookins; Sandy, Nancy Rieger; Miss Boom, Barbara Yuhas; Nurse, Mary Dempsey.

St. Mary's PTA Tells Of 'Merry Party' This Evening

Mrs. G. R. Elzey, publicity chairman, St. Mary's PTA, has announced that at this evening's meeting in the high school auditorium there will be not only a gift exchange, but each person will take to the meeting another gift—this for the State Hospital for Mental Patients. The affair has been labled a "Merry Christmas Meeting."

For entertainment there will be, high on the list, Sister M. Corona's all-boy vocal group, and girl soloists singing and playing Christmas Carols.

St. Mary's High School Glee Club, directed by Rev. Francis Shaefer, will sing a few of the songs they will sing as they "carol" the neighborhood during the Christmas season.

Seniors from the high school will present three one-act plays, Mrs. Elzey said, the titles being "The Night Before Christmas," "The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," and "Greccio."

Games with prizes also will be on the program, the publicity chairman announced and refreshments will be remembered before adjournment is taken.

Christmas Family Service Sunday, Ohio Ave. EUB

The annual Christmas family service will be held Sunday at 4:30 p.m. at Ohio Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, 1013 South Ohio Avenue, according to the pastor, Rev. Glendon Herbert. The program, he said, will feature all the children of the kindergarten, primary, and junior departments under the direction of Mrs. Owen Myers, children's director of the church.

Parents will be invited to visit the rooms of their children after the program to see an exhibit of their work and to meet teachers. A treat is to be given each child as part of the afternoon activities. The congregation has been invited to bring staple foods wrapped in white to be given later to needy families. The offering for the afternoon program will go to the Children's Home at Flat Rock, which is maintained by the EUB denomination.

Rev. Glendon Herbert, pastor, will preach at both morning worship services at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. on the topic, "Why We Believe Christ is Divine." The Concordia Choir is to sing for both services.

The Sunday school, with classes for all ages, will meet at 9:30 a.m. with John Wine, superintendent in charge.

The mid-week service is Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. The Sunday School Council will meet on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.

Lucky Winner Receives $25 Confederate Currency — Cash

The third week of the mis-spelled word contest came to a close with another lucky winner claiming the $25.00 "Confederate" currency. Margie Davey of 683 Welch-av, Apt. D, is the luck person who successfully found all the words and arranged them into a sentence that was close to one arranged by the judges.

Each week this contest appears in the pages of the Leader with a new group of words for you to find and arrange into a sentence, slogan, or jingle. The one that finds the correct number of words and arranges them into the nearest possible correct answer will be awarded $25 in "Confederate" currency that is as good as gold to the following merchants: Bobb Chevrolet, Foreign Grocery, Howards Sales and Service, Hoermeles' Appliances, Peers Ready-to-Wear, Rasey's Dept. Store, Schwartz's Dept. Store, Heil & Schneider Hardware, and Twins Wee Wash.

These reputable, reliable merchants of the South Side have banded together to not only bring you great Christmas bargains, but to give you a chance to win the money to buy these items. They have agreed to accept this "Confederate" currency on any item that you purchase in their store and accept it at full value. All money must be spent for articles or services by these companies and dollar for dollar return will be yours. "Buy today and save, win all the way" with these South Side merchants was last week's correct answer.

Construction Begins on New St. Ladislaus Parish Church, As 48-Year-Old Structure Is Leveled

Forty-eight year-old St. Ladislaus parish church (left) was torn down this past week to make way for the new church which will be constructed immediately according to Father Francis Riehl, pastor.

The new structure which will be completed in about six to eight months, will seat approximately 500 parishoners and will cost nearly 200 thousand dollars.

General contractor for the new church will be Kent Brothers while Carlisle Plumbing and Heating and the Electric Power and Heating will complete the sub-contracts.

Mass is being offered in the school during the construction.

The parish which was organized by Father Robert Paulovics at the request of Bishop Hartley in 1908 was originally predominantly made up of people of Hungarian descent.

The school which was opened in 1917 in a frame building is now in a beautiful brick structure, with a 350 student capacity, which was completed in 1950. The students are taught by the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, Kentucky.

The new church (architect's drawing, lower right) will have an unusual glass front with two beams forming a cross above the doorway.

An additional wing may be added to the new church if expansion is necessary in the future, Father Riehl said.

Fr. Riehl, right, center below, and Fr. Francis Miller, assistant pastor, rip the first board from the old church.

Nancy Sides Is Married To Gerald Babbert

Miss Nancy Carol Sides, daughter of Mrs. C. E. Gray, 1386 S. 5th-st, and the late Mr. Albert Sides, became the bride of Mr. Gerald Albert Babbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Babbert, 1071 Ellsworth-av, Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in Southwood Church of Christ. The Rev. Willis E. Davis performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with red and white poinsettias.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. C. E. Gray, the bride wore a gown of white satin and chantilly lace fashioned with a bertha of the lace and a full cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a double crown of pearls and she carried a cascade of white roses and holly leaves.

Miss Twyla McCain was maid of honor wearing a gown of red velvet. She carried peppermint carnations and white roses. Miss Mary Moss, Miss Jackie Castle, and Miss Sandra Moler were the bridesmaids wearing green velvet. They carried white fur muffs trimmed with red roses and holly. All five of the attendants wore white fur hats.

Mr. David Finley was best man and ushers were Mr. Jack Babbert, Mr. Frederick Babbert, Mr. Paul E. Stewart and Mr. David Middleton.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. Mrs. Gray chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of pink lace with which she wore pink frosted carnations. Mrs. Babbert was in lavender and wore a corsage of white carnations.

The bride is a senior at South High School. Mr. Babbert is a graduate of South High and is employed by Middleton Bros. The couple will reside at 331 E. Town-st.

Mrs. Harper To Entertain

The Annual Christmas party of the Linwood WCTU will be held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Harper, 964 E. Whittier-st, Dec. 18, at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Alfred Barrick is the program chairman and she has asked Mrs. J. E. Bitzer to conduct the devotional period.

Each member will bring a can of fruit or a canned vegetable to help in making up baskets for our shut-ins. There will be a 50 cent gift exchange.

Mrs. Cora Guthrie will preside.

Goodwill Dinner, Yule Party Planned

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Columbus Goodwill Industries has planned the annual Christmas dinner and party for the employees of the Goodwill Industries.

The dinner will be served at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 18, in the new dining-room of the Goodwill Industries Building, 1331 Edgehill-rd. Arrangements for the dinner are being made by Mrs. James G. Smith, hospitality chairman.

Mrs. Kenneth Swepston and Mrs. Edward F. Castle have arranged for the following program: Charles Cessner, organist; Jack Sherrick, dance revue; and Don Ross and a group of entertainers from WLW-C studio.

Troop Grows

Brownie Troop 863 of Southwood School held the regular meeting with 16 girls present.

Their leader, Mrs. James Marsh, and co-leader, Mrs. Marlow Rausch, invested two new Brownies, Sharon Gainer and Terry Spencer. Hhey were welcomed into the troop as the Brownies sang "Whene're You Make a Promise" and "Make New Friends."

A Christmas party is being planned for the troop with a gift exchange.

Maree Social Club To Trade Gifts

The Maree Social Club of Southern Way Chapter No. 467 will meet at the South Gate Masonic Temple, Thursday, Dec. 20, at 12:30 for the Christmas luncheon. The 1956 officers will be the hostesses and there will be a gift exchange.

Advance reservations must be given to Mrs. Elmer Heybach, CL. 8-0474; Mrs. Herbert Olpp, HI. 3-2588; Mrs. Ray Conkle, HI. 3-2473; or Mrs. Everett Walter, HI. 3-5502, by noon Monday, Dec. 17, it was announced.

The members of the South High PTA executive board will be entertained by their president, Mrs. Walter Denney, Wednesday, Dec. 19. Mrs. Denney lives at 601 E. Moler-st. A short business meeting will precede the social festivities.

We're hoping that Mr. Brewer of Sheldon-av is feeling much better since his short trip to the hospital.

The Cloverleaf Clubs of St. Anthony's Hospital that will convene in this area soon are Leafs 2, 9 and 21. Leaf 2 will be the guests of Mrs. Herman Kaiser, 1399 Studer-av, Dec. 18, at 8 p.m. Also on Dec. 18 is the 6:30 p.m. meeting of Leaf 9. A gift exchange and supper will feature the meeting, to be held in the home of Mrs. Elmer Stehle, 247 Sycamore-st. On Dec. 17, 8:30 p. m., Mrs. Robert Hoffman, 808 Siebert-st, will entertain Leaf 21 in her home. A Christmas party is the feature of this meeting.

Our very deepest sympathy to the family of eight-year-old Craig Gruber. Losing a member of the family is sad at any time, but for such a young life to be snuffed out so needlessly is particularly poignant. (Craig had been injured internally when crushed between two automobiles.

Livingston Methodist women will hold their meeting today. Livingston is Guild 21 of White Cross Hospital.

The second annual Stocking Ball, sponsored by the Air Force Auxiliary of Central Ohio, will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Dec. 14 at the Base's Officer Club. Joe Weisberg's orchestra will furnish the music. The proceeds from the semi-formal dance will be put into a fund for retarded children.

Mr and Mrs. Tom Corcoran, 479 Siebert-st, were pleasantly surprised recently when their son, Dick, and his wife, the former Jackie Warner, paid them a surprise visit. (We hear tell Mrs. Corcoran was introduced to the fun of "pizza at midnight" by the two young folks. Thinks she'll try it again!)

Thurman Avenue Methodist Church Circles to meet yet this week are the Mary and Suzannah Circles. Mary meets today at noon in the church for a casserole luncheon. Suzannah Circle will meet tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Paul White, 1113 Oakwood-av. The meeting will also be a casserole affair. Assisting the hostess will be Virginia Barch and Agnes Schmitt.

PTA notes from Leaderland . . St. Mary's plans a "Merry Christmas" meeting for tonight at 8 p. m. Singing will play a prominent part in the program as Sister M. Cortona's vocal group and soloists will participate as will the high school glee club directed by Fr. Francis Schaefer. The high school seniors will present three one-act plays. The third and fourth grades of Livingston Avenue School will entertain PTA members with a Christmas play to be given tonight at the 7:30 p. m. meeting. Tomorrow night, Dec. 14, the fifth and sixth grade pupils of Southwood School will present the annual Christmas program under the direction of Miss Hazel Keenan and Miss Henrietta Smith. The theme of the meeting is "Spiritual Growth Is Our Responsibility Also." This afternoon at 1:30 p. m. Heyl Avenue's first, second and third grades will present the Christmas program for the school's PTA meeting, and a tea will follow the program. The lower grades of Corpus Christ will give the entertainment when the school's Home and School Association meets tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the school hall.

Birthday greetings are the appropriate thing this Saturday for three fine people we know. S-o-o, the usual good wishes to Margie Speakmon, Bill Kaufman, and Gasper LaRue.

Two guilds of St. Ann's that will meet in our part of town today are Guilds 25 and 42. Guild 25 gets together at 8 o'clock tonight in the home of Mrs. William Hollern, 233 E. Jenkins-av. Two items on the agenda are the election of officers and a Christmas party. Guild 42 meets at 8:30 p.m. for project work, gift exchange and election of officers. Mrs. R. J. Pritsel, 1440 Linwood-av, will be the hostess.

The Roberts family, of 509 E. Morrill-av, spent the past weekend in the neighboring state of Kentucky.

Christmas shopping got you down and you don't want to do any baking this weekend? Tell you what to do . . . go to the Majestic Paint Center, Parsons and Whittier-sts and buy something that Trudean Guild 19 members have made. The bake sale starts at 9.00 a.m., so a word to the wise, etc., you know.

We hope that Lucille Stephen, who was recently in White Cross Hospital, will be feeling real "pert" so that she may enjoy the holiday season more fully. Mrs. Stephen is a resident of 149 Markison-av. We hope, too, that the Kilbourne children, of 1830 Champion-av, will recover quickly from their bout with chicken pox!

Since Mary Leist had been so active in PTA and Cub Scout affairs in our area, we know that many of her friends will be interested in hearing about her. Her mother has been quite ill with heart trouble and Mary has been with her as much as possible. We're sure she'd appreciate the thoughtfulness of her friends if they sent a card to her mother, so we'll pass along what information we have. The mother's name is Mrs. Van Buskirk, of London, O.

Congratulations to the newly wedded Mr. and Mrs. Charles Randolph. Mrs. Randolph is the former Dixie Eseman.

Of course, no name will be passed along, but here's a "chuckler" we heard last week. The lady had been requested by friend hubby, to go and get herself a new hat. Well, she dutifully went to the millinery shop and tried them all on. Not only did she NOT buy a hat, but she got home and discovered she'd left her old hat uptown!

Our "Gifts for Giving" is progressing beautifully and we are humbly thankful to our warm-hearted readers for responding so well. Because we are waiting for one group's donations, we have extended the deadline to Dec. 19. Present plans now call for us to take the things out on the 20th and distribute them the 21st. Donors this week are: Mae Dean, Mary Kennedy, Marie Long, and Glenna Edwards. Quite a few things are promised for this week, so we'll keep the names for next week's column. (Guess everyone's so busy with Holiday plans they haven't time to call and give us their news! It was really rough trying to find enough to write about today. Well, we can sympathize, for it's that way in our "abode" too.)

Guess that about does it for this week, so we'll sound "30" until next edition. The number to call is HI 4-1061, don't forget! Till next time, then 'tis

PTA To Meet At Southwood; Other Plans

Mrs. Walton Barnhart, program chairman, has announced that a short business meeting of the Southwood School PTA will be held in the school auditorium Friday, Dec. 14, at 8 p.m. The theme will be "Spiritual Growth Is Our Responsibility Also." Then following, the annual Christmas program will be given by the fifth and sixth grade pupils, under the direction of Miss Hazel Keenan and Miss Henrietta Smith, "Thirty Minutes With Santa Claus." Refreshments will be served.

On Wednesday evening, 7:30 p.m., Dec. 12, the annual executive board Christmas party will be held at the home of the PTA president, Mrs. Elmer Marte. There will be a gift exchange. Mrs. Charles Dayton, vice-president, will serve as co-hostess.

Mrs. Marte oins Miss Ruth Chapman, principal, and the faculty to welcome the parents of th eschool children to attend the "White Christmas ceremony, which will be held Thursday morning, Dec. 20, 10:30 a.m., in the first-floor hallway. The pupils of the classrooms, in turn, will bring their white wrapped-food articles and place them under the Christmas tree. Each classroom will sing different familiar Christmas carols. The public address system is used to permit other classes to hear the class which is singing.

How Much Should A Funeral Cost?
• THIS IS A question which we hear every day—and the answer is not at all difficult or embarrassing. Each family has its own set of circumstances which, properly added up, supplies its own answer. We are always glad to talk frankly about costs—ours and yours — and to give our advice when asked. If you have a problem of this kind why not drop in and talk about it. We'll try to give you all the facts.

Local Deaths

A. E. SCHONHARDT

Requiem High Mass for Anthony E. Schonhardt, 56, of 846 Reinhard-av, secretary-treasurer and general manager of the Ohio Bridge Commission, was sung at 9:30 a.m. Friday, Dec. 7, in Corpus Christi Church. He died the preceding Tuesday in University Hospital.

He was secretary and past-president of the Knights of Columbus State Bowling Association and a member of the board of directors of their national bowling association.

He was affiliated with Council No. 400, Knights of Columbus, and the Holy Name Society of Corpus Christi Church.

Surviving are his wife, Leona; a son, Donald of Columbus; four sisters, Sister Mary Azelie of Notre Dame Convent, Toledo, Mrs. Charlotte Dick and Mrs. Verona Clark, both of Sandusky, and Mrs. Thelma Ommert of Cleveland. He was buried in St. Joseph Cemetery.

MRS. MINNIA KASELOWSKY

Funeral services for Mrs. Kaselowsky, 70, of 796 Carpentar-st, who died Monday, Dec. 3, in Grant Hospital, were held at 3 p.m. Thursday in the Cook & Son Funeral Home.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Marcum of Columbus, Mrs. Hildegard Oelkden, and Mrs. Gertrude Hoyer, both in Germany, and Charlotte Kaselowsky in England. She was buried in Green Lawn Cemetery.

MRS. MYRTLE SHARP MEEK

Mrs. Meek, 54, of 421 E. Sycamore-st, died Tuesday, Dec. 4, at her home.

Surviving are her husband, Andrew; a son, Pat Carroll of Columbus; a daughter, Mrs. Harold Mallett of Reynoldsburg; four brothers, Harry, Donald, Charles and Emmet Sharp, all of Trimble, O., and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Friday, Dec. 7, in the Richard A. Evans Funeral Home. She was buried in Union Cemetery.

MRS. MARGARET BERRIDGE

Mrs. Berridge, of 1696 S. 18th-st, died Tuesday, Dec. 11, in Roberts Rest Home. A member of the First Congregational Church, Ironton, she is survived by two sisters, Miss Jennie Merrill and Mrs. A. C. Steece, both of Columbus.

Private services are in charge of the Schoedinger Funeral Home. She will be buried in Woodland Cemetery, Ironton, Friday.

CRAIG GRUBER

Funeral services for Craig Gruber, 8, of 802 Kelton-av, who died Tuesday, Dec. 4, in Children's Hospital of injuries suffered when he was crushed between two automobiles Oct. 25, were held at 3 p.m. Friday in the Schoedinger Funeral Home.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Gruber of the home address; his father, Don Gruber of 283 S. Hamilton-rd; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Scherr and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Gruber, all of Columbus. He was buried in Union Cemetery.

MRS. ROSIE KEREKES

Mrs. Kerekes, 84, formerly of 1765 Bruck-st, died Monday, Dec. 3, in Elliott Rest Home. She was a member of the Hungarian Evangelical and Reformed Church. Surviving are three daughters and six granddaughters, Blanche Horvath, Mrs. Elizabeth Voytko, Mrs. Margaret Jones, Betty and Irene Chaffis, all of Columbus, and Mrs. Rose Sisak of Washington, D. C.; a grandson, Mike Kerekes of Columbus, and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 5, in the Hungarian Evangelical and Reformed Church. She was buried in Green Lawn Cemetery.

JOHN THOMAS HEMMING

Funeral services for Mr. Hemming, 67, of 1877 Wagner-st, who died Sunday, Dec. 2, in St. Charles Hospital, Toledo, after suffering a heart attack while on a run as an engineer for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad, were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 5, in the Cook & Son Funeral Home. A railroad employe for 44 years, he was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Surviving are his wife, Mabel V.; two sons, Elwood V. and Clyde T.; four daughters, Mrs. Frances Crnkovich, Mrs. Virginia Markus, Mrs. Eileen Raver and Mrs. Laverne Brooks, all of Columbus; two brothers, Rosston in California, and Charles of Columbus; two sisters, Theresa and Florence; 18 grandchildren and a great-grandchild. He was buried in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Surviving are two sons, Clarence H. and John E., both of Columbus; nine grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. She was buried in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Pageant

A Christmas pageant, "Let Us Adore Him," will be given by the Luther League at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 322 Stewart-av, Sunday, Dec. 16, at 7:45 p.m.

The pageant is being directed by Donald Reese, senior seminary student at Capital University and the pastor's assistant. The pastor will speak at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, Dec. 16, on "I Have Somewhat Against Thee."

The most common cause of winter losses in bees is starvation, according to Ohio State University extension bee specialists.

'Nativity' At Thurman Ave. Methodist, Sunday, Dec. 16

"The Nativity" will be the title of a cantata to be presented by the choir of Thurman Avenue Methodist Church at 8 o'clock on the evening of Sunday, Dec. 16, according to announcement Monday. The direction of the presentation will be by Lon Cass. Lucy Mercer is the organist.

The junior choir will also make presentations, it was stated.

Gold Footballs For Hamilton Tp. Lettermen

Managers Ronald Craven and Phil Ables received gold footballs at a recent Hamilton Township High School banquet. Others receiving gold footballs were the following lettermen:

Jim Walters and George Barrowcliff presented to Coach DeCenzo a large trophy and to his two assistants, Mr. Beard and Mr. O'Dell, small trophies to show them the team's appreciation for having them as coaches.

Pvt. Woodyard Returns Soon

Army Pvt. Donald W. Woodyard is scheduled to complete six months of active military training Dec. 15 under the Reserve Forces Act program at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Woodyard will now be permitted to finish his military service with a local Army Reserv eor National Guard unit.

The son of Dud Edinger, 43 Welch-av, he was graduated from Central High School in 1956.

Rangers Win First

At Hamilton Township High School Tuesday, Dec. 4, Hamilton's Rangers won their first basketball game of the season by defeating New Albany 60 to 52.

Ed Tucker, Hamilton's five-nine center, hit 12 of 14 shots from the floor and added four points from the foul line for a total of 28 points.

Lester Essig and Wayne Sharron added 14 and 11 points respectively to aid Tucker in the scoring. Keith Johnston and Ray Jacob also played a good floor game in addition to their eight points apiece.

This was Hamilton's first win in three starts and New Albany's first defeat in as many games.

Army Sergeant In Maneuvers

Army Sgt. First Class Fred Thompson, son of Mr and Mrs. Fred Thompson, 1327 S. High-st, recently participated in a field training exercise with the 11th Airborne Division's 76th Tank Battalion in Germany.

A tank commander with the battalion's Company A, Sgt. Thompson entered the Army in 1950 and was stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky., before arriving in Europe in February of this year.

Tableaus, Carol Singing To Mark Stewart PTA Meet

A community singing of Christmas carols will mark the meeting of the Stewart Avenue School Dec. 20, according to Mrs. Richard R. Chambers, PTA publicity chairman. The hour: 1:30 p.m.

The program will be distinctly Christmas, Mrs. Chambers told the Leader. One phase of this will be the singing of carols, while Susan McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald, 35 Frederick-st, will read "A Child's Prayer," according to the program.

Miss Lynn Chambers, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Richard Chambers, 121 E. Whittier-st, will give the "Pledge of Allegiance."

Three tableaus called "The Christmas Story" will be presented by Miss Rita Decker's third-grade class, and Miss Thelma Whitehurst will be in charge of the choral Scripture reading which will go along with the tableaus.

Parent attendance will do much to encourage the children, it was said, "and they will be glad when they see the work their children have been doing," Mrs. Chambers said.

Hamilton Twp. Hi School Has Photographer

George Borrowcliff is the boy with the camera at Hamilton Township High School. George takes a great many of the informal pictures for the school, authorities say. He takes a lot of pictures for sports and other miscellaneous events, some of which probably will appear in the South Side Leader.

George is a new student and has made a great many friends in the school and has won a good name for himself. George is a good photographer now and if he pursues his hobby he will go far.

Two S. Hi Students Tell In Essays Of TB Work

Your Tuberculosis Society: Its Past and Future in TB Control
By Nancy Scofield, South High School

Nancy Scofield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Scofield, 1683 Central, and Joanne Haley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Haley, 1602 Humphrey-av, recently wrote essays on the history of the Tuberculosis Society, under the title "Your TB Society: It's Past and Future in TB Control."

The essays are entries for the annual school press project of the society for Columbus and Franklin County. They are presented here:

Time: Today.

Scene: Living room in the home of any average American family.

Dad (mumbling to himself): Christmas seals! What a waste of money. Every year I have to buy a bunch of useless stamps, and what the money's used for, I'll never know.

Mary (overhearing her father's words): I know, Dad. We had to write an essay on it in journalism class. The Christmas seal sale is the only support of the Tuberculosis Society in its fight against TB. The society provided our class with information kits containing material on the disease and the work of the TB Society to control it. While reading through my kit, I came across some pretty startling facts about how serious a problem TB is. Why, did you know that Tuberculosis is our number one health problem? It causes more deaths than all other infectious diseases combined. That is why the work of the society is so important.

Dad: Well, I don't think WE need to worry much about TB. We're all healthy, live in a pretty good neighborhood, and you go to a nice school. The TB germ breeds mostly in unkept communities among people with poor economic backgrounds.

Mary: Oh no, Daddy! Anyone can catch TB, and it is contagious. Someone who already has the disease may pass it on in many ways, such as sneezing and coughing.

Dad: Well, what does this have to do with Christmas seals?

Mary: Every year, each local tuberculosis association sends Christmas seals through the mail to the people in their community. At least 84 per cent of the money derived is used in the state where it is raised. This money is used to finance the different efforts of the society to control TB; for instance, it sponsors approximately forty TB research programs which may eventually uncover new and better methods of curing the dreadful disease. The money is also used for the purpose of educating children and adults as to what tuberculosis really is and how it can be prevented.

Besides many specific projects, the organization has distributed thousands of educational pamphlets here in Franklin County, passed out reference materials and literature to schools, libraries, and doctors, and offered scholarships to teachers for the O.S.U. health educational workshop.

Dad: Well, Mary, you've certainly surprised me. It sounds as though you have thoroughly studied the subject, and I'm convinced that the TB society maintains a pretty worth while program—an expensive one, too.

Mary: That's only part of the story. One of the main functions of the Christmas Seal fund is to sponsor the TB X-ray cruiser. There was one at our school only last month. Since there are no early symptoms of tuberculosis, beginning cases can best be found by the chest X-ray. This is free and only takes a minute. It is estimated that by the end of this year approximately 90 000 persons in Franklin County alone will have been X-rayed, with around 3,500 chest ailments being discovered. It's a good idea for everyone 15 years of age or older to have a chest X-ray every year. Have you had yours yet.

Dad: Yes the cruiser was at the plant not long ago and we were all encouraged to get X-rayed. They told us it was free, but I figured the expense was taken care of by the money we pay out in taxes. I was wrong, though, and I realize now the necessity of the annual Christmas Seal sale to the TB Society.

Mary: I'm glad, Daddy, and I wish everyone knew the importance of his contribution. It is our responsibility and privilege to support the work of such a deserving organization so that in the future the society may accomplish even greater things in its fight to conquer the enemy, tuberculosis.

Your TB Society: It's Past And Future in TB Control
By Joan Haley
South High School

This meeting of the Tuberculosis Society of Columbus and Franklin County will come to order.

In going over some of the records in the basement, I came across this diary of a past member of the society. I would like to read it to you as it tells our story. (The diary is fiction—Edna Carver is an imaginary member of the original Tuberculosis Society of Columbus and Franklin County. The history is true—and perhaps there is in existence a similar diary.)

12-5-06

Dear Diary:

Today we met for the first time to organize the TB Society of Columbus and Franklin County. The meeting went very well and we felt, when the meeting was over, we had accomplished a lot. We set up our purpose, to prevent TB. We decided to sell memberships for $1.00 and $5.00, depending on where we live, and we elected Mrs. S. L. Black as our president.

12-20-06

Today the Society opened the first free clinic for TB victims. I hope we make a lot of progress. If only we had more and better equipment. One stethoscope won't do much good. We also saw about opening a TB summer camp where patients can go for treatment. Thewe seems to be so much to do. I wonder if we'll ever find a cure for this awful disease. It's so discouraging.

12-31-06

Today is the last day of the year. Our work seems to be progressing so slowly. Three hundred three people died of TB this year. Thank heavens, when summer comes we can open the camp.

3-10-07

Today was "Tuberculosis Sunday." The city's ministers let the society write their sermons and 10,000 leaflets were passed out.

(This page is 10 days later)

Today's meeting was really quite a success. We started the "Clean City League" for children and voted on putting anti-spitting placards on telephone poles in the city. I'm sure the "League" will be a big help in our work because it will teach children cleanliness. We've already given out 1,000 membership buttons.

7-5-07

Today was our first annual meeting. We need a hospital so badly—that was our main topic of discussion. We're going to call it "Ben Franklin TB Hospital" when we can get funds to build it.

(The next page jumps to 11-27-08)

Our first "Donation Day" was really a success. We collected quantities of fruits, flowers, clothes, etc., for the TB patients.

12-15-09

We had both good and bad news today. Our first Christmas Seal Sale netted $2,012. That was good! However, there are 699 new cases in Columbus in 397 houses —that's 1400 rooms that must be fumigated. That's bad.

(The next page takes up to Apr. 6,1910)

Mrs. Black told us today that we must fight these medicines that claim to help. They only harm the TB victims.

3-27-13

This month we have done a great deal for the TB victims. We not only opened an open-air school for TB children, but we hired an instructress to teach hygiene and prevention of TB in public and private schools.

6-12-16

Dear Diary:

Work is slowing down again. Today we hired a nurse to go house-to-house explaining prevention measures against TB.

(The next is three years later)

11-12-19

The "Modern Health Crusade" was launched today. It certainly should appeal to the children. They will be ranked "page," "squire," "knight" or "knight banneret." This should definitely help reduce TB among children because they'll take better care of themselves.

7-5-20

Oh, Diary, I'm so excited! Today we purchased, with the money from our Seal Sale, a new office. We have a clinic complete with X-ray.

1-2-24

We took another step forward today. We opened our dental clinic at the Society. I think this is a good thing for patients and their families.

(On the next two pages there were no dates except Sept., 1931, and then 1938.)

9-31

We finally opened Nightingale Cottage. The children put in there were from broken homes caused by TB. We hope within the next two years to have a county-wide program of anti-TB service developed.

1938

This, I feel, is really the beginning. The Child Welfare Committee of the Forty of Eight, the American Legion, and its Ladies' Auxiliary presented us with a "mobile tuberculosis clinic." It's a house trailer equipped with a fluoroscope.

1944

Now! Not only do we have X-ray at the society, but today we bought a portable one.

1952

I think today we hired the most important person in our program. We now have a full time rehabilitation consultant to help patients readjust when they are dismissed from "Ben Franklin."

1955

Another expense! Will they never quit piling up? Today we outfitted the city jail, no less, with our old portable X-ray equipment, and we're paying all expenses for chest checks there.

12-55

I become discouraged. So far this year we've given 60,000 free X-rays and found 681 new cases. There have been only 37 deaths, though, and that's consoling. And with all the work there is to be done, we must spend $26,000 for a new X-ray cruiser. The one we bought in 1952 is still good, but one just isn't enough to take care of all the people. I really don't regret spending the money, but $36,000 is so much and it's so hard to raise that much money.

(This is the last entry in the diary.)

2-2-56

We dedicated the new X-ray cruiser at City Hall today—the $26,000 one. It's going to do so much good, I don't know why I ever felt discouraged. I just know things are going to go better now. I'd better get my X-ray tomorrow. When you reach my age, you can't be too careful. I haven't had one for about two years. Everyone should have one every year but I just haven't had the time. I'll get one tomorrow for sure."

Ironic

It certainly seems ironic that someone who worked so hard fighting TB should die of that very disease. I was sure that you would like to hear some of the contents from Mrs. Carver's diary as it shows the work done by the society over the past 50 years. Not only that, it shows just how much work there is to be done in the future. Ie we could only prove to people how important it is to have that chest X-ray! It takes so little time, just a few minutes, and it may save a life. If Mrs. Carver had taken the time to have her X-ray, perhaps this diary would have been quite a bit longer.

Maybe, through Mrs. Carver's case, we can show the American people how much work there is to be done. We have a long way to go to find a cure for TB. There is no completely successful vaccine against it and there are only three "wonder" drugs that can be used. We can show people the four steps used in controlling TB — case finding, treatment rehabilitation, and education- but this takes money. To find the cases, we must X-ray. This and treatment—rest, medicine, surgery, and good food -- are what really diminishes our funds. In rehabilitating the patient we have to help him adjust to the treatment and then, when he is cured, adjust to community life. A good thing to remember is a rehabilitated person becomes a tax-payer rather than a tax-consumer. We're doing all we can in educating the people by sending out booklets, leaflets pamphlets, etc.; and yet even this takes money, so it all adds up to the fact that the people must be shown just how expensive it is. Since the Christmas Seal Sale was started, the TB death rate has been cut by 90 per cent but still TB kills more people than all other contagious diseases combined. If only people realized that it takes from $14,000 to $15,000 for ONE patient and that part of this money comes from taxes, I'm sure that we could get big ger contributions from our Christmas Seal Sale. There are still 250.000 unknown cases of Tuberculosis in the United States, and it's up to us to find them.

And so, fellow members, let's now concentrate on finding a bigger and better way to push our Christmas Seal Sale. Do I hear any suggestions from the floor?

Ohio is the second largest manufacturing state in the nation. It is surpassed only by New York, according to Ohio State University extension economists.

Central, Mr. Everything, Scuttle Our Bulldogs

by Bob Goldstein

Central High's scrappy Pirates eeked out a 63-62 pulse beater over the highly favored South Bulldogs last Friday night at Central.

Sparked by the brilliant floor play of guards Clarence Readout and Jerry Cook, the Bucs continually kept the pressure on the taller visitors. The hosts led throughout the whole game except for a brief spell in the second period. The Pirates set up a smoke screen defense for Bulldog Captain George Devlin and held him to surprising two points in the first half. However, Devlin came back to add 13 markers in the last half, but it was not enough to catch the aggressive Buccaneers.

Senior center Don Dicke and sophomore guard Ken Fowler took up the obviously missing scoring punch with 12 and 22 points respectively. Fowler stole an errant Central pass to tally the game's first points and give South fans a false sense of security.

Punctured

Cook and Readout punctured the Bulldog defenses by sizzling the nets from 30 to 40 feet out.

Readout, Central's Mr. Everything, did the most harm with 8 very timely baskets, although Cook was the Bucco's high point man with 23 points.

Trailing 52 to 42 the Bulldogs put on their latest and traditional fourth quarter surge. With the Pirates holding a 63-58 margin, the Southerners fought back to within one point on Don Dicke's two foul shots, and a basket by Devlin. However Central had the all-important desire to win and easily stalled out the remaining time. The defeat left the Bulldogs winless for the young cage season.

First Home Game

Tommorow night the Bulldogs will play their first home game of the cage season. West's Cowboys will provide the formidable opposition and they possess a fast break type style of play led by sharpshooting guard Ken Clappsaddle. At the beginning of the season, South's cagers could have been looking past the West game to next week's game with East, but now the Bulldogs must play one game at a time.

Hamilton Cage Schedule Set

The Hamilton Township High School basketball schedule for the present season has been announced as follows: Dec. 4, New Albany, here; Dec. 7, Gahanna, league game, there; Dec. 14, Dublin, league game, there; Dec. 21, Reynoldsburg, league game, here; Jan. 4, Eastmoor, here; Jan. 8, Ashville, here; Jan. 11, Canal Winchester, league game, there; here; Jan. 4, Eastmoor, here; Jan. 18, Marion-Franklin, league game here; Jan. 22, University, there; Jan. 25, New Albany, league game, there; Feb. 11, Groveport, league game, here; Feb. 8, Mifflin, league game, there; Feb. 12, Marion-Franklin, there; Feb. 15, Whitehall, league game, there; Feb. 19, Eastmoor, there.

Fornoff Gets 'Chief' Post

Colonel Russell W. Tarvin, commander of the 9104th Air Reserve Group, has announced the appointment of Lt. Col. William R. Fornof as group executive officer.

Colonel Fornof was commissioned a second lieutenant upon completion of ROTC at Ohio State University. After attending pilot training school, he was sent to the China-Burma-India Theater of operations, where he flew 100 combat missions. While overseas, he served as commander of a tactical reconnaissance squadron and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross with two oak leaf clustres, as well as the air medal.

Since his separation from the service, he has been associated with Peter Fornof and Son Greenhouse in the South Side. Colonel Fornof is married and resides at 103 Fornof-rd with his wife and three children. He is a member of both the Rotary International and the Masons.

Lift Up Your Voice And Shout With Joy! His Name Shall Be Called Wonderful, Mighty Everlasting Prince Of Peace

Bethlehem . . a Holy spot . . . there it was that events of eternity-reaching proportions occurred, as: . . . "While he (Joseph) thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost . . . and she shall BRING FORTH A SON, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins . . . Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us . . . and Herod called the wise men and asked where the Child should be born . . . and learned that it was to be in Bethlehem of Judea . . . and Herod sent them to find the Child . . . and he sent them to Bethlehem in the land of Juda . . . and lo the star which they they had opened their sacks they and came and stood over where the young Child lay . . . and when they were come into the stable where Mary lay, they behold the Child, with Mary . . . and they worshipped the Child and when the had opened their sacks they presented gifts unto him, gold and Frankincense and myrrh." And so it was that the first Christmas dawned, although the beauty of it was long dawning upon the consciousness of mankind. But, now "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" reverberates in our hearts, as it has through the ages, making "Merry Christmas" of greater significance then those around the Bethlehem Manger could readily understand. They had only hope for the future. We have their "future" materialized in our lives. We are inheriters of this wonderful day.

Leader Newsboys Bundles Are Missing Recently

A few bundles of South Side Leaders have been stolen in recent weeks after having been placed in regular weekly bundle drops in the South Side.

The pattern of the loss of these bundles of papers leads the Leader Circulation Department to believe that the same persons are involved each week.

The South Side Leader will pay $25 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person tampering with these newspapers.

Anyone having such information is asked to contact Jack Schluep at BR. 9-9444.

C. R. Battin Ends Coaching

Clyde R. Battin, basketball and baseball coach at Roosevelt Junior High School since 1946 will retire from active coaching on January 1, Harold R. Washburn, principal of the school, has announced.

Principal Washburn said that Battin will remain at Roosevelt and teach industrial arts on a full-time basis.

Irvin F. Young, assistant superintendent in charge of personnel, previously said that he would recommend a replacement for Battin to the board of education at its Dec. 18 meeting.

Battin, an alumnus of Ohio University, joined the Columbus public schools in 1935 after teaching at Sandusky, New Boston, and Middleport. He coached football and baseball at South for 11 years. He became a member of the Roosevelt faculty in 1946

Battin lives at 5876 Dublin-rd.

Business Dating From 97 Years Ago On Market

Much history of national importance had not been made when R. H. Erlenbusch opened a store at 456 S. High-st, back in 1859. The Civil War, or War Between the States, had not begun, Abraham Lincoln had not been elected, and the struggling American industry had not yet caught the imagination of men as it would a few years after the war.

Times change and habits change, which is the reason the store which has been operated for 97 years under the same name is now offered for sale, according to Miss Florence K. Erlenbusch, granddaughter of the founder of the business in September, 1859.

The store was taken over by the son of the founder at the latter's death, and again it was taken over by children of the deceased. This time the business passed to Miss Erlenbusch along with her brothers, the late R. H. Erlenbusch and C. J. Erlenbusch.

The now-to-be-sold business was the first in Columbus to operate as an ice-cream store. In latter times, it was said, the store has operated as a combined tea room and bakery, with regular luncheons through the week and full dinners on Sundays.

In earlier days the store had a wide deputation for its candy, but this was discontinued a number of years ago.

Miss Erlenbusch is expected to retire when the business is sold.

'Memories Of Manger'

Rev. Boyd C. Rife, pastor, Washington Evangelical United Brethren Church, has announced a Christmas cantata entitled "Memories Of The Manger" this Sunday evening at 7:30.

The presentation, it was said, will be made by the church choir.

Legion Post Plays Santa To 450 Kids

Southway Post No. 144 American Legion, Sunday evening, played host to a group of 450 children in a pre-Christmas party. The program included the singing of Christmas carols, a Christmas presentation by Harold Gall, followed by several Christmas films

The big event of the evening, for the little people, then followed—the appearance of Santa Claus, who was given a standing ovation as soon as he entered the room.

Much comment was heard concerning the decoration of the post home, an anuual occurence, a member of the organization said.

Each child approached Santa and received a bag of fruit and candy, and a present.

Sherick Treats Kids Today

One hundred and sixty-eight children from Fayette, Pickaway and Union County orphan homes and St. Vincent's Orphanage, will be guests of Jack Sherick Dance Studios at a dinner in the Town and Country Room of the Neil House today

There will be entertainment during the dinner, followed by gift presentations. Each child is receiving a gift valued at $10, Jack Sherick announced. When gifts have been distributed, the children, ranging in ages from six to 18 years, will visit the Palace Theater.

With The Churches At Yule Season

Yule Program Friday, 7:30

Tomorrow (Friday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock, a Christmas comedy, "A Pioneer Christmas," will be presented by the youth department of the Whittier Street Community Church, 281 E. Whittier-st. Directors are Miss Jeanette Adams and Mrs. Kitty Webb. Playing the major characters are Miss Caroline Bondurant, Miss Maeve Doddroe, Miss Josephine Lowery, Miss Lottie Clarkson, Miss Judy Lowery, Arlie Adams, Larry Sopher, Miss Barbara McGraw and David Bondurant.

Sunday morning at 9:45 the primary department of the Sunday school will have a short program, and the church choir will sing. Following this program the family worship service will be held at 10:45. The 28-voice youth choir, under the direction of Jerry Hamler, will sing.

Martin Luther Evangelical Yule Services

Christmas Eve services will be held at Martin Luther Evangelical Church at 7:30 p.m. Monday, when a cantata, "The Story of Silent Night," will be presented by the junior choir. At 9 p.m. there will be a German Christmas service.

Regular services will be the order this Sunday, the pastor, Rev. Henry Oestreich, announced. The pastor's subject at the two morning services Sunday will be "I will raise them up a prophet."

A Christmas Day service will be held in German at 10 a.m. Tuesday morning.

A Christmas Prayer

By Rev. J. Marsalko, Pastor
Hungarian E&R Church

O God, for Whose advent Thy weary world has waited long, come unto us that we wait not in vain. In the past Thou hast surely come. Thou hast come in the foreseeing vision of the prophets; in the Word made flesh; in the birth of the Divine Child; in the downfall of sinful empires; in the rising of freedom-hungry people; in Heaven-lit thoughts, ideas that have stirred the world's imagination; in the dawning sense of brotherhood to soften the hardness of man's heart.

Today, come unto us, our world that walks in the shadowy twilight of an uncertain peace. Come as uplifting hope to the suffering people of Hungary who bleeding from thousands of wounds weep over the ruins of freedom, whose tears sprinkle many new graves with the rain of sorrow, whose joy has turned into mourning, who cannot see the star of Bethlehem because of the shadow of the Cross on which hangs crucified their hope. Grant them to see the Light that has led the Shepherds, the Wise Men, and the Ages and Generations into the happy valley of salvation.

Come as strengthening power to this nation that its leaders entrusted with the building of our national future may always follow Thy guiding light; that its people entrusted with the wealth of this blessed land may always obey Thy commandment, "love thy neighbor as thyself."

Come, O come, Uplifting Hope, Enlightening Wisdom, Strengthening Power, our Lord, Saviour! We wait for Thee; we wish for Thee; we hope for Thee. Grant that Thy birth may cause the new birth of Humanity and the world to be Thine favorite lodging place. Amen.

St. Paul's Yule Plans Are Told

With its chancel decorated with sparkling Christmas trees and a Nativity scene, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 322 Stewart-av, is ready to celebrate the anniversary of the Saviour's birth. On Friday, Dec. 21, at 10 a.m., the Christian kindergarten will present its Christmas program. On Sunday, Dec. 23, the pastor, Rev. John O. Lang, will speak at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on "Adopted Children."

A class will be received into membership by confirmation at the 10.30 service and Holy Communion will be celebrated. On Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Sunday school will present its program. Services will be held on Christmas Eve at 10:45 p.m. and on Christmas Day at 9:30 a.m. There will be special music by the junior and senior choirs at the Christmas Eve service.

Shower Of Gifts At St. Leo PTA

Santa Claus will visit St. Leo's PTA this Thursday evening, Dec. 20, at 8 o'clock, bringing a shower of gifts for the Sisters, lay teachers, janitors and priests of the parish and distributing a treat to all parents attending the meeting Parents are to bring a child's toy for distribution by St. Vincent's de Paul Society.

Christmas carols and general visitation will complete the evening's entertainment, according to Mrs. Doris Shaffer, HI. 3-3932.

Mission To Have Christmas Party

Mrs. William Sparks has announced that there will be a Christmas program Tuesday evening at the Sunshine Mission, 116 Barthman-av, when children will receive treats. The program, "The Three Gifts," is scheduled to start at 7:30, it was stated. The mission is, also, arranging the distribution of baskets for Christmas, Mrs. Sparks said, adding that this is an annual event.

Mrs. Margaret Filman is instructor and Rev. Walter Shoaf is pastor of the group.

Bringing Gifts Is Timely

The regular monthly meeting of the Altar-Rosary Society of St. Ladislaus Parish will be held this Thursday evening, Dec. 20. It will open with Rosary in the chapel at 7 p.m.

A feature of the meeting will be the bringing of a gift by each member for a patient in the State Hospital.

Yule Topics

St. John's Evangelical Protestant Church, Arthur R. Detwiler, pastor, morning topic, 9 and 10:30 a.m., "Put Christ in Christmas." Dec. 24, Christmas Eve, 8 p.m., "The Light Shineth."

Barrett Has Nine Real 'Honor' Students – All 'A'

The Honored Nine

'57 Baby Derby To Pay Prizes

Each expectant mother in the South Side Leader area whose delivery time is thought to be about the first of January, should be on the alert so a record can be made of the moment of birth, and delivered to the Leader immediately afterward, or during the first day following birth.

This is the annual South Side Leader first-baby contest, and Publisher C. C. Hartley authorized its continuance again this year.

The rules are simple: The first baby born in the area after the stroke of midnight's sending the old year away will win the first of three prizes to be offered by the Leader. The exact minute and second of the birth will be necessary to qualify for the first, second, or third prize. The office of the Leader should be notified as early after the birth as possible, but not later than Wednesday, Jan. 2. The time of birth, the exact second of birth, will determine the winners of the three prizes. Hospital records will be the basis of determing the order of prize winners.

Further information will be published in next week's issue of the South Side Leader.

Lions Hear School Group

A 40-voice girls' choral group entertained members of the Southeast Lions Club at their annual Christmas party at the Fiesta Club last Tuesday During the weekly luncheon meeting and the Christmas celebration. Members joined in several songs, and solos were sung by President Ed Findley, Vice-president Frank Neubeck, and Fritz Kreutz, who also sang "Silent Night" in German The invocation was given by Rev. Paul C. Kaefer of St. Paul E&R Church.

Emmanuel Lutheran

Schedule of Christmas services, Emmanuel Lutheran Church, in Christmas week: Sunday, Dec. 23: Advent service at 8 and 10:30 a.m. Subject of sermon "Triumph in the Struggle"; children's services, at Lincoln Park at 2 p.m., at Emmanuel Church at 4 p.m.

Monday, Dec. 24, annual candlelight service at 11 p.m. Subject of sermon, "Let Us Recapture True Christmas Joy." Special anthems by the youth and senior choirs.

Banquet Sunday Designed To Observe 50th Anniversary, Hungarian Society

Local Hungarians are in the process of officially recognizing the fiftieth anniversary of the Reformed Aid Society. A committee of seven members is in charge of arranging the celebration, which culminates Sunday, Dec. 23, in a banquet at Saxon Hall, 323 Woodrow-av. The banquet will start at 12:30 p.m., according to the program.

The same group of men had built the Hungarian Reformed Church at Washington and Woodrow-sts and now they decided to organize an "aid" society for the Hungarian people.

The newly organized society provided a plan whereby members could realize $175 for funeral expenses, and, also, a sick benefit plan whereby a member could avoid destitution in event of sickness.

Music and interesting speakers are promised for the banquet Sunday.

Pennsy Club Yule Party On Dec. 21

The Pennsy Family Club, composed of Pennsylvania Railroad employes and their families, will hold the annual Christmas party at Central High School at 7:30 p.m., Friday, Dec. 21, it has been announced

Santa Claus will be glad to see the children, it was said and will have something for everyone. Entertainment will be provided by the Jack Sherick Dancers, according to the program.

Christmas Party

On Monday, Dec. 17, the Hamilton Township High School band had a Christmas party for all band members and their dates. The party was held at the South Side Y-Park in the lodge. Jim Wagner called for the square dances. There was also round dancing and jitterbugging, the school reporter said.

Shooting Death Held Justifiable

Justifiable homicide was ruled Monday by Dr. Robert A. Evans, coroner, in the fatal shooting early Saturday of Charles Austin Brown, Jr., 19, of 291 S. Champion-av, by Patrolman Ray S. Keith.

Brown was shot through the head as he fled a stolen car in the 400 block of E. Spring-st. Keith said he had followed the car several blocks and radioed for assistance in halting it when Brown became suspicious and jumped from the auto while it was still rolling.

Brown was felled by one shot from the officer's gun as he attempted to flee between two houses. Dr. Evans said the officer was performing his duty.

Christmas Party Friday At Schiller Recreation

The annual Christmas party will be held tomorrow at 4 o'clock at Schiller Recreation Center. The program will include a repeat performance of the play "Bobby and Betty in the Toyshop."

This play met with such success last Friday evening that it is being repeated so that all boys and girls 12 years of age and under will have an opportunity of seeing it. Also, at this party, immediately after the play, Santa Claus will make a brief appearance at Schiller, to see all the boys and girls who attend, and to make a last minute check-up on his list of desires of his young friends.

On Monday the center will be open from 12 noon to 5 p.m., but, the building will be closed Tuesday, Dec. 25. It will be open at noon Wednesday through Friday and from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturday.

The craft room will be open every day from now on until Christmas, and James Campbell, the new craft teacher, will be on hand to help all boys and girls finish any gift item which has been started.

Ohio Ave. EUB Church Has Yule Program For Sunday

The cantata, "The Wondrous Story," by Richard Koontz, will be presented Sunday at both morning worship services at Ohio Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, 1013 S. Ohio-av. Miss Elizabeth Moore will direct the Chancel Choir in this presentation at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. Miss Arlene Abshire will serve as organist.

Rev. Glendon Herbert, minister, will preach at 10:30 on the topic "The Man Who Missed Christmas." Robert Long, a member of the church and a student at Evangelical Theological Seminary at Napervile, Ill., is expected to speak at the 8:30 service. Baptism of children will take place in both services.

The Sunday school will meet at 9:30 a.m. with classes for all ages. John Wine is the superintendent. The Senior Youth Fellowship group will meet at 6:30 p.m. to go caroling.

Christmas Eve worship will be at 11 p.m. It will be a service of carols and candles, with a sermon on the topic "Music and Mercy."

Christmas Program Is Set At South Church

Children of the church school of the South Church of Christ, Woodrow and Bruck-st, will present their Christmas program this Friday evening at 7:30. At the close of the service two films will be shown dealing with the land of Jesus' birth and with the religion of His parents.

There will be special Christmas music at the Sunday worship service at 10 o'clock. The minister, C. D. Mulkin, will use as his theme, "Make Room For Jesus." At 7:30 p.m. the annual Christmas candlelight service will be held, which will include special music by the church choir, a solo by Miss Shirley Evans, new director of the choir, and a member of the Symphonic Choir at Ohio State University, and a drama to be presented by the Christian Youth Fellowship under the direction of the group sponsor, Mrs. Jay Large. An informal carol sing and social hour will be held immediately following the candlelight service in the social room of the church.

FAST WORK

Yes, Leader classified ads work fast. J. E. Cornfield, 942 S. 22nd-st, discovered this fact last week. He had a tilt-back chair not needed any more, advertised it in the Leader, and sold it Thursday morning shortly after the paper was delivered. Try it, won't you? Call HI. 4-9262.

Christmas Week Issue To Be Late

A different publication date, and earlier advertising and news copy deadline times will be observed next week, because of the Christmas holiday.

The Hilltop Record will be delivered to subscribers on Thursday, Dec. 27, instead of on Wednesday.

In order that all employees of this newspaper will be "home for Christmas," our office will be closed during the long holiday week-end, Saturday noon, Dec. 22 until Wednesday morning.

All pictures, display advertising copy and early news copy intended for next week's issue should be in our office before noon on Saturday. Classified advertising and late news developments will be accepted until 5 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 26.

Gahanna Wins

On December 7, Hamilton Township's basketball team dropped its third game in four starts to a strong Gahanna-Lincoln five, 69 to 43, on the winner's floor.

Hamilton's Rangers stayed with the tall Gahanna team until the third quarter, when the Lions pulled away, with Jack Pegler and Willard Jakeway leading the scoring.

Pegler finished with 20 points to take the scoring honors for the night. Wayne Sharron and Ed Tucker hit 14 and 12 points respectively for the losers. — Wayne Arthur Sharron.

White Pine Disappears From State Hospital Site

The Columbus State Hospital is missing one 18-foot white pine, thanks to the neat sawing and quiet exit of an apparent Christmas tree thief.

The tree, one of five white pines standing in a group about 50 yards from the nurses' home, was accessible through an open gate, day or night.

Hospital authorities are investigating the theft and night watchmen are keeping a close watch over the other four trees.

Masking the Truth

"Sir, my wife said I was to ask you for a raise."

"Good. I'll ask my wife if I may give you one."

Birthdays that were last week's events include those of Herb Weisenberger, 284 Southwood-av, who had a Dec. 12 birth date, and Marcella Dixon, 253 E. Gates-st, who became a full-fledged teenager on Dec. 14.

Quite a few young people around this area knew the former Donna Mae Arick quite well, so will be interested in learning that she is now the mother of a baby boy, born Dec. 7. For anyone desiring to send congratulatory cards, the address is Mr. and Mrs. James Mitton, 423 E. Fourth-av, Greenville, O. Donna's husband is a state highway patrolman, incidentally.

A Dec. 22 wedding date will be that of Nellilu Schmitt and Walter Minnick. Both of the young folks are associated with the Ohio Union, and Mr. Minnick is a student at OSU as well. Nellilu's folks are residents of 168 E. Mithoff-st.

PTA's past and present . . . Deshler School held its meeting yesterday at 1:30, with the children of the school presenting a Christmas program. Today, two schools are holding PTA meetings: St. Leo and Roosevelt, Jr. High. St. Leo members will begin their meeting at 8 p.m. Santa Claus will bring a shower of gifts fo the Sisters, teachers, janitor and priests of the parish and distribute a treat to all attending parents. Christmas carols and visitation will complete the evening's activities. Roosevelt PTA members will convene at 2 this afternoon and the student body of the school will furnish the entertainment.

Last Monday evening, the Boy Scouts of South Methodist church celebrated the holiday season with a Christmas party.

Ailing members of the community at this time are Marie Ridgeway, 1749 S. Fifth-st, who has been hospitalized in Mt. Carmel; Ben Williams (of Southwood Market) 229 Southwood-av; Billy Warner, 836 Wager-st, who has been very ill with pneumonia; and Pat Stewart, 242 Jenkins-av. O, yeh, little Pam Wolford, 1311 Parsons-av, has been confined with chicken pox.

Group B, OSU, Mothers Club, met this past Tuesday, at 1 p.m. for their annual Christmas party and gift exchange. Hostess was Mrs. Herman Harrison, 1352 S. Ohio-av. Assisting Mrs. Harrison were the Mesdames Frank Daugherty, Paul Arn, and Clarence Dolby. Program for the meeting was the reading of a Christmas story by Mrs. Lee Gamble and carol singing. Music for the singing was furnished by Mrs. E. C. Myers, accordionist.

The Camp Fire Girls of South Methodist Church will hold a Council Fire at the church on Dec. 22, at 7:30 p.m. This group is the Akaza Tonda.

Didn't get a chance to check with Helen Branscome to get all the details, but the word is that her son, Charles, will be home in time for Christmas. If so, we know he'll be very happy to hear from all his friends. The Branscomes reside at 1789 Goethe-st.

The Helping Hand Class of Gates Fourth Methodist Church met at the church for a covered-dish meal at 6:30 p.m., last Tuesday. A Christmas celebration was the main business on the agenda.

We told you last week of the illness of Mary Leist's mother . . . Well, now it is her dad who is hospitalized in Mt. Carmel, perhaps facing surgery. Mr. Von Buskirk is the gentleman's name should you want to remember him with a card.

The Maree Social Club of Southern Way Chapter will meet for a Christmas luncheon today at 12:30. The 1956 officers will be the hostesses.

Co. C of the Police Auxiliary has adopted two families, and will underwrite their Christmas joy this year. Really swell!

The little ones will occupy the stage at most churches this Sunday. Would love to list them all, but we can't write about things we don't know about, so we'll say we DO know about the one at Southwood Church of Christ this Sunday at 7:30.

We'll touch briefly on this item this week, and expound a little more fully next time. The Intermediate MYF of South Methodist Church is sponsoring a New Year's eve party, open to all the young folks of the community. We'll tell you all about it next week.

You wonderful, wonderful readers! We've far exceeded our hopes in the "Gifts for Giving" project we've been telling you about for the past several weeks. The patients at the San will get to remember at least one member of their family with a nice little something which your warm-heartedness made possible, and the way that the items were coming in early this week, we may even be able to make it two items per patient! From the bottom of my heart, thanks a million! These kind-hearted people go on today's list of contributors: Lillian Ryan, Mabel Diday, Jerri Ross, Mrs. Ferguson, Grace and Shirley McCaffrey, Lona Itskin, the Friendship of Ohio Avenue EUB Church, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Carl Weaver's group of Camp Fire Girls, Christian Service Guild of Washington Avenue EUB Church, the Horizon Club, Be-Hi-Go, under leadership of Lillion Skobrak and Essie Buller, Mrs. Alban, Louise Spohn, and Southwood Church of Christ Primary Department, under leadership of Eleanor Jones. We are just thrilled to pieces!

Guess that finishes our news items for this week and we hope this is the healthiest, merriest Christmas ever in your home. (If not, let's hope the new year will help to bring about a change for the better!) So, from our house to yours—

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Call-O'Hara Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Call, 1293 S. Fourth-st, announce the engagement of their daughter, Donna Jayne, to Mr. Donald D. O'Harra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory B. O'Harra of Lockbourne.

The bride-elect is a graduate of South High School and is associated with the Columbus Mutual Life Insurance Co. Mr. O'Harra is a graduate of Hamilton Township High School and is a civilian employe of the Ohio Air National Guard at Lockbourne Air Force Base.

The open-church wedding will be an event of Mar. 2 in Washington Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Legion Aux

Mrs. Ollie F. Goodall, publicity chairman, has announced that Southway Unit No. 144, American Legion Auxiliary, will hold its business and social meeting at the post home, 874 S. High-st, Friday, Dec. 21, at 8 p.m. Mrs. John Joyce will be the presiding officer.

The evening will close with Santa Claus making his annual arrival with a gift exchange.

Refreshment chairman is Marie Hanf and co-chairman is Blanche Klein.

Mrs. Goodall stated that this is the last chance to bring your canned goods for the Christmas baskets for the less fortunate.

Misspelled Word Contest Near End

The fourth week winner in the misspelled word contest was Mrs. W. A. Seitz of 483 Morrill-av. The fifth week winner was Mrs. Leo Lyons of 452 Innis-av. The winners have been notified and will soon collect their $25 Confederate money, which may be spent in any store participating in the contest.

LAST WEEK

This is the last week of the contest and so that the prize money will be presented before Christmas, the contest deadline is changed to Saturday noon of this week. The winner will be announced in next week's Leader. Santa Claus will make his rounds of the stores in a new Chevrolet from Bobb Chevrolet and will spend a half hour at each store, four stores on Thursday and four stores on Friday. The hours are listed in the advertisement on page five. Take the kids to see Santa and enter the contest. You may win one of the nightly prizes of $10 Confederate money given away at each store.

Barrett Yule Assembly To Be Followed By Holiday Recess

Barrett Junior High School is holding "pay" and "gift" assemblies at 9:00 and 10:00 this morning (Thursday).

Entertainer Bob Wood is giving a "chalk talk," using special chalk and special lighting. This event is open to all the pupils at Barrett. Admission is by gifts of canned goods taken at the auditorium door. Tickets can be purchased for cash, and these also can be used. The canned goods will be put at the disposal of South Side Christmas charitable efforts.

The Barrett Christmas assembly will be held in the Barrett auditorium tomorrow, Friday morning. The combined efforts of the orchestra, glee clubs, and the 9B dramatics class will be in this assembly, it was stated.

The school will be dismissed Friday afternoon for the Christmas and New Year holidays, and will reopen Tuesday morning, Jan. 2.

Schiller Crafts

The Arts and Craft room at Schiller Center is open every day from 3:30 to 6 p.m. James Campbell, the new craft teacher, welcomes all boys and girls in the afternoons and will hold classes for adults in the evening.

Some of the articles being made include Christmas gifts, such as pot holders, place cards, and sets of bells which may be hung on the door to announce guests by their merry tinkle. Many decorations for the home and for the tree are being made in these craft classes also.

Everyone of all ages is welcome to learn or to introduce new ideas to the group, the instructor said.

No 'Tardy' Fines

Patrons of the Columbus Public Library will enjoy up to three days of "fine-free" reading over both the Christmas and New Year's holidays. The library system will be closed all day Monday, Dec. 24, resuming regular hours on Wednesday, Dec. 26. It will be closed Monday, Dec. 31, reopening Wednesday, Jan. 2. No overdue charges are levied on Sundays or other days on which the library is closed.

South Hi-Y and Y Teens To Distribute Baskets

By Patty Trumps

Baskets of food will be distributed to about 550 needy families tomorrow by students of South High School. Due to the efforts of Hi-Y, Y-Teens, and other students at South, these families will enjoy a Christmas dinner they would not otherwise be able to afford.

The South Side Settlement House supplied descriptions of the various families which were then distributed by the twn groups before mentioned to the registration rooms, each of which filled a basket with meat, vegetables, fruit, canned foods, cakes, and candies. These baskets, some of which contain money and Christmas cards with the names of contributors, are now gaily decorated, awaiting delivery.

Many letters of thanks have been received for baskets we have given in the past. These letters carried the senders' sincere appreciation and stressed the fact that their Christmas was made happier for them because of the efforts of the students at South. Approximately $1200 was given for the food that was donated last year, according to Rodney Kolb, Hi-Y adviser.

Musical History Recalled By Photo Of 'Hoermle' Band, '30

There are believed to be a number of adult mhsicians in the South Side who helped to form the photograph presented above. Of course, they do not look now as they looked eary in the 1930's, a fact which Bill Hoermle, Sr., of Hoermie's Appliances, called to our attention. He stands at the extreme right. The group in the Boys' Band shown were boys from the neighborhood, organized as a civic enterprise, with, at far left, J. D. Denney, who was bandmaster and instructor of the budding musicians. Mr. Denney is deceased. The picture was taken about 1930.

Co-Captains Named For S. High Football Squad

Dave Vargo — Jerry Hill

By Patty Trumps

Jerry Hill and Dave Vargo were named co-captains of South High School's 1957 football team in a recent assembly in South's auditorium. The boys, both juniors, were chosen for their scholastic records as well as their standing in sports.

The audience showed its approval by applause as the boys' predecessors, Tom Main and Jack Silcott, selected Hill and Vargo from a group of members of the football team assembled on the stage, and escorted the two to the microphone.

Other members of the team were also given awards on the basis of game participation. Those receiving their third awards were Ron Allen and George Devlin, seniors. Second awards were merited by seniors, Jack Silcott, Tom Main, John Foster, Jim Hilty, Bob Ruh, Rudy Wiegerig, Tom Woodyard; juniors, Dave Vargo, Hal Ward, and Alan Weinberg. Those receiving their first award were seniors Sam Traikovich, Greg Cook, James Foulk, Charles Sherfey, Darryl Sutorius, Bill Wentzel, Jerry Hill, junior; Tom Boles, Doug Childers, and Paul Waters, sophomores.

Man Sues For $102,794 In Auto Accident

A damage suit in the sum of $102,794 was filed in Common Pleas Court last Saturday against John M. Lemaster, 552 Vermont-pl.

The action was taken by Neal Hunley, 191 Reeb-av, who contended he suffered damages in that amount as result of a traffic accident last April 27.

Hunley charged Lemaster was driving while intoxicated when he struck Hunley's parked car on Sullivant-av.

Hunley asked $100,000 damages and said the balance represents hospital expenses, lost wages, and damages to his own automobile.

Letters To The Editor

Southside Leader,
1542 Parsons-av,
Columbus, O.

The drive for funds for retarded children ended on Nov. 30 We sincerely appreciate the response of the people in the community for their generous giving and the help given by 7000 campaign workers in Franklin County.

Excellent news coverage by the Southside Leader helped tremendously in calling community attention to the needs of the retarded children and the work done by the Council for Retarded Children, Inc.

The board, as a result of the drive, approved the opening of four new classes at the Mt. Vernon School. Funds from the drive will support these classes, provide needed playground equipment for retarded children at state institutions, and provide some support for national research in the field of mental retardation.

Sincerely,
J. Brewster Holding,
President,
Retarded Children, Inc.

Sgt. F. Thompson Commands Tank

Army Sgt. 1 c Fred Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, 1327 S. High-st, recently participated in a field training exercise with the 11th Airborne Division's 76th Tank Battalion in Germany.

A tank commander with the battalion's Company A, Sgt. Thompson entered the Army in 1950 and was stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky., before arriving in Europe in February of this year.

Food fats and oils supplies in the marketing year beginning October 1 will be about as large as in 1955-56.

Local Man Is In Korea

Pfc. Malcolm G. McFarland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. McFarland, 1648 Wilson-rd, is a member of the Seventh Infantry Division in Korea

A squad leader in Company F of the division's 31st Regiment, McFarland entered the Army in September, 1955 and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. He attended Ohio State University.

In Maneuvers

Army Specialist Third Class Robert E. Coulson, whose wife, Elva Jean, lives at 584 Hanford-st, recently participated in "Sabre Knot," a field training exercise with V Corps and Seventh Army in Germany.

Specialist Coulson is a cook in Company C of the 37th Engineer Group's 299th Battalion. He entered the Army in July 1954 and arrived in Europe the following December.

The 22-year-old soldier is a 1952 graduate of Gallia Academy High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar M. Coulson, Route 2, Gallipolis.

Schools Given Official Names

The Hamilton Local Board of Education at a Dec. 3 meeting selected official names for two new elementary schools in the district.

The recently completed 16-room elementary building adjacent to the Hamilton Township High School was named Hamilton Central. At present it houses 458 elementary pupils, including 60 seventh-grade overflow from the high school.

The more recently completed elementary building located near the Lockbourne Air Force Base was named Hamilton South. This building is now housing 340 elementary pupils in the first six grades.

In selection of the names Hamilton Central and Hamilton South, consideration was given to identification of the district and the position of the building within the district.

The word Hamilton identifies the district and the words Central and South identify the location within the district.

BEST CHRISTMAS POSSIBLE!

The Christmas Bureau of the Council of Social Agencies is set up to give needy families in this area the best Christmas possible by coordinating the efforts of donors, fund-raising groups and health, recreation and welfare agencies. The bureau is located at 137 E. State-st, phone CA 8-4700.

Vehicles Pile Up, 8 Persons Injured

Eight persons of this area were injured when a tractor-trailer truck rammed the rear of a car, forcing it into the back of a pick-up truck Sunday.

The accident, in which the car was demolished, happened on the S. High-st viaduct. Taken to Mercy Hospital for treatment were: Harold Aisle, 37, New Rome; Harold T. Aisle, 15; Samuel L. Aisle, 1 month, all of whom suffered possible injuries of the neck and back; Alvereta Aisle, 36, injured right shoulder; Mary M. Aisle, 10, bruised scalp; Helen E. Baer, 26, Grove City; Gerald Baer, 31, and Florence D. Baer, 6, all suffering possible injuries to the neck.

Police said the tractor-trailer rig, driven by Walter Divinney of Pennsylvania, rammed into the Aisle car forcing it into the rear of the Baer pickup truck. Divinney, who was unhurt, was cited for not keeping assured distance ahead, police said.

Smith Road Cubs Work On Project

Smith Road Cub Scouts, Pack No. 105, are at work on a project set for Christmas, and are making excellent headway, according to leaders.

The youngsters proposed to fill boxes for 25 men as their Christmas project and added assorted small gifts for Alum Crest Home plus singing Christmas carols.

Could It Be? Yes, In the S. S. Leader

That was a question Mrs. Lee May asked. She advertised a three-room furnished house for rent in the Leader. How could there be so many calls? Oysters High, Berries Low On Bill For Holiday Feast

Is your mouth watering for the turkey and trimmings of this year's Christmas feast? Housewives are already busy planning and preparing some savory Christmas dishes to delight and fill hungry families.

After investigating prices of traditional meal requirements, it was found that this year's Christmas dinner will cost almost the same as last year's.

Although menus and budgets vary widely from table to table, a hungry family of five should be able to have a delectable holiday feast for only $12.05.

The meal gets off to a good start with a colorful and appetizing fruit cocktail, at a cost of 40c. The backbone of the meal, a 10-pound roast turkey, is served at a total cost of $4.90 or 49c per pound. This year's holiday bird is just a few cents cheaper than last year's.

Candied sweet potatoes at 30c and fluffy mashed potatoes at 15c, with rich brown giblet gravy are next on the menu. Idahos are slightly cheaper than last year. Oyster dressing, a holiday "special" included in this feast, will cost 80c, with oysters an expensive item on the menu.

Either scalloped corn or succotash may be served as a complementary vegetable at a cost of 48c. Cranberries will again steal the salad scene at 30c, and rate as one of the few items less expensive than last year.

A waldorf or molded garden salad can also be offered as an accompaniment to the meal for 60c. A relish tray, with a colorful mixture of olives, stuffed celery, radish roses, carrot curls and shallots, will total about $1.05.

Piping hot rolls can be had for 50c and a miscellaneous allowance of $1 was allowed for butter, beverage, etc., for a traditional American dessert, the holiday favorites, pumpkin or mincemeat pie can be served at 80c with pumpkin a little less.

A delicious, moist fruit cake, filled with citron, fruits and nuts at $1. per pound, completes the Christmas dinner royal. Not only can you have a delightful holiday feast for $12.05, but you will have wonderful left-overs for several after-Christmas meals. Happy cooking and good eating!

Bulldogs Chase Bugaboo, Win Over West, Eastmoor

By Bob Goldstein
WEST GAME

South's rangy Bulldogs notched their first City League win of the season with a 71-60 decision over the West Cowboys last Friday night on the Ann Street court.

Led by sophomore-sensation Kenny Fowler and reliable George Devlin, the Bulldogs hit at a sizzling clip from the field. Fowler seared the nets for 32 points, the top individual scoring performance of the young City League season. Devlin combined with Don Dicke to give the hosts complete domination of both backboards.

Fowler, a take-charge guy, tallied 12 points in the opening period as the Bulldogs led 23-20. With most all the Bulldog scoring concentrated around Fowler, Devlin and Dicke, the Cowboy defenses smartened up. This, plus Van Capsaddle's outside shooting, cut the margin to 38-37 at halftime.

However, South pulled away in the final two quarters as Fowler harassed the Broncos for 17 last-half points. The fine inside work by the two 6'5" boys, Devlin and Dicke, opened the outside for the jump shots of Fowler.

The win by the Bulldogs evened their season's record at two wins and two losses. It also was their first impressive win against top-flight competition. The hard-working rebounding of Capt. George Devlin and Don Dicke must have greatly pleased Bulldog mentor John Colmery. This factor was obviously missing in South's first three games.

Fowler's amazing performance may have stamped him as the traditional take-charge in Bulldog basketball fortunes. In past years this task was in such capable hands as Benny Wright, Jim Ferrell and Bill Green.

At 8 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) South will clash head-on with the East Tigers, champs of the City League two years in succession. This year's Bengal team is not as potent as some of their recent fives, but one need not be reminded of the jinx on visiting teams at East's gymnasium. The Bengals last tasted defeat there in January of 1953. The Bulldogs, led by Frank "Chico" Howard and Stan Owens, were the culprits that night. However, the Bulldogs have beaten the Tigers only once since that season. The Broad Street boys have copped five straight wins over South in that period.

The rejuvenated cagers of South broke the victory ice for the young season by blasting the Warriors of Eastmoor 65-27 last Tuesday night, Dec. 11, at South.

The visiting Warriors chose a stalling game for the first half in an effort to keep the score from mounting up. The smaller, inexperienced East Siders made it a ball game in the first half, trailing 21-10, at intermission time.

However, in the final two stanzas, the Bulldogs' height and experience took its toll. Led by the outside shooting of Ken Fowler and the inside work of Captain George Devlin, the hosts pulled away to a 38-17 third quarter lead. With Fowler and Devlin finishing with 16 and 19 points respectively, the Bulldog bench took over in the final canto.

Earl Hatfield led the outgunned but not outgamed Warriors with 10 points, but no other man totaled more than six tallies for the Wyant Ave. crew. Even though the Bulldogs won a convincing 65-27 victory, their foul shooting was frigid 34 per cent.

The undefeated South reserve squad won its second straight game by running roughshod over the Eastmoor JV's 62-18.

Christmas is here once more to gladden our hearts with its inspiring message of love and hope. We extend best wishes of the season to you and yours.

Lonely Pets Await Your Adoption At Animal Shelter

The Humane Society of the City of Columbus announces that the animal shelter, 2770 Groveport-pk, will be open Sunday, Dec. 23, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., as a special service to the community. This is planned so that the public may have the opportunity to come to the Animal Shelter and Adopt a pet for their families for Christmas.

Many soft and cuddly kittens, anxiously awaiting adoption into an affectionate family, can be purchased for $2.00 each. $7.15 will buy a dog or puppy. The purchase price includes state tax and license. For grown dogs it includes a rabies shot, and for puppies the first distemper shot.

O.G.'s Notes

Certainly a civilized, and especially a Christianized, people is under some obligation to divest itself of the savage instincts inherent in the beginning period of a race.

Animalistic: How can our young learn respect for the human body as a Divine creation when fistics—brutal, bloody, killing fistics—are employed on the home screen for "entertainment" Take ugliness into a little child's life, and that ugliness will grow with him into his adult life. Good citizenship is difficult to achieve with such a foundation.

So Low?: If public intelligence is as low as the TV brutality pictures offered as entertainment indicate, it's time we started another upward climb toward civilization.

Christians: Please, won't you think of the baby in the ox stall of Bethlehem and hold up the character of the Babe of the Manger as a substitute for the brutal fistics on our TV screens? Shall we raise up generations to glorify in brutality when the Prince of Peace, the victim of brutality, showed us the way to triumphant living?

In Passing

By Esther Weakley

WHISPER

Speak softly, please, for on this Eve
A tiny Babe was born.
Bring your gifts of love to Him,
And gold, He will not scorn.

Speak softly, please, for since He came
The air is sweet with peace;
All heavenly stars are brighter;
The world has seemed to cease.

Speak gently, please, for as you look
Upon that Infant Face,
Your heart beats fast with gladness
While pleading for His grace.

THE WISE MEN

They called us fools, to start away
On such a mad adventure, led
By this alone . . . one brilliant star
Which heralded the Christ. They said
We had been studying too much
Astrology . . . We needed rest
To bring us to ourselves again,
Instead of this mysterious quest.

But we have found the Infant King,
And knelt before Him! All is well!

GOD BLESS THE LITTLE THINGS

God bless the little things this Christmastide,
All the little wild things that live outside;
Little cold robins and rabbits in the snow.
Give them good faring, and a warm place to go;
All little young things for His sake Who died,
Who was a Little Thing at Christmastide.

Christmas vignette: Each year just before Christmas, she would contact several ministers and priests of churches in the less prosperous sections of town and obtained from them the names and addresses of needy families. Christmas Eve, she had baskets delivered to 15 of the families and sent the other names to various charitable organizations. Contents of her baskets never varied; each contained a chicken, potatoes, fruit, canned goods and doughnuts; socks for the father, a blanket for the mother and a toy for each child. The families never knew the name of their benefactor. They also did not know that she saved all year to fill the baskets, depriving herself of even necessities. She lived alone, in one room, on a tiny income. She was a proud little lady so her friends did not know where she lived until her name and address appeared recently in the obituary columns. This Christmas she will not be alone and some of her friends will fill and deliver her 15 baskets. She was the true spirit of Christmas.

Quote—In Denmark it's "Glaedelig Jul;" in France it's "Joyeux Noel;" in Italy it's "Bono Natale;" in Holland its "Hartelijke Kerstgroeten;" in Spain it's "Felices Pascaus;" in Germany it's "Froehliche Weihnachten." In America it is "Merry Christmas!" Unquote. And a Merry Christmas is what I am wishing everybody.

"These swift machines, these bridges, these long roads,
Cannot extend the hallowed realm of love.
The blue of heaven ever will evade
The tallest building, and the hurtling plane
Finds God's horizon always just ahead
I rode a donkey, and its pace was slow;
Astride its back, I learned there is no goal
(Beauty is never quite attainable.)
But though the mind may search, and search in vain,
The soul remains steadfast and resolute:
Fixed and unswerving as that distant star."

Hamilton Township High School Has 4 All-County Grid Players On Its Squad

By George W. Barrowcliff

Hamilton Township has four all-county football players. The complete senior backfield consisted of Chuck Juliano, Keith Johnston, Wayne Sharron and guard Bo Evans. These players were voted in by the schools in the county which considered these players as the cleanest, best all-around and most sportsmanlike football players. These players will be honored at a banquet given in their honor by the Columbus Dispatch some time in the spring of 1957. All 22 players on the all-county squad will be there along with the all-county coaches who are the coaches of the championship teams. The all-county coaches are Nick DeCenzo and Ted Benedum from Hamilton and Mifflin respectively.

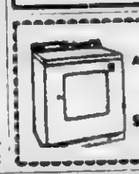
For the year's statistics, Chuck Juliano, No. 70, made seven touchdowns for the Rangers, scoring the first two touchdowns against the Marion-Franklin Red Devils in the 26-0 defeat on Oct. 26. He was the first Ranger ever to score on the gridiron against Marion. Keith Johnston, No. 77, scored five touchdowns and fullback Wayne Sharron, No. 88, scored eight for a total of 56 of his own and six extra points. The star defensive lineman for Hamilton was Russ Evans, No. 82, who played left guard. Out of 20 lettermen for Hamilton, there are 18 seniors. This leaves the Ranger squad with five junior lettermen, who are Les Essig, quarterback; Bob Newberry, end; Bill Brigner, halfback; and fullback Dave Hoon. Next year we hope that there will be more all-county players chosen from the Ranger squad.

Got A Bicycle? Better Buy Your License Before Dec. 31!

Bicycle licenses for 1957 will go on sale Dec. 28, at the city auditor's office, Room 111, City Hall and 23 other locations about the city.

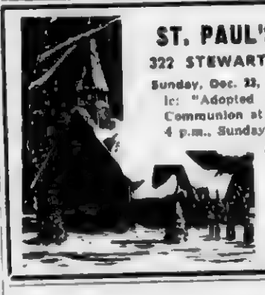
The license will cost 50 cents. A ten cent service charge to agents who sell licenses has been authorized. These authorized agents are not employees of the city nor do they receive compensation from the city, the auditor said. There is no service charge on licenses sold at the City Hall.

All bicycles must be licensed by Dec. 31. The period covered is Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, 1957.



City Auditor John H. Price states that bicycle licenses are excellent theft insurance in recent years 98 per cent of all licensed bicycles stolen in the city have been recovered by police. The stolen bikes can be identified by serial number stamped on the bicycle, which is recorded.

Division Of Wildlife Organizes Big Buck Club



Ohio deer hunters who kill a big buck may be eligible for membership in the newly founded honorary organization, the Buckeye Big Buck Club, established by the Ohio Division of Wildlife. To be eligible for membership, the hunter must have killed, in fair chase, a buck whose antlers score high enough to be recognized officially by the Boone and Crockett Club.

If you kill a buck with a big rack, have the head scored by a local taxidermist who will be glad to assist you. If the head scores more than 140 points for a typical set of antlers or 150 points for a freak or non-typical head, it should be entered officially on a Boone and Crockett Club application form. These forms are available from the secretary, Mrs. Grancel Fitz, 5 Tudor City Place, New York 17, New York.

'57 Baby Derby Offers A Large Variety Of Prizes

from..... G's NOTES

"Silent Night!" Happy is this time of the year. It is so, among other reasons, because Joseph Mohr and Franz Gruber gave to the world a 90-word poem which became the instrument for famed Schumann-Heink's incomparable voice—a voice which carried the beauty of the seed of the beautiful poem to the heavens to have them, enriched by divinity, poured back on to us years later in a galaxy of greatness called Christmas Carols. Is it still good manners to say, Amen. A-M-E-N!

O, Little Town of Bethlehem! As we listen on this Sunday evening before Christmas to the magic music of a group of singers from several churches and a number of singing groups, including the universities here, we are glad, little town of Bethlehem, were where you were on that eventful night when Joseph and Mary had to find lodging in the stall with oxen. Only such an event could have brought forth the glory that is in the songs of the season!

HE IS KIND

We are deeply grateful for a letter from Rev. Levon A. Shaum, pastor, Livingston Methodist Church, who is kind enough to make us glad with the following: "The year 1956 is drawing to a close and I did not want the year to pass without expressing to you my deep appreciation for the cooperation we have received from the Leader concerning our newspaper publicity. We know that your job is not always an easy one and many times it is taken for granted. I know the congregation of Livingston Church feels the same as I, that you have helped us tremendously with our church program this past year." Our comment: We are rejoiced by the words the pastor has written. We are here to serve, but that does not lessen our gratitude when such nice words are spoken, or written, about us. Thank you, Rev. Levon A. Shaum.

We're glad Mario Tesi is good-natured. Mario, who has a service station only a few doors from the Leader office, gave Tom Sharp an advertisement for the Christmas section of the Leader last week. Now, Mario has been selling Sinclair products some time, but you wouldn't know it from that advertisement, since one of the Gremlins which so often frequent printing shops but a competitive name in place of Sinclair—all of which oughtn't to have happened, but it did.

Rev. Dana S. MacDonald To Retire From Ministry

REV. AND MRS. DANA S. MacDONALD

Rev. Dana S. MacDonald and Mrs. MacDonald, of 146 Benfield-av, will make a substantial change in their day-to-day living within a few days.

Pastor of the Benfield Church of Christ, next door to the residence, since October in 1951, much has been accomplished. Some of the accomplishments were shown in these pages three months ago, when the Leader had a story of the dedication of a new wing to the church housing the educational department of Benfield Church of Christ. This was an entirely new structure, and brought about the increase in attendance and the need for educational facilities, a member said in commenting upon what "has been achieved under the pastor's leadership."

Achievements

The achievements included, he said, changes in the sanctuary and in other departments.

"Modern methods and facilities for instruction were instituted," the pastor said, "without lessening the emphasis upon the Holy Word."

The new building and its equipment and use were described in the October Leader story, with the added information that the additions and improvements were largely paid for and any balance would not be a burden. His congregation, Rev. McDonald told the Leader editor, "is a consecrated group."

Began Ministry in 1908

Rev. MacDonald entered the ministry in 1908 at Bell Center, O. He held rural pastorates at North Mansfield, O., and Shenandoah, O. Mrs. McDonald's home was in Clinton County.

One son, John, is in the ministry, pastor of the Christian Church of Crooksville, O.

Immediately before coming to Columbus, Rev. McDonald held a pastorate at Kent, O., where a new edifice was built under his direction.

Rev. and Mrs. MacDonald expect to leave early in January for St. Cloud, Fla., where they will make their home.

Musical At Barrett

Judy Marie was master of ceremonies at a Christmas program as a prelude to the recess of school last week. Audience singing was led by Andrew Denman. Cast of characters for the famous Dickens story were Williard Kirby as Scrooge, Gary Pennington as Cratchit, Charles Gray as Fred, Ruth Walston as solicitor, John Clark as Marley's Ghost Carol Hoderfield as First Spirit, Sharon Ording as Second Spirit, Sue Mauger as Third Spirit, Norman DeVine as Ebenezer, the boy; Mary Ann Yetter as Fan, Terry Thacker as Ebenezer, the young man; John Hoke as Fesswieg, Diane Wisecarver as Belle, Erika Reinka as Mrs. Cratchit, Dan Fee as Peter, Linda Huiss as Jane, Sharon Mitchell as Anne, Sharon Weir as Martha, Bob Ison as Tiny Tim, Nancy Buller as Peg, Tom Jenkins and Dick Ward as businessmen, Dan Paxton as young boy, Barbara Plants as Crier.

Musical Program

Music director Herbert Germain directed the orchestra in "Yuletide Selection." Special selections were presented by each of the several singing groups. "Go Tell It On the Mountain" was presented by the combined glee clubs. "Gloria" was the presentation of the Senior Girls Glee Club." "We Wish You A Merry Christmas" by the cast and the combined Glee Clubs. "Silent Night" by the audience and cast and Glee Clubs. Accompanist was Mrs. Emma Jane Secrest.

Contest Winners Are Announced

Bill and Ed Findley, owners of Foreign Grocery, have announced that their annual Christmas contest has come to a close and the following two people were winners: Mrs. Rose Gyure of 333 Woodrow won the silverware set and Mrs. Wray of 34 Lawn-av has her choice of man's or woman's watch. It was suggested that South Siders watch for more news to come concerning contests and shopping values from the South Side's Market Basket Store.

New Year's Eve Program Monday

Thurman Avenue Methodist Church will have a candlelight watch-night service at 9 o'clock New Year's Eve in the social room, with a movie, "Tammy." Following the movie there will be sociability and light refreshments. At 11:10 p.m. the watch-night service will be celebrated by candlelight.

EUB Choir In Cantata

"Memories of the Manger," by Roy E. Nolte, had the lead spot in a Christmas cantata at Washington-av EUB Church last Sunday evening.

The cantata was presented by the church choir. It was later stated, and consisted of 18 different presentations by choir and by organ.

Following a major list of musical presentations, members of the choir sang the famed Handel "Halleujah Chorus," with Margaret Imhoff at the organ and Harold Imhoff directing.

Choir individuals participating in the presentation of the "Halleujah Chorus" were Mrs. Dorothy Keller, Mrs. Edith Bowman, Miss Ann Pritt, Miss Beverly Ramey, Mrs. Margaret Miller, Mrs. Grace Fleck, Mrs. Margaret Bauhan, Miss Mildred Thieme, Miss Ruby Justice, Mrs. Marcella Helser, Miss Donna Call, Miss Doris Clark, Miss Dorothy Bluhm, Mrs. Naomi Vance, Miss Audrey Helser, Clyde Godden, Walter Miller, Jack Myers, Wilbert Howard, Henry Green, Harold Imhoff, jr.

St. Mary High Yuletide Ball This Evening

Two alluring settings will be the modes for the moods of the annual St. Mary's High School Yuletide Ball, according to an announcement late last week.

The affair is scheduled for this Thursday evening at 8:30. The merriment will last until 11:30 in the evening, according to the publicity chairman, Elaine Murdock and John Tigyer. The settings will be 'Winter Wonderland' plus a life size manger setting.

John Vogel and Pat Maloney are serving in the capacity of decorating committee chairmen.

The ball will be held in St. Mary's new gymnasium, 684 S. Third-st. Couples will pay $1.50 and singles will be admitted at 75 cents each, it was stated.

Religious Film To Be Shown New Year's Eve.

A city-wide New Year's Eve film program will be held in the new auditorium of Starling Junior High School, Central-av at W. Town-st, sponsored by the following groups: Free Drive-In Christian Film Association, the Christion Businessmen Committee, the Greater Columbus Youth For Christ, and Men For Missions. The program is to start at 9:30.

Films to be shown will be "The Five Martyred Men," the story that received world-wide recognition last January, and the full-length feature film "Seconds to Midnight," a prophetic film on the subject of whether the war in the Middle East will end up in the "battle of Armageddon."

James Rea, chairman of the program, asks that groups wanting to be recognized should contact the ushers the night of the showing. Admission is free, it was announced.

Beery Jr. High Wins Opener

The basketball season for our new junior high school was inaugurated with a convincing 40-26 victory over Franklin Heights Dec. 11.

Jasper Reeves who promises to become an outstanding basketball player, had a good night, scoring 20 points to lead the way for his team.

These boys were accompanied by Carl Fisher and Howard Hahn teachers and Coach Clifford Smith.

Schiller Tells Monday's Plans

Next Monday, Dec. 31, the Center will be open from 12 noon to 5:30 p.m. The building will be closed Tuesday, Jan. 1. On Wednesday, Jan. 2, the Center will resume its regular hours of 2 p. m. to 9:45 Monday through Friday and from 9 to 12 noon on Saturday.

'Expecting' Parents Warned To Have Proof Data Ready; After Midnight Phone Service

Seventeen prizes await the first-born, or the first borns' parents, with the contest in effect at the moment when the midnight spot on the dial is reached Dec. 31, and from then on the prizes will be presented in the order of the birth of babies in the South Side area.

An annual affair, merchants and service people have combined to make it profitable for the parents who expect the advent of their new "gifts from heaven" during the latter few days of the present year and the first few days of the new year, to be prepared to notify The South Side Leader immediately following the birth of the new baby born after 12 midnight, Dec. 31.

Seventeen merchants and service groups have joined hands with the Leader to present to parents of the first babies born after the stroke of midnight with useful and desirable gifts.

The presents for parents of "first-born" babies after the dot of midnight, Dec. 31, are to be given by the merchants listed below and not by the South Side Leader. The Leader will not be responsible for proving the time of any birth. The Leader will contact the hospital where the new baby was born and secure the birth date which will control the allotment of gifts. In the event of a home birth, the attending physician's or mid-wife's certificate will be required to entitle the parents to enter the contest.

Be Alert

All who expect to have family additions within two or three days of the stroke of midnight, Dec. 31 should ask hospital authorities or physician or mid-wife to take note of the hour, minute and second of birth. Seconds are important in the Baby Derby.

It is also important that the Leader shall have the information immediately afterward—as soon as the hour, minute, and birth have been definitely established. Therefore, the editor of the Leader will be available at his home for calls after midnight, Dec. 31, and the Leader will record these calls in the order (time order) in which they are received. No calls considered if originating before the dot of midnight, Dec. 31. Telephone calls after midnight Dec. 31 should be made to AX. 1-7240. Be sure to have the hour, minute and second after midnight at which the baby was born. The report will be checked, later, with the hospital in which the birth occurs. If mid-wife or physician attends at home an affidavit will be required from the mid-wife or physician concerning the hour, minute and second. The parents will be responsible for presenting, promptly, the required data for the purpose of proving time of birth.

The following are the prizes offered for the First Baby Contest of 1957:

List of Prizes

Foreign Grocery: Baby's first baby dish and bottles

Schottensteins: Potty chair for the new baby.

Joe Ronson's Barber Shop: Free haircut for any member of the family.

New Year's Week Issue To Be Late

A different publication date, and earlier advertising and news copy deadline times will be observed next week, because of the New Year's holiday.

The South Side Leader will be delivered to subscribers on Thursday, Jan. 3, instead of Wednesday.

Our office will be closed during the long holiday weekend, Saturday noon, Dec. 29 until Wednesday morning, Jan. 2.

Advertising and early news copy intended for next week's issue should be in our office before noon on Saturday. Classified advertising and late news developments will be accepted until 5 p. m. Wednesday, Jan. 2.

4 Cars Tangle, Man, 77, Hurt

Dennie Lindsay, 77, of the Bliss Hotel, 610 S. High-st, suffered an injured finger and cut head when four cars tangled in front of 3165 Olentangy River-rd, Wednesday evening of last week, sheriff's deputies reported.

C. Carlton Hartley, 1370 Wilson-rd, publisher of Hartley Community Newspapers, was elected president of the Printing Arts Association of Columbus Wednesday noon at the meeting of the board of directors at the Athletic Club. He succeeds William Planson.

Other officers named were: Richard Thrall, vice president; Delbert Nida, treasurer and Reid Vance, executive secretary.

Hungarian Women Who Will Prepare Anniversary Banquet

'57 Auto Show To Present Panorama Of 'Future' Cars

The Mills Brothers and the musical Johnny Long and his orchestra will be the featured attractions of the 1957 Columbus Automobile Show, it was announced by the Columbus Auto Dealers' Association. George H. Woodworth, vice president of the Bobb Chevrolet Co., is general chairman of a 13-man show committee.

Numerous other personalities of the entertainment world will, it is understood, appear throughout the show.

These two outstanding musical organizations will be seen daily from Jan. 8 through 13 in the main auditorium of the new Veterans Memorial Building, appearing in stage shows scheduled for 4 and 8:30 p.m.

In the main exhibition hall downstairs, more than 60 different models of new 1957 automobiles will be displayed. The decoration of the entire hall as well as musical program will carry out the southern vacation theme of the show, "Highways to Sunshine." This is the second auto show in Columbus in many years and is sponsored by 44 Central Ohio auto dealers. Woodworth said. The first Columbus auto show was held in 1909.

Other members of the general committee are Robert Keim, Gager-Keim, Inc.; Richard R. Rodenfels, Rodenfels Chevrolet Co.; K. C. Browne, George Byers Sons, Inc.; George Krieger, Packard Columbus, Inc.; A. J. Merrick, Merrick-Miller, Inc.; Edgar G. Planck, West Side Motors, Inc.; Harold Wood, Wood Motors, Inc.; Robert A. Daniels, Daniels' Buick, Inc.; Warren Germain, Bexley Mercury, Inc.; L. E. Fishinger, Beasley-Grove Co.; George W. Byers, George Byers Sons, Inc.; and Willard Ewart, Avery Pontiac.

Brotherhood To Meet

The Brotherhood of the Washington Ave. Evangelical United Brethren Church, of which Rev. Boyd C. Rife is pastor, will meet at the church the evening of Jan. 2 at 7:30 o'clock.

And was your Christmas merry? We hope so, sincerely. Visitors in Ohio's capital we heard about . . . . Mr. and Mrs. Billy Culp are visiting their Columbus relatives during the holiday season and are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Snyder, 175 Deshler-av. Mrs. Culp is the former Esta Snyder, Earl's sister. The Culps and their two children are now residents of Lansing, Mich.

The former "Tony" Sergio, now Mrs. William Wilbur, is visiting the homefolks at 1180 Gilbert-st this week. With her is her husband The Wilburs live in the nation's smallest state, "little Rodey" Island. The visit gives Tony a chance to get acquainted with her youngest nephew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sergio. The little one arrived Dec. 6. His parents are Moler-at residents.

Birthdays that come at the year's end are those of Danny Boyes, Lee Williams, and "Buss" McCoffrey. Since birthdays at this time of the year get "lost in the shuffle" occasionally, a real special "happy birthday" is sent to all three birthdayites.

Mary Merritt, Reinhard-av, and Cheryl Blake, 461 Hanford-st, were two members of the community who weren't feeling too well last week, sorry to say. Hope this edition finds them much improved.

Not all the traffic was "in" to Columbus, naturally, and one family who celebrated the Christmas holiday away from home was the Itskin family. The S. Third-st residents made the short journey to northwestern Ohio last week-end and on Dec. 22 attended the wedding of a nephew in Lima. Their return was scheduled for Dec. 26.

A life of wedded happiness is wished for the newly married Pauline and Robert Hager, now of 95½ Thurman-av. Their wedding was an event of Nov. 22. The Rev. Arthur Detwiler performed the ceremony in St. John's E&R Church.

Another young couple who exchanged their vows in November were Barbara Lloyd, a South High grad who attended Capital and Ohio State Universities and Toribia Villaloboy, of Pecos, Tex. They now reside at 921½ E. Main-st.

A hearty "hello" to Joe Goetz, who is hospitalized in the Dayton Veterans' Hospital and who is home for the holiday season. Joe's home address is 1778 Champion-av, and we're sure it would please him to hear from his friends.

We hate to hear about nice people leaving our fair city, so it is with regret that we report that the Kreschek family will be moving to Middletown, O., the first part of the new year. Their son, Neil, will be a mid-year graduate of South High School.

Another family who had extra reason for having a merrier Christmas is the O'Neill family of Southwood-av. The reason? Their two sons are home for the family festivities. Larkin, books behind him for a few weeks, is home from Harvard, and Hugh is on leave from his ship in California.

Not all Christmas parties are over even though the 25th is past, for the Mothers Club of Southwood Church of Christ is to hold its yule party on Dec. 28, in the home of Phyllis Donavan, 297 Markison-av, at 7:30 p.m.

A Grove City wedding to be held on Dec. 29, will be of interest to South High grads of a few years back. Nancy Sue Burns, the bride-to-be, was a South High student until her transfer to Grove City. Her paternal grandparents are Morrill-av residents. Nancy will exchange her vows in her parents' home, with Richard Comden, currently stationed in Ft. Hood, Tex. The Burns reside at 2303 McComb-rd.

Carol Miller was installed yesterday as the honored queen of Bethel, Job's Daughters. Other elected officers installed were Sondra Meinert, Carol Roshon, Barbara Hoover and Patricia Soulsby.

We promised last week that we would go into fuller details anent the New Year's Eve party to be held at the South Methodist Church this coming Monday, so we'll do that now. This is the first project of the newly formed Intermediate MYF whose counselor is Mrs. Jordan. The party lasts from 8:30 p. m. to 11:30 p. m. and is open to all the youth of the community. It will be supper-club style, and available for consumption will be hot-dogs, hamburgers, potato chips, hot chocolate, coffee and coke. It sounds like a real fine way for the young folks to speed the old year out, for we KNOW that eating is a full-time hobby with the male portion of the adolescents, at least the ones we are acquainted with! Since it's a party, we're sure there will be entertainment and games, so it sounds like a bang-up evening.

And now to report on our "Gifts for Giving" project. We get a warm glow just thinking of the wonderful response you gave to it, and we want to say that literally hundreds of people had a nicer Christmas because of the generous readers of this column. Every patient at the sanitarium received something (those who had no family were given something for themselves). The donations poured in the last few days, so we still had much left after we made the rounds at Ben Franklin. The overflow was divided between Franklin Village and Orient State Hospital. We left all remaining clothing and any articles that could be used by the occupational therapy department in their work with the patients, at the sanitorium. Donors last week were Mary Merritt, Trudeau Guild 30, Martha Circle of North Community Church, Trudeau Guild 4, Trudeau Guild 18, and Betty Hamer. A conservative estimate of the amount given would be 1,000 items, some large, some small, but every item helped in bringing pleasure somewhere in the county. Doesn't it make you feel good to hear that? Mrs. Bier, our beloved "doll" lady got to go with us and saw firsthand how welcome her dollies were, and we were so glad that she did. Others who helped distribute were Margie Hoptry, Lona Itskin and "Dee Dee" Germaine. Betty Hamer was a tremendous help to us, for it was she who brought hundreds of items from the northern part of our city, and gave up an afternoon to journey across town to transport our distributors. We don't mind admitting that last Friday we were on a special little cloud, because the project was the best ever. We're seeing patches of our dining room floor we haven't seen for days! (Answering the phone sometimes became an ebstacle race, for our dining room was really stacked those last few days. It was "shall we go right or left, or take a running broad jump?) But we didn't mind, knowing that phase of it was temporary and knowing that others would have cause to share more of the Christmas spirit because of YOU wonderful readers! So from the bottom of my heart, thank you again. And a happy New Year to all of you. Till next edition, then . . .

'Confederate' Contest Ends; Total Said Large

Nine winers were announced in last week's Misspelled Word Contest, according to an announcement at the end of the week. The chief prize of the week was reported as $25 which was won by Grace Sayre, 520 Hinman-av. She won by finding and correctly arranging the letters in the misspelled words.

Other winners met Santa Claus at the stores participating in the misspelled words contest, and Santa drew out from his pack a total of eight $10 winners. At Schwartz's the winner was Mrs. Roberta Bowers, 1885 S. Fourth-st; at Bobb Chevrolet, Mrs. H. O. Dover, 512 Jackson; at Heil and Schneiderer Hardware, Mrs. Mary Gleich, 750 Hanford-st; at Hoermle's, Joan Schloss, 463 Sycamore-st; at Howard's Sales and Service, S. Clark, 330 Gates; Peers, Mrs. Harold Casto, 1625 S. Third; Rosey's, Leona Baker, 614 Jenkins; Foreign Grocery, Mrs. Roberto Chafins, 128 Bartman.

A total of $230 in "Confederate" money was passed out by merchants participating in the contest, it was stated, and every dollar of it was good as cash in each of the stores participating in the contest.

The contest proved to be a highly popular one, it was stated, with winners and their friends agreeing that the merchant-sponsored program was mighty nice when the pay-off came.

O.G.'s Notes

Happy New Year! A thought born in the desire of the ancients to express what we may well call a dawning regard for their like, we in our "advanced state" of civilization shiver in fear least other in their "advanced stage" spew out the natural hatred of man upon us. However much we want a Happy New Year—indeed, a happy YEAR and a HAPPY FUTURE, we must recognize that we are in a struggle to project the hand of kindness in such a fashion that others may find in our example inspiration to humanize and soften their thinking and their hatreds. The end of our effort may be a sudden loosing of terror from earth and sky—and the end of an era. But it is well that we hold tightly, while there is life, to the spirit of Happy New Year, Friend! Let's add: and let every one be our "friend."

What's in the distance? How we would like to know what any or all of the next 12 months will bring upon us. Is there a stairway up out of the misery of uncertainty and threat of national suffering and death? Can the race quickly pull itself up high enoug to give sober thought to those who plan to be our enemies, thus maybe rescuing the world from a holacost of killing, rape, and destruction? May the Sun of Kindness reach the hearts of those actuated by hatred and bring us peace!

HOW WOULD YOU EXPLAIN IT TO A CHILD?

What do you tell him -- "Daddy isn't coming home any more"? Or, "You're the man of the house now"?

Maybe everyone ought to witness sudden death on the highway . . . and watch the stunned faces of the ones who were left living. Because once you see it, you never forget it.

You begin to realize how suddenly it can happen . . . and how abruptly the same can happen to you, or to your family.

This year alone, nearly 42,000 funerals will result from traffic accidents, according to the present mounting rate.

Yet many of these accidents can be prevented – with your cooperation.

HERE'S HOW:

FIRST—
Drive safely and courteously yourself. Observe speed limits and warning-signs.
Where traffic laws are obeyed, deaths go DOWN!

SECOND—
Insist on strict enforcement of all traffic laws. Traffic regulations work for you, not against you
Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

THIRD—
Work through your church, PTA or civic group for extra policing where needed, better street lights and signals, and a school safety program
Where people work actively for safety, deaths go DOWN!

FOURTH—
Call on your local or state safety council for help in promoting better laws and uniform enforcement
Where everyone understands the law, deaths go DOWN!
In city after city, day after day, it's been proved over and over again

WHERE TRAFFIC LAWS ARE OBEYED — DEATHS GO DOWN!

Welch Av. Boy Saves 2 Lives

A 13-year-old Welch-av boy was credited by firemen with saving the lives of two brothers Wednesday afternoon, after he found them overcome by carbon monoxide in the garage behind his home.

Joe Vandell, son of Mrs. Robert Jenkins, 510 E. Welch-av, found James Gay, 20, and Howard Gay, 17, of 1123 Oak-st, slumped on the floor of the garage where they had been repairing their car.

He ran to the home of a neighbor, Mrs. Robert Leslein of 508 E. Welch-av and she phoned the Fire Department emergency squad.

Firemen administered oxygen to the Gay brothers, then took them to Mercy Hospital, where they were treated and released.

The brothers said they had been using the Jenkins garage to fix their car and had completed the work. James, a sailor on leave, was backing the car out when he saw his brother slumped on the floor.

He stopped the car, went to his brother to assist him, and he, too, collapsed from the lethal fumes.

If you build a big business, you are a sisister influence; if you don't, you're a darned failure.

As the old year bows out, we take pleasure in wishing all our friends a successful New Year.

Our Keyed-Up Bulldogs Blast Tigers' Streaks

By Bob Goldstein

South's hopped-up cagers blossomed into full-fledged league contenders by making kittens out of East's Tigers, 54-49 last Friday night at the Bengal's gymnasium.

The victory, coupled with the JV's defeat of the East yearlings in the reserve game, brought East's basketball fortunes tumbling down. The Bulldogs snapped the hosts two most-cherished streaks in the twin killing. South, back on January 23, 1953, was the last team to defeat the Tigers in their postage stamp gymnasium. Prior to last Friday night, the Eastsiders had a 19-game winning streak at home. Coach Mark Whitaker's East reserve teams had won 21 straight games before. South's Puppies won out in a 38-36 overtime struggle.

Had To Fight

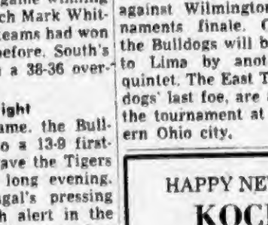
In the varsity game, the Bulldogs jumped out to a 13-9 first-quarter lead, and gave the Tigers an indication of a long evening. However, the Bengal's pressing defense kept South alert in the second quarter as they roared to a short-lived 25-22 lead. The Southerners fought back to regain the lead at 29-27 by intermission time.

Led by George Devlin and Don Dicke, South exercised complete domination of the backboards in the telling second half. This forced the Tigers to the outside, where Junior Mel Nowell, featuring a high-arching one-handed push shot, tallied 24 points for the game's high. The Bulldogs opened up a 41-34 advantage at the third quarter's end. This was accomplished without much aid from the Bulldogs' main gun, Ken Fowler, who was in trouble because of personal fouls.

Jump Shots

At the fourth period's outset, South's sterling sophomore sunk five straight jump shots to completely sink the Bengals. His last basket gave him a final total of 18 points and gave South the evening's biggest margin at 50-38. Fowler hit on eight of 20 attempts from the field to signal a hot shooting night for the keyed-up Bulldogs. South finished with a 35 percent shooting clip, and the hosts finished with 32 percent.

The Bulldogs' newly acquired confidence should now be feared by the other seven City League foes. Coach John Colmery has uncovered some terrific rebounding in Devlin, Dicke, and Hal Ward to go along with the sensational shooting and fine all-around play of Ken Fowler.



To Lima

Tonight the Bulldogs journey to Lima to face Lima High School in the first game of a holiday tournament. The following night the visiting Bulldogs do battle against Wilmington in the tournaments finale. Oddly enough, the Bulldogs will be accompanied to Lima by another Columbus quintet, The East Tigers, the Bulldogs' last foe, are also entered in the tournament at the northwestern Ohio city.
